

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. Journal of Proceedings.

FIRST DAY—MORNING SESSION.

WEDNESDAY, June 5, A. D., 1889, 9 o'clock, A. M.

This being the day appointed for the meeting of the Twenty-fourth Annual Convention of the Diocese of Pittsburgh, a number of Clergymen and Lay Deputies assembled in Christ Church, Oil City, Pa. Bishop Whitehead celebrated the Holy Communion, assisted by the Revs. Wm. White, D. D., Richard S. Smith, Jno. P. Norman, M. D., and J. H. B. Brooks, the rector of the parish.

In a few appropriate remarks, the Bishop referred to the great calamity at Johnstown and the loss occasioned to the church thereby.

The Convention was called to order by the Bishop, as President, at 10.45 A. M.

The roll of the clergy entitled to seats was called and the attendance noted. (See page 8.)

The roll of the parishes was called and the attendance of Lay Deputies noted. (See page 11.)

The Rev. Richard S. Smith nominated the Rev. Wm. White Wilson for Secretary. There being no other nomination, he was elected by acclamation.

Mr. Wilson appointed the Rev. Andrew Fleming Assistant Secretary.

The President invited all clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and of churches in full communion with the same; candidates for Holy Orders; and the vestry of Christ Church, Oil City, to the sittings of the Convention, and asked all such to report themselves to the Secretary that their attendance may be noted. Under this invitation the following persons reported: The Rev.

Sam'l P. Kelly, of Central Pennsylvania, and the Rev. Benjamin S. Lassiter, of Indiana.

The chair appointed the following committees :

On the Claims of Clergymen to Seats in the Convention,

The Rev. Messrs. F. C. Cowper, J. L. Taylor and Geo. B. Van Waters.

On the Claims of Lay Deputies to Seats in the Convention.

Messrs. H. L. Foster, G. C. Burgwin and J. W. Reynolds.

On the Admission of Parishes.

The Rev. Henry Purdon, D D., and Messrs. Robert Bruce and Geo. H. Stansbury.

On the State of the Church,

The Rev. Messrs. Chas. A. Bragdon, Jno. D. Herron and Laurens M'Lure, and Messrs. Herbert De Puy, and Thos. W. Falls.

On Unfinished Business,

The Rev. H. Q. Miller and Messrs. H. L. Mason and William Halpine.

Mr. Henry L. Mason was appointed to act temporarily as Treasurer of the Convention in the absence of Mr. Lynch.

The Rev. Samuel Maxwell moved that a suitable minute be prepared with reference to the death of the Rev. A. P. Diller and that a committee be appointed for that purpose. Carried. The chair appointed as such committee the Revs. George Rogers and Wm. White Wilson.

The report of the Standing Committee was received as follows :

Report of the Standing Committee to the Annual Convention, June 5, 1889 :

The Standing Committee report the following official acts during the past Convention year :

They organized October 1, 1888, by electing the Rev. Thos. Crumpton, D. D., as President, and Rev. R. J. Coster, as Secretary.

On the same day, they gave consent to the consecration of the Rev. Leighton Coleman, D. D., as Bishop of the Diocese of Delaware, and to that of the Rev. Geo. McClelland Fiske, as Bishop of the Diocese of Fond du Lac; they also gave consent to the ordination of John R. Wightman to the Diaconate.

On December 5th, they gave consent to the consecration of the Rev. Charles Chapman Grafton, as Bishop of the Diocese of Fond du Lac, and the Rev. Boyd Vincent, as Bishop of Southern Ohio, and the Rev. J. Mills Kendrick, D. D., as Missionary Bishop of New Mexico and Arizona.

On February 25th, 1889, they gave consent to the consecration of the Rev. Cyrus Frederick Knight, as Bishop of Milwaukee.

On the same day, they consented that the Rector and Vestry of St. Mark's Church, Pittsburgh, mortgage their Guild House and the two lots on which it stands, for the sum of $4,000, to pay the indebtedness incurred in building the said Guild House. They also consented to the ordination of Edward L. Ogilby to the Diaconate, and recommended J. Alexander Vance for admission as a candidate for Holy Orders.

On May 20th, they recommended Samuel Simpson Marquis as a candidate for Holy Orders, and James DeQuincy Donehoo for ordination to the Diaconate, and the Rev. Carroll Lund Bates, and the Rev. Samson Diminick, Deacons, for ordination to the Priesthood.

Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS CRUMPTON,

President.

ROBERT J. COSTER,

Secretary

The report of the Finance Committee was received as follows :

Report of the Finance Committee for the year ending May 31, 1889 :

The Committee respectfully reports :

The organization for the past year has remained as it was, Mr. E. P. Jones, Chairman, and Mr. James W. Brown, Secretary.

Owing to the early day on which the Convention meets, it was found necessary to audit the accounts of the Treasurers of several funds on this date. The several accounts were found to be correct, and are herewith presented to the Convention ; also, the account of Mr. Wadsworth, Treasurer of the Hospital Account, which is presented for the information of the Convention.

The Permanent Episcopal Fund has been increased during the year, under Canon V of the Diocese, $180.49.

Attention is called to the report of the Treasurer, for the changes in the investments during the year.

The Amount of the Christmas Fund has been increased during the year $468.27 from interest and dividends, and $842.72 by contributions from different churches.

In regard to the resolution referred to the Finance Committee relating to the Trust Funds of the Diocese, we would report that the Fidelity Title and Trust Company will receive the moneys of the different Funds and invest the same in conjunction with the Finance Committee, or a sub-committee appointed by them, and will charge only 2½ per cent. on the amount of income received from said Funds.

Your Committee would recommend that the Permanent Episcopal Fund be placed in the Fidelity Title and Trust Company, and the income from the same be paid by them to the Treasurer of the Episcopal Fund. We can only make the suggestion in regard to this Fund, not feeling able to make any recommendation in regard to the other Funds.

The Committee herewith reports to the Convention a statement of the assessments on the various Parishes of the Diocese, for the amount necessary to raise for the ensuing year, being $3,000 for Bishop's salary, and $1,500 for Convention and Diocesan expenses.

Respectfully submitted,

E. P. JONES,

L. H. HARRIS,

H. J. LYNCH,

W. MULLINS,

JAS. W. BROWN,

Finance Committee.

The report of the Committee on Canons was then presented as follows :

The Committee on Canons respectfully recommend the following changes in the Constitution :

I. The final adoption of the amendments to Article III., section 3 of the Constitution, which passed primarily at the Convention of 1887, and which were postponed at the last Convention. (Journal of 1887, pp. 23, 35 ; Journal of 1888, pp. 38, 44.)

Namely, that Section 3, of Article III., of the Constitution,

SEC. 3. The Lay Members shall consist of not more than three Deputies from each Parish in this Diocese in union with the Convention, chosen from the communicants thereof.

be altered so as to read as follows :

SEC. 3. The Lay Members shall consist of one Deputy from each Parish in union with the Convention, chosen from the communicants thereof. And each such Parish shall have the right to send additional Deputies, chosen as aforesaid, in such proportion to the number of its registered communicants as the convention may, from time to time, by Canon prescribe. Provided, however, that the scale of graduation, when fixed by Canon shall not be changed before the third next succeeding annual Convention.

(This was adopted in 1887 by a clergy vote, 31 to 5, and a lay vote by Parishes 15 to 5)

II. That Article XI of the Constitution on the election of a Bishop,

The election of a Bishop for this Diocese shall be made in Convention, in the following manner : The Order of the Clergy shall nominate and appoint, by ballot, some fit and qualified Clergyman for that office, and if this appointment be approved by the Lay Order, he shall be declared duly elected. If two-thirds of either Order be represented at Convention, a majority vote shall determine the choice of such Order ; otherwise, a vote of two-thirds shall be necessary for that purpose. Provided, that in all cases of the election of a Bishop, no Clergyman shall be entitled to a vote unless he shall have been, for at least six months immediately preceding the election, personally and canonically resident in this Diocese.

be amended by making the second clause read :

"After nomination in open Convention, the order of clergy shall appoint by ballot some fit and qualified clergyman," &c., &c.

They also recommend the following : That

CANON II.

OF THE TESTIMONIALS OF LAY DEPUTIES.

The appointment of Lay Deputies to the Convention shall be certified to in writing by a Warden or two Vestrymen of the proper Parish ; and the certificate shall state that each deputy named in said certificate was chosen from the communicants of said Parish ; and also, that the Parish is not debarred from representation in the Convention under the provision of Article III, Sec. 4, of the Constitution of the Diocese. The certificate shall be in duplicate, and one copy forwarded to the Secretary of the Convention, and the other given to the Lay Deputies.

be amended as follows :

In the heading strike out "Of the testimonials of." That Section 1 reads as follows : "The Lay Deputies to the Convention shall consist of not more than one member for each Parish in union with the Convention, with an additional deputy for every fifty duly registered communicants." Section 2. "The appointment of Lay Deputies to the Convention shall be certified," etc., (as in Canon II.)

They also recommend that

CANON III.

OF PAROCHIAL REGISTERS AND REPORTS.

SEC. 1. The Vestry of each Parish shall provide a suitable book, to be called the Church Register, which shall belong to and remain with the Vestry, as part of the Church records. In this Register the Minister, or if there be none, the Senior Warden, shall keep a record of all the baptisms confirmations, marriages and funerals solemnized in the Parish; specifying the name and birth of the child baptized, with names of its parents and sponsors; the names of the persons confirmed; the names of the adults baptized, and of his or her witnesses; the names of the persons married; the name, and where practicable the age, of the person buried; and also the time when each rite was performed.

SEC. 2. The Minister of each Parish shall also keep, in the Church Register, a list of all the members belonging to the Parish, and a list of the communicants of the same. Provided, that the name of no person shall be continued on the list of communicants who has not communed during twelve consecutive months, unless such failure to commune has been for reasons satisfactory to the Minister; and provided, also, that the name of no person shall be stricken from the list of communicants for a failure to commune during a period of less than a year.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of every Clergyman having a seat in the Convention, to attend every meeting thereof, or to send to the Bishop a sufficient excuse for absence, and he shall present at every Annual Convention, to the Bishop, or if there be no Bishop, to the President of the Convention, a report up to the first day of June, of the condition and statistics of his Parish or Parishes during the year, to be forwarded to the Bishop as promptly as may be, in such manner and form as the Convention may, from time to time prescribe. be amended as follows:

In Section 2, by striking out the second proviso and inserting as follows: "Provided also that he shall not enter on said list the name of any person desiring to become a communicant of such Parish, coming from any other Parish of this Diocese, until he shall have given due notice thereof to the Rector of said Parish; and such Minister, or in case of a vacancy, the Wardens, shall also return to each Annual Convention, as of date June 1st of that year, the number of communicants duly registered as above provided, with his or their certificate that it is correct, to the best of his or their knowledge and belief."

That Section 3 of said Canon read as follows: "The certified returns above provided for shall be prima facie the basis of lay representation in the next Convention. They shall be tabulated and published in the Journal; and a copy of the next preceding section of this Canon shall be sent by the Secretary to each Rector or Parish in the Diocese, before Easter Monday of each year, with a statement as to how many Deputies such Parish is entitled to elect, according to the certified return from such Parish."

RESOLVED, That Section 3 of Canon 3 be hereafter numbered Section 4.

The Committee on Canons, to whom was referred the subject of methods of procedure at the election of a Bishop, recommend that the following be adopted as Rules of Order for such an occasion.

RULES OF ORDER AT THE ELECTION OF A BISHOP FOR THIS DIOCESE.

The election of a Bishop for this Diocese shall be made in Convention in the following manner:

1. First of all, the President of the Convention shall, in the hearing of the Convention, read Article XI of the Constitution, and also these Rules of Order that all may prepare themselves for the duty about to be performed. Then he shall read the form of testimonials which are to be signed in behalf of the Bishop-elect, and shall then announce that nominations will next be in order.

2. During the making and discussing of nominations the Convention shall go into Committee of the Whole, and shall sit with closed doors. When the Committee has risen the Chairman shall report its action to the Convention, after which any member may make a personal nomination, but without comment or discussion. When all things are ready, all present shall be called to prayer, the Veni Creator shall be said, and other supplications added by the President of the Convention, followed by silent prayer and the Lord's Prayer.

3. Then the tellers having taken their places, the names of the Clergy shall be called, all other voices being suppressed. The tellers shall count the ballots aloud in open Convention, silence being maintained by the assembly while this is done. The ballots being counted, the tellers shall report, and the President shall declare the result.

4. After a nomination shall thus have been duly made by a constitutional majority vote of the clergy, the vote of the lay order shall be taken in like manner as above provided, in approval or non-approval of such nomination.

5. When an election shall be complete, prayers and praises may be offered. But if there be no nomination by the Clergy, or a vote of non-approval by the laity, new ballots must be made with all solemnity as before, until by God's Holy Spirit a Bishop be duly chosen and declared elected.

6. No word of comment as to any nomination, or in praise or censure of any Clergyman shall be in order except in Committee of the Whole upon call of any three members of the Convention, save only when the balloting is in progress.

7. These Rules of Order shall not be set aside except by a vote of two thirds in both orders.

CANON ON THE ORGANIZATION AND ADMISSION OF PARISHES.

SECTION 1. Every congregation regularly and canonically formed, in this Diocese, for receiving the ministrations of the Church and for the worship of Almighty God, according to her faith and doctrine, and under her discipline and liturgy, shall constitute a Parish.

SEC. 2 Any parish, mission or otherwise, may organize, with the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee, by the adoption of Articles of Association recommended or approved by the Convention, and the election of two wardens, who, with the rector, shall have in charge the spiritual and temporal interests of the parish.

Provided, however, that no such organization shall be had until a specified annual sum, towards the salary of the rector and the expenses of the parish, shall have been guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Bishop and Standing Committee. And provided, also, that such organization shall not prevent a subsequent re-organization of the same parish, with wardens and vestrymen, as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 3 The following form is recommended for Articles of Association in the case of such organization:

"We, the undersigned citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do hereby associate ourselves together as a parish of the Protestant Episcopal Church, in the Diocese of Pittsburgh, for the purpose of receiving and supporting the ministrations of the said Church, and we do hereby declare the following to be the terms and conditions of our said Association:

'1st. The name of the parish shall be_____.

"2d. We acknowledge and accept the faith, doctrine, discipline and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, and do promise obedience to the Constitution, Canons and Laws, of the said church, and to those also of the Diocese of Pittsburg. No person who shall deny or disclaim the doctrine or authority of said church shall become or continue a member of this parish.

"3d. Annually on Monday in Easter week, the adult communicants of the parish shall elect two of their number to serve for the ensuing year as Senior and Junior Wardens, who, with the Rector, shall constitute the Vestry, or board of management, of the parish, and when the parish shall have been admitted into union with the Convention of the Diocese, the said communicants shall also at the same time elect a deputy or deputies, to represent them in the Convention.

"4th. No real estate held by or for the use of this parish shall be alienated or encumbered without the consent of the Board of Trustees of the Diocese.

"5th. We hereby agree that [A.B.] shall be Senior Warden and [C. D.] Junior Warden of this parish until the next annual election."

In testimony whereof, witness our hands this day of A. D. 18 .

SEC. 4. Any parish may organize with the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee, by the adoption of Articles of Association, recommended or approved by the Convention, and the election of not less than five vestrymen, whose powers and duties, when not defined by the Articles of Association, may be prescribed by by-law.

SEC. 5 The following form is hereby recommended for Articles of Association in case of such organization.

We, the undersigned citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do hereby associate ourselves together as a parish of the Protestant Episcopal Church, in the Diocese of Pittsburg, for the purpose of receiving and supporting the ministrations of the said church in the County of [City] of and Commonwealth aforesaid, and we do hereby declare the following to be the terms and conditions of our said Association:

"1st. The name of the parish shall be _____.

"2d. We acknowledge and accept the faith, doctrine, discipline and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, and do promise obedience to the Constitution, Canons and laws of the said church, and to those also of the Diocese of Pittsburg. No person who shall deny or disclaim the doctrine or authority of said church shall become or continue a member of this parish.

"3d. The temporal affairs of this Association shall be managed and directed by the rector, wardens and vestrymen, to be chosen as hereinafter provided, and in case of a vacancy in the rectorship, by the wardens and vestry alone. The rector shall be chairman ex-officio of the vestry, and entitled to one vote.

"4th. The rector shall be elected by the vestry in such manner as the by-laws shall prescribe; Provided, however, that no person shall be eligible to the office of rector or minister, unless he shall have had Episcopal ordination, and be in full standing with the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and recognized as such by the ecclesiastical authority of this Diocese.

"5th. The rector shall have the right to direct and control the uses to which may be put any consecrated church edifice belonging to the parish, and for the due exercise of this right, and for the due and proper celebration of Divine service therein, he shall be responsible to the ecclesiastical authority of the Diocese alone.

"6th. The vestry of this church shall consist of not less than [five] adult male members of the church and of this parish, to continue in office for one year, and until their successors shall be elected. The election of vestrymen shall be made every year on the Monday in Easter week, by the majority of the votes cast at a meeting called for the purpose, by those baptized adult male members of the church [who shall appear by the vestry books to have paid, at least six months before such election, for a pew or sitting in the parish church] or [who shall have been recognized and registered one month before the day of election by the rector and wardens, as usual attendants on the services of the church, and as contributors to the expenses of the parish for the six months preceeding], or [who shall be communicants of this church, duly and canonically registered as such, for six months preceeding the election].

"7th. The vestry shall have full power to choose their own officers, and annually at the first meeting after their election, the rector shall choose one of their number to be Senior Warden, and the vestry shall elect another to be Junior Warden, who shall both be communicants of this church.

"8th. No real estate held by or for the use of this Association, shall be alienated or encumbered without the consent of the Board of Trustees of the Diocese, and in case this Association be dissolved, all of its property, real and personal, shall vest in the said Board of Trustees, in trust to hold the same for, or to convey the same for the use or benefit of, any future congregation of the Protestant Episcopal Church regularly and canonically formed and organized in the same place or in its vicinity.

"9th. We hereby agree that [A. B.] &c., shall be the vestrymen of this parish until the next annual election."

In testimony whereof, witness our hands the day of

Any parish may apply for a charter of incorporation under these articles.

SEC. 6. The convention requires that the vestry be of baptized members of the church, and recommends that when reasonably practicable they be chosen from the communicants of the parish.

SEC. 7. No alteration in the Articles of Association of any parish shall be made unless approved by a majority of votes of the registered communicants of the parish present at a meeting called on due notice, and then submitted to and approved by the Convention.

SEC. 8. No parish shall be admitted into union with the Convention unless it shall have submitted its Articles of Association to the Bishop and Standing Committee two months previous to the meeting of the Convention.

SEC. 9. The Convention may, by a two-thirds vote, dissolve its union with any parish, provided notice of said proposed action shall have been given in the preceding Annual Convention.

PROPOSED CANON ON THE JUDICIAL SYSTEM OF THE DIOCESE.

SECTION 1. On the passage of this Canon there shall be elected three lay communicants of the legal profession to hold office for one, two and three years respectively, as may be determined by lot, and until their respective successors be chosen.

Annually thereafter a like qualified layman shall be elected to succeed him whose term of office shall have then expired.

One of them, to be selected as hereinafter provided, shall act as presiding Judge on the trial of a Presbyter or Deacon, and he, with one or both of the other two, shall constitute a Court of Revision.

There shall also be elected at each annual Convention, five Presbyters and five laymen, who shall constitute the Court Array, from which shall be selected the Court Panel as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 2. Proceedings for the trial of a Presbyter or Deacon shall be begun in one of the following modes only :

1st. By information in writing from a communicant of the Church to the Standing Committee; setting forth with reasonable certainty the charge, and, briefly, the facts relied on to sustain it. Provided, however, that the person making this information shall annex thereto an affidavit that from personal knowledge, or from credible information, he believes the facts to be substantially true as stated, and a pledge that he will make every reasonable effort to prove them, should the accused be put on his trial.

2d. When any Presbyter or Deacon of this Diocese shall have reason to believe that there is in circulation a charge affecting his moral or religious character, he may, with the advice in writing of any two Presbyters of the Diocese, demand, in a communication to the Standing Committee, that they make an inquiry into the truth of such charge.

3d. If the Bishop knows or is informed of any charge against any Clergyman of the Diocese, which, if true, would constitute an offense for which that Clergyman would be justly liable to presentment and trial, he may, in writing, request the Standing Committee to make inquiry into the truth of such charge.

SEC. 3. On receipt of such information, demand or request, the Standing Committee shall proceed without unnecessary delay to investigate the truth of the charge in question. They shall appoint some lay communicant of the Church, in the profession of the law, to be Church Advocate, who shall act during the subsequent investigation, not as prosecuting counsel, but as legal adviser of the Committee on such questions as they shall submit to him. The sittings of the Committee shall be private. They shall hear such proof as may be produced before them to sustain the charge; and shall determine whether upon the facts and law of the case, as presented to them, there are sufficient grounds to put the accused upon his trial. Should their determination be that there are such sufficient grounds, they shall direct the Church Advocate to prepare a Presentment, and to that end shall place in his hands the charge on which they are of opinion a trial should be had, and also the testimony taken to sustain the same. And in all subsequent proceedings the Church Advocate shall be considered as representing, and as counsel, for the Church.

SEC. 4. The Presentment, when signed by the President of the Standing Committee and attested by the Secretary, shall, together with the testimony, be at once submitted to the Bishop, who, within thirty days thereafter, shall either have the same placed in the hands of the Church Advocate, with written instructions that he take the necessary measures to organize the Court and place the accused on his trial, or he may, at his discretion, endorse on the Presentment an order quashing the whole proceeding, giving his reasons in full for such action, and file the same with the Registrar of the Diocese. Or, should the Presentment contain more than one charge, he may, by a like endorsement, quash as to one or more of them, and have the Presentment placed in the Church Advocate's hands with instructions to proceed on any remaining charge or charges.

SEC. 5. The Church Advocate, when duly instructed to proceed as above provided, shall have a copy of the Presentment served on the accused, and shall appoint a time and place for selecting one of the three Judges to preside at the trial, which shall be done either by agreement in writing, or by each party striking off one name of the three. At the same time and place, the accused may file a demurrer to the Presentment or any part thereof, with the reason therefor, and, if such reason involve a question of doctrine or ritual, the Bishop, and if otherwise, the presiding Judge shall dispose thereof. But if no demurrer be filed, or if the same be overruled, the accused should be called on to plead. If the plea be GUILTY, the whole record shall be submitted to the Bishop for further action, but if the plea be NOT GUILTY, proceedings shall then be had for organizing the Court for trial.

SEC. 6. At the time and place appointed for selecting the Court, either party may challenge or cause any member of the Array, and as often as the presiding Judge shall sustain such challenge, he shall proceed to fill the Array by having drawn by lot the name of some member of the last preceding Diocesan Convention who was in attendance thereat, clerical or lay, as the case may require.

Thereupon the accused shall have the right to elect, by writing filed, whether he will be tried by a panel of Presbyters only, of Laymen only, or by a mixed panel of both orders. The panel shall then be selected, each party striking off one name from the list of clerical or lay members of the Array as the case may be, or in case of a mixed panel, by alternate challenges of seven members of the whole Array, the accused having the first and last challenge.

The three members unchallenged shall constitute the Panel, and, with the presiding Judge, shall constitute the Court for the trial of the accused.

SEC. 7. Before the trial shall begin, the members of the Panel shall severally subscribe and file the following statement:

"I [A. B.] do hereby solemnly assert as in the presence of Almighty God, that so far as I am conscious, I have not prejudged the case of the Rev. [C. D.] now about to be tried, and I believe that I can render and shall endeavor to render, God helping me, a just and impartial verdict according to the evidence." And should any member file in writing a statement that he cannot conscientiously subscribe the foregoing formula, his place shall be filled, as in case of a challenge for cause when sustained.

SEC. 8. A verdict may be rendered by a majority of the Panel, and under a charge of crime or immorality shall be either "Guilty" or "Not Guilty" of the charge. And if the verdict be guilty, it shall further set forth the facts in the several specifications under that charge which are found to be true, and also state what sentence they recommend to be pronounced against the accused.

Under any other charge in a Presentment on which a Clergyman is tried, the finding of the Panel shall be in the nature of a special verdict, setting forth the facts specified in the Presentment, which any two of the Panel find to be true in substance. And under a Presentment containing a charge involving the doctrine of the Church, the verdict shall find and set forth as nearly as may be the words and language of the teaching charged to be of a doctrine contrary to that held by this Church.

SEC. 9. After verdict, motions for a new trial or for entry of judgment on the verdict may be made in time and made as provided in the rules of procedure and be heard and determined by the Court of Revision. And it is provided that on motion for a new trial, this Court may revise any exercise of discretion by the presiding Judge in the conduct of the case, and also the fitness and propriety of any rule of procedure under which he acted.

And it is further provided that under motions for entry of judgment all questions involving the doctrine of the Church shall be formulated by the Court and referred to the Bishop, whose judgment thereon shall be binding on the Court.

Should a new trial be granted, the new panel shall be selected by alternate challenges under the supervision of the presiding Judge, from the deputies, clerical or lay or both, who were in attendance at the last preceding Diocesan Convention.

In place of selecting the court panel by alternate challenges, the church advocate and the accused, with the sanction of the presiding Judge, may make such selection by agreement between them, signed and filed of record, and such selection may be made of presbyters or laymen not included in the court array.

SEC. 10. Where judgment shall have been finally entered on the verdict, if it be against the accused, the record shall be laid before the Bishop for sentence, which may be of less but not of greater, magnitude than that recommended by the court panel.

And it is further provided that, in view of the difficulty of obtaining original testimony in Ecclesiastical Courts, from their want of power to enforce the presence of witnesses and the production of papers, the presiding Judge, at his discretion, and when in his judgment a just determination of the facts in issue would be thereby promoted, may modify, enlarge and extend those exceptions now recognized and allowed in the State Courts, to the Rules which require the production of primary or original evidence only.

SEC. 11. The accused Clergyman may appear and defend by Counsel, who must be a communicant of the Church. And should he refuse or neglect to appear and defend in person or by Counsel, after due notice, he may, by the Court, be adjudged in contumacy, and be thereupon suspended and subsequently degraded from the Ministry by the Bishop.

SEC. 12. The Registrar of the Diocese, or in case of his inability to attend, some Clergyman or lay communicant, to be appointed by the presiding Judge, shall act as Clerk of the Court.

SEC. 13. No Clergyman shall be presented or convicted for an offense committed more than three years prior to the presentment.

SEC. 14. The reasonable costs and expenses of an ecclesiastical trial as allowed by the presiding Judge shall be paid by the Diocese, as also those of the accused Clergyman on recommendation of the Court, in case of his acquittal.

After some explanatory remarks by different members of the committee, Mr. Hill Burgwin moved that the order of business be suspended for the present. Carried.

Mr. Burgwin then offered the following amendment to the Constitution of the Diocese:

1. That the last ten words of Section 2 of Article 5 of the Constitution, namely, "and each parish shall be entitled to only one vote," be stricken out.

2. That in Section 4 of Article 5 of the Constitution, the eleven words which immediately follow the word "Orders," namely, "and in such election the Lay Deputies shall vote per capita," be stricken out.

After an extended discussion, a vote was taken by orders on the proposed amendment.

The said amendment was therefore declared carried on the first vote.

The proposed amendment to Canon 2 "On the testimonials of Lay Deputies" was then considered. After some discussion the same was put to vote and adopted.

The amendments to Canon 3, Sections 2 and 3, and the proposed "Rules of Order at the election of a Bishop," were then severally adopted.

A prolonged discussion then ensued upon the Judicial System of the Diocese, participated in by the Revs. J. C. White, D. D., W. R. Mackay, H. B. Ensworth, Mr. Hill Burgwin and others.

Mr. Alfred Marland moved that the words "of the legal profession," in paragraph one Section 1 of the proposed canon on the Judicial System, be stricken out. On motion, this amendment was laid on the table.

The Rev. J. C. White moved, as an amendment, that the words "for his advice thereon," be substituted for the words "whose judgment thereon shall be binding on the court," in the second paragraph of Section 9 of the proposed canon.

The Bishop spoke, expressing his views on this amendment.

The amendment was put to vote and lost.

The Rev. Mr. Mackay moved that the proposed canon be adopted, leaving out the first four lines of the second paragraph of Section 9.

The Rev. Mr. Webbe moved to lay this amendment on the table. Carried.

The Canon as proposed by the committee was then put to vote and carried.

The proposed canon on the organization and admission of parishes was then considered.

The Rev. F. C. Cowper moved that the words "Spiritual and" in Section 2 be stricken out.

Mr. Hill Burgwin moved that all the words in Section 2 from the word "who" be omitted and the following words added, "as hereinafter provided in form A."

A point of order having been raised, the Rev. W. W. Wilson moved that the order of business be suspended until the present discussion closes. Carried.

The Rev. Geo. Rogers moved that both of the amendments be laid on the table. Carried.

The Canon on the organization and admission of parishes was then adopted as proposed by the committee.

The following nominations were made for the elections to-morrow.

The Rev. W. R. Mackay invited the convention to meet next year in St. Peter's Church, Pittsburg.

The invitation was accepted by a vote of the convention.

The Bishop then read his annual address. (See Appendix A.)

The committee on the Admission of Parishes presented the charter of the Church of the Ascension, Shadyside, Pittsburg, back to the convention, and through its chairman the Rev. Dr. Purdon, moved that the parish be admitted into union with the convention. Carried.

The Secretary laid before the convention the "Notification of Proposed Changes in the Book of Common Prayer" received from the Secretary of the General Convention.

Mr. Hill Burgwin moved that the same be placed on file, and that the Secretary notify the Secretary of the General Convention that the notification has been received by this convention. Carried.

The Bishop called the Rev. Samuel Maxwell to the chair and retired from the convention. During his absence, Mr. William Metcalf spoke upon increasing the salary of the Bishop and moved that the same be increased five hundred dollars a year. The motion was seconded by Mr. H. L. Foster and adopted by a unanimous vote.

The Rev. W. R. Mackay presented the following resolution which was adopted.

WHEREAS, The proposal to change the name of the Church is likely to come before the next General Convention for action,

Resolved, That the Diocese of Pittsburgh deems any change in the name of the Church unwise at the present time.

Resolved, That the deputies from this Diocese to the next General Convention be instructed to present to such Convention the foregoing resolution.

The Rev. Mr. Rogers moved that the convention meet as a Board of Diocesan Missions immediately after the missionary meeting this evening. Carried.

Mr. Hill Burgwin gave notice of the following amendments to the canon on the organization and admission of parishes which he will call up to-morrow.

That the Canon on the Organization and Admission of Parishes be amended as follows:

1st. Strike out the last 16 words of the first paragraph of Section 2, and insert in lieu thereof the words, "as hereinafter provided under form A."

2d. Add at the end of Section 2 the words, "under form B."

3d. Insert at the head of the form set forth in Sec. 3 the following, "Form A."

4th. Insert after the first two words in Section 4 the words, "not receiving aid from the Convention."

5th. Add at the end of the first paragraph of Section 5 the following words, "and any parish duly organized under this form may apply to the Civil Courts for a charter of incorporation." Also, insert at the head of the form the following words, "Form B."

6th. Strike out the last line in Section 6.

7th. That Section 8 be stricken out and in lieu thereof be inserted as follows:

Sec. 8. Before the formation or organization of a new parish notice in writing, by those proposing such action, shall be given to the Bishop and Standing Committee and proper publication thereof shall be made in the neighborhood one month in advance, giving time and place of a proposed meeting for the purpose aforesaid. And in case of a proposed organization the notice shall state whether such organization is to be under Form A or Form B, as recommended by the Convention, and no parish shall be admitted into union with the Convention unless it shall have submitted its Articles of Association to the Bishop and Standing Committee two months previous to the meeting of the Convention.

Mr. Jas. W. Brown moved that the report of the Finance Committee be adopted. Carried.

The report of the Treasurer of the Episcopal Fund was received. (See Appendix B.)

The report of the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund was received. (See Appendix B.)

The report of the Treasurer of the Convention was received. (See Appendix B.)

Mr. Wm. Metcalf moved that the Episcopal Fund be placed in the hands of the Fidelity Title and Trust Company. Carried.

Mr. Hill Burgwin moved that the Secretary be instructed to publish in a special list in the Appendix to the Journal all those matters which are pending for action of the convention. Carried. (See Appendix D.)

Mr. Wm. Metcalf moved that the Secretary be instructed to send a copy of the Journal to every member of this convention, and four additional copies to every clergyman of the Diocese. Carried.

On motion, the Rev. John R. Wightman was unanimously elected a trustee of Kenyon College, for this Diocese.

On motion, the convention adjourned.

FIRST DAY—EVENING SESSION.

JUNE 5, 1889.

After a missionary meeting, the convention was called to order, at 8.45 o'clock, as a Board of Diocesan Missions.

The report of the Executive Committee of the Board of Diocesan Missions was then presented to the convention and read by the Rev. Mr. Carstensen, as follows :

Your Committee would respectfully report as follows :

The Missionary work of the Diocese has been full of encouragement during the past year.

Following are the names of those who have been, during any part of the year, Missionaries of the Board :

The Rev. Dr. Norman, at Homestead.
 The Rev. H. Q. Miller, at Beaver Falls.
 The Rev. J. L. Taylor, at Dunbar.
 The Rev. John London, at Mercer and Pardoe.
 The Rev. F. W. White, at Port Allegany.
 The Rev. E. D. Irvine, at Miles Grove.
 The Rev. Laurens M'Lure, at St. Luke's, Pittsburgh.
 The Rev. Andrew Fleming, at North East.
 The Rev. T. J. Danner, at Georgetown.
 The Rev. F. C. Cowper, in Clearfield County.
 The Rev. C. J. Shrimpton, at Brookville.
 The Rev. N. N. Badger, at Mansfield.
 The Rev. J. P. Hawkes, at Union City.
 The Rev. W. T. Schepeler, at Youngsville.
 The Rev. Joseph Barber, in Clarion County.
 The Rev. G. A. M. Dyess, at Bellevue.
 The Rev. C. L. Bates, at Port Allegany.
 The Rev. Wm. Price at Erie.
 The Rev. Wm. B. Thorn, at Miles Grove.
 The Rev. Wm. N. Webbe, at St. John's, Pittsburgh.
 The Rev. W. J. C. Agnew, at Houtzdale.
 The Rev. J. D. Kenredy, at Tarentum.
 The Rev. J. O. Ferris, at Clearfield.
 The Rev. C. A. Bragdon, General Missionary.
 The Rev. S. Dimmick, in Armstrong and Indiana Counties.

Twenty-five in all. Of these, the Rev. Messrs. White, Irvine and Shrimpton have removed to other Dioceses.

The Rev. Messrs. M'Lure, Hawkes, Webbe and Cowper are not now missionaries of the Board.

Our present working force, therefore, numbers eighteen ; including the General Missionary.

There have been some vacancies during the year, of course, and just now Missionaries are needed for Blairsville and Indiana, Brookville and Ridgway, Townville and Union City.

No former year in our recent experience has been so marked by visible tokens of encouragement. At Bellevue, a neat and attractive church has been built and opened for service. The new chapel at Homestead is also in constant use. A lot has been purchased and a building is well on towards completion at Mansfield. The beautiful church at McKeesport was opened in the autumn; one of the visible results of the work of this Board there for many years in the past.

At Tarentum, St. Barnabas' Church has been erected since our last Convention, and good work is being done by the minister in charge, who also has Freeport under his care. The chapel at Leechburg, towards the expense of whose erection a large contribution was made by a lady in Philadelphia, was opened for service on the last Holy Innocents' Day, and services are held there by the General Missionary and a lay reader. St. Mary's Church, Red Bank, has been repaired and painted within and without. The same can be said of St. Paul's, Fairview, and St. Michael's, Wayne Township, and St. Thomas', Smicksburg, at which latter place a neat new chancel has been added. It is intended to put up a small chapel at Lawtonham as soon as practicable. We have received the deed for the lot.

The work is favorably progressing towards the same end at Fairmount and Oak Ridge. The congregation at Houtzdale has acquired possession of additional land for school house and rectory, and the church property at Peale has been made over to the Trustees of the Diocese.

Miss Rose, who for 25 years diligently nurtured the church's work at Townville, has removed from that place; but the influence of her teaching and example bears abundant fruit in the earnest devotion of the people, who still maintain the Sunday School and a lay service, and make contributions to all good works far in excess of what might ordinarily be expected.

A church lot has been offered us at Brockwayville; a new church opened at Union City; the debt on the Church of the Holy Cross, North East, almost canceled; the purchase of a church building at Greenville for the use of St. Clement's congregation (incorporated as long ago as 1866) has at last been consummated.

In Fayette County, the Mission at Scottdale has been revived by the General Missionary. A mission which gives promise of growth has been begun and maintained, chiefly by a lay reader, at Punxsutawney, in Jefferson County. The new church at Port Allegany is a very pretty structure and is regularly used for service. At Youngsville, St. Saviour's Church has been consecrated, as also St. George's Church at Irwin, built and furnished very largely by Philadelphia friends, aided by gifts from Pittsburgh and vicinity.

At Kinzua, a small chapel, called St. Luke's, has been erected on an eligible lot given to us by a business firm of Bradford.

A promising mission has been started at Kane, where we have as many as twenty families, and several services have been held at Corydon, almost at the New York line, in Warren County.

These last three points, with Youngsville and Clarendon, owe their prosperity very conspicuously to the earnest missionary zeal of the Rev. Dr. Ryan, of Warren. Services have also been held at McDonald Station, on the Pan Handle Road, where we could have a successful mission, had we the means to sustain it. Occasional services also have been held by the Rev. Mr. Angell, at Emlenton, a town of 1,500 people near Foxburg, where we have quite a number of communicants.

A mission of peculiar interest has also been developed at Ehrenfeldt, a mining town on the line of the Pennsylvania R. R., beyond Johnstown, where the Reverend Rector of St. Mark's has shown himself ready for all good works.

There is due from us (and cheerfully is it given,) a word of strong commendation of the fidelity, diligence and efficiency which mark the labors of our devoted and esteemed General Missionary, the Rev. Charles A. Bragdon. He has served the vacant missions as they needed his services, and has revived one or two missions which seemed languishing, and everywhere has proved himself the right man in the right place. The report of his multifarious labors is submitted, herewith.

Everywhere opportunities are offering for our efforts, and we need increased appropriations for the work. Shall we not have them?

The Bishop reports 330 presented for confirmation by our missionaries this year, almost one-third of the whole number presented. Thus the labors of our missionaries have been blessed and honored by the Master whom they serve. They have ministered faithfully with the patience and gentleness which should characterize the ambassadors of God. Amid many tribulations they have steadily endured and are winning for themselves multitudes of friends here, and the Master's approving smile hereafter. Promptly they have received their stipends at the beginning of each quarter, for which our thanks are due to our noble Treasurer, who has often to bear much anxiety simply because the clergy and parishes, unmindful of their brethren and the needs of the work, often are irregular or deficient in the payment of their apportionments.

The regular quarterly collections, if duly made, and prefaced by sincere and sympathetic exhortations from the clergy, would relieve the treasury of the Board from much embarrassment.

We ask increased contributions for the coming year. We ought not to be content with spending for our general work only a little more in 1890, than was raised by a much smaller number of communicants more than twenty years ago. ($63.00 in 1867).

The methods by which all our financial needs may be supplied are various, but all of them are feasible, if only the Spirit of God be in us.

The Scriptural method of tithes and offerings can hardly be improved upon. A devout observance of it would fill all our treasuries, and banish forever all appeals, subscriptions, festivals, concerts, and other worldly devices for persuading money, which belongs to God, from pockets withholding it from Him by fraud. God still sets His seal to that method, wherever it is used, and blesses him who tests it.

Another method which would be effective is indicated by the simple calculation that a penny a day from each communicant would bring to the Diocesan treasury over $36,000 a year, not counting the children's offerings, or the gifts of those who are attendants at our services.

Another method is the assessment of each congregation one dollar for each communicant reported, which would give us certainly more than we at present have at our disposal, because others not communicants would supply the deficiencies of the poor.

Your Committee asks most earnestly that some practical business plan may be considered, and by all unitedly adopted, that the work may go on apace.

One other matter requires attention. The Board of Missions in New York, in asking for the children's Lenten offerings, interferes with our custom of using the mite boxes for Diocesan needs. We venture the suggestion, therefore, that we send to the General Board the children's offerings during Advent.

In this way the children will be taught the valuable lesson, not only to show piety at home, but also to take an interest, as they should, in the greater work as well.

In view of the prosperity of our missions, and of these considerations which we have presented, we offer the following resolutions:

First. That we place on record our devout and grateful acknowledgements to Almighty God for the manifest tokens of His favor during the past year.

Second. That we urge upon our clergy and people the necessity and duty of prompt and systematic contributions every quarter to the Treasury of the Board.

Third. That we recommend that in response to the appeals from the General Secretary of the Board of Missions, we request him to ask contributions from the children of this Diocese during Advent, rather than during Lent.

Fourth. That we appropriate for the missions of this Diocese the sum of $6,500 during the coming year, and that the amount needed from each parish be made known by the Executive Committee to cover, in the aggregate, this amount.

Committee.

The Treasurer of Diocesan Missions presented his report. (See Appendix B.)

The Resolutions appended to the report of the committee were then considered and severally adopted.

The Rev. Jno. Graham offered the following resolution which was adopted.

Resolved, That as the Sunday School offerings during Lent are given to Diocesan Missions, the rectors of the parishes be requested to ask the children to give their Advent offerings to General Missions.

Mr. J. W. Paul moved that the Christmas Fund be deposited with the Fidelity Title and Trust Company. Carried.

On motion, adjourned to meet at nine o'clock Thursday morning.

SECOND DAY—MORNING SESSION.

Christ Church, Oil City, Thursday, June 6th, 1889.

After morning Prayer the convention was called to order by Bishop Whitehead at 9.45 o'clock.

The roll of the clergy and lay deputies not answering yesterday was called and the attendance noted.

The minutes of the first days sessions were read and, after some correction, approved.

The report of the preachers on Diocesan Missions appointed under resolution of the last convention was then received as follows:

Report of the Committee for preaching on Diocesan Missions in the Northern Convocation:

Your Committee would respectfully report as follows:

The Committee, early in the autumn, met in Meadville, divided the field among them, sent out circulars and endeavored to get to work. Discouragements came thick and fast. The Rev. G. A. Carstensen, one of the Committee, resigned.

A few Rectors, while not absolutely declining to receive the Committee, found it impossible to make arrangements for the necessary exchange.

In some instances, the Committee found itself unable to meet appointments, especially as the work fell upon only two.

But notwithstanding all drawbacks, 13 visitations were made. Corry, Meadville, Sharon, Warren, Oil City, Titusville, Waterford, Mercer, Union City, Ridgway, were among the places visited, and we leave the record of results to the account of the Treasurer of Diocesan Missions, and to the reports of the Rectors of the various parishes visited.

ROGERS ISRAEL,
A. W. RYAN, Ph. D.,
Committee.

The Rev. W. W. Wilson stated that the preachers appointed for the Southern Convocation, after consultation, thought it best not to proceed in the matter, and therefore nothing was done.

Mr. H. J. Lynch moved that clergy of the Diocese whose parishes have paid their assessments and the missionaries of the diocese be paid their traveling expenses. Carried.

He also moved that the sexton of this parish, be paid ten dollars for his services. Carried.

The Rev. Marison Byllesby called attention to an oversight in last years convention, namely that the following addition to section 3, article 3 of the Constitution, which was past the first time in the Convention of 1887 should have been voted on in the last Convention. He therefore moved it be taken up for final vote.

"The Chancellor of the Diocese shall be ex-officio a member of the Convention with the right to a single vote in the lay order,"

On motion postponed to the next Convention.

The Rev. E. A. Angell moved the adoption of the following resolution.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention are hereby tendered to the Rector, Wardens and Vestry of Christ Church, Oil City, for the use of the Church, to the ladies who have fed the Convention so bountifully, to the organist and choir for their delightful music, and to the congregation and citizens generally for their boundless hospitality.

Unanimously elected.

The election of officers was declared in order. The chair appointed as tellers of the clerical vote the Rev. Messrs. Hawkes and Webbe and of the lay vote, Messrs. Robert Bruce and Sturges T. Dick. The roll was called ballots received and the tellers retired to count the same.

The Rev. George Rogers, after a few preliminary remarks, read the report of the committee appointed to prepare a minute on the death of the Rev. Mr. Diller, as follows:

IN MEMORIAM.

The Rev. Alonzo Potter Diller was born at Lancaster, Pa.; in the year 1854. During his early life he was a boy of singularly pure and noble character. In 1873 he graduated from Franklin and Marshall College at Lancaster, and immediately entered the General Theological Seminary, where he pursued his studies with the diligence characteristic of the man. Owing to infirmity of sight, he did not graduate until 1877, and was then called to be assistant minister at St. Mary's, Brooklyn; after several years of faithful labor, he was elected rector of Marietta, Central Pennsylvania, where he continued until 1885, in which year he entered this diocese, taking temporary charge of the mission at Mercer. In March, of the same year, he became rector of St. Mark's church, Johnstown. He found the parish disorganized, and the church building in a deplorable condition. Energy and intense burning zeal for God and the Church were perhaps the most striking points in his ministerial character. He went at once to work, and out the chaos brought forth and restored a beautiful house of prayer, a parish building of excellent design, and a united and happy parish. In addition to his work at St. Mark's, he also exerted a decided influence in the country round about. He was a man of unblemished integrity, of humble piety, and strong faith in God. To know him was to love him, and to be in his company a single hour was to be impressed with the majesty of simple goodness. When the terrible storm of Friday, the 31st of May, 1889, came, it found him at the post of duty. With thousands of others, he and his devoted wife and only child were swept into eternity As was Elijah of ancient days, so was he called away amid storms and tempest, but Elijah's God was with him, and the whirlwind is still the chariot in which the Father of all souls takes His children from earth to heaven. Honored and beloved, the Rev. Mr. Diller has gone to his reward, but though dead, he yet speaketh. No marble shaft is needed to perpetuate his memory in the hearts of those who knew him. A life of unselfish devotion, of diligent labors, of quiet, childlike faith in God, is his best and noblest monument May light eternal shine upon him.

GEORGE ROGERS,
WM. WHITE WILSON.
• Committee.

The Rev. John Graham moved the adoption of the same. Carried by a unanimous rising vote.

The Rev. E. A. Angell moved that a copy of the minutes be sent to the afflicted parents of Mr. Diller. Carried.

The Rev. Geo. B. Van Waters offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Treasurer pay to the Secretary the sum of one hundred dollars ($100), and to the assistant Secretary the sum of twenty five dollars ($25). Carried.

The Rev. J. D. Herron presented the report of the committee on the State of the Church, as follows:

The Committee on the State of the Church find evidences of growth and increasing strength in almost every part of the Diocese.

The Parochial reports show gains in the number of communicants in forty-eight parishes and mission stations to the amount of 907, and losses in fourteen parishes to the amount of 219. Of these 219 names, 148 were erased under Canon III, § 2. Since under this Canon only actual communicants are reported, the Committee has no means of knowing the number of confirmed persons who are de jure, if not de facto, members of the Church. The spiritual condition of the Diocese would be more clearly indicated if these names could be furnished, and the Committee would urge a thorough revision of the Parochial Report blanks. The total number of communicants reported is 8244. This does not comprise the parishes of Beaver Falls, West Brownsville, Waterford, Sugar Hill and Cross and Crown, Erie, from which were reported last year 300. This would make a total of 8544. There must be added to the losses also the Parish of St. Mark's, Johnstown, as it is not known how many of the 239 last reported are now in the Church at rest. The General Missionary's report is also unavoidably absent and this would, no doubt, add 200 names. It is only fair to the work of past year to state that last year's report of the number of communicants, by a mistake in arithmetic, was about 800 too large.

A great work has been done by the opening of eight new churches; Bellevue, Leechburg, Tarentum, Irwin, Youngsville, Kinzua, Ascension, Pittsburg, and Union City.

In the foundation of Ascension Parish, Pittsburg, the Church in that city has made a distinct advance. It is a Parish which will act as a stimulant to the whole city.

New Parish Houses have been built and opened by the Parishes of St. Mark's, Pittsburg, and Emmanuel, Allegheny.

The committee has been hindered in their work by the negligence, tardiness and carelessness of some of the Clergy in the preparation of their reports. These reports ought to be in the hands of the committee immediately after their appointment.

The committee have unofficial knowledge of the organization of working guilds such as the King's Daughters, and the Brotherhood of St. Andrew. It would be an advantage to have official reports of these societies.

LAWRENS M'LURE;

J. D. HERRON,

HERBERT DE PUY,

THOMAS W. FALLS,

Committee.

The Rev. W. W. Wilson moved that the committee on the State of the Church be instructed to seek for the reports needed to complete their report, and that they give a final report to the Secretary within one week after the adjournment of this Convention. Carried.

Mr. Hill Burgwin spoke upon the carelessness of the clergy and others in furnishing reports and moved that the present parochial blank form be referred to the committee on the State of the Church for revision and improvement. Carried.

Mr. Hill Burgwin moved that the amendments to the canons, of which he gave notice yesterday, be referred to the committee on canons and printed in the appendix to the Journal. Carried.

The Bishop read the following telegram :

Battle Creek, Michigan, June 6th, 1889.

BISHOP WHITEHEAD,

Western Michigan sends sympathy to Pittsburg in the loss of the rector and parish at Johnstown.

J. M. RIPPEY, Secretary.

The Rev. Dr. Purdon moved that the Secretary of the Diocese be authorized to send a suitable response. Carried.

The following was therefore sent :

Oil City, Pa., June 6th, 1889.

BISHOP GILLESPIE Battle Creek, Michigan.

The Convention of the Diocese, of Pittsburg returns grateful acknowledgement of your kind message of sympathy.

W. W. WILSON, Secretary.

Mr. Jas. W. Brown moved that the assessments due from St. Peter's Church, Butler, be remitted. Carried.

Mr. Jas. W. Brown moved that the vote on the amendments to the canons proposed by Mr. Burgwin by which they were referred to the committee on canons be reconsidered. Carried.

Mr. Brown then moved that the proposed amendments be laid on the table. Carried.

Mr. H. L. Foster moved that an appropriation of fifty dollars ($50) be made for expenses, of each clerical deputy to the General Convention. Carried.

The Rev. Wm. R. Mackay offered the following resolutions :

WHEREAS, The present method of representation in the house of deputies of the General Convention is not proportional to the number of parishes, clergy, or communicants of the several Dioceses; and whereas such method is not in harmony with the true idea of a representative body,

Resolved, That the basis of representation in the house of deputies in the General Convention should be so far modified that the several Dioceses shall be represented in some more just and equitable method than the present.

Resolved, That the deputies of the Diocese of Pittsburgh to the next General Convention be instructed to present the above preamble and resolution to the General Convention.

Carried on a division, ayes, 41 ; nays, 17.

On motion of the Rev. E. A. Angell it was Resolved, That 750 copies of the Journal be published and distributed by the Secretary, according to the resolution passed yesterday.

On motion of the same it was Resolved, That this Convention respectfully and lovingly extends to the Rev. Thomas Crumpton, D. D., fraternal greeting and earnest wishes for his continued health and usefulness, and that the Secretary be instructed to convey to him an expression of the same

The Bishop nominated the following persons to compose the Executive Committee of the Board of Diocesan Missions and the same were ratified by a vote of the convention :

Rev. Wm. White, D. D.
Rev. R. S. Smith,
Rev. Henry Purdon, D. D.
Rev. Geo. Hodges,
Rev. Sam'l Maxwell,
Rev. Wm. White Wilson,
Rev. Robt. Meech,

Mr. Wm. Metcalf,
Mr. Jacob W. Paul,
Mr. Henry G. Hale,
Mr. Wm. A. Iles,
Mr. John W. Reynolds,
Mr. Thos. C. Jenkins.

The Bishop appointed the following Examining Chaplains :

For the Northern Convocation,

Rev. Henry Purdon, D. D., Rev. Albert W. Ryan, Ph. D.,
Rev. Jas. H. B. Brooks,

For the Southern Convocation,

Rev. Geo. Rogers, Rev. T. J. Danner, Rev. F. C. Cowper.

The chair declared the Revs. Henry Purdon, D. D., Samuel Maxwell, Marison Byllesby and Jas. H. B. Brooks elected clerical deputies to the General Convention, and that there is no election of Judges of the Ecclesiastical court.

Mr. Hill Burgwin moved that the Secretary cast the vote of the convention for Marcus A. Woodward and Pearson Church for Judges of the Ecclesiastical Court. Carried by a unanimous vote.

The Secretary cast the vote accordingly and the chair declared Marcus A. Woodward and Pearson Church duly elected Judges of the Ecclesiastical court.

The chair appointed the Rev. Messrs. Mesny and Dyess tellers of the clerical vote and Messrs. Cornelius and Chamberlin tellers of the lay vote, for Provisional Deputies to the General Convention.

The following nominations were made for Provisional Deputies :

CLERICAL.		LAYMAN.
Rev. Geo. Hodges,		Mr. John W. Reynolds,

The President declared the following persons elected Provisional Deputies :

Rev. George Hodges,
" Richard S. Smith,
" Rob't J. Coster,
" Rogers Israel,

Mr. John W. Reynolds,
" Pearson Church,
" Jacob W. Paul,

Mr. Hill Burgwin moved that the Secretary cast the vote of the Convention for Mr. Abner P. Tanner for Provisional Lay Deputy to the General Convention. Unanimously carried. The Secretary cast the vote accordingly and the chair declared Mr. Abner P. Tanner elected Provisional Lay Deputy.

On motion, it was

Resolved, That after the reading of the minutes and devotional exercises, the Convention adjourn.

The minutes were then read and approved, and after prayer by the President the Convention adjourned sine die.

CORTLANDT WHITEHEAD,

Bishop of Pittsburgh and President of the Convention.

APPENDIX A.

The Bishop's Address.

Dear Brethren of the Clergy and of the Laity :

In this beautiful church and amongst this hospitable people, it gives me great pleasure to greet you at the close of my eighth annual visitation of the Diocese. Our meeting here will, I am sure, be long remembered by us all if the kind purposes of those who have bidden us to come shall be fulfilled ; and I am also quite sure that if the spirit of God be with us, and if we give ourselves to the grand work for which our convention is especially designed, we shall help and strengthen the cause of Christ, our Master, in this whole community.

Another year of great prosperity calls for renewed acknowledgements of God's mercy, and renewed consecration to His holy service. A record unbroken as yet by discord, filled full of tokens of progress, increased numbers both of clergy and communicants—a larger number than ever before of candidates for Confirmation—new churches and chapels and missions, increased interest and activity in all our borders—these things, if they mean anything, mean this, that He whom we serve, and who inspires all our labors, has been and is with us, and we need fear no evil if we loyally and humbly continue on in the path which His providence has marked out.

We have lost by transfer to other Dioceses several of the clergy whom we would fain have kept. Notably our beloved Brother, who from his post of honor and preeminent influence as the efficient rector of one of our most prominent parishes, has been exalted to the leadership of a Diocese very similar to this in extent of territory, in number of clergy and communicants, and in natural resources.

We cannot let him go without a sigh of sincere sorrow at our loss, while all through the years to come our prayers and benedictions will follow him for what he is in himself, for what he has been to us in this Diocese, and for what he will be to the people over whom the Holy Ghost hath made him overseer. His record is phenomenal in this, that his whole life, personal and ministerial, has been spent within this Diocese. He and his have always been associated with the Church in Western Pennsylvania, and the memory of his honored father, his mother's family, his martyr brother and himself is indissolubly woven into the history of the Church in Erie, Waterford and Pittsburgh.

In June, 1869, the name of Boyd Vincent first appeared on the list of candidates for orders. In June, 1871, he was admitted to the Diaconate, and became assistant at S. Paul's, Erie, and minister of the church of the Cross and Crown, to the rectorship of which he was called upon his ordination to the priesthood in 1872. Thence, in 1874, he came to Calvary church, Pittsburgh, where with consummate prudence and rare fidelity he ministered, winning the love and confidence of all, both of the clergy and the laity, for well nigh fifteen years, until the call from Southern Ohio bade him take upon him the greater responsibilities of a Bishop in the Church of God.

May our Father richly endow him for his arduous labors, and make his friends and helpers an hundred fold more plenteous than they have ever been, until in the great ingathering he appears, rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.

Of those whose names appear on our list of Lay Deputies last year, one has been called away from earth, truly from labor to refreshment, Mr. D. W. Clark, of Tidioute, whose unblemished life, and devotion to the Church for many years, entitle him to our affectionate remembrance as a man who, loved his religion, pre-eminently, and adorned the doctrine of God our Saviour, in all things. The little handful of Church people at Tidioute feel deeply their loss, and anxiously await the willing heart¹⁴ and hand which shall take up and carry on his work.

THE CALAMITY AT JOHNSTOWN.

But alas! alas! we assemble with hearts grief-stricken at the terrible tidings from Johnstown—tidings which mean for us, as a Convention, that one of our self-supporting parishes, well organized and equipped, with its noble, self-denying rector and over two hundred communicants, has been in one dreadful moment completely blotted out. We had there a handsome brick church accommodating two hundred and fifty people. It was last year, thoroughly renovated and adorned, and by the generosity of a lady in Philadelphia, a spacious and convenient Sunday school building had been lately erected. Since last Convention, a lot contiguous to the church property had been purchased and the people were preparing to build a rectory.

Just across the street, in a tiny house, which was as attractive as it was small, nestled the rector and his little family—happy in their mutual love and in their devotion to the Master's cause. No one could be more faithful than he—no one more absolutely wrapped up in his work. His people loved and trusted him and willingly followed his leading in all Church enterprises. He was particularly beloved and honored among the lowly, and the success of his ministry among them was most remarkable. I had requested him to address us at our missionary meeting to-night, that he might tell us the story of his mission work at Ehrenfeldt, where among the coal miners he had made himself the personal friend of all, and had presented about thirty for Confirmation. Wherever he ministered, the devotion of the people was the same, and he has many loving friends at Mercer, Pardoe and Greenville, where he served for a few weeks before accepting the rectorship at Johnstown.

Born and nurtured in the Church, he was by his devoted parents consecrated to the ministry from his birth, and received the name of Alonzo Potter, in the hope that perchance some measure of the great bishop's spirit might be his. This hope was indeed realized in the singular simplicity and thorough goodness of his character, and in his pre-eminent usefulness as a leader of souls to Christ.

No words can express the sense of loss which we feel at the thought of this terrible calamity—a loss which to me personally is very great; for in addition to the ordinary ties which bind a Bishop to his clergy, I was a sharer in those great events of his life, his marriage and the baptism of his idolized boy, and the confirmation of another inmate of his house, very dear to his wife and himself. Many times also have I enjoyed his hospitality; and thus I knew him much more intimately than it is my privilege to know many of the clergy.

I shall never cease to mourn for him and for his household, all so admirable and so amiable; but their example and influence, I trust, will ever be a blessing and an encouragement in the years to come.

It is a sad coincidence that Mr. Diller's honored uncle, the Rev. Dr. Diller, of Long Island, perished by mingled fire and water, a few years ago, in the disaster which befell the ill-fated Sewanhaka. Both these servants of God thus violently were snatched away. But in the peaceful country whereto they have attained, no doubt the manner of their passing thither seems of small moment. Enough for them that they were found watching, and were "gathered unto their fathers, having the testimony of a good conscience, in the communion of the Catholic Church, in the confidence of a certain faith, in the comfort of a reasonable, religious and holy hope; in favor with God and in charity with the world."

These are the things which cannot be shaken; these are the things which in the mad rush of all things temporal, and the final crash of worlds, shall calmly and eternally endure.

Our prayers may not follow all these our brethren except to thank God for their good example and to say "God bless them wheresoe'er in his great universe they are to-day"—but many and earnest must be our supplications that the memories of these and all others His servants departed in the faith may help us all to follow them as they followed Christ; while we remember in tenderest intercessions the multitudes of hearts made forever sad by this horrible tragedy. May the still, small voice of God's comfort follow hard upon the whirlwind and the storm, and speak peace and consolation to all those who mourn.

The question will force itself upon us, how we can reconcile such direful disaster with the truth, eternal as God Himself, that "God is good and that His mercy endureth forever."

It seems to me that we make a grievous mistake if we preach that hereby God wishes us to learn the lesson of His sovereignty and man's infinitesimal worthlessness.

We cannot so read His character in the face of Jesus Christ. Neither may we seek a cause in the wickedness of the community upon which the ruin fell. Think you that these were sinners above all those who dwell in Western Pennsylvania? "I tell you nay; but unless ye repent ye shall all likewise perish."

Rather when we speak of these appalling instances of the destructive power of nature, as disasters and misfortunes, we are simply disclosing our finitude of mind, our distortion of judgment, our defective, partial and utterly unreasonable view of things in the great universe, and of their ultimate purpose. We look upon them from the wrong side, we measure them by false standards, gauging everything by our little and entirely inadequate plummet. But to enter into peace, to maintain our trust, to restore vitality and courage to our bewildered faith, we must reverse our thought, and persistently hold and preach that God's mercy and loving kindness can never be judged by finite minds—that the horrors and tears and woe of the past week are not what they seem to human sight, that they are not the solemn sport of a God akin to Moloch; but all of them as viewed from Heaven's gates with undisturbed vision, are but as a fleck of dust in the bright beam of light, serving to make that beam of light more visible, and themselves made radiant by the great purpose, not to emphasize God's absolute and immovable sovereignty, but His loving purpose to work out final good and blessing for all His children.

A moment's terror, a cry of human agony, a struggle for life, even long years of sorrow and desolation—what are these in the endless onstretching of the eternal years? Already they are forgotten as but of an instant by these thousands whom God the other day rescued from a world of sin and sorrow to enjoy with Him and one another a higher and better life.

Who can tell what blessings incomparably better than life and health and earthly prosperity may not be wrapped up in that which seems to us calamity most dire? Blessings eternal and infinite for those who we say suffered, and for us and all who were bereaved?

Let us try to look at these things from God's loving standpoint, and not from ours, so prejudiced and wrong. God is good and His mercy endureth forever. All things work together for the good of His children. His way is in the sea and His path in the great waters and His footsteps are not known. But His thoughts toward us are always thoughts of good and not of evil.

Never shall we see Him aright except in the face of Jesus Christ.

We must not forget to look beyond our own boundaries, to commemorate the noble Bishops, Harris of Michigan, and Welles of Milwaukee, who since our last meeting have been summoned to their reward. So different in qualities of character, and yet both so true to Christ and duty, one so strong and brave, the other equally brave but gentle and patient, together, like another Paul and Barnabas, finishing their work to make report of it, and receive the Master's commendation.

No more striking examples could there be of the blessed comprehensiveness of the Church and of the various and diverse characters and lives by which and through which the one Spirit manifests Himself and carries on His glorious work in the building up of the kingdom of truth and righteousness.

THE LAMBETH CONFERENCE.

Immediately at the close of the last Convention, I received the welcome information that the clergy and laity had generously contributed toward the expenses of the Bishop's attendance at the Lambeth Conference.

I caused to be inserted in my annual address, the heartfelt acknowledgements which were due for this great kindness, but I must now record my grateful remembrance of it, and express the pleasure which I enjoyed in all the experience which thus by your generosity was made possible. From June 15th, when I sailed from New York, until September 15th, when I returned, every moment was a pleasure with which you, my brethren, were most lovingly associated.

The public ceremonies of the conference, and its utterances addressed to all the faithful, have been made familiar to you by the newspapers, both secular and religious. Of my personal and official share in them, I have spoken at length on various occasions, and have written in our Diocesan paper. It remains for me but to commend to your careful attention the weighty matters which received the consideration of that notable assembly, and to urge the clergy to make them the subject of discourses and of instruction to the people committed to their charge.

Two or three points in the Encyclical letter which embodied the results of the Conference should not be overlooked. The first is the earnestness with which the Conference dealt with purely moral subjects. It has long been a reproach, made against the Church by those whose business it is, on good grounds or bad, to find fault with her, that she has failed in her duty in not passing formal censures and condemnation on the different forms of prevalent moral evil. She has reserved her judgments, it is said, for matters of belief and teaching, for heretical opinions and disputes of theological controversy, and quarrels about forms and ritual, and left unnoticed and undenounced those mighty forces of sin and wrong which in real life assail and almost conquer society. Certainly, if there is anything against which the Church is bound to bear witness, public and private, and by every effort, public and private, to put forth all her strength, it is against bad morality. It would be a grave indictment against her if, busy with other things, she were silent about this. We gladly recognize the courage and faithfulness which have put among the foremost of the matters considered at the Conference subjects of this kind. No one can say that the English Episcopate, in this its first great gathering, has spoken coldly or faintly on intemperance, or purity, or the sanctity of marriage, as affected by the growing disposition to break down the Christian law of marriage, or concerning the Lord's Day and the social dangers of the hour.

Then as to Reunion with our separated Brethren, the position of the Conference was clearly defined, and noble words were uttered and made public which will, no doubt, exert a mighty influence in bringing on the day so sure to dawn when Christ's disciples shall be of one heart and of one soul, in answer to His own prevailing intercession.

One great factor in the preparation for the surely coming unity, is this Conference and others like it among ourselves and our Presbyterian and Methodist brethren. God speed the day when there shall be one fold and one Shepherd, the result and crowning glory of His coming "whose right it is to reign."

THE GENERAL CONVENTION.

Our meeting is especially important at this time because of the approaching General Convention. Prayer Book revision and the new Hymnal, as well as Parochial Missions and the great missionary work of the Church demand the consideration of intelligent, broad-minded and broad-hearted men.

Moreover in such matters as the change of name (should that be proposed) and the proportionate representation which is advocated by some, we should be represented in the General Convention by men in whom this Diocese has confidence, who have opinions well grounded and who also have the courage to maintain them. I doubt not that such men will be sent.

It is known to you, I suppose, that the Conventions of Massachusetts, Long Island and Pennsylvania have already taken some action concerning the alleged inequality of representation in the highest council of the Church. Whether this Diocese shall participate in the agitation of the matter this Convention must decide.

"The present mode of representation was adopted in the earlier history of the Church in this country, when the number of dioceses was small, when discrepancies in Church population were not marked, when mutual jealousies had to be avoided by placing all on an equal footing. But the conditions of Church life have materially changed, and while in civil matters systematic re-arrangement has been found necessary to make representation equitable, in the Church there has been no change, and the result has come to pass, that the more vigorous the Church life, the more rapid the growth, the more liberal the resident Churchmen, the less influential is the individual Churchman in the legislative councils of the Church. It matters not what questions may be up for decision, nor how essential we may regard them to Catholic development, nor how necessary to their adoption the present mode of representation may be, the statement of the matter appeals to every fair-minded man, to contend for new conditions that will make any decision reached actually the decision of the whole Church, rather than of an unfairly gained legislative majority. True ideas will win their way, provided nought but fair means be used for their success. But a victory for a truth won unfairly, means discord, contention, and a reaction, which delays the permanent triumph by the very means that seem to hasten its temporary establishment."*

Concerning the revision of the Prayer Book, every clergyman and layman ought to have an intelligent opinion. Whether any further revision is necessary, or whether while the matter is open it is better to proceed to a consistent and more complete result, is a question about which the wisest and best of men may charitably differ.

But this I am bound to say authoritatively with regard to the revision already made, that we have therein the settled mind and decision of the Church, and the rubrics as amended by the last General Convention are binding upon the clergy and congregation in every diocese.

There has been for many years a great clamor for shorter services. This has been heard and heeded by the General Convention, and a shortened form for Evening Prayer has been permitted. In it, to the great loss of liturgical proportion, and also, I think, of spiritual profit, confession, absolution and intercession have (as it were) been bracketed. But the Psalter and the Two Lessons have been retained for every reason traditional, liturgical and practical. It is distinctly unlawful, even more so than before, to further emasculate the office of Evening Prayer by leaving out these. We have asked for relief and the Church has granted our request. As dutiful children we should accept what is given and in the way which is permitted. Our people have rights, too, which must be respected, and it is one of our chief glories that in the two Lessons we exalt the Word of God as the great essential in our worship.

If propositions now before the General Convention are carried, we shall soon have some measure of relief in the long morning service also. But there is little reason for any relaxation of rubrical directions, if such relaxation be already in the power of individual clergymen, not for emergencies, but as a general and constant practice.

CONCERNING BAPTISM.

With many who come to Confirmation there is found to be much doubt about their Baptism, as to its method and its form. It is manifest that in the various Christian bodies, great carelessness prevails upon these points; and the clergy should be diligent in their inquiries as to the Baptism of those who present themselves for the laying on of hands, inasmuch as the administration of the apostolic ordinance is conditioned upon the ratifying of the promises and vows expressed or implied at the initial sacrament. All the more because of the carelessness of others, we should be careful ourselves to administer Baptism as this Church directs; and not without a reason do I draw attention to the fact that our communion recognizes but two methods of baptism, immersion and pouring. It is not lawful to devise a third method, which is neither immersion nor pouring, nor yet again sprinkling, but a sort of mopping of the brow with the hand, which has been thrust into the consecrated water. A thorough dipping, a good, honest pouring. These are the only legitimate methods in this Church. The latter method, no doubt, with reference to the promise, certainly not symbolized by any other mode: "Upon my servants and upon my handmaids, will I pour out my spirit." I affectionately commend this subject to my brethren of the clergy.

CHURCH SCHOOLS.

The new church school for girls, of which I spoke last year, was opened in Brookville in the autumn, and has achieved as fair a measure of success as could reasonably be expected in a new enterprise and in a place so far removed from our largest centers.

During the year there has been an attendance of about fifteen boarding pupils and an equal number of day pupils, and there is now every promise of increase at the opening of the next session. The school building is to be used during July and August as a summer resort, for which in itself and in its surroundings it is admirably adapted.

I recommend the institution to the attention of parents desirous of a healthful, well regulated and inexpensive school for their daughters. A certificate of proficiency from Longview admits to Wellesley College without conditions.

The Bishop Bowman Institute continues on its quiet way, doing good to its pupils and to the community in which it is situated. The Churchmen of this Diocese do not yet begin to understand the debt of gratitude we owe to the Rev. Rector and his accomplished wife for their long years of faithful and self-denying service. The school stands facile princeps among the educational institutions of its grade in our See city, and from members of other Christian bodies, even more than from our own, one constantly hears words of commendation of the Bishop Bowman Institute.

I wish there were ground for hope that the Institute might soon be endowed for the wider work, to which its excellent record justly entitles it. I commend it most cordially to your interest, your benefactions, your patronage and your prayers.

THE LAYMEN'S MISSIONARY LEAGUE.

A number of the laymen of Pittsburgh actively engaged in Church work and desirous of Church extension, have formed a league for missionary purposes and have, within the past few months, endeavored to establish new missions in some of the outlying districts of the South Side. In the immense population of the two cities we are almost the least in strength and efficiency of all the Christian workers. But to do nothing because we cannot accomplish wonders, would be treachery to our high calling and principle; and the little band are busy as lay readers, teachers, visitors and helpers, and ask for the sympathy and prayers of all who want to answer the oft repeated question, how shall we reach and interest and save the masses who do not attend public worship and for whose souls no one seems to care.

The field is white unto the harvest. It is hard to see how one can pray each Sunday that the Lord of the harvest would increase the number of laborers, and yet withhold effective aid to make the Laymen's Missionary League something more than a name.

Indeed the organization of such bands of helpers is itself an answer to our petitions. On every side the Lord is raising up the laymen, willing and even eager to lend a hand. Surely no one should need the exhortation to accept their assistance with gratitude and encourage their hearts by every means in his power.

PROGRESS OF THE DIOCESE.

Taking now a wider range, I am impressed more and more each year with the very great encouragement given us in this Diocese. My visitations have been particularly pleasant all through the year. I have visited almost all of the places where we now have services, 94 in all. To 22 have I made two or more visitations, making a total of 118.

I have preached 135 times, and made 165 addresses, officiating at 234 services, and confirming in public 95 times, and 10 times in private, 941 persons. Besides these, Bishop Vincent confirmed 84 persons in Calvary church, Pittsburgh, making a total of 1,025 for this year. I have also confirmed in the Diocese of Ohio, 39. I have officiated at the baptism of three adults and twelve infants, at six marriages and four burials, and at 59 public and 12 private communions.

I have received from other Dioceses nine clergymen, and have given letters dimissary to six. I have admitted four to Deacon's orders, and advanced to the Priesthood two Deacons in this Diocese and two in Ohio.

I have consecrated three churches; and nine others have been opened with appropriate services.

Two names have been added to our list of those seeking the ministry, of whom we now have eleven candidates for Priest's orders, one for Deacon's orders and six Postulants.

The number of lay readers now under commission is 36.

The aggregate of 1,025 confirmations for this Diocese is unprecedented, being almost 175 more than last year, and indicates that our communicant list is fast approaching 10,000, and that means, or ought to mean, greater efforts, larger contributions, nobler work. This Diocese is no longer in its infancy, it is beginning to take on the powers and should assume the duties of a vigorous maturity. Of our 49 Dioceses, this Diocese of Pittsburgh is excelled in population by 13, and in the number of communicants by only 15. We stand in the first third, on a line with such prominent Dioceses as Central Pennsylvania and New Jersey, with 34 Dioceses below us on the list. If such has been our progress during 23 years in spite of hindrances, which we have been accustomed to say were peculiar to this western part of Pennsylvania, what could we not hope for, if with harmony of counsel and unity of purpose and loyalty of heart towards God and one another, we steadily pursued our way? Do you realize the fact that since the existence of the Diocese we have increased from 32 clergy to 66, from 2,144 communicants to about 10,000, and from 40 parishes to over 100?

Such figures call for gratitude, but they tell much more loudly of added responsibility. "To whom much is given from him will much be required."

DIOCESAN MISSIONS.

And so we come to the consideration of our missionary work, which I am quite sure was never in better condition than it is to-day. The details of it will be laid before you in the report of the Executive Committee. But the general subject requires some mention here.

In the first place, no one, to my knowledge, either clergyman or layman, from the city of Pittsburgh, whence the larger contributions come, has accepted the invitation of the Executive Committee last year to visit and inspect the missions. The givers have no adequate knowledge either of the needs or of the methods of the almost seventy-five parishes and stations where the services of the Church are held by our Diocesan Missionaries.

Neither help nor criticism can be very intelligent under these circumstances, and I can but repeat the hope that many will avail themselves of the opportunities thus pressed upon them to see the work and learn of what sort it is.

In all directions new towns are springing up where every sort of religious creed gains early foothold, getting possession of land, soon starting a church building, drawing in the young, while we make no attempt whatever. Larger places, county towns, and prosperous manufacturing centres have no service of ours for the English people who rightly belong to us, and they are diligently sought after by others, and not infrequently informed, even in communities where we have a church, that there is no "Church of England" here.

On the other hand, in many quarters we are meeting with little companies of Church people who ask for services, the baptism of their children, the pastoral care of the Church which they love. The congregations which gather in the school houses and meeting houses and society halls are always interested and impressed by what they see and hear; and prejudices are visibly breaking down, and broader views of religion and more intelligent ideas concerning the Church are clearly making their way amongst all classes of people. No one who is not continually moving about amongst the people has any reasonable comprehension of the awakening that is taking place all over the region which is given into our charge. It is something more than interesting, it is astonishing; and a definite, positive and aggressive policy is the only method which will meet and satisfy the outspoken demands of the situation. We talk of statesmanship—but that alone is true Christian statesmanship which looks beyond the present and forgets self in the larger hope for the future; which thinks of the coming generations and prepares the way for them; which so lays foundations that superstructures may safely be built upon them, which looks not only on its own affairs but also on the affairs of others, seeking not its own advantage but equally another's weal, which recognizes the supreme wisdom of patience and tolerance—which is based on that charity which thinketh no evil and endureth unto the end.

In this kind of spirit I have sought to direct our missionary work, meeting the peculiar needs of each congregation where we have ministered.

Ours is to be in the future and is to-day the Church of the Reconciliation. But unless we have breathed in some of her own blessed spirit we shall be utterly unfitted to help on her mission. Unless we have learned what the word Catholic really means, we are sectarians of the worst sort even when we preach the truth.

Let us not forget that the Church is God's, not ours, and He orders and directs it always, as we so often ask that He may do, "in the right way." We can afford to trust Him to make even the mistakes and ill-doing of men to praise Him. The nearer we stand to Him, the closer we draw to His heart, the broader will be the outreaching of our love, and the more devoted our labors—while we shall be thinking of ourselves not at all—in comparison with His glory and the upbuilding of His kingdom.

Draw near to God, then, that we may all thus be drawn nearer to one another. Let us seek a new baptism of the Holy Ghost, and trust one another, confess to one another, pray for one another that we may be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment, growing up unto Him in all things which is the Head, even Christ.

In Him the whole building fitly framed together, groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord.

In Him may we be builded together more and more as an habitation of God through the Spirit.

APPENDIX TO THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS.

June 6. The Annual Convention met at S. Andrew's church, Pittsburg. Celebrated the Holy Communion, delivered my annual address, and presided at the business sessions.

June 7. Convention continued its sessions until one o'clock. In the afternoon the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions had a meeting to make appropriations, &c. At five p. m. I laid the foundation stone of a Guild House, for S. Mark's parish, South Side.

June 8. Ordination of Mr. Pedro Serane Mesny to the Diaconate in Trinity church, Pittsburg.

June 9. Ordination of Mr. Samson Dimmick to the Diaconate, at S. Paul's church, Kittanning. Also confirmed six persons.

June 10. Second Sunday after Trinity. Drove from Kittanning sixteen miles to S. Michael's, Wayne township. Addressed the Sunday school, preached, baptized two adults, confirmed eighteen and celebrated the Holy Communion. In the afternoon drove eight miles to S. Thomas' church, Smicksburg, preached and confirmed nine. These, with the candidates at Wayne, are the first fruits of the Rev. S. Dimmick's ministry amongst us. Drove back in the evening to Kittanning.

June 12. Commencement of the Bishop Bowman Institute at Trinity church, Pittsburg. The Rev. Dr. J. S. B. Hodges, of Baltimore, made the address. There were nine graduates.

June 13. To Indiana where, in Christ church, I preached and confirmed two persons.

June 30. Introductory service of the Lambeth Conference at Canterbury Cathedral.

July 2. Service at Westminster Abbey. Archbishop Benson preached.

July 3. Opening service of the Conference. Celebration of the Holy Communion at Lambeth Chapel.

July 8. Sixth Sunday after Trinity. I preached in the evening at S. Matthias' church, Earl's Court, London.

July 28. Closing service of the Lambeth Conference at S. Paul's Cathedral, London.

July 29. Ninth Sunday after Trinity. Assisted at the early celebration at Lincoln Cathedral. In the evening I preached at S. Peter's church, East gate, Lincoln.

July 31. Grand service in Durham Cathedral. Bishop Coxe, of Western New York, preached, and the Bishop of Durham set apart a large number of Lay Preachers and Lay Readers. In the afternoon a choir festival—almost two thousand singers.

August 1. Re-opening and re-dedication of S. Peter's chapel, at "Bishop Auckland," the residence of the Bishop of Durham.

August 2. Evensong, in York Minister.

August 5. Tenth Sunday after Trinity. At All Saints' Church, Gosforth, near New Castle on Tyne, I celebrated Holy Communion in the morning, and preached in the evening.

September 9. Fifteenth Sunday after Trinity. On the steamer "City of New York," I read service in the morning in the saloon, and in the afternoon after service, addressed the passengers in the second cabin. The Bishop of Arkansas assisted in the morning.

September 16. Sixteenth Sunday after Trinity. Preached in S. Peter's church, Perth Amboy, New Jersey.

September 18. Started for Brookville. On the way stopped at Driftwood long enough to visit our communicants there, and talk over Church matters. Had a little time also at DuBois. At Brookville I found awaiting me, at the new Long-view School, the Principal, the Rev. Dr. Mulholland, and the Rev. Messrs. Bragdon and Kelly. With these brethren I had service in Trinity church on the evening of September 19, and addresses were made concerning the new enterprise to be inaugurated on the morrow.

September 20. Thursday.—In the chapel of the school, attended by the Rev. Messrs. Day, Bragdon, Kelly, Shrimpton, Barber, and Dr. Mulholland, and by all the teachers and pupils, I celebrated the Holy Communion and set apart the chapel as the oratory of the school. Later, a congregation assembled which crowded the room and overflowed into the corridor. Three of the clergy read Morning Prayer and the Bishop and the Rev. C. J. Shrimpton made addresses. A luncheon followed at which more congratulatory speeches were made. The school has started with a fair measure of encouragement, more than was to be expected. The building cannot be surpassed. There is no school anywhere outside of our large cities so finely accoutred, and there are few anywhere as beautifully and healthfully located. I am happy to say that all who visit the place are struck with its pre-eminent fitness for just such a school as we need. I commend the school and its interests to the attention, assistance and prayers of all who recognize, (as every thoughtful man must recognize) the great importance of such an influence in a Diocese like ours.

September 23. Seventeenth Sunday after Trinity. Opened with a service of Benediction, the new S. Stephen's church, McKeesport. The clergy present were the Rev. Messrs. Schorr, Bragdon, McCandless and Cameron. The church is certainly one of which we may be proud. It is the handsomest church building in McKeesport, impressive and solid in external appearance, bright, attractive, and well proportioned within. The occasion was one of great satisfaction for the rector and people, who have together hoped and toiled through much delay and many difficulties towards this happy consummation.

September 30. Eighteenth Sunday after Trinity. Preached at Calvary church, Pittsburg.

October 1. Administered the Holy Communion to a sick man.

October 3. Consecrated Trinity church Rochester; a beautiful church now, as it has been enlarged, restored and adorned. The Rev. T. J. Danner, the rector, read the request to consecrate, and the Rev. Charles A. Bragdon the sentence of consecration. The Bishop preached and celebrated the Holy Communion. There were present and assisting, the Rev. Messrs. Herron, Miller, Cameron and Williams. After a most delightful service, we were hospitably entertained by the ladies of the congregation, at the house of the junior warden. Evening Prayer was said in the afternoon, and a third service in the evening was followed by addresses.

October 4. Attended the opening of the parish building of Emmanuel church, Allegheny.

October 5. To Washington, where I visited Trinity Hall; and in the evening preached and confirmed seven in the parish church. At the church, repairs have been made, and the building now looks very neat and attractive. A rectory has been presented to the parish, and a new rector, the Rev. Fred. C. Cowper, has begun his labors. May the Lord send now prosperity.

October 7. Nineteenth Sunday after Trinity. Preached at Trinity church, Pittsburg, and celebrated Holy Communion.

October 9. Transferred by letter dimissory to the Diocese of Western Michigan the Rev. E. D. Irvine. His departure is a great loss to the Diocese of Pittsburg.

October 12. Devotional hours with candidates for ordination.

October 13. Examination of candidates for Diaconate. In the afternoon, some of the clergy of Pittsburg and vicinity assembled at the Church Rooms to meet the Rev. Mr. Morrill as rector of Trinity Hall. A meeting was also held of the Trustees of the Diocese.

October 14. Twentieth Sunday after Trinity. In Trinity church Pittsburg. After a sermon by the Rev. Mr. Maxwell, I admitted to the Diaconate, Mr. John Russell Wightman, and to the Priesthood the Rev. George Alexander McKallip Dyess. Mr. Wightman was presented by the Rev. Charles A. Bragdon, and Mr. Dyess by the Rev. Mr. Maxwell, and the Presbyters united with the Bishop in the laying on of hands. The Rev. Mr. Mesny was also present and assisted. At the Communion which followed, the newly ordained Priest administered the Bread, and the newly ordained Deacon the Wine to a goodly number of the faithful. In the afternoon, at Shady Side school house, Evensong and Sunday school occupied the Bishop and the Rev. Mr. Mesny, the latter having been put in charge of that mission.

October 18. S. Luke's Day. In the morning at St. John's church, Wilmington, Delaware, the Rev. Leighton Coleman, S. T. D., was consecrated Bishop. I preached the sermon, and united with the other Bishops present in the laying on of hands. In the evening, at a missionary meeting in S. Andrew's church, Wilmington, I made an address.

October 20. Gave letter dimissory to the Rev. H. G. Schorr to the Diocese of Maryland.

October 21. Twenty-first Sunday after Trinity. In Emmanuel church, Emporium, I preached morning and evening, celebrated Holy Communion, and confirmed thirteen persons; also catechized the children of the Sunday school and addressed them.

October 22. Met the vestry of Emmanuel church, Emporium, and also the Ladies' Guild. Then on to Ridgway, when in the afternoon at Grace church, I confirmed one. In the evening I preached and confirmed three.

October 23. To Port Allegany, accompanied by the Rev. Messrs. White and Shrimpton. There we were joined by the Rev. Mr. Ashton, of Olean, N. Y. We had service in the beautiful little church erected the past summer; the Bishop preached and confirmed one. My visit at Emporium and Port Allegany was gladdened by many tokens of improvement and progress, but made sad at the same time by the fact that the rector, the Rev. F. W. White, under whose wise and diligent guidance so much has been accomplished, was immediately to leave these places and the Diocese for a larger field in Western Michigan.

October 24. At Smethport, I confirmed a dying man, and in evening at St. Luke's church, I preached, made an appeal for Diocesan missions and confirmed a class of twenty-four. I commend the custom in this parish of presenting the female candidates with their heads covered. Not only is it seemly in itself, but it impresses in a most suitable manner the duty of obedience to even the suggestions of Scripture, and that even in little things. Nothing is lost by thus bearing witness in a community which ignores Scripture in many ways.

October 25. From Smethport to Bradford and thence through Salamanca and Jamestown in New York state to Youngsville. In the evening, at S. Saviour's church, I preached and confirmed fourteen.

October 26. In the same church, preached and celebrated Holy Communion. All the newly confirmed, except one, came to their first Communion. The Church is surely gaining ground in this little town, under the careful and energetic labors of the Rev. Mr. Schepeler. In the afternoon there was a children's service, and I catechized and addressed them. Then on to Clarendon, where I preached in the chapel used by All Saints' Mission, and confirmed five.

October 27. In Trinity church, Warren, I confirmed one candidate and then went on to Kinzua with the Rev. Dr. Ryan, and preached in the hall used by S. Luke's Mission. The corner-stone of a chapel was laid on S. Luke's Day. After a long and weary ride I reached Bradford, where in the evening, in the Church of the Ascension, I confirmed a class of twenty-seven presented by the Rev. Mr. Day. I also used a service of Benediction for the new chancel and choir recently erected. This parish rejoices in a large and most conveniently arranged parish building, the gift of one devoted member of the congregation, as a memorial to his wife. Complete in all its arrangements and beautiful in appearance, it stands as a witness alike to the generosity of the donor, and to the ingenuity and the painstaking labors of the rector who planned it, and with his own hands executed many of the details of its furnishment. This parish has made yet another addition to its possessions by the purchase of a rectory immediately adjoining the church, so that now nothing is wanting for the convenience of its workers, clerical and lay. The hearty worship, good singing, large congregations, and numerous candidates for confirmation, as also the large number of communicants on Sunday morning, made the Bishop's visit most enjoyable and full of encouragement to him.

October 29. SS. Simon and Jude. I visited the Sunday school and catechized and addressed the children. After Morning Prayer I preached and celebrated Holy Communion. In the afternoon one person was confirmed in private, and in the evening I preached again.

October 28. Went with the Rev. Mr. Day to Union City where the Rev. Hawkes, of Corry, met us, and we opened with a service of Benediction the new S. Matthew's chapel. The Bishop also preached, baptized a child and celebrated Holy Communion. Then to Corry, where in Emmanuel church I preached and confirmed six candidates.

October 30. Returned to Pittsburg. Received letter dimissory of the Rev. C. A. Morrill from the Diocese of New Hampshire.

October 31. Assisted at the consecration of the chapel of the Good Shepherd, General Theological Seminary, N. Y.

November 1. All Saints Day. Preached the sermon at the consecration of the church of the Nativity, South Bethlehem. Made an address at evening prayer.

November 4. Twenty-third Sunday after Trinity. In Emmanuel church, Allegheny, I preached, confirmed five and celebrated Holy Communion.

Afternoon. Visited and catechized the Sunday school.

Evening. Preached in the Hall at Wood's Run, Allegheny.

November 8. Administered Holy Communion to a sick man.

November 10. At Houtzdale, in the church of the Holy Trinity. I preached and confirmed three persons.

November 11. Twenty-fourth Sunday after Trinity. In the same church, celebrated Holy Communion at 7 A. M. Later, preached before the organization called "the Sons of S. George." Drove over to Phillipsburg, and in company with the Rev. Messrs. Agnew and Wightman, visited the church of the Good Shepherd, Ashcroft, and S. Savior's chapel, Decatur. In the afternoon I preached and confirmed seventeen at Ashcroft, and in the evening preached and confirmed five at Decatur. These candidates were prepared and presented by the Rev. Mr. Wightman who had been sent to Clearfield county immediately upon his ordination, to make ready for the Bishop's visit.

November 12. At Clearfield, in S. Andrew's church, I celebrated Holy Communion and the Rev. Mr. Wightman preached. I was assisted in the service by our faithful deacon, the Rev. A. S. B. Richards.

November 14, 15. Attended sessions of Missionary Council and House of Bishops, in Washington, D. C. Election of the Rev. J. M. Kendrick, D. D., as Bishop of New Mexico and Arizona. Later, the Bishops were presented to the President and Mrs. Cleveland at the White House.

November 16. In company with a number of the Bishops I visited the Theological Seminary at Alexandria, Va., and enjoyed the occasion exceedingly.

November 18. Twenty-fifth Sunday after Trinity. Preached in the morning at S. Martin's church, Radnor, and in the evening at S. Michael's Church, Germantown, Philadelphia.

November 20. Was present at the dedication of All Saint's Cathedral, Albany, N. Y., a most delightful and auspicious occasion.

November 21 Solemnized a marriage at Grace Church, Newark, New Jersey.

November 22. At Church Rooms, Pittsburg. A meeting of the Committee on Canons.

November 23. The same Committee was in session all the afternoon.

November 24. Evening. At Youngstown, Ohio, examination of candidate for ordination.

November 25. Sunday next before Advent. In S. John's church, Youngstown, at the request of the Ecclesiastical Authority of Ohio I advanced to the Priesthood the Rev. Edwin Stoner Hoffman, assistant minister of the parish. The candidate was presented by the Rector, the Rev. F. B. Avery, and he with the Rev. Messrs. A. B. Nicholas and J. D. Herron, united in the laying on of Hands.

Bishop preached, and also at the Sunday School service catechized and addressed the children.

In the afternoon we went to New Castle, and in the evening at Trinity church, I preached, and confirmed nine persons.

November 26. To Sharon, where the Northern Convocation was to hold its winter session. In the evening, at S. John's church, after Evensong, by the Rev. Messrs. Avery and Israel, addresses were made by the Rev. Messrs. Hawkes, Carstensen, Thorn and the Bishop.

November 27. Holy Communion in S. John's church, and a sermon by the Rev. Mr. Hawkes. A business session of the Convocation followed. Also an essay by the Rev. A. Fleming, on the Historic Episcopate.

In the afternoon addresses were made before the Woman's Auxiliary by the Rev. Messrs. Israel and Avery, and a branch of the Woman's Auxiliary was formed in the parish by visiting officers from Pittsburg.

In the evening the Bishop made an address upon the Lambeth Conference.

November 30. S. Andrew's Day, I issued the following letter :

TO THE CLERGY OF THE DIOCESE OF PITTSBURG.

DEAR BRETHREN :—

The following prayers for the unity of Christendom are taken from an Office which has been set forth for use in the Church of England I cordially commend them, and authorize their use at your discretion :

O God, the Father of our LORD JESUS CHRIST, our only Saviour, the Prince of Peace : give us grace seriously to lay to heart the great dangers we are in by our unhappy divisions. Take away all hatred and prejudice, and whatsoever else may hinder us from godly Union and Concord, that as there is but one Body, and one Spirit, and one hope of our calling, one LORD, one Faith, one Baptism, one GOD and FATHER of us all ; so we may henceforth be all of one heart and one soul, united in one holy bond of Truth and Peace, of Faith and Charity, and may with one mind and one mouth glorify Thee, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

GREAT AND ETERNAL GOD, Who didst form man without sin, and didst by the quickening advent of Thine Only-Begotten Son, our Lord and God and SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST, destroy death, which had entered by envy of Satan into the world ; and didst fill the earth heavenly peace ; Thou whom the Choir of Angels celebrate, saying, GLORY TO GOD IN THE HIGHEST AND PEACE UPON EARTH, GOOD-WILL TO MEN : fill, O LORD, according to Thy good pleasure our hearts with Thy peace : and cleanse us from all guilt, hatred, deceit, and ill ; and all mortal recollections of injuries. Make us worthy, O LORD, of Thy gifts of grace ; enable us to promote and forward the Unity of Thy Church according to Thy Divine Wisdom ; grant to all Thy faithful people the inward Unity and outward Communion desired by Thy blessed Son, in such manner and at such time as Thou shalt see fit ; that in all things we may be conformed unto Thy Holy Will ; through JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD. Amen,

Faithfully your

Brother in CHRIST,

CORTLANDT WHITEHEAD,

Bishop of Pittsburg,

8. Andrew's Day, 1888.

December 2. First in Advent. Service and sermon in the School House at Shady Side. Later, a business meeting of the congregation of S. Philip's Mission. In the afternoon, evensong and catechising.

December 3. Address on the Lambeth Conference, delivered by request, in the chapel of Trinity church, Pittsburg. Meeting of the Committee on Canons all the evening.

December 4. Meeting of the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions. In the evening, solemnized a marriage at S. Stephen's church, McKeesport. Gave letter dismissory to the Rev. F. W. White to the Diocese of Western Michigan.

December 5. To Ohio, where at S. Paul's, Mt. Vernon, I preached and confirmed sixteen presented by the rector, the Rev. A. P. Putnam.

December 6. In the evening, at S. James' church, I Wooster, preached and confirmed two persons.

December 7. In the same church after a sermon by the Rev. Mr. Putnam, I advanced to the Priesthood, the rector, Rev. A. A. Bresee; then on to Alliance, where in Trinity church, the Rev. George Bosley presented six candidates for confirmation.

December 9. Second in Advent. At S. John's church, Pittsburgh, I preached, celebrated Holy Communion and confirmed seven persons. In the afternoon catechized the Sunday School. At S. James' church in the evening, I preached an Advent sermon.

December 13. Visited Longview School at Brookville.

December 14. At Trinity church, Brookville, preached and confirmed six presented by the Rev. Mr. Shrimpton, and two from Longview School presented by the principal, the Rev. Dr. Mulholland.

December 16. Third in Advent. At S. Thomas' church, Verona, catechized the Sunday School, preached, confirmed seventeen and celebrated Holy Communion.

In the afternoon, drove to Sandy Creek and addressed the Sunday School at that mission.

In the evening, preached an Advent sermon at St. James', Pittsburgh.

December 18. Looked in at the Woman's Auxiliary Meeting, and also visited the Bishop Bowman Institute. Called on the venerable Dr. Crumpton, who celebrated on this day his 90th birthday.

December 19. Assisted at a funeral service at S. Peter's, Pittsburgh.

December 21. S. Thomas' Day. Administered the Communion to a sick man.

In the evening, made an Advent address at S. James' church, Pittsburgh.

December 22. visited a patient in the Homeopathic Hospital.

December 23. Fourth Sunday in Advent. Read service and preached in the School House at Shady Side. Afternoon, evensong and catechizing.

December 24. Sunday school festival at the school house in Shady Side, S. Phillip's mission.

December 25. Christmas Day. Assisted in the service at Calvary church, Pittsburg. A joyous service, but much saddened by the near approach of the day when our beloved brother, the rector, was to be taken from us to enter upon his great and arduous work as a Bishop in the Church of God. May every blessing attend him.

December 26. S. Stephen's. Gave canonical consent to the consecration of the Rev. Boyd Vincent to be Assistant Bishop of Southern Ohio; and to the consecration of the Rev. J. M. Kendrick, D. D., to be Missionary Bishop of New Mexico and Arizona.

December 28. The Innocents' Day. At 10 A. M., the Church of the Holy Innocents, Leechburg, the fruition of many hopes and prayers, was opened with a service of benediction and the celebration of the Holy Communion. In the afternoon, the rector and choir of S. Paul's church, Kittanning, with a large delegation of interested friends from Kittanning and Tarentum, were present, and after Evening Prayer and an address by the Bishop, the Rev. Mr. Wilson preached the sermon. There were present also the Venerable Dr. Wm. White, and the Rev. Messrs. Bragdon, Kelly, Dyess and Kennedy, all of whom (except the last, who has recently come into the Diocese) have been intimately connected with the inception and development of this work. In the evening a third service was held, and addresses made by the Rev. Messrs. Bragdon and Kelly.

December 30. Sunday after Christmas. Read service, preached and celebrated Holy Communion at the school house, Shady Side. Read Evening Prayer and superintended the Sunday School in the Afternoon. In the evening, in the hall used by All Saints' mission at Braddock, I preached and confirmed three persons presented by the Rev. Mr. Dyess.

December 31. Various Conferences at the Church Rooms.

January 2, 1889. Assisted at a funeral service, East End, Pittsburgh.

January 3. Attended meeting of the Trustees of the Western University, Pittsburgh.

January 6. Epiphany. In the morning opened with a service of benediction the new Church of the Epiphany, at Bellevue. Preached, celebrated the Holy Communion, and confirmed six presented by Rev. Mr. Dyess.

The Church is a model of what an inexpensive, small country Church should be; the people are united and happy, and ready to work. The prospects for the future are most promising.

In the afternoon, children's service and an address in the same Church.

In the evening, preached in a Hall at Wood's Run, Allegheny for the Mission of Emmanuel Church.

Jan. 13. First Sunday after Epiphany. In the morning, preached at Grace Church, Baltimore. In the evening, preached at St. Paul's Church, Baltimore.

Jan. 15 to 17. Attended the sessions of the Committee on Liturgical Revision at the Diocesan House, New York.

Jan. 17. Sub-Committee on Evangelistic Work.

Jan. 20. Second Sunday after Epiphany. Service and sermon at School House, Shady Side, morning and afternoon.

Jan. 24. Officiated at a marriage at St. Peter's church, Pittsburgh.

Jan. 25. Conversion of St. Paul, in St. Paul's church, Cincinnati. Took part in the consecration of the Rev. Boyd Vincent, as Bishop co-adjutor of the Diocese of Southern Ohio.

The Bishop of Colorado was the presiding Bishop of the occasion, and the Bishops of Kentucky and Pittsburgh were the presenters. The service was a grand one, and the large and enthusiastic reception given to Bishop Vincent in the evening testified to the cordial affection with which the good people of Southern Ohio have welcomed their new leader. We know they will love and esteem him better and better.

Jan. 27. Third Sunday after Epiphany. In the morning, service and sermon at Shady Side. Service and catechizing in the afternoon. Then to Greensburg, where in the evening at Christ church, I preached and confirmed six persons.

Jan. 31. Officiated at a marriage in St. Paul's church, Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia.

Feb. 1. Accepted the Letter Dimissory of the Rev. W. J. C. Agnew, from the Diocese of Fond du Lac.

Feb. 2. Feast of the Purification. I made my annual visitation at the Church Home.

Feb. 3. Fourth Sunday after Epiphany. Service at Shady Side morning and afternoon. Celebration of Holy Communion in the morning. At Homestead in the evening after service by the Rev. Dr. Norman, and the Lay Reader Mr. Leslie, three members were received into the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, the Bishop preached and confirmed two persons.

Feb. 5. Quiet day for the clergy at St. Mark's church, South Side, conducted by the Rev. A. S. Crapsey. I celebrated the Holy Communion at ten A. M., and read the evening prayer at five. Also took part in the opening service of Convocation, in the evening, when the Rev. Mr. Webbe preached.

Feb. 6. Sessions of the Southern Convocation at St. Mark's South Side, I celebrated the Holy Communion, and presided during the day.

Feb. 7. Assisted at a marriage in Allegheny.

Feb. 9. To Freeport, where I visited many of our people.

Feb. 10. Fifth Sunday after the Epiphany. In Trinity church, Freeport, I preached and celebrated Holy Communion. In the afternoon, the Rev. Mr. Kennedy preached. Then on to Tarentum, where in the cheerful new church I preached and confirmed seven candidates. At all the services this day we were cheered by the presence in good health and spirits, of our venerable missionary Emeritus, the Rev. Dr. Wm. White.

The church work at Tarentum has been carried on with great vigor, and gives promise of great success. The little church is very attractive in appearance and convenient in arrangement. The people seem to have a "mind to work."

Feb. 14. Called a meeting of the Bishop Kerfoot Memorial Committee, but there was no quorum present. In the evening, enjoyed very much a reception given by one of his former parishers to the Rt. Rev. Boyd Vincent.

Feb. 15. Administered the communion to a sick man. In the afternoon, I met a number of Laymen at the Church Rooms to consider the need of aggressive work in the outlying parts of Pittsburgh and Allegheny. This meeting was held partly because of the facts and figures brought to view at the recent Convocation concerning the Church in these cities; partly because several of the clergy, but principally some of the laity, had asked the Bishop to do something to get the work going; and partly because quite recently circumstances had seemed to indicate that after long delay the time was ripe. A Layman's Missionary League was formed, and a few members enrolled, which number has been slowly increasing ever since, composed of persons who will be ready personally to serve in some one or more of these classes following : Lay Readers, Lay Evangelists, Teachers, Bible Readers, Visitors, &c.

Feb. 17. Septuagesima. In a Hall at Scottdale I preached and celebrated the Holy Communion for the people of St. Bartholomew's Mission and confirmed five candidates. This mission is under the care of the General Missionary and is making excellent progress in every way. A church lot and small building are among the probabilities at Scottdale in the near future. In the afternoon I drove to New Haven, and preached at night in Trinity church, confirming five candidates.

Feb. 18. Monday evening, although the weather was very inclement, the little church of "St. John in the Wilderness," at Dunbar was filled with an attentive congregation. The Bishop preached and confirmed three. Both here and at New Haven are already to be seen the tokens of the persevering, careful, sensible, Churchly teaching of the rector. His faithful work cannot be hid.

Feb. 19. Returned to Pittsburgh. Lecture at the Bishop Bowman Institute. Meeting of Laymen's Missionary League.

Feb. 20. Visited the Homœopathic Hospital. Lecture at Bishop

Feb. 21. Made several calls at Crafton.

Bowman Institute. Meeting of the Trustees of the Diocese.

Feb. 22. To Youngstown, Ohio, where in St. John's church, I preached in the evening and confirmed fifteen.

Feb. 24. Seagesima. At St. Paul's church, Pittsburgh, I preached, confirmed nine, and celebrated the Holy Communion. The venerable Dr. Cumpton, now ninety years old, assisted.

In the afternoon, Evensong, at the Shady Side school house.

At night, preached at Trinity church, Pittsburgh.

Feb. 25. Lecture at Bishop Bowman Institute. Meeting of Laymen's Missionary League in the evening.

Feb. 26. Meeting of the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions at Kittanning.

Feb. 27. Lecture at Bowman Institute.

Feb. 28. The same. Celebrated the Holy Communion at Trinity church at the beginning of the sessions of the Sunday School Institute. Also presided during part of the sessions in the afternoon.

March 3. Quinquagesima. Service morning and afternoon at Shade Side. In the evening, at St. Stephen's chapel, Wilkinsburg, preached and confirmed eight.

March 4. In the evening, a meeting of the Laymen's Missionary League at the Church Rooms.

March 5. In the evening, at Emmanuel church, Allegheny, inducted the new surpliced choir by a special service appropriate to the occasion.

March 6. Ash Wednesday. Preached and celebrated Holy Communion at Trinity church, Pittsburgh. In the evening, in the hall used by our mission at Irwin, I baptized an infant, preached and confirmed nine.

March 8. Preached in the evening at the church of the Epiphany, Bellevue, and confirmed two.

March 9. In the evening at St. Stephen's church, McKeesport, I preached and confirmed twenty-five persons.

March 10. First Sunday in Lent, at S. Stephen's church, McKeesport, I catechized and addressed the Sunday school, preached and celebrated Holy Communion.

Train to Hazelwood. Drove to Linden Grove Mission. Catechized the children, and, after service by the Rev. H. D. Waller, addressed the congregation. This mission begun and conducted by the rector and people of the church of the Good Shepherd, is full of interest and promises well for the future. In the evening at the Church of the Good Shepherd, I preached and confirmed seventeen.

March 11. At Longview School, Brookville, after evensong and an address, I confirmed one person from Trinity parish, Brookville.

March 12. Holy Communion in the chapel of Longview school. In the evening at the Church of Our Savior, DuBois, I preached and confirmed one.

March 13. Holy Communion and sermon and confirmed two at the Church of the Intercessor, Sugar Hill.

March 14. To Punxsutawney, where we have a mission served by a lay reader. The Rev. Messrs. Bragdon, Day, Angell and Shrimpton have occasionally held services, and Messrs. Bragdon and Angell had preceded me on this visit. Our service was held in a hall, where a goodly number of people had assembled, and where four persons were confirmed.

March 15. Early Communion with our ten communicants, and then journeyed to Reynoldsville, where our faithful missionary deacon still continues his labors. In the evening at the Lutheran church, I preached and confirmed six, presented by the Rev. Mr. Barber.

March 17. Second Sunday in Lent, at S. Peter's church, Pittsburg, I confirmed twenty-five persons, and in the evening preached and confirmed ten at Christ Church, Allegheny.

March 18. Meeting of the Laymen's Missionary League.

March 19. Journeyed to Ehrenfeld, a coal mining town on the Penn'a R. R., beyond Johnstown. Here the indefatigable rector of S. Mark's church, Johnstown, has established a most promising mission, holding a service once a week and occasionally on Sundays. One sick woman was confirmed in private. After Evening Prayer in a Hall, the Bishop preached and confirmed twenty-eight, which, with two more confirmed at Johnstown the next Sunday, made thirty-one presented by the Rev. Mr. Diller from this little community. No other Christian body is doing anything for these people except the Roman Catholics. After the service I took the train for Pittsburg.

March 21. To Leechburg, where in the Memorial Church of the Holy Innocents, I preached and confirmed four candidates presented by the General Missionary.

March 22. At Christ church, Indiana, held service at night and preached.

March 23. Many calls in Indiana. Gave the Holy Communion to a sick man and his family. In the evening read service and preached in S. Peter's Church, Blairsville.

March 24. Third Sunday in Lent. Service and sermon and Holy Communion at the same church. Drove to Blairsville Intersection and took the train to Johnstown. There, in the evening, at S. Mark's church, I preached and confirmed seventeen, two of them from Ehrenfeld.

March 25. Feast of the Annunciation. Holy Communion at S. Mark's, Johnstown, with an address. There was an excellent congregation, and forty communicants received the Sacrament. I also took part in the Evening Prayer at 3:30, and then returned to Pittsburgh.

March 26. At S. Peter's church, Uniontown, I preached and confirmed eight persons, also confirmed one man in private.

March 27. Visits in Uniontown. Drove to Menallen where in Grace church I read service and preached held a consultation with the vestry. Then on to Brownsville for Evening service in Christ Church. I preached and confirmed thirteen presented by the Rev. Mr. Ensworth.

March 28. Officiated at a burial at Christ church, Brownsville, and returned to Pittsburgh.

March 29. Gave the Communion to a sick man. Various Committees and consultations at the Church Rooms. In the evening at S. Stephen's chapel, Wilkinsburg, I confirmed one person and lectured on the Sunday school lesson for the following Sunday.

March 30. Much correspondence. Enjoyed the company of Bishop Vincent and some of the clergy in the evening.

March 31. Mid-Lent Sunday. At Trinity church, Pittsburgh, I preached and celebrated the Holy Communion, and confirmed a class of thirty-five. In the afternoon, at St. Andrew's, Pittsburgh, I preached and confirmed five. On this same day, my dear brother, the Assistant Bishop of Southern Ohio, held a confirmation at Cavalry church, Pittsburgh, when eighty candidates received the laying on of hands from their former pastor. Four others were confirmed in private—a total (including those confirmed at the chapel at Wilkinsburg) of ninety-three confirmed for Cavalry parish this Conventional year.

April 1. Many letters. In the evening a meeting of the Laymen's League

April 2. Various conferences and visits. Lenten address at Trinity, Pittsburgh.

April 3 Address at Trinity, Pittsburgh. Then, to Butler for Evening service, where in St. Peter's church, I preached and confirmed fifteen. I found the church very much improved with new roof and internal decorations.

April 4. Visits in Butler; confirmed a sick woman in private; then on to Foxburg, where I preached and confirmed thirteen in the Memorial church of Our Father.

April 5 Confirmed a sick person in private. Journeyed to Brookville and thence to Oak Ridge. Baptized an infant and confirmed the mother.

In the evening, at Fairmount, preached and confirmed seven persons for the mission of the Redeemer, and baptized two children. These missions with those at Reynoldsville and Lawsonham are under the efficient and most faithful care of our worthy deacon, the Rev. Joseph Barber.

April 6. To Lawsonham, where we had confirmation and Holy Communion in the school house. Six were confirmed and fifteen partook of the Blessed sacrament.

A handsome chalice and paten presented by the young men's Bible class of Trinity church, Pittsburgh, for the church of the Holy Communion, were used for the first time at this service.

In the evening a large congregation crowded the school house, and the Bishop preached.

April 7. Fifth Sunday in Lent. Drove to Red Bank; where I read the morning service in S. Mary's church; baptized three children, confirmed one person, preached and celebrated Holy Communion.

In the afternoon baptized an infant, and journeyed to Kittanning. In the evening preached in S. Paul's church, and confirmed thirty-one.

April 8. Confirmed one person in private, and made some visits in Kittanning.

April 10. Preached and confirmed nine in Christ Church, Greensburg.

April 11. Meeting of the Executive Committee of Laymen's League at the Church Rooms.

April 12. Address at noonday meeting in Trinity, Pittsburg.

April 13. In company with the rector of S. Stephen's church, Sewickley, visited Stoop's Ferry, a hamlet opposite Sewickley, on the Ohio river, where the people of S. Stephen's have been carrying on a mission Sunday school. A lot has been purchased for a chapel.

In the evening at S. Stephen's I preached and confirmed eight.

April 14. Palm Sunday. Morning Prayer and catechizing at ten o'clock. Sermon and Holy Communion at eleven.

Then to Rochester, where in the afternoon I preached and confirmed six in Trinity church.

Drove to New Brighton, where, in Christ Church, at evening prayer, I preached and confirmed ten.

At Sewickley, Rochester and New Brighton, I found the church buildings all in excellent condition, repaired and adorned, and the spiritual work making hopeful progress.

April 17. In the evening, at S. John's church, Pittsburg, I preached and confirmed fourteen.

April 18. Meeting of the Trustees of the Diocese.

Gave letter dimissory in behalf of the Rev. C. J. Shrimpton, to the Diocese of Massachusetts.

April 19. Good Friday. At Emmanuel church, Allegheny, confirmed sixteen, and afterwards made the addresses at the "Three Hours' Service."

In the evening at the church of the Nativity, Crafton, preached and confirmed five.

April 20. Easter Even. In the evening at S. Luke's church, Pittsburg, I preached and confirmed six candidates presented by the Rev. Robert Hudson, temporarily in charge of the parish.

April 21. Easter day. At Shady Side, Pittsburg, read service in the school house, preached and celebrated Holy Communion.

In the afternoon addressed the Sunday school, read Evening Prayer and baptized an infant.

In the evening at S. Mark's church, Pittsburg, preached and confirmed twenty-eight.

April 22. Easter Monday. To Washington, where I preached in Trinity church, and confirmed nine persons.

April 23. Easter Tuesday. Celebration of Holy Communion in the same church. At noon officiated at a marriage.

April 25. S. Mark's Day. Administered the Holy Communion to a sick man. Various visits and conferences during the day. In the evening a meeting of the Laymen's Missionary League.

April 29. To Meadville. In the evening addressed the Confirmation class in the Sunday school room.

April 28. First Sunday after Easter. Addressed the Sunday school, preached and celebrated Holy Communion at Christ church, Meadville. In the evening preached and confirmed thirty-six.

April 26. At Union City. Preached in S. Matthew's church, confirmed seven persons and celebrated Holy Communion. The little chapel is very simple, and roughly finished on the inside; but it is "a local habitation" for our little company of disciples, and the outlook for the work is very promising. Much commendation should be given to the Rev. Mr. Hawkes, of Corry, for his earnest help and faithful oversight, and to the people for their zealous interest in this mission, which, by God's blessing, has made signal advance during the past year.

In the evening, at Emmanuel church, Corry, I preached and confirmed seventeen. After service I had a conference with the vestry.

April 30. At Trinity church, Warren, I assisted the Rector at the service commemorative of the inauguration of George Washington as first President of the United States. The Rev. Mr. Kelly made the address.

In the evening, at Kane, in the Presbyterian church, the Rev. Dr. Ryan and the Rev. Mr. Day read service, and I preached and confirmed four persons.

Kane is a flourishing town, where we should have had a church long ago. There are good reasons for hoping now that ere long we shall have a strong mission here. The Rev. Dr. Ryan, of Warren, has done everything possible to build up the church in his neighborhood, and the new Churches at Youngsville and Kinzua, and the missions at Clarendon and Kane all are due to Dr. Ryan's remarkable and generous missionary spirit.

May 1. SS. Philip and James. In the Presbyterian church at Kane we had a communion service and almost all our communicants were present. There are as many as twenty families of our people in the town. Later in the day we visited some of them, and then returned to Warren.

In the evening, in Trinity church, Warren, I preached and confirmed six persons.

May 2. At Youngsville, the new church, S. Saviour's, was consecrated. The clergy present were the minister in charge, the Rev. W. T. Schepeler, and the Rev. Drs. Ryan and Purdon, and the Rev. Messrs. Kelly, Brooks, Day and Fleming. The surpliced choir from Jamestown, N. Y., kindly furnished the music, riding over in a large omnibus. The Rev. Mr. Dealey and his organist came by train. The Rev. Mr. Yewens, of Franklin, preached the sermon. Many of the laity from Warren, Clarendon, and other places were in attendance. The Church people of Youngsville were abounding in hospitality, and furnished an ample luncheon both before and after the protracted services. The Bishop made an address of congratulation and confirmed a class of ten. The work at Youngsville begun by Dr. Ryan, and Rev. Mr. Kelly when he was General Missionary, and fostered by the care of the former, nobly assisted by a little band of zealous laymen and laywomen, has been finely crowned by the labors of the present incumbent, the Rev. W. T. Schepeler.

The church building, costing about $4 000, is a pretty and commodious structure and an ornament to the town.

In the afternoon, the Bishop and Dr. Ryan and the Rev. Mr. Kelly went to Kinzua, and there in the new chapel, S. Luke's, held service in the evening. The Bishop preached and confirmed a class of four.

May 3. After a communion service in the morning, journeyed to Tidioute, which is served at much cost of time and labor by the Rev. J. H. B. Brooks, of Oil City. Here several calls were made, and in the evening one person was confirmed in Christ church.

May 4. To Titusville, and thence to Townville by carriage.

In the evening at Calvary church, I read service, preached and confirmed four

May 5. Second Sunday after Easter. In the same church, catechized the children, and after Morning Prayer, preached and celebrated Holy Communion.

In the Lessons I was assisted by the faithful lay reader, who under the direction of the Rev. Mr. Hawkes, has maintained constant service during the year.

In the evening at S. James' Memorial church, Titusville, I preached and confirmed seven.

May 6. visits in Titusville, then on to Corry, and thence to Waterford. In S. Peter's church, I preached and confirmed three candidates presented by the Rev. Wm. B. Thorn.

May 7. To Oil City. Meet the parish committee on Annual Convention. In the evening confirmed ten at Christ church.

May 8. In the evening at Grace church, Mercer, preached and confirmed three.

May 9. Gave the Communion to an aged churchwoman. In evening drove to Pardoe, preached and confirmed two for S. David's mission.

May 10. To Greenville, where I was much encouraged at finding the church building, which our people have been purchasing for several years, at last paid for. It needs much repairing, however, but when that is done, will be used by the congregation of S. Clement's church, an incorporated parish whose charter was obtained as long ago as 1866.

From Greenville I went to Conneautville for service in Trinity church, in the afternoon. Then on, with the Rev. Mr. Thorn, to Miles Grove, where, in Grace church, I preached and confirmed five.

May 11. Service and Holy Communion with address in the same church. Two adults were baptized and confirmed, making seven for this mission.

In the evening at North East, in the Church of the Holy Cross, I preached and confirmed five. The congregation feels encouraged at the prospect of soon paying the last remnant of their debt. They hope to have the church consecrated in the autumn.

May 12. Third Sunday after Easter. In S. Paul's church, Erie, I preached, made an address on Diocesan Missions and confirmed thirteen. In the afternoon, at Cross and Crown church, preached and confirmed fifteen. This congregation is in a most flourishing condition.

At S. John's church, in the evening preached and confirmed six, one being from Cross and Crown church.

May 19. Fourth Sunday after Easter. At S. James' church, Pittsburg, I preached, confirmed twenty-four, and celebrated the Holy Communion. Here also there was very much to encourage, in the large choir of children, a goodly congregation, many communicants, and the evident hopefulness of the people and pastor.

In the afternoon, at Grace church, Mt. Washington, I confirmed three persons.

In the evening, the Church Home held its anniversary at Trinity church, Pittsburg, where the Bishop presided and the Rev. Mr. Webbe preached the sermon.

May 20. Reception of the Laymen's Missionary League to the Clergy and Vestries of Allegheny County.

May 23. Meeting of the Trustees of the Diocese, and of the Trustees of the Bishop Bowman Institute.

May 24. In S. Paul's church, Monongahela city, I preached and confirmed ten persons presented by the Rev. Dr. Norman.

May 25. In S. Luke's church, Georgetown, I preached and confirmed eight, presented by the Rev. Mr. Danner.

May 26. Rogation Sunday. From Georgetown to S. Paul's church, Fairview, where I preached and celebrated Holy Communion. In the afternoon I preached again and confirmed two persons. The day was one of great festivity. This country church has been nicely frescoed and adorned, and the work goes on with much encouragement under the diligent faithfulness of the Rev. H. Q. Miller. His choir and organist, from Beaver Falls and several others of his congregation drove over (16 miles) to these services, and people from the country round in vehicles of every description to the number of 30 or more, and some also on horseback came to attend the "preaching." It was a lovely day and all seemed to enjoy the occasion.

After the second service I drove to Beaver Falls, stopping on the way to visit two aged churchwomen, one of them in the old town of Beaver. In S. Mary's church, Beaver Falls, I preached in the evening and confirmed fifteen.

May 27. At Christ church, New Brighton, at morning prayer, I confirmed one person, making eleven for the year. Then on to Rochester, where in private, I confirmed two aged persons, one 81 years of age, making for the parish eight for the year.

Then to Pittsburg, where committee meetings and conferences occupied the afternoon.

May 28. A meeting of the Committee on Canons.

May 29, Consecration of S. George's church, Irwin. There were present of the Clergy the Rev. Messrs. Smith, Bragdon, Dyess, Heakes, Kelly, Webbe and Van Waters, and the Rev. Dr. Irvine. The choir from S. Stephen's, Wilkinsburg, kindly furnished the music, which was most excellent. The Bishop preached and celebrated Holy Communion. Several friends from Philadelphia were present, who had taken great interest in the erection of the church and had contributed largely to it. It was an occasion of great joy to the little congregation who had waited long with earnest hope for this auspicious day.

May 30. Ascension Day. A joyous festival, when in the presence of a large congregation and twelve or more of the clergy I opened with a service of benediction the new Church of the Ascension at Shady Side. Beautiful in itself, and most advantageously situated for rapid growth and great usefulness, it gladdens the hearts of multitudes of both church people and others who have longed for many years to have a church building in this part of the city. The congregation is organized and the parish incorporated, and the new rector, the Rev. R. W. Grange, has already won all hearts at the very outset of his ministry among them. It should not be forgotten that the Church of the Ascension succeeds to the work of S. Philip's mission, long ago established; and some of the ministers who have of late years been connected with that mission took part in the opening service—the Rev. Messrs. McLure, Dyess and Mesny. The Rev. Mr. Hodges preached and the Bishop celebrated Holy Communion.

The Altar and Altar Cross and also the Communion silver, are memorials of the Rt. Rev. John Barret Kertfoot, D. D., LL. D., first Bishop of Pittsburgh. Other gifts, memorial and otherwise, have been either promised or given.

This is the first new parish in the cities of Allegheny and Pittsburgh for twenty years. May it be the herald of many more.

May 31. Officiated as chaplain at the meeting of the State Sanitary Convention, in Pittsburgh.

June 1. Journeyed to Franklin, where in the evening, I preached and confirmed one person.

To-day all were appalled at the dreadful news from Johnstown, and most heart felt were our prayers for those upon whom God had in His wisdom brought such a terrible calamity.

June 2. Sunday after Ascension. Morning Prayer in Christ church, Oil City. Later, after a sermon by the Rev. Mr. McLure, I confirmed a class of twenty-one, and then admitted to the Holy Order of Deacons, Mr. Edward L. Ogithy, presented by the Rev. J. H. B. Brooks. At the close of service, I visited and addressed the Sunday school.

In the evening, I preached the Baccalaureate sermon for the graduating class of the Oil City High School.

Pastoral Letters.

DIOCESE OF PITTSBURGH.

REV AND DEAR BROTHER :

As the Feast of the Nativity approaches, permit me to remind you of the Canon which asks from all our congregations an offering on Christmas day, in behalf of the Fund for Disabled Clergymen and the widows and children of deceased Clergymen.

This duty—and privilege—find urgency in the needs of the old and infirm Clergy in every Diocese, and should appeal to the Clergy themselves, in view of their own approaching old age and the inevitable failure of their powers.

Will you not speak earnestly to your people concerning it, and send the offering, when taken, to Mr. C. I. Wade, Treasurer, National Bank of Commerce, Pittsburgh.

Faithfully your Brother in the Lord,

CORTLANDT WHITEHEAD,

Bishop of Pittsburgh.

Dec. 20, 1888.

EPIPHANY SEASON, 1889.

To the Rectors, Superintendents, Teachers and Pupils of our Sunday Schools:

BELOVED HELPERS IN OUR MISSIONARY WORK:—As the time for the distribution of the mite-boxes again approaches, I have many words of cheer to address to you, as well as words of exhortation.

In the first place, it is something to be very thankful for, that God has enabled us to give through our mite-boxes, since 1883, very nearly $9,000 for the Missionary Work of the Diocese, an average of almost $1,300 a year.

Then it is pleasant to know that our example has been found helpful to others. Several Dioceses have been encouraged to try the same experiment. Especially our next neighbors of Central Pennsylvania have adopted our plan, and find that it works well with them as with us, under the diligent labors of our former General Missionary, the Rev. Mr. Kelly.

Then, further, our own Diocese is showing the good results of having a General Missionary. New missions are being started and new chapels are being built or have lately been built in several places.

Homestead, Irwin, Bellevue, Tarentum, Leechburg, Kinzua, Port Allegany, Union City, Brookville, all have new churches, while Kane, Punxsutawney, McDonalds, Scottsdale, and other points are developing, some under the General Missionary's care, and some fostered by neighboring rectors who have the missionary spirit.

Finally, the people of our own Diocese are asking, Why can we not have two general missionaries instead of one? The work is increasing. Every year the mite-boxes give us more than we use for one missionary. By an extra effort this Lent we could give enough for another missionary to be employed. Shall we not have him?"

And so I turn to words of exhortation, and ask you all, dear rectors, superintendents, teachers and children, whether such a happy result may not be attained? Give more generously, pray more earnestly, practice more self-denial this Lent than ever before. Let us all really labor diligently for this end, and there is no doubt that the good work will advance, by God's blessing, better than it has done in the past.

Since our FATHER'S hand has helped us so evidently heretofore, we dare not doubt that he will grant us HIS strength and blessing if we really try to do more for him than we have ever done before.

Praying him to give success to all our efforts, I am faithfully and affectionately your Bishop, and servant in the LORD,

CORTLANDT WHITEHEAD.

Mite-boxes will be sent at Septuagesima. The boxes will be opened on Easter Sunday.

Remittances should be made promptly thereafter to Mr. H. L. Foster, Treasurer, Oil City.

If mite-boxes are needed by any Parish or Sunday School, they will be sent without charge if ordered of Edwards & Docker, 23 North Sixth street, Philadelphia.

The Commemoration of the One Hundredth Anniversary of the Inauguration of George Washington as President of the United States.

APRIL 30, 1889.

In accordance with the earnest request of the Central Committee, and in obedience to the proclamation of the President of the United States, the Bishop of the Diocese set forth and appointed the following form of prayer and thanksgiving to Almighty God for the inestimable blessings of civil and religious liberty, to be used in the churches of this Diocese, Tuesday, the thirtieth day of April, 1889, the one hundredth anniversary of the inauguration of George Washington, first President of the United States of America.

The same service was also appointed by the Bishops of Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Springfield, Newark, New York, &c.

Hymn 409 or 301.

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come. Rev. iv. 8.

The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms. Deut. xxxiii. 27.

Happy art thou, O Israel: who is like unto thee, O people saved by the Lord, the shield of thy help, and who is the sword of thy excellency! Deut. xxxiii. 29.

O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness: and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men! Psalm cvii. 21.

¶ Then the Minister shall say :

O give thanks unto the God of heaven.

ANSWER. For his mercy endureth forever.

MINISTER. O give thanks unto the Lord of Lords.

ANSWER. For his mercy endureth forever.

¶ Then, all kneeling down, the Minister and the People shall say the Lord's Prayer, the Minister first pronouncing :

Let us pray.

Lord have mercy upon us.

Christ have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Our Father, etc.

¶ Then shall the Minister say as followeth

A PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING.

O God, whose Name is excellent in all the earth, and whose glory is above the heavens : We bless thee for the great things thou hast done and art doing for the children of men. We consider the days of old, the days of ancient times, and unto thee do we give thanks. Moreover, we yield thee most high praise for the wonderful grace and virtue declared in all those thy children who have been the lights of the world in their several generations. For raising up thy servant GEORGE WASHINGTON, and giving him to be a leader and commander to the people ; for vouchsafing to him victory over kings, and for bestowing on him many excellent gifts ; for inclining the hearts of men in Congress assembled to wise choices, and for granting them vision of the days to come ; for a settled constitution, and for equal laws ; for freedom to do the thing that is right, and liberty to say the truth ; for the spread of knowledge everywhere among us, and for the preservation of the faith ; we bless and magnify thy holy Name, humbly beseeching thee to accept this our sacrifice of thanks and praise, through Jesus Christ our only Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

MINISTER. We will praise thy Name, O God, with a song.

ANSWER. And magnify it with thanksgiving.

¶ Here, all standing up, the Minister shall say

Glory be to the Father and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

ANSWER. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

MINISTER. Praise ye the Lord.

ANSWER. The Lord's name be praised.

¶ Then shall be sung these Psalms following with the Gloria Patri.

PSALM LXXXV. Benedixisti, Domine.

1. Lord, thou art become gracious unto thy land : thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob.

2. Thou hast forgiven the offence of thy people : and covered all their sins.

3. Thou hast taken away all thy displeasure : and turned thyself from thy wrathful indignation.

4. Turn us then, O God, our Saviour ; and let thine anger cease from us.

5. Wilt thou be displeased at us forever : and wilt thou stretch out thy wrath from one generation to another ?

6. Wilt thou not turn again, and quicken us : that thy people may rejoice in thee ?

7. Show us thy mercy, O Lord : and grant us thy salvation.
8. I will hearken what the Lord God will say concerning me : for he shall speak peace unto his people, and unto his saints, that they turn not again.
9. For his salvation is nigh them that fear him : that glory may dwell in our land.
10. Mercy and truth are met together ; righteousness and peace have kissed each other.
11. Truth shall flourish out of the earth ; and righteousness hath looked down from heaven.
12. Yea, the Lord shall show loving kindness : and our land shall give her increase.
13. Righteousness shall go before him : and he shall direct his going in the way.

PSALM CXXII. Lætatus sum.

1. I was glad when they said unto me : we will go into the house of the Lord.
2. Our feet shall stand in thy gates : O Jerusalem.
3. Jerusalem is built as a city : that is at unity in itself.
4. For thither the tribes go up, even the tribes of the Lord ; to testify unto Israel, to give thanks unto the Name of the Lord
5. For there is the seat of judgment ; even the seat of the house of David
6. O pray for the peace of Jerusalem : they shall prosper that love thee.
7. Peace be within thy walls : and plenteousness within thy palaces.
8. For my brethren and companions' sakes : I will wish thee prosperity.
9. Yea, because of the house of the Lord our God : I will seek to do thee good.

¶ Then shall be read for the first Lesson the following portion of the Forty-fourth Chapter of the BOOK OF ECCLESIASTICUS : beginning at the first verse.

Let us now praise famous men, and our fathers that begat us. The Lord hath wrought great glory by them, through his great power, from the beginning. Such as did bear rule in their kingdoms, men renowned for their power, giving counsel by their understanding and declaring prophecies ; leaders of the people by their counsels, and by their knowledge of learning meet for the people, wise and eloquent in their instructions. . . . All these were honored in their generation, and were the glory of their times. There be of them that have left a name behind them, that their praises might be reported. And some there be which have no memorial ; who are perished, as though they had never been ; and are become as though they had never been born ; and their children after them. But these were merciful men, whose righteousness hath not been forgotten. . . . Their bodies are buried in peace ; but their name liveth for evermore. The people will tell of their wisdom, and the congregation will show forth their praise

¶ Then shall be sung Te Deum Laudamus

¶ Then shall be read for the second Lesson the following portion of the Eighth Chapter of the Gospel according to S. John ; beginning at the thirty-first verse.

Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed in him, If ye continue in my word then are ye my disciples indeed ; and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free. They answered him, We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man : How sayest thou, Ye shall be made free ? Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin. And the servant abideth not in the house for ever : but the Son abideth ever. If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

¶ Then shall be sung a portion of the Canticle, BENEDICITE, OMNIA OPERA, as followeth : with the GLORIA PATRI.

O all ye Works of the Lord, bless ye the Lord : praise him, and magnify him forever.

O ye Angels of the Lord, bless ye the Lord : praise him, and magnify him for ever.

O ye Children of Men, bless ye the Lord : praise him, and magnify him for ever.

O let Israel bless the Lord : praise him and magnify him for ever.

O ye Priests of the Lord, bless ye the Lord : praise him, and magnify him for ever.

O ye Servants of the Lord, bless ye the Lord : praise him and magnify him for ever.

O ye Spirits and Souls of the Righteous, bless ye the Lord : praise him, and magnify him for ever.

O ye holy and humble men of heart bless ye the Lord : praise him and magnify him forever.

¶ Then shall be said by the Minister and the People the Apostles Creed.

¶ Then shall be said these Prayers, following, all devoutly kneeling: the Minister first pronouncing

The Lord be with you.

ANSWER. And with thy spirit.

MINISTER. Let us pray.

O Lord, show thy mercy upon us.

ANSWER. And grant us thy salvation.

MINISTER. O Lord, save thy people.

ANSWER. And bless thine inheritance.

MINISTER. Endue thy Ministers with righteousness.

ANSWER. And make thy chosen people joyful.

MINISTER. O Lord, bow thine ear.

ANSWER. And mercifully hear us when we call upon thee.

MINISTER. Give peace in our time, O Lord.

ANSWER. For it is thou Lord only that makest us dwell in safety.

MINISTER. O God, make clean our hearts within us.

ANSWER. And take not thy Holy Spirit from us.

¶ Then shall follow these Prayers, the Minister and the People still kneeling.

A Collect for Peace.

O God, who art the author of peace and lover of concord, in knowledge of whom standeth our eternal life, whose service is perfect freedom; Defend us thy humble servants in all assaults of our enemies; that we, surely trusting in thy defence, may not fear the power of any adversaries, through the might of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the President of the United States and all in Civil Authority.

Almighty God, the fountain of all goodness, we humbly beseech thee to bless thy servant, BENJAMIN HARRISON, President of the United States, his counselors and all others in authority. Endue them with thy Holy Spirit; enrich them with thy heavenly grace, prosper them with all happiness; and bring them to thine everlasting kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord Amen.

For the Country.

Almighty God, who in the former time didst lead our fathers forth into a wealthy place: Give thy grace, we humbly beseech thee, to us their children, that we may always approve ourselves a people mindful of thy favor and glad to do thy will. Bless our land with honorable industry, sound learning, and pure manners. Defend our liberties, preserve our unity. Save us from violence, discord and confusion, from pride and arrogancy, and from every evil way. Fashion into one happy people the multitudes brought hither out of many kindreds and tongues. Endue with the spirit of wisdom those whom we entrust in thy Name with the authority of governance, to the end that there be peace at home, and that we keep a place among the nations of the earth. In the time of prosperity, fill our hearts with thankfulness; and in the day of trouble, suffer not our trust in thee to fail; all which we ask for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

For a Blessing on the Families of the Land.

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who settest the solitary in families; We commend to thy continual care the homes in which thy people dwell. Put far from them, we beseech thee, every root of bitterness, the desire of vainglory and the pride of life. Fill them with faith, virtue, knowledge, temperance, patience, godliness. Knit together in constant affection those who, in holy wedlock, have been made one flesh, turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to the fathers and so kindle charity among us all, that we be evermore kindly affectioned with brotherly love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For the Unity of the Church of God,

O God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, our Savior and Prince of Peace; Give us grace seriously to lay to heart the great dangers we are in by our unhappy divisions. Take away all hatred and prejudice, and whatsoever else may hinder us from godly union and concord; that, as there is but one Body, and one Spirit, and one Hope of our calling, one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism, one God and Father of us all, so we may all be of one heart, and of one soul, united in one holy bond of Truth and Peace, of Faith and Charity, and may with one mind and one mouth glorify thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

2 Cor, xiii, 14,

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the Love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

Appropriate hymns: 35, 301, 307, 309, 326, 409.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPAL CHURCH ROOMS

The Episcopal Rooms have continued to be used for Diocesan purposes. The Bishop uses them for office purposes and when in the City visits them almost daily, having many conferences with clergy and laity from different parts of the Diocese on matters pertaining to the Diocese. Committees and delegations from different parishes and mission stations meet there for consultation with the Bishop and visiting Clergy make them their head-quarters. They are also the head-quarters of the General Missionary, and from where a good deal of the mission work is directed.

The number of visitors to the rooms, from June 1888 to June 1889 show an increase of 896 over the corresponding period of 1887 and 1888.

REPORT OF REV. A. W. MANN, GENERAL MISSIONARY TO DEAF-MUTES.

TO THE RT. REV'D COURTLANDT WHITEHEAD, D. D., Bishop Diocese of Pittsburg :

During the year just closed, I held services for deaf-mutes at Trinity Church, Pittsburg ; St. Paul's Church, Kittanning ; Church of Our Father, Foxburg ; Trinity Church, Rochester ; and St. Mary's Church, Beaver Falls ; with very good congregations. I visited Franklin once to look over the ground ; and shall visit as many more new places as my time will allow.

At present my district extends from the Alleghenies to the Missouri River ;—too much ground, indeed, for a single missionary, but which should be held and worked, even as at present, until the church has more clergy to send to the spiritually famishing deaf-mutes of this great country.

My work is among a widely scattered people, whose ratio to other people is as one to sixteen hundred. They can not be reached in the ordinary way : and so need The Church's Ministrations in a language best suited to their case. At present, they are more disadvantageously situated with regard to spiritual privileges than any class of people in the Christian communities. The blind who are almost universally regarded as more grievously afflicted, can take part in public worship and instruction in common with, and as frequently as, seeing people. Thus, they need no special ministry, or special language, as do the deaf. The latter, owing to the present fewness of their clergy, enjoy the blessed privilege of worship at large intervals. The blind have enjoyed these from the day that the Gospel was first preached. Not so the deaf. But four decades have passed since the Church in America and England began to look after them. Only a little more than a decade has passed since the deaf man was vested with Holy Orders. Until their minds could be enlightened by education, the church could do nothing. It is only seventy years since the first school for the deaf was established on this hemisphere.

Thus far, the Church has been alone in systematic work among this long neglected people : so that they have enjoyed the blessings of Christian Unity. Every where, they are too few for denominational divisions. In the city of Pittsburg and suburbs, enough can be found to make a single congregation of but thirty. Any thoughtful, unprejudiced mind, having in view the evils of a fragmentary Christian, will ask : "What is the use of dividing this handful ?"

There have been no baptisms in the Diocese during the year, although there have been 46 in the other Dioceses of my district. Only one candidate was confirmed, at Trinity Church, Pittsburg. Four are awaiting the Apostolic Rite. Twenty-six were confirmed within my district ; 368, since the beginning of the work in 1875.

COMMUNICANTS : Pittsburg, 14 ; Braddock, 4 ; Homestead, 2 ; McKeesport, 1 ; Kittanning, 1 ; Miles Grove, 1 Total, 23. In my entire field, 360.

In December of this conventional year, I attended the consecration of All Soul's Church for the Deaf, Philadelphia, by Bishop Whittaker ; and the sessions of the Fifth Conference of Church Workers among the Deaf, held there. There were present, besides the writer, the Rev. Dr. Gallaudet, and his assistants the Rev. Messrs. Chamberlain and Colt, who have the work in several Eastern Diocese ; the Rev. Dr. Clerc, and Rev. Mr. Koeler, of Central Pennsylvania ; the Rev. Mr. Syle, Pastor of the above named church, as well as missionary in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, Delaware and New Jersey. The next Conference will be held in the coming October, at St. Ann's Church, New York City.

Since this Conference, another deaf-mute has been vested with Holy Orders by Bishop Seymour. He will be my assistant in the Trans-Mississippi Dioceses.

The Women's Missionary Society was organized Dec. 1, 1878. It has accomplished a great deal so far. The Young People's Guild have raised nearly $100 during the year towards a bell; they also gave an entertainment for the mission at Union City which netted $50.00. A Fund has been started, although it is very small as yet, towards securing a permanent Rectory. Beginning with April 20, 1889, the Rector receives $1,000.00 salary, instead of $800.00 as heretofore. The increased attendance at all services and, above all, the large proportion of actual communicants are signs very encouraging to the Rector.

The Mission at Albany Mines has a Sunday School of about 60 scholars and 6 teachers, Frank T. Hogg, esq., superintendent. A church service with sermon has been held over a month during the past year. The Bishop, having deemed it expedient to discontinue the services at St. John's, West Brownsville, placed the Parish under the pastoral care of the Rector of Christ Church, in Feb. last. The communicants have been received into Christ's Church, and all families and persons desiring it have been assigned seats in the Church. The Rector has a Sunday school at 2:30 p. m. of about 60 scholars and 7 teachers; and Mrs. Ensworth has a Bible class of 26 adults.

REMARKS.—The Rector has the Pastoral oversight of an Industrial school which meets on every Saturday from October until May, in one of the Public School buildings. The school has a membership of 125 from the poor young girls of the City. The President of the school is Mrs. D. R. Harris, wife of D. R. Harris, M. D., of the Vestry. The teachers are from all denominations. The children are drilled in the Choral services of the Church, and attend the Lenten services. At the Christmas-tide they learn the carols and celebrate the Festival with a Christmas tree in the Church. The school is fast becoming a strong tie between the Church and the working people.

APPENDIX D.

Unfinished Business.

Unfinished business pending for action at the next Diocesan Convention.

Life Insurance Endowment, see Journal of 1888, pages 24, 30, 45, 47.

Bishop Kerfoot Memorial Building, see Journal of 1888, pages 26 and 48.

The following amendment to Section 3, Article 3 of the Constitution :

"The Chancellor of the Diocese shall be ex-officio a member of the Convention with the right to a single vote in the lay order."

See this Journal, pages 44 and 45.

The following amendments to the Constitution :

1. That the last ten words of Section 2 of Article 5 of the Constitution, namely, "and each parish shall be entitled to only one vote," be stricken out.

2. That in Section 4 of Article 5 of the Constitution, the eleven words which immediately follow the word "Orders," namely, "and in such election the Lay Deputies shall vote per capita," be stricken out.

See page 31 of this Journal.

That Article XI of the Constitution on the election of a Bishop,

The election of a Bishop for this Diocese shall be made in Convention, in the following manner : The Order of the Clergy shall nominate and appoint, by ballot, some fit and qualified Clergyman for that office, and if this appointment be approved by the Lay Order, he shall be declared duly elected. If two-thirds of either Order be represented at Convention, a majority vote shall determine the choice of such Order ; otherwise, a vote of two-thirds shall be necessary for that purpose. Provided, that in all cases of the election of a Bishop, no clergyman shall be entitled to a vote unless he shall have been, for at least six months immediately preceding the election, personally and canonically resident in this Diocese.

be amended by making the second clause read :

"After nomination in open Convention, the Order of Clergy shall appoint by ballot some fit and qualified Clergyman," &c.

See pages 24 and 34 of this Journal.

Rules

For conducting the business of the Convention of the Diocese of Pittsburgh, which shall not be suspended, altered or rescinded, without one day's previous notice, unless by an affirmative vote of two-thirds :

A.—ORDER OF BUSINESS.

First Day—Morning.

I. At the opening of the Convention the Holy Communion shall be celebrated, which, being ended, the Convention shall be called to-order by the Bishop, or in case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or of the absence of the Bishop, or his inability to act, by the President or Senior Presbyter present of the Standing Committee.

II. The Secretary of the last Convention, or, in his absence, some other person appointed by the Bishop, or the officer presiding, shall then call the names of the Clergymen according to the list prepared under the provisions of Canon 1. He shall, also, having previously made a list thereof, call the names of all the Lay Deputies claiming to represent Parishes entitled to representation at the last Convention, who shall have furnished him with certificates, in due form, of their election to this Convention. And the list of names thus made by him shall be prima facie evidence of a right to a seat in the Convention.

The Convention shall then, if necessary, proceed to elect a President, pro tempore, from the Presbyters present.

III. The Convention having been thus organized, the first business thereafter shall be the election of a Secretary. The Secretary may appoint an Assistant Secretary.

IV. The President shall then appoint the following Regular Committees:

1. On the Claims of Clergymen to seats in the Convention, to consist of three Clergymen.
2. On the Claims of Lay Deputies to Seats in the Convention, to consist of three Laymen.
3. On the Admission of Parishes into Union with the Convention, to consist of one Clergyman and two Laymen.
4. On the State of the Church, to consist of three Clergymen and two Laymen.
5. On Unfinished Business, to consist of one Clergymen and two Laymen.

The Committee on the State of the Church shall continue from one Convention to the next.

V. The Bishop's Address. But if not then delivered, it shall be in order at any time hereafter.

VI. Reports of the Standing Committee and of the Finance Committee of the Diocese, to be presented and laid on the Secretary's table without debate.

VII. Motions, Notices and Resolutions, not giving rise to debate, shall then be in order.

VIII. Miscellaneous business.

First Day of the Session—Afternoon.

I. Nominations of the various officers to be chosen by ballot.

II. At 3.30 P. M., Convention to sit as a Board of Missions to review and act on the Report of the Executive Committee.

III. Unfinished business.

IV. Miscellaneous business.

Second and Each Succeeding Day.

I. Divine Service as may be ordered or set forth by the Bishop.

II. The reading, correcting and approving the Minutes of the preceding day.

III. Calling the names of absent members, and entering in the Journal those who appear.

IV. The Convention may then take up and dispose up miscellaneous business till 10 o'clock.

V. At 10 o'clock elections.

VI. Reports from Regular and Special Committees in order.

VII. Miscellaneous business.

B.—GENERAL RULES.

I. The Convention shall meet at 9 o'clock A. M., take a recess from 1 to 3 P. M., and adjourn for the day at 6 o'clock P. M.; Provided, That the House shall not at any time be considered as adjourned without a vote to that effect.

II. All Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church and of Churches in full communion with the same, candidates for Holy Orders; and the vestry of the Church in which the Convention is held, shall be admitted to the sitting of the Convention, and on reporting themselves to the Secretary, their names shall be entered on the Journal.

III. Of elections by ballot.

a. Tickets shall be printed with all the names proposed, and the election shall take place on the following day—the voting to be by erasing the names of those for whom the members do not wish to vote; but the Supplemental Deputies to the General Convention shall not be nominated nor voted for till the election of the Deputies shall have been completed.

b. When there shall be a failure to elect on the first trial, the balloting shall, upon the second trial, be confined to the three candidates who received the largest number of votes; and upon failure to elect upon the second trial, the balloting shall, upon the third trial, be confined to the two candidates who received the largest number of votes upon the second trial.

c. On counting the ballot such person or persons shall be held to have obtained the concurrent vote of both Orders, and therefore declared elected by the Convention, who shall be found to have been elected by the vote of each Order considered apart from that of the other.

IV. The Committee on the State of the Church shall prepare and present to the next Annual Convention, before its final adjournment, a condensed report and tabular statement of the State of the Church within the Diocese, to be published with the Journal. And for this purpose the Bishop's Annual Address and all Parochial Reports shall be referred to this Committee; Provided, Nevertheless, that such reference shall not prevent the referring of any part of the Bishop's Address to a Special Committee.

V. Before the final adjournment of any session of the Convention, the Minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read, corrected and approved, after which the Convention shall close with such religious services as the President may direct.

C.—RULES OF ORDER.

I. No motion shall be put or debated until it is seconded, and when seconded, it shall be stated by the President before it is voted on; and every motion, when required, shall be reduced to writing.

II. If the question in debate contains several distinct propositions, any member may have the same divided.

III. When a question is under consideration, no motion shall be received, unless to lay it upon the table, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone it to a certain time, to commit it, or to amend it: and motions for any of these purposes shall have precedence in the order herein named. If a motion to lay on the table an amendment be carried, the matter before the Convention shall be proceeded with as if no such amendment had been offered.

The motions to lay upon the table and to adjourn shall be decided without debate. The motion to adjourn shall always be in order.

IV. On a question being put by the President, it shall be determined by the sound of voices for or against it; but any member may require the count of the votes, and tellers for that purpose shall be appointed by the chair; or any three votes may, previous to a decision by count, require the ayes and nays to be taken, which shall be done by calling the names of the clerical members and the Parishes represented, and all votes by ayes and nays shall be entered on the Minutes.

V. A question once decided shall not be reconsidered during the same session without an affirmative vote of two-thirds, nor without a motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on the prior decision; nor shall any question be reconsidered more than once.

VI. All questions of order shall be decided by the presiding officer, subject to an appeal to the House.

Journal of Proceedings.

FIRST DAY—MORNING SESSION.

The Twenty-fifth Annual Convention of the Diocese of Pittsburgh met in St. Peter's Church, Pittsburgh, Wednesday, June 11, 1890; at 9 o'clock A. M.

The Holy Communion was celebrated, The Right Rev. Cortlandt Whitehead, S. T. D., Bishop of the Diocese, officiating, assisted by Rev. W. R. Mackay, Rev. R. S. Smith and Rev. E. A. Angell.

The Convention was called to order by the Bishop at 10:45 A. M.

The roll of the Clergy entitled to seats was called and attendance noted.

The roll of the parishes was called and the attendance of Lay Deputies noted.

The Rev. Rogers Israel nominated the Rev. E. A. Angell for Secretary. There being no other nomination, he was elected by acclamation. Rev. Mr. Angell then appointed Rev. W. N. Webbe as Assistant Secretary. The Bishop invited all Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church and of churches in communion with the same and candidates for Holy Orders to the sittings of the Convention, and asked that all such report their names to the Secretary. The following persons reported under this invitation :

Rev. S. D. McConnell, D. D., from the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

Rev. W. O. Lamson, temporarily in charge of Trinity Church, Pittsburgh.

Rev. S. P. Kelly, of the Diocese of Central Pennsylvania.

Rev. W. C. Rodgers and Rev. R. A. Cayley, of the Church of England, and the Rev. John Mulholland, L. L. D., of the Diocese of Springfield.

The Bishop appointed the following committees :

On Claims of Clergy to Seats,

Revs. S. D. Day, William B. Thorn and G. W. Williams.

On Claims of Lay Deputies to Seats,

Messrs. G. L. Eberhart, R. C. Cornelius and J. W. Morgester.

On Admission of Parishes.

The Rev. Rogers Israel, Messrs. C. K. Chamberlain and G. R. White.

On the State of the Church,

Revs. J. D. Herron, George Rogers and J. R. Wightman, Messrs. H. B. Brunot and W. H. Reichert.

On Unfinished Business,

Rev. G. A. M. Dyess, Messrs. John P. Painter and John C. Shaler, Jr.

Mr. Hill Burgwin offered the following amendments to the Canons, see pages 27 and 28 of Journal of 1889, which on his motion were referred to the Committee on Canons :

1. Page 27, line 5, instead of the words, "shall become or continue a member of this parish," substitute the words, "shall hold any office in this organization."

Also, in line 37, the same.

2. Page 27, line 7, omit the words, "Monday in Easter week," and leave a blank.

Page 28, line 4, the same.

3. Page 27, line 6 from bottom, add to the words, "Ecclesiastical authority of this Diocese," the clause, "who shall be notified of the proposed election at least one week before the election is held."

4. Page 23, line 5, omit word, "male," before "members."

5. Page 26, line 8 from bottom, and also page 27, line 24, insert the words, "or other like," after the words, "the following form."

- the Rules of Order, Journal, page 195, chapter IV, instead of "and" insert, "and then of the Lay Members."

The following amendment to Canon on the organization, etc., of parishes was proposed by Mr. Hill Burgwin, in addition to those proposed by him at the preceding Convention. (See Journal 1889, page 38 :)

"In Section 2 strike out the words 'Mission or otherwise.' "

That the Canon on the Organization and Admission of Parishes be amended as follows :

1st. Strike out the last 16 words of the first paragraph of Section 2, and insert in lieu thereof the words, "as hereinafter provided under form A."

2d. Add at the end of Section 2 the words, "under form B."

3d. Insert at the head of the form set forth in Section 3 the following :
"Form A."

4th. Insert after the first two words in Section 4 the words, "not receiving aid from the Convention."

5th. Add at the end of the first paragraph of Section 5 the following words: "and any parish duly organized under this form may apply to the civil courts for a charter of incorporation." Also, insert at the head of the form the following words : "Form B."

6th. Strike out the last line in Section 6.

7th. That Section 8 be stricken out and in lieu thereof be inserted as follows :

SEC. 8. Before the formation or organization of a new parish notice in writing, by those proposing such action, shall be given to the Bishop and Standing Committee, and proper publication thereof shall be made in the neighborhood one month in advance, giving time and place of a proposed meeting for the purpose aforesaid. And in case of a proposed organization the notice shall state whether such organization is to be under form A or form B, as recommended by the Convention, and no parish shall be admitted into union with the Convention unless it shall have submitted its Articles of Association to the Bishop and Standing Committee two months previous to the meeting of the Convention.

Rev. George Hodges presented the Articles of Association of St. Stephen's Church, Wilkinsburg, and they were referred to the Committee on Admission of New Parishes.

Mr. H. L. Foster presented the following suggestions to the Delegates to the Convention, which on his motion were referred to the Committee on Canons :

That it might be desirable to change the date of the annual election of vestrymen and officers of the church in this Diocese from Easter Monday to the first Monday in June.

The present financial year, as well as the general business year, now ends on May 31, but the election on Easter Monday frequently changes the vestrymen and also Secretary and Treasurer at that time; consequently when such changes are made the parochial report on May 31 must cover two periods of administration:

1st. May 31 to Easter Monday.

2d. Easter Monday to May 31.

The suggested change would enable the retiring vestrymen and officers to make a full report of their own stewardship, to be laid before the meeting for the election, as is usually the custom in all business corporations.

It is further urged that it would be well to remove the excitement of the annual election from its present immediate proximity to the Easter season.

If the change should not be generally made, would there be any objections to our church making the change, of course in the method provided in the Constitution?

The following resolutions were, on motion of the Rev. R. A. Benton, referred to the Committee on Canons:

WHEREAS: There are now two financial years in use; one of the Parishes ending Easter Monday, the others of the Diocese ending June 1, therefore, for the sake of simplicity be it

Resolved: That Article 8, Section 4 of the Constitution be amended to read:

The Financial year of the Diocese shall begin on Easter Monday —

Further be it

Resolved: That Canon III, Sec. 3, be amended by striking out the words "the first day of June" and substituting for them, "Easter Monday."

The Secretary presented the following communication from the Secretary of the House of Deputies of the General Convention in reference to the Clergymen's Retiring Fund Society, which, with the Canon appended, was referred to the Committee on Canons.

CONCORD, Mass., May 3, 1890.

DEAR SIR: I beg to communicate through you to the Convention of the Diocese of Pittsburgh, the following resolutions adopted by the House of Deputies of the General Convention, October 24, 1889.

Resolved: That the Clergymen's Retiring Fund Society is heartily approved in its principles and methods, and is commended to the support of the Clergy and Laity of the Church.

Resolved: That every Diocese of this Church be asked to pass a Canon similar to that of the Diocese of Newark, on the subject of a Clergy Pension Fund.

Resolved: That the Secretary of this House be instructed to transmit these resolutions, together with copies of the Report of the Clergymen's Retiring Fund Society, and of the aforesaid Canon of the Diocese of Newark, to the Convention of each Diocese.

Appended hereto you will find the Canon referred to in the foregoing resolutions. I am, dear sir,

Your obedient servant,

CHAS. L. HUTCHINS,
Secretary.

CANON.

Of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen:

SECTION I. It shall be the duty of every Minister having charge of a congregation of this Diocese, to make at least one annual collection for the relief of Clergymen disabled by age or disease.

SECT. II. All contributions and donations for this object shall be transmitted to the Treasurer of "The Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen."

SECT. III. All collections and all donations not limited by the donor, received during the Conventional year, shall be subject to the order of "The Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen," and may be appropriated by said Trustees for the relief of Clergymen disabled by age, accident, or disease, who have been canonically connected with the Diocese for the two years immediately preceding their application for relief, and have spent at least two successive years within the limits of the Diocese in the active discharge of the duties of the Ministry, or in the work of Christian education. Clergymen to whom appropriations are made under this Section shall be known as "Special Afluitants," and shall not receive more than three hundred dollars in any one year.

SECT. IV. The Trustees shall have power to appropriate, from the collections received during the year, a sum not exceeding seventy-five dollars towards defraying the funeral expenses of any Clergyman of the Church.

SECT. V. All appropriations (unless otherwise ordered) shall be payable semi-annually, on the first day of May and November, and all moneys unappropriated at the end of each Conventional year shall be paid into a fund, which shall be known as the "Permanent Fund," and shall be kept safely invested. The interest accruing on the existing capital fund, now in the hands of the Treasurer of the Convention, shall be permitted to accumulate. All accumulations shall be safely invested by the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, and added to the Permanent Fund until the same shall, with the existing capital fund, reach the sum of thirty thousand dollars.

SECT. VI. All legacies and all donations limited by the donor, paid to the Trustees, shall be used and applied by them agreeably to the terms and provisions under which the money is received; and when not otherwise directed by the donor, the legacy or donation shall be added to the "Permanent Fund," and the income thereof alone used.

As soon as said Funds shall together reach the sum of thirty thousand dollars, the Trustees shall grant an annuity to every Clergyman who (1) has reached the age of sixty-five years, and (2) has been canonically connected with the Diocese for the five years immediately preceding his application for an annuity, and (3) has been for at least five years of his last term of canonical residence a settled Minister of the Diocese, or a Missionary duly appointed by the Ecclesiastical Authority.

The interest received from said Funds shall be divided equally among the Clergymen entitled to receive an annuity under the terms and provisions of the previous paragraph of this Section, and if this interest shall not be sufficient to give to each Clergyman the sum of three hundred dollars, then the balance of collections and donations remaining after the "Special Annuity" are provided for, shall be used to increase the annuity to said sum.

Clergymen receiving an annuity under this Section, which shall in no case exceed one thousand dollars, shall be known as "Regular Annuityants."

The Secretary presented, from the Secretary of the House of Deputies of the General Convention, official notification to the Dioceses of the proposed changes in the Prayer Book to be acted upon finally by the next General Convention, whereupon Mr. Burgwin offered the following resolutions:

1st. That the notification from the Secretary of the House of Deputies of the General Convention as to proposed alterations and additions in the Book of Common Prayer to be acted on finally in the General Convention of 1892 be referred to a committee consisting of the Bishop, as Chairman, with three Clergymen and three Laymen, to consider and report thereon to the next Annual Convention.

2d. That the Secretary be instructed to certify the Secretary of the House of Deputies that the said notification has been received by this Convention.

The Treasurer of the Board of Missions presented his report. (See Appendix C.)

On motion of Rev. George Rogers the report of the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions was presented by the Secretary of said Committee, Rev. A. W. Ryan, as follows:

Your committee would respectfully submit the following report :

During the past year the missionary work of the Diocese has met with moderate but uniform success. The following is a list of the missionaries now actually engaged in the work: The Rev. Dr. Norman, at Homestead; the Rev. H. Q. Miller, at Beaver Falls; the Rev. J. L. Taylor, at Dunbar; the Rev. John London, at Petrolia; the Rev. Andrew Fleming, at North East; the Rev. T. J. Danner, at Georgetown; the Rev. N. M. Badger, at Mansfield; the Rev. W. T. Schepeler, at Ridgway; the Rev. Joseph Barber, in Clarion county; the Rev. G. A. M. Dyess, at Bellevue; the Rev. C. L. Bates, at Port Allegany; the Rev. William Price, at Erie; the Rev. William B. Thorn, at Union City; the Rev. W. J. C. Agnew, at Houtzdale; the Rev. S. Dimmick, in Armstrong and Indiana counties; the Rev. J. G. Mulholland, at Reynoldsville; the Rev. B. S. Lassiter, at Indiana and Scottdale; the Rev. Dr. I. N. W. Irwin, at Braddock; the Rev. Joseph Moran, at Youngsville; the Rev. J. E. Curzon, at Clearfield; the Rev. D. Duroe, at St. Luke's Church, Pittsburgh; the Rev. Charles A. Bragdon, General Missionary. This makes a total of 22 missionaries now occupied in the work.

At Braddock the corner-stone was laid last Fall. The church is now under roof and is rapidly approaching completion.

At Petrolia we had the misfortune to lose our chapel by fire, and, as there has been a constant exodus of church people, this mission has been suspended.

At Driftwood several one hundred dollar subscriptions have been made towards the erection of a small chapel. A desirable lot has been generously donated by Mr. J. W. Cochran.

Emporium is moving towards the erection of a new rectory, and the Rev. C. L. Bates has brought about a more prosperous condition of the parish than it has ever before known in its history.

Subscriptions have been made at Fairmount, and it is expected that a chapel will be erected here this summer.

Osceola Mills, Clearfield county, is in the circuit of Rev. W. J. C. Agnew. Through the kindness of the Rev. A. S. R. Richards a chapel has been provided, and services are given by Mr. Richards and a lay reader, with good prospects of growth.

The work at Ridgway has been especially aggressive and prosperous, and after this year this parish will be self-sustaining. It is surely the duty of our old missions to seek as early as possible to become independent of outside support. It is a moral injury to any church to remain a pensioner one day longer than necessary, and the diocese needs all its resources to develop the new work which is constantly presenting itself. The Rev. W. T. Schepeler deserves especial praise for his able, energetic and successful work in Ridgway.

At Carmen and Brockwayville missions have been begun by the Rev. W. T. Schepeler, of Ridgway. A large class has been confirmed from Carmen, and at Brockwayville lots have been offered for church and rectory. The intention now is to build a church at both places.

The Church of the Holy Cross, North East, has cancelled its debt, after long years of struggle, and it is to be consecrated this Fall. The faithful missionary, the Rev. Mr. Fleming, hopes that his mission can then care for itself.

St. Matthew's Church, Union City, has raised several hundred dollars to complete the chapel, which has thus far been but a shell—unfinished inside.

Scottdale has raised one thousand dollars, has purchased a lot and is beginning the erection of a church.

At Blairsville the people have declined to have services until they have paid for their rectory. They are now almost out of debt, but have set an unfortunate precedent for themselves and for others. Surely it behooves our people to consider the spiritual as well as the material prosperity of their churches.

At Indiana money has been raised for kalsomining and repairing the church.

At Reynoldsville a lot has been bought, and the people are hoping to build a church.

Punxsutawney ought to be made the center of an associate mission which could minister to the large number of English people, members of the mother church, who are scattered through the mining region. Such a mission could supply services at Horatio, Adrian and Coalport, on the same line of railway.

Meyersdale has not been supplied with services owing to its great distance from any other center of church work with which it might be joined. It is sadly in need of stated services.

At Tarentum, the church has been completed and is to be consecrated the last Thursday of this month. Owing to the generosity of our laymen principally, a Chapel has been erected at Mansfield. A firm hold has been obtained on the confidence of the people and it is hoped that by the end of the coming year, this church will be more nearly self-sustaining.

At Kinzua, the Chapel has been freed from all debt, thanks to the generous assistance of friends, and is now awaiting consecration.

At Kane, the services, suspended for a season, have lately been revived. If a Chapel could be erected by the general church in Kane, it would give the people the impression that the church had come to stay and many people who are kindly inclined towards the church, are unwilling to commit themselves to her cause and so take upon themselves the burden of building a chapel.

Church life at Tidioute has taken on a new vigor and alternate Sunday services are given by the Rev. Jos. Moran.

The mission at Youngsville is steadily growing and it is hoped that in the near future, a suitable house may be purchased for a rectory. The prosperity of this mission is largely due to the untiring energy of Mr. C. A. Cornen. These are some of the external marks of prosperity for which we may give unfeigned thanks to God. The Bishop reports two hundred and eleven (211) confirmations in the Mission-field, and this is about one-fourth the entire number presented for that rite in the Diocese. Your committee would earnestly beg the brethren to give to this work of our Common Master, their hearty co-operation and enthusiastic support. There can be no question of our obligation if we look at the matter from the stand-point of duty. Our Lord's words are very clear and explicit and are binding upon every one of us. If we have any confidence in the church of our choice and in the faith which we profess, then we have a treasure which may be a blessing to us, and if to us, why not to the rest of the world? Then again, the opportunity is propitious. The old Macedonian cry comes up from every quarter: "Come over and help us." Our Christian brethren of every name find that it "pays" to push the mission work, but settled and prosperous parishes are the results of missionary faith. All about us are springing up towns which some day will be cities. Will it be wise for us to leave these towns until the population drifts into ways of thinking and believing which are quite foreign to those of the church and then come in last and weakest—a pitiful presentation of the Church Catholic?

One great source of the lack of enthusiasm for the missionary work lies in the almost universal ignorance of the field—its many invitations, its steady progress, its large importance in the near future. Much of this knowledge can be gathered from "The Church News," which is the official organ of the Diocese, and which, from month to month gives a short review of the Church's life and growth. The people owe it to themselves not simply to take this paper but to read it and so catch some of the interest which this mighty work ought to inspire in every loyal heart.

There seems to be no question as to the obligation resting upon us to carry on the Diocesan mission work with energy and to give it generous support. We are liable to differ as to the proper methods for raising the requisite money. Is it not true that a poor plan well executed is better than a superior plan that elicits small support? What we need most is harmonious action. May we not enlist the cordial support of every Clergyman and every layman for the method that shall be adopted by this Convention?

During the past year the Executive Committee have disbursed $8,230.64. The total receipts have been $6,810.91, leaving a deficit of $1,319.73. It is the first time in eleven years that any deficit has occurred. In addition to the needs of the work of the coming year this deficit must be provided for. An extraordinary effort must therefore be made during the coming years, in order to keep up the work undertaken in the past. To accomplish this and to put the work on a substantial basis, putting the burden on the individual members of the church and seeking to stimulate their interest.

Your Committee respectfully submit the following resolution:

1. That each Parish be requested to raise as a minimum amount, one dollar for each communicant, to carry on the Missions of the Diocese, to be remitted quarterly to the Treasurer.

ALBERT W. RYAN,

Secretary for the Ex. Committee of the Board of Missions.

The hour of noon having arrived, the Bishop proceeded to read his annual address. (See Appendix A.)

At the conclusion of his address the Bishop presented to the Convention the official notification of the several bequests of the late John H. Shoenberger, to the Diocese of Pittsburgh, whereupon Mr. Wm. Metcalf presented the following resolutions :

Resolved : That a committee of two Clergymen and three laymen be appointed by the Bishop, to which shall be referred that portion of the Bishop's address relating to the bequest of John H. Shoenberger deceased for the erection and maintenance of a Church Hospital with instruction to report appropriate resolutions and to nominate Trustees.

Resolved : That to the same Committee shall be referred that portion of the Bishops address relating to the bequest for the use of Missions in this Diocese.

The resolutions were adopted and the Committee appointed by the Bishop as follows: Rev. R. J. Coster Rev. Robert Grange, Messrs. Wm. Metcalf, S. C. McCandless and J. W. Paul.

On motion of Rev. J. D. Herron, that part of the Bishop's address relating to the subject of Deaconesses was referred to a Committee of three Clergymen and two laymen to report at next Convention.

The report of the Standing Committee was presented and read by the Secretary, Rev. R. J. Coster.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE TO THE ANNUAL CONVENTION

JUNE 11, 1890.

The Standing Committee respectfully report the following official acts for the year ending with the above date.

The Committee met on June 17, 1889, and organized for business by electing the Rev. Thomas Crumpton, D. D., as President, and the Rev. R. J. Coster as Secretary.

On the same day they recommended Mr. Pedro S. Mesny a candidate for Holy Orders for Ordination to the Diaconate.

Also in accordance with the provisions of the Canon for the Trial of a Clergyman they elected as a Court Array from which to constitute a jury in case of such a trial, the Reverend Messrs. R. S. Smith, H. L. Yewens, Robert Meech, John H. McCandless, Laurens McLure, and Messrs. S. T. Dick, H. G. Hale, C. K. Chamberlain, H. W. Armstrong and Kenton Chickering.

September 18, they elected the Rev. E. A. Angell to fill the vacancy in the office of the Secretary of the Convention, caused by the removal of Rev. W. W. Wilson from the Diocese, and the Rev. Dr. Ryan and Mr. C. K. Chamberlain to fill vacancies in the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions, and the Rev. Messrs. M. Byllesby and George Hodges to fill vacancies in the Committee on the Bishop Kerfoot Memorial Building.

November 2, they recommended as candidates for Holy Orders, Arthur Douglas Brown and Wm. J. White.

December 18, they recommended the following Deacons for Ordination to the Priesthood, namely: Rev. J. R. Wightman, Rev. James DeQuincy Donehoo, and Rev. C. M. Kimball.

Also Miles Standish Hemenway as a candidate for Holy Orders.

May 2, 1890, they consented to the consecration of the Rev. Wm. Ford Nichols, D. D., as Assistant Bishop of California.

And also recommended Mr. Henry W. G. Mesny as a candidate for Holy Orders and approved of the Articles of Association of St. Stephen's Parish, Wilkinsburg, and those of the Church of Epiphany, Bellevue, with the recommendation that the last named Parish fix the number of its Vestrymen definitely.

May 23, they recommended Mr. M. S. Hemenway for Deacon's Orders, and Thos J. Garland as candidate for Holy Orders and June 6, Arthur D. Brown for Ordination to the Diaconate.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT J. COSTER,
Secretary.

The report of the Finance Committee for the year ending May 31st, 1890, was read by the Secretary as follows :

The Committee respectfully reports :

The organization for the past year has remained as it was, Mr. E. P. Jones, Chairman, and Mr. James W. Brown, Secretary.

The accounts of the Treasurers of the several Funds of the Diocese have been audited to May 31st, 1890, and found to be correct, and are herewith presented to the Convention.

The Permanent Episcopal Fund at date of last report was $47,404.78. Belonging to this Fund was certain property on Cliff Street and Bedford Avenue, representing $10,800.00 in the Fund. For several years this property has yielded little revenue, and it was sold for $8,000.00, reducing the Fund

$2,800.00; and $750.00 premium paid for certain Bonds belonging to the Fund was charged off, reducing the amount of the Fund $3,550.00. =

Contributions under Canon 5 of the Diocese, from several parishes, amounting to $142.73, added to the Fund makes the total amount $43,997.51. -

The Committee has made, and herewith reports to the Convention, a statement of assessments on the various Parishes of the Diocese for the amount necessary to raise for the ensuing year, being $3,000.00 for Bishop's salary, and $1,800 for Convention and Diocesan expenses. =

Respectfully submitted.

The order of the day at this time being the report of the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions, the Secretary read the resolution appended to said report, as follows :

Resolved : That each Parish be requested to raise as a minimum amount, one dollar for each Communicant, to carry on the Missions of the Diocese, to be remitted quarterly to the Treasurer.

Mr. Hill Burgwin offered the following amendment :

Resolved : That we appropriate for the Missions of this Diocese the sum of ——— dollars for the coming year and that the amount needed from each Parish be made known by the Executive Committee to cover, in the aggregate, this amount.

Mr. H. L. Foster offered the following as a substitute :

Resolved : That the Finance Committee be directed to assess the various Parishes of the Diocese, such sums as they may consider equitable, to raise the amount of $6,500 for the Missionary work of the current year, which sum this Convention considers as binding and obligatory as any other assessment levied under its authority.

Mr J. W. Paul moved to lay all but the original motion on the table.

The motion was lost.

The question then recurred on the motion of Mr. H. L. Foster. Lost on a division.—Ayes, 29 ; nays, 49.

The amendment of Mr. Burgwin was then put to vote and carried. Ayes, 50 ; nays, 27,

The motion as amended was then put and carried.

On motion the amount called for was fixed at $6,500.

On motion of Rev. Mr. Dyess, the articles of Association of Epiphany Church, Bellevue, were referred to Committee on the admission of new Parishes.

The Committee on the bequests of the late John Shoenberger for a Memorial Hospital, and for Board Missions made their report :

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON THAT PORTION OF BISHOP'S ADDRESS RELATING TO THE BEQUEST FOR ST. MARGARET'S MEMORIAL HOSPITAL.

WHEREAS; By the last Will and Testament of John H. Shoenberger there is granted and bequeathed a lot of ground situate in the 17th Ward City of Pittsburgh, and and in addition thereto a sum of money for the purpose of erecting and maintaining a Hospital.

Be it Resolved: That the Diocese of Pittsburgh accept the Trust proposed: and through its delegates in convention assembled desires to place upon record its appreciation of this noble bequest by one of its oldest, most respected and steadfast members, and with the knowledge that it is only one of a number of similar grants which have been received from the same liberal hands from time to time, will so execute and manage it that the wishes of the donor may be observed in every detail to the relief of suffering and distress.

Resolved: That this Convention of the "Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pittsburgh" take order for the election by ballot of nine Laymen, who shall act as Trustees for the St. Margaret's Memorial Hospital.

Resolved: That to these Trustees is hereby intrusted the bequest and commands of the late John H. Shoenberger, as is more fully set forth in his last Will and Testament (a copy of which, so far as relates to said Hospital is hereto attached.)

Resolved: That the Secretary of this Convention be instructed to notify the Trustees under the Will, to-wit: "The Pennsylvania Company for Insurance of lives and the Granting Annuities of the City of Philadelphia Andrew Long, J. M. Bronson, Anthony J. Autello," of the action of this Convention in the acceptance of the trust and the election of the Trustees.

Nominations for Board of Trustees of St. Margaret's Memorial Hospital.

The following are unanimously recommended by your Committee as members of Board of Trustees of St. Margaret's Memorial Hospital :

C. L. Fitzhugh,
Reuben Miller,
John B. Jackson,
John Bindley,

William R. Blair,
William McConway,
James W. Brown,
L. M. Plummer,

George C. Burgwin.

Copy of last Will and Testament of John H. Shoenberger, as relating to the erection and maintenance of St. Margaret's Memorial Hospital.

Thirteenth : I give, devise and bequeath to my Trustees and Executors hereinafter named, in Trust, all that certain piece or parcel of land situate or lying and being in the Seventeenth Ward of the City of Pittsburgh, in the State of Pennsylvania, and which is bounded and described as follows : Beginning at the northwesterly corner of Forty-sixth street and Davidson street, running thence northwardly along a line of Davidson street towards the Allegheny Cemetery a distance of three hundred feet more or less, to Forty-seventh street. Thence westwardly at right angles with Davidson street towards Butler street, three hundred and fifty feet, thence southwardly to Forty-sixth street in parallel line with Davidson street, three hundred feet more or less, thence along Forty-sixth street, three hundred and fifty feet to Davidson street, the place of beginning ; being the easterly and upper end of an eight acre lot purchased by me from the Allegheny Cemetery Corporation, to hold and convey the same as hereinafter directed for the erection and maintenance thereon of the necessary buildings of a Protestant Episcopal Church Hospital as a memorial of my deceased wife, which Hospital shall forever be called and known as the "St. Margaret's Memorial Hospital."

Fourteenth : I give and bequeath to my Trustee and Executors hereinafter named, in Trust, the sum of five hundred and fifty thousand dollars for the erection, furnishing and maintaining in accordance with this will of the "St. Margaret's Memorial Hospital" to be applied as hereinafter directed, namely : I will and direct that two hundred and fifty thousand dollars of said amount shall be devoted to the erection of the Hospital building, the said building to be after the design and plan of St. Luke's Hospital on Fifth Avenue in the City of New York, and as near the size of that Hospital as the sum above provided will admit, embracing all such modern improvements and conveniences as the sound judgment of the Trustees thereof may suggest, the whole however including improvements and conveniences not to exceed the sum hereinabove provided, and no debt to be incurred therefor, nor any security for such debt or for any other to be put upon said building; I will and direct that the sum of thirty-five thousand dollars of the said sum of five hundred and fifty thousand dollars be devoted and expended if required in grading, fencing and ornamenting the grounds around said Hospital ; and the sum of sixty-five thousand dollars shall be devoted and applied to furnishing the said Hospital with necessary furniture for the comfort and convenience of patients and managers of the interior departments of the same. The remaining sum of two hundred thousand of the aforesaid five hundred and fifty thousand dollars shall be invested by my Trustee and Executors hereinafter named until the Corporation hereinafter provided for shall be chartered, fully organized, and ready to receive it ; that is if said sum shall be ready for investment before the full organization of said Corporation. Whenever, however, the said amount shall be ready for investment, and the said Corporation shall be chartered, organized and ready to receive it, my Trustee and Executors hereinafter named shall pay over the said amount to the body so incorporated, by whom it shall be invested as a perpetual fund for the maintenance of said Hospital, the yearly interest or income therefrom only to be expended for the maintenance of said Hospital, or any purpose connected therewith, provision being hereafter made for the payment to the Trustees of said Corporation when incorporated of the other sums devoted to building and furnishing said Hospital and to grading the grounds thereof. The Hospital shall be used for the ordinary uses of any Hospital to the extent of three-fourths of its capacity, and the remaining one-fourth of its capacity when required shall be appropriated to such cases as are termed "Incurables," and the said one-fourth of said Hospital's capacity shall never be used for any other purpose to the exclusion of an incurable case. In case the sum hereinbefore provided by this my will for the maintenance of said Hospital as a free Hospital, should at any time be insufficient to meet all cases to its full capacity, then I direct that the cases of "Incurables" shall be always first provided for to the extent of one-fourth the capacity of said Hospital, and the said Hospital shall also be used preferentially for sick and infirm members of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

Fifteenth: The trust for the erection and management of said Hospital is to be carried out in the following manner: The Diocesan Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pittsburgh shall, within two years after my death nominate and elect nine laymen of good standing in the Protestant Episcopal Church to act as Trustees for the said Hospital or in default of such nomination and election, my Trustee and Executors hereinafter named or their successors, acting with the approval of the Orphans Court of Allegheny County, State of Pennsylvania, shall elect nine laymen qualified as before stated to act as Trustees, and thereupon the laymen so nominated and elected or selected as above stated, shall draw or cause to be drawn, and shall adopt articles of association for the adoption or establishment of a corporation for the charge and management of said Hospital and for the perpetuation of said Hospital Corporation, embodying therein substantially the provision of this my will relative to the use of said Hospital, and the manner in which said Trustees of the said incorporated Hospital shall thereafter be chosen. The nine laymen shall without unnecessary delay and within three years from date of their appointment, cause and procure themselves to be incorporated in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and upon the completion of such incorporation, my Trustee and Executors hereinafter named, or their successors shall convey and transfer to said Incorporated Trustees for the objects and purposes of said Hospital as aforesaid, all that piece of land in the Fourteenth clause of my will mentioned and described, and also the said sum of five hundred and fifty thousand dollars bequeathed to my said Trustee and Executors in Trust as aforesaid, and I direct that buildings of said Hospital shall be erected by the said incorporated Trustees, and then the said ground which is to be conveyed as aforesaid to said Trustees shall be improved and ornamented under their direction on such scale that when completed the Hospital property and corporation shall be free of all indebtedness. The aforesaid sum of five hundred and fifty thousand dollars shall be transferred to said incorporated Trustees only so fast as may be prudently necessary for carrying on the building of said Hospital to advantage and with economy, and with as little inconvenience to the management of my estate as possible.

It is my desire that said Hospital shall be under the fostering care of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pittsburgh, and that the corporation herein provided for shall report to said Diocese at least annually, the conduct, condition and prospects of said Hospital; and in case of vacancies by death, resignation or otherwise in the Board of Trustees hereinbefore provided to be incorporated, the same shall be filled by the Diocesan Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pittsburgh, if such Convention shall be in session during the existence of any vacancy or vacancies, otherwise the same shall be filled by a two-third majority of the Standing Committee of the said Diocese.

Sixteenth: I give, devise and bequeath to my Trustee and Executors hereinafter named, in Trust, the sum of one hundred thousand dollars to invest the same and pay over the net annual income or interest thereof, half-yearly, to the Trustees of "St. Margaret's Memorial Hospital" when incorporated as aforesaid, to be applied toward paying the current expenses of said Hospital, until Trinity Protestant Episcopal Church in the city of Pittsburgh shall in due course of law be made a free church with permanent provision for daily morning and evening prayer therein, throughout the year for all time to come, according to the prayer book of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, and upon the happening of such a contingency, I hereby authorize and direct my Trustee and Executors hereinafter named, or their successors to pay over the said principal sum of one hundred thousand dollars to the Corporation of the said Trinity Church in the city and Diocese of Pittsburgh, the income thereof to be used in paying the expenses of maintaining daily services in the said church as aforesaid. This bequest is made chiefly as an inducement for the establishment of a church which shall be free and open to all and when no day shall pass without the privilege being offered to all who may desire it of uniting in daily common prayer which the church has provided for her children. But in case the said Trinity Church shall not within three years after my death be made a free church as aforesaid, and the conditions hereinabove expressed in regard to daily morning and evening prayer not be complied with as intended by me, then I authorize and direct my said Trustee and Executors hereinafter named or their successors to pay over the said hereinbefore mentioned sum of one hundred thousand dollars to the Trustees of "St. Margaret Memorial Hospital" herein provided to be incorporated to be added to the permanent fund for the support and maintenance of that Hospital.

Eighteenth: All the rest residue and remainder of my estate, both real and personal, I give, devise and bequeath to my Trustee and Executors hereinafter named and to their successors, in trust, to hold the same and as soon as practicable to convert the same into money and to pay over to the Corporation of the "St. Margaret's Memorial Hospital" hereinbefore provided to be incorporated, the sum of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars to be added to the permanent fund of said Corporation for the maintenance of said Hospital as a free institution, &c., &c.

Twenty-first: I do hereby constitute and appoint the "Pennsylvania Company for the Insurance of Lives and the Granting Annuities, of the City of Philadelphia," Penna., my Trustee and Executors, and my friends Andrew Long, Esq., now Cashier of the Exchange National Bank of Pittsburgh, Pa., J. M. Bronson, Esq., now in the employment of Messrs. Shoenberger, Speer & Co., of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Anthony J. Antello, Esq., of Philadelphia, Pa., as Co-executors of this my last will and testament for all that portion of my estate, real and personal, and effects and interests in the States of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Kentucky and Illinois, &c.

BEQUEST TO BOARD OF MISSIONS OF DIOCESE OF PITTSBURGH.

Resolved: That the bequest of Mr. John H. Shoenberger of $30,000 to the Missions of the Diocese of Pittsburgh, be made into a permanent trust fund, the income only of which shall be subject to the order of the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions.

Resolved: That the Fidelity Title and Trust Company of Pittsburgh shall be the trustee and custodian of said fund.

On motion it was ordered that the report be printed and made the order of the day when printed report shall be ready.

Rev. Rogers Israel, from the Committee on Admission of Parishes, reported that the Articles of Association of St. Stephen's Parish, Wilkinsburg, and Epiphany, Bellevue, were correct and moved that they be admitted to representation in this Convention.—Carried.

On motion adjourned to meet at 9 o'clock Thursday morning.

SECOND DAY—MORNING SESSION.

JUNE 12, 1890.

After morning prayer the Convention was called to order by the Bishop at 9.45 o'clock.

The minutes of the first day's session were read and after some corrections were approved.

The roll of the Clergy and Lay Deputies not answering yesterday was called and attendance noted.

Mr. S. C. McCandless, Lay Deputy from Trinity Church, Pittsburgh, pledged his Parish to do what it could to make up its deficiency for the past year.

Rev. Mr. Miller offered the following resolution, which, on motion of Mr. Reuben Miller, was referred to the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions :

Resolved: That at the meeting of each annual Convention each Parish and Mission be asked to state the amount of money that it will give to the Board of Missions during the ensuing year for the work.

Rev. Mr. Fleming, for Committee on the Diocesan Church paper, the Church News, offered the following resolutions :

Resolved: 1. That the Convention recognizes the value of the paper as an aid in propagating Church teaching.

2. That it commends the editorial management of said Church paper.

3. That the mailing list should be carefully looked after.

4. That this Convention recommends that Rectors endorse the paper and appoint agents and reporters for it.

5. That it recognizes the "Church News" as the official paper of the Diocese and urges the Clergy and laity to give it their hearty support.

The resolutions were adopted.

The Rev. Mr. Hodges for the Committee on Canons, offered the following :

The Committee on Canons respectfully report that they have been unable to arrive at a conclusion on the matters presented to them, and in view of the importance of the business reported to them, the Committee asks that they be allowed to continue the consideration of such business and to report to the next annual Convention.

The request was granted.

On motion of Mr. Hill Burgwin, the action of the Convention at yesterday's session with reference to the appropriation for Missions for the ensuing year was reconsidered, whereupon the following resolution offered by Mr. H. Burgwin, was adopted :

Resolved: That the Board of Missions hereby appropriate the sum of $6,500 for the use of Missions in the Diocese for the ensuing year and rely on the efforts of the Clergy and the liberality of the Laity to raise the amount according to their respective strength and financial ability.

Rev. Mr. Mackay, from Committee on Church Room, presented the following report :

REPORT OF EPISCOPAL CHURCH ROOMS.

The Episcopal Rooms during the past year have continued to be used for diocesan purposes. The Bishop has made them his headquarters, and when the city visits them almost daily. The General Missionary also makes them his headquarters, as also does the Laymen's Missionary League.

The number of visitors from June, 1889 to 1890, show an increase of 353 over the former year.

J. W. PAUL.

The resolution accompanying said report was adopted. On motion the rules were suspended and the Convention took up the subject of the Bequest of the late John H. Shoenberger, deceased.

The Secretary then read the report of the Special Committee.

The resolutions appended thereto referring to the bequest for a Memorial Hospital were on motion of Rev. Dr. Purdon referred to a special committee, of which the Chancellor of the Diocese shall be the Chairman to report at next Convention.—Carried on a division. Ayes 48, nays 42.

Mr. Wm. Metcalf moved that the resolutions of the Committee relating to Mr. Shoenberger's bequest to the Board of Missions be referred to the same Committee as provided in former resolution.—Lost. Ayes 25, nays 44.

Rev. Mr. Israel moved a reconsideration of the preceding action relative to the Shoenberger bequests.—Carried.

The question then came up on the resolutions as recommended by the Special Committee.

The first resolution appended to the report of the Committee was then adopted by a rising vote.

The following resolution, offered by Mr. Hill Burgwin, was adopted as a substitute for the second resolution proposed by the Committee:

Resolved: That the said Trustees be instructed not to apply for a charter of incorporation under the terms of Mr. Shoenberger's will prior to the next annual Convention, unless they shall receive legal advice that such incorporation has become necessary in order effectually to secure the land and trust funds to be transferred to them as provided under the said will.

The remaining resolutions of the Committee were then adopted.

The Convention then proceeded with the election of officers of the Diocese for the ensuing year.

The Bishop appointed as tellers of the Clerical vote, Rev. Messrs. C. L. Bates and Wm. Price, and for the Lay vote, Messrs. R. C. Cornelius and William W. McCandless. The roll was called, ballots received and the Tellers retired to count the same.

The Convention then proceeded to ballot for nine Trustees for St. Margaret's Hospital, as provided for by the will of the late John H. Shoenberger.

The following nominations were made in addition to those proposed by the Committee on Mr. Shoenberger's will :

Mr. Wm. Mullins,
" H. L. Mason,

Mr. Wilson Miller,
" H. S. Paul,

Mr. Edward Logau.

The Bishop appointed as Tellers, the following :

For the Clerical vote, Rev. Messrs. G. A. M. Dyess and J. H. La Roche, and for the Lay vote, Messrs. C. M. Gormley and Josiah Howard.

The roll was called, ballot taken and Tellers retired to count the same.

On motion of Mr. Hill Burgwin the Convention proceeded to vote on certain amendments to the Constitution of the Diocese, proposed at the last annual Convention.

Amendment to Sec. 3, Article III.

1. " The Chancellor of the Diocese shall be ex-officio a member of the Convention with the right to a single vote in the Lay Order."

2. That the last ten words of Section 2 of Article 5 of the Constitution, namely, "and each Parish shall be entitled to only one vote," be stricken out.

3. That in Section 4 of Article 5 of the Constitution, the eleven words which immediately follow the word "Orders" namely, "and in such election the Lay Deputies shall vote per capita," be stricken out.

4. That Article XI of the Constitution on the election of a Bishop:

The election of a Bishop for this Diocese shall be made in Convention, in the following manner: The Order of the Clergy shall nominate and appoint, by ballot, some fit and qualified Clergyman for that office, and if this appointment be approved by the Lay Order, he shall be declared duly elected. If two-thirds of either Order be represented at Convention, a majority vote shall determine the choice of such Order; otherwise, a vote of two-thirds shall be necessary for that purpose. Provided, that in all cases the election of a Bishop, no Clergyman shall be entitled to a vote unless he shall have been, for at least six months immediately preceeding the election, personally and canonically resident in the Diocese.

be amended by making the second clause read :

"After nomination in open Convention, the Order of Clergy shall appoint by ballot some fit and qualified Clergyman," &c., &c.

The vote on the first amendment, taken by ayes and noes was as follows: Clergy, Ayes 30.

The amendments were thereupon declared passed finally.

The report of the Committee on Life Insurance Endowment appointed under resolution of Annual Convention of 1888, was presented, as follows :

The committee appointed to secure Life Insurance Endowment for various Diocesan objects, beg leave to report that they have faithfully attended to that duty and offer the following resolution :

Resolved: That the Committee on Life Insurance Endowment, considering the present circumstances unfavorable for the further prosecution of their work at this time, beg to be discharged.

H. Q. MILLER,
Chairman.

On motion the report was received and the committee discharged.

The committee on the Clergymen's Retiring Fund Society presented the following report :

The Committee to whom was referred that portion of the Bishop's address pertaining to the Clergymen's Retiring Fund Society would respectfully report that they heartily approve of the work of this society. It appears to be an organized effort in the right direction and ought to enlist the cordial support of the church. In order that this matter may obtain mature consideration, your committee would recommend that this matter be referred to the Committee on Canons to report a suitable Canon to the next Convention.

Pending the ordering of a second ballot, Rev. Charles A. Bragdon moved that the Secretary be instructed to cast the vote of the Convention for Mr. Reuben Miller as the ninth member of the Board of Trustees of St. Margaret's Hospital.—Carried unanimously and the ballot cast by the Secretary, whereupon Mr. Reuben Miller was declared duly elected.

The Convention then took a recess till 3 P. M.

SECOND DAY—AFTERNOON SESSION.

JUNE 12, 1890.

The Convention was called to order by the Bishop at 3 P. M.

On motion of Mr. Hill Burgwin the Secretary was instructed to cast the vote of the Convention for Mr. William Mullins as the fifth member of the Finance Committee for the ensuing year. The Secretary cast the vote accordingly and the Bishop declared him duly elected.

Rev. J. D. Herron, for the Committee on the State of the Church, presented their report as follows :

The Committee on the State of the Church respectfully report a satisfactory increase in the number of Communicants, notwithstanding the fact 441 names reported at the last Convention have been dropped from the under Canon III, Section 2. The total number of canonical communicants reported last year was 8,814. This year 9,523 are reported making an increase of 714. The Parishes report 805 confirmed, 53 less than the Bishop's report. Your Committee have endeavored to secure the number of confirmed persons in the Diocese. As not all Parishes made this report, they give only the minimum approximation of 10,207. Quite a number of the Clergy do not seem to understand the second Section of Canon III, and your Committee are of the opinion that some Parishes report a less number of Communicants than that to which they are entitled. Your Committee would recommend such a modification of the Canon as would make it plain to the Clergy; and they would also recommend to the Clergy some systematic method of recording individual communions.

They would also ask the Clergy not to impose upon the Committee extra labor of making the simple arithmetical calculation of their respective reports. They would also ask that the reports be sent to the Bishop at the time specified, and not after the Convention has assembled.

There are marked evidences of progress throughout the Diocese. Churches have been built and opened at Irwin Station, Mansfield Valley, Osceola Mills. The Church in Mansfield owes much for its existence to General Missionary. The people at Clearfield and at Pardoe are expected to have new churches soon, and the work at these places is most encouraging. Your Committee would make honorable mention of Trinity Parish, New Haven, where a new Parish building has been built by Dr. E. Phillips and wife as a memorial to their departed child. North East sings a Gloria Excelsis over being at last free of debt. A Pro-Rectory has been built for James' Parish, Pittsburgh, by Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Brunot. The outlook for St. John's, Pittsburgh, is most encouraging. St. Peter's is carrying on a successful mission at Soho. Weekly services have been established at Allegheny, and if the Layman's Missionary League were provided with Chapels, the missionary work of the city would receive an impetus which would place it beyond anything known in our previous history.

Respectfully submitted,

J. D. HERRON,

J. R. WIGHTMAN,

CORTLANDT WHITEHEAD,
Bishop of Pittsburgh and President of the Convention.

EDMUND A. ANGELL,
Secretary.

The Bishop's Address.

DEAR BRETHREN OF THE CLERGY AND LAITY :

The year since the last Convention (of which it is my privilege to make report) has been very eventful in the church at large and in our own Diocese. It began amid the confusion and dismay caused by the disaster at Johnstown, and the grief in which we all shared at the loss of a devoted priest and his family, with many of his congregation, and the demolition of the goodly church and parish house in which they were wont to assemble.

THE JOHNSTOWN DISASTER.

Very promptly our faithful General Missionary, in company with the Rev. Mr. Heakes, was on the ground, first seeking for the dead, and then, as occasion offered, ministering to the living. The bodies of the Rev. Mr. Diller and his wife and baby and adopted daughter were found all together in one place one week after the catastrophe, and were reverently deposited in their temporary resting place, whence they have since been conveyed to a permanent one in the cemetery overlooking the town.

Almost immediately upon the news of the disaster came offers of help from all parts of the country, and, while the general relief fund was very large, and assistance of every kind poured into the stricken valley, we too, as Churchmen, were made to feel the pulsations of loving sympathy in all sections of our land, and even from beyond the sea, conveyed by letters, messages and boxes of supplies, and generous contributions in money from our brethren of the same household of faith. A place in which to hold divine service for those who were left of the congregation of St. Mark's was speedily procured and fitted up, and services were held continuously during the summer, beginning with Trinity Sunday, June 16. Several clergymen offered their assistance, and in addition to the Rev. Mr. Bragdon, who spent several months there, we were favored with the help of Mr. Charles E. Snavely, a faithful personal friend of Mr. Diller, and a candidate for orders from St. Mark's, Johnstown; and also by the Rev. Messrs. Heakes, Bedinger, Edson, Nock and Van Deerlin, for shorter or longer periods, with occasional services by the Rev. Messrs. Webbe, Lassiter, Taylor, Agnew and Cameron, of this Diocese. Mr. Gunnell, also, a Lay Reader and Postulant for Orders, rendered valuable assistance, and others of the clergy encouraged the workers there by occasional visits.

We have not time here to review the many experiences through which our faithful workers passed, nor can we well express in words the thanks which are due especially to the Rev. Mr. Bragdon for his careful, persevering and most efficient labors in distributing the supplies at our command, and ministering in every possible way to the comfort of the people of the place, irrespective of any ecclesiastical connections.

He has won for himself the love of a large circle of friends, not only in our own Church, but throughout the whole community; and if the Church occupies a high place, as it certainly does, in the esteem of the people it is in large measure due to the sagacity and thoroughness with which our dear brother carried forward the work committed to him. It gives me great pleasure to be the mouth-piece of this Convention, and of the stricken parish at Johnstown as well, in thus publicly expressing the gratitude which all of us owe to him.

REPORT OF CONTRIBUTIONS.

So generous was the provision made by our brethren throughout the country that in September last, I was able to report through the columns of the Church papers that an aggregate of $49,126.73 had been sent to us, a considerable part of which had already been expended. To this there has since been added the sum $1,552.68, making a total of $50,679.41. These contributions were designated as follows: 1. "For rebuilding the Church," $22,513.88. This sum is at present in the custody of the Fidelity Trust Company, of Pittsburgh, to be used this year for the purpose for which it was contributed. 2. A further sum of $13,488.01, "For the relief of the sufferers," has been used for their immediate needs at the time of the catastrophe, and later in providing clothing and furniture, in supplying sewing machines to all the women of the congregation who needed them; in sending some of the worthy young people to school, and in furnishing means whereby those thrown out of business might again be enabled to take care of themselves. 3. A third portion aggregating $14,297.45 was contributed, "to be used at the Bishop's discretion," for the benefit of the people; and it was deemed wise, with this fund, to provide for the current expenses of the services; and to set aside a sufficient amount for the salary of a Cler-gyman, the erection of a temporary Chapel, and a house for the Minister. A considerable portion of this sum also was deposited with the Fidelity Trust Company, of Pittsburgh, and from it from time to time, the necessary funds are obtained for the furtherance of the work. There have also been received from various donors, special sums for memorial gifts, or for special purposes connected with the new Church, amounting in all, to $380.07.

It is well for me to draw attention to the fact that notwithstanding the large amount contributed for our Church purposes, there was not enough designated for building, adequately to restore all that was lost; and therefore it has been found necessary to make an appeal to church people, asking further contributions, in order that in addition to a new church there should also be erected a parish building. It was the wish of a few of those who sent their offerings that if possible a children's hospital might be reared; but that has been found impossible; and indeed it is not now needed, since those who had charge of the General Relief Fund have set aside several thousand dollars for the erection of a hospital in that community. It is hoped that there will be provided by the Clergy of the Church, some special memorial of the faithful and beloved Rector, whose name will be tenderly connected with the parish throughout the future years.

Since November 1st, the Rev. John E. Bold has been Rector of the parish, and in consultation with him, the Wardens and Vestry, and the Rev. Mr. Bragdon, the money at our disposal has been expended. A rectory has been built, and additional land acquired for church purposes, and the services duly maintained. The congregation at present is worshipping in a temporary chapel which has been once enlarged, and is again too small to accommodate the worshippers.

In an appendix to this address will be found a record which seems due to our generous helpers, acknowledging receipts from each Diocese. Special mention should be made of the munificent contribution of $810 from the Church of the Holy Trinity, Paris, France, through the Rector, a personal friend of mine for many years, the Rev. Dr. John B. Morgan.

Difficult as it is to explain the dreadful visitations sometimes permitted in God's good providence, we can not fail gratefully to note the wonderful "fruit of good works" which has been brought forth out of the dire catastrophe which left the beautiful valley almost utterly desolate.

OBSEVANCE OF THE ANNIVERSARY.

A few days ago we observed the anniversary of the sad event by a series of services which were deeply impressive, and at the same time helpful and comforting to those who had suffered loss. On Friday morning, the 30th of May, at the same hour at which, one year before—being then Ascension Day, the Rev. Mr. Diller had officiated at his last public service, a congregation gathered in the temporary chapel to witness the ordination of Mr. Charles E. Snively as a deacon. Mr. Snively had been prepared for his seminary course by the Rev. Mr. Diller, whom he very dearly loved, and it was his desire to be admitted to the holy ministry at Johnstown, and to have put upon him, as the mark of his commission the stole which Mr. Diller wore at his last Eucharist. This stole, stained and marked by the waters of the flood, was found lying against the ruins, and in accordance with Mr. Snavelly's wish, was used at his ordination.

There were present of the clergy the Rev. Messrs. Bragdon, Cameron, Curzon, Van Waters and Richards; also the Rev. Mr. Yewens, of Franklin, who preached the sermon, the Rev. Mr. Bold, the rector of the parish, and the Revs. R. M. Benson and C. N. Field, of the Society of St. John, the Evangelist, the latter of whom had spent several weeks in Johnstown last summer with the Red Cross Society, and is personally known to most of the people. In the evening was held a memorial service for those members of the White Cross Society (ten in number) who had been swept away in the flood, when Father Field delivered an address in which he spoke of "the Iron Cross, the Red Cross and the White Cross," and the lessons which they taught. On May 31, the anniversary of the great disaster, a goodly congregation assembled at nine o'clock, to commemorate those who had departed. Of our congregation it is known that one hundred and twenty were lost, men, women and children, sixty-one of whom were communicants. We have their names, with few exceptions, and hope to make the list complete ere long. Fr. Benson made an address at the commemorative service, and Fr. Field preached the sermon; and all the names of these our brethren and sisters departed were read amidst tearful silence. Then as a witness of our one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of Christ our Lord, we all joined in the celebration of the Lord's Supper.

In the afternoon vast numbers gathered at the cemetery, where public exercises were held. In company with the visiting Clergy I consecrated the plot where lie the remains of the late Rector and his family, and offered some prayers from the Burial Office. After which Fr. Field preached to a large assemblage of sympathetic listeners.

In no other religious body was there, or indeed could there be such services, so tender, so impressive, and so full of truest consolation. It is not a mere figure of speech, especially to those who are in deep affliction, when we call that body to which we belong, "Our Mother Church."

"Not to the terrors of the Lord,
The tempest, fire and smoke;
Not to the thunder of that word
Which God on Sinai spoke.

But we are come to Sion's hill,
The city of our God,
Where milder words declare His will
And spread His love abroad.

Angels, and living saints and dead,
But one communion make;
All join in Christ, their living Head,
And of His love partake.

MR. JOHN H. SHOENBERGER.

Another notable event which will ever make this year memorable, is the passing away from earth of one whose interest was always generously bestowed upon this Diocese, and to whom in large measure it is indebted for its very existence, Mr. John H. Shoenberger, of New York. For fifty-two years he was Vestryman and Warden of Trinity Church, in this city, and to him more than to any one man belongs the honor of having given to that parish one of the most beautiful and costly church edifices west of the Alleghenies. Not content with the mere accumulation of wealth, he gave liberally to mission work at home and abroad, as well as to institutions of learning and charity; and this not in any ostentatious spirit, but with modesty and carefulness. He was a man of eminent consistency and singleness of purpose, thoroughly loyal to the Church, and blameless in his life as a Christian disciple.

From the founding of the Diocese of Pittsburgh he was chosen a member of its Standing Committee; and for years he was a Deputy to the General Convention. He was also, at the time of his death, a member of the Board of Managers of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society, where his rare business judgment was greatly valued.

For nearly ten years Mr. Shoenberger has lived in the city of New York, in retirement from active business, but devoted to every interest of the Church. He was a member of St. Thomas' Parish, a devoted and constant attendant upon all the services of the Church, and there he knelt for his last Communion on the morning of All Saints' Day, just two weeks before his departure.

His final resting place is in this city in the beautiful cemetery of which he was one of the original incorporators, in full view of Linden, his former summer home, where the ashes of kindred and friends are sleeping all about him.

To crown his good deeds while living, he has left for the blessing of mankind, and for the enrichment of the Diocese, large bequests, which will ever carry on his memory to the loving admiration of future generations of men. In addition to $100,000 left conditionally to Trinity Church, Pittsburgh, and $35,000 to the Church Home, in which he always manifested the deepest interest, he has bequeathed for the missionary work of the Diocese, $30,000; and for the establishment and maintainance of St. Margaret's Memorial Hospital, in memory of his first wife, $800,000, together with a plot of ground upon which the noble charity is to be reared.

I shall have the pleasure and privilege of presenting to the Convention for their acceptance, these two bequests, and ask that there may be proper action taken with regard to both of them. May the noble Christian example of this steward of God's temporal gifts stimulate many others to seek out opportunities and methods whereby the Church's blessed mission of peace and good will to men may be the more effectually fulfilled. Better than any sermon or exhortation is such an example, which cries aloud and spares not concerning the sin of forgetting God and His Church in the possession and distribution of wealth. Under the influence of this noble example, may I not once again urge upon the Clergy, their duty and privilege as indicated in the Prayer Book, to influence by all proper methods, the lay men and women whom God has made His stewards, "To dispose of their goods;" and "To make their wills;" and "To take order for the settling of their temporal estates whilst they are in health;" "That they may be liberal to the poor;" and that they may also in some measure bestow upon God's Church for the benefit of future generations, some of that treasure entrusted to them for a time, that God might "prove them to know what was in their heart." Our one Diocesan charity, the Church Home; our one Diocesan School, the Bishop Bowman Institute; our incomplete Episcopal Fund; our Bishop's House as yet unpaid for; our various funds so meagre and unworthy; all these call out for the attention and assistance of all our people. Since the princely munificence of our late lamented friend and brother has become known, the prayer concerning the faithful departed has a deeper significance ; “ Beseeching Thee to give us grace so to follow their good examples that with them we may be partakers of Thy heavenly Kingdom.” It may be that in using that prayer our minds unduly rest upon the final words, without due attention to that liberality and carefulness for God and His cause which must be ours if we follow the good examples of the Saints, in all sincerity.

In Mr. Shoenberger's bequest it is stipulated that “ The said building of St. Margaret's Hospital shall be after the design and plan of St. Luke's Hospital on Fifth Avenue, in the city of New York, and as near the size of that building as the sum provided will permit, embracing all such modern improvements and conveniences as the sound judgment of the Trustees thereof may suggest.” It becomes of interest, therefore, for us to know in what style and manner St. Luke's Hospital in New York is built and conducted. To this matter no doubt, the careful attention of the nine Trustees to be elected by this Convention, will speedily be directed. A copy of that portion of Mr. Shoenberger's will which has to do with this bequest is appended to this address.

THE REV. C. E. SWOPE, D. D.

It is fitting also that mention should be made of the translation from earth of another benefactor of the Diocese, the former Rector of Mr. Shoenberger, and his co-worker in the early days of the Diocese, the Rev. Cornelius E. Swope. He was educated at St. James' School and College in his native city, where he came under the genial and powerful influence of the Right Rev. John B. Kerfoot, first Bishop of the Diocese, who had already imbibed many of the characteristics of his old preceptor and friend, the Rev. W. A. Muhlenberg, of blessed memory. He received Holy Orders at the hands of Bishop Whittingham, and fulfilled his pastoral work at Chicago, Baltimore and Pittsburgh, until in 1867 he was called to succeed Bishop Neely, at Trinity Chapel, New York City. There he lived and labored for twenty-three years, in peace with men, and in favor with God; and celebrated the Eucharist for the last time on the Feast of the Annunciation, three days before his death. He was a genial, amiable, and spiritually minded man, and a faithful and earnest Priest, whose quiet influence was never more appreciated than when "in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye," he left innumerable friends to mourn his loss. To those who knew him best nothing can better describe the gentleness and devotion of his character than the poetic compositions which he left among his papers, one of which closes with the following stanza:

"O Jesus, Savior crucified, keep me forever at Thy side,
In safety and security;
That when these scenes of earth are gone,
This trembling mortal may put on,
A glorious immortality.

THE BISHOP OF DURHAM.

The death of the Rt. Rev. Dr. Lightfoot, eighty-second Bishop of Durham, was one which has affected all Christian hearts throughout the whole Anglican communion, and far beyond its limits. He was one of the noblest sons of the Church of England, "equipped," as one has expressed it, "beyond all his fellow prelates for the war against infidelity, ignorance, presumption, rationalism, pretentiousness, and shallow criticism, which are doing so much to destroy the authority of Holy Scripture, the history and function of the Church, and the office of the Christian Ministry. He seemed to be providentially raised up for such a time as this. His aims were high; he could not but know that he had power, and he made it a point of conscience to consecrate that power to the highest aims for which a man can live—the ascertainment of truth by the aid of God's own revelation of Himself, and the preservation of that truth from error, from assault, from unwarranted accretions, and from the detractions of the scoffer, the ignorant and the misguided. A man of profound piety, and although master of so many kinds of service to God and man, his humility was a conspicuous trait in his well balanced character." He was the kindest of counsellors, famous as a scholar, great as a Bishop, and noble as a man. His life is an inspiration. Well would it be if all Bishops and other Clergy would emulate in any degree, his honesty, learning, large-heartedness, and wisdom. Wide spread grief at his too early departure has been tempered by the election of Dr. Westcott as his successor, whose name is a household word in the study of every intelligent Clergyman of our Communion. We may well pray that the mantle of his distinguished predecessor may fall upon the new Bishop as he enters upon the arduous duties of his great Diocese.

MR. WM. A. ILES.

Of those whose names appear on the list of Deputies at our last Convention, only one has been called away. But he was such a devoted character, so earnest, and interested, and useful as a Christian and a Churchman, that we should not pass him by without affectionate remembrance. Mr. William A. Iles, of St. Stephen's Church, McKeesport, has been for many years one of its strongest supporters, and in the days of its feebleness, constantly maintained the services as Lay Reader. From the organization of the parish he was Warden, and to the end gave to the parish his best counsels and most generous support. At the time of his death he was a member of the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions, there, as everywhere, deeply interested in the progress of the Church's work in the Diocese, and anxious to be helpful in every possible way.

A happy home has been broken up, and many loving hearts left desolate, while a large circle of friends, both at McKeesport, and at his former home in Rhode Island, will never cease to lament his departure at a comparatively early age. If in every parish there were a number of such men as Mr. Iles, most of our troubles and hindrances, both financial and otherwise, would be utterly unknown. His place can never be quite filled in St. Stephen's parish, and surely not in the heart of his Bishop, and of others who were brought into close intercourse with him. His memory is blessed.

THE GENERAL CONVENTION.

Another event of the past year is the meeting of the General Convention in October last. It is not necessary at this late date to review its action in detail. Certain changes in the Prayer Book were finally adopted, with which our congregations are already becoming familiar. A few further alterations passed their first reading; a new Diocese was erected in the State of Missouri, and a new Missionary Jurisdiction in the State of Nebraska. The Convention was more noticeable for its non-action, or postponement of action than for anything it finally did. Nevertheless, what was done was most important, and will be found fruitful of excellent results.

One important action taken was the appointment of the "Church University Board of Regents," first, to promote education under the auspices of the Church; and second, to receive and distribute the benefactions that may be entrusted to it. The Board consists of the Bishops of Albany, Minnesota and Tennessee; the Rev. Drs. Dix, Greer, Huntington and E. N. Potter; with Messrs. Coppee, Drisler, Eliot, Johnston and Vanderbilt as Lay members.

I have been requested to bring this matter to the attention of the Convention, and I gladly do so, using the words of one who is closely associated with the cause.

"The purpose of this Church University Board of Regents is to give encouragement to Church schools and Institutions of higher learning, and by a central board to invite their co-operation, secure the help of Churchmen and others in their behalf and promote the educational interests of the Church. It is to do for education, what Boards have done for Missions, to focalize and concentrate and intensify interest. It is to do for our own schools and colleges, what the Boards of Education, in the Presbyterian Church, for instance, have done nobly and generously for their schools. And the importance of it cannot be overrated, if one remembers what large numbers of Church children are educated in Roman Catholic or other denominational institutions, or in institutions with no religious training, or, let it be said with shame, in institutions whose strong and scarcely concealed drift is irreligious if not infidel—when one sees what large amounts of money have been given by churchmen in the past, to sustain schools over whose religious interests, to say the least of it, the Church has no control, it is a matter of most serious interest, that something should be done to unify and illustrate and emphasize the strong value of Christian training on the Church's lines."

CHANGES IN THE PRAYER BOOK.

I have already fulfilled the duty of notifying the Clergy and Laity in the Diocese that the proposed changes in the Book of Common Prayer have been duly accomplished and canonically certified. These changes being made, nothing remains but for all loyal churchmen obediently to observe them.

It is now lawful to abbreviate the Morning Prayer on Communion days by the omission of the Exhortation, Confession and Absolution; and also by the omission of the prayers following that for the President.

On week days Morning Prayer may end with the Collect for Grace; and II. Cor. XIII.-14.

It is not lawful to shorten either Morning or Evening Prayer by omitting any of the daily Psalms, or either of the lessons from Holy Scripture. And now that the request for relaxation of rubrics and shortening of services has been so definitely acceded to, it is not lawful for any clergyman to indulge his individual notions with regard to what relaxation and shortening there should be. The complaint is so often made to me by the Laity that the services are uncertain, and that they do not know what is coming, that I think it not unfitting, (I wish it were unnecessary,) to urge upon the Clergy absolute uniformity in loyal obedience to that which has been now Canonically established.

By decided action and expression of opinion in both Houses of the General Convention, the custom of reciting the Invocations in the Litany and also the General Thanksgiving by both priest and people in concert, was declared to be contrary to the mind of the Church. This expression will, I hope, meet with the hearty acceptance of all.

ANNUAL REVIEW.

Turning our eyes now to the work done in the Diocese during the year, we can gratefully claim that it has been a year of marked progress in many ways. The number of candidates for confirmation, while falling below the unprecedented number of last year, is nevertheless in advance of any previous year, being 858.

The progress which has been made during the year in the Missionary work of the Diocese has not been as remarkable as in some former years of which we have made report, partly because some of the pressing needs have been supplied, and partly because there have been several vacancies, which because of the small stipend, it has been impossible to fill. The report of the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions, will give the details of the work as to names of missionaries and stations, and as to some of the results attained. The receipts of the treasury have been $6,746.72, and the expenditures amounted to $8,230.64, leaving a deficit of 1,319.73, the first deficit for eleven years. After the spirited discussion in our last convention, when it was distinctly understood that all our clergy and laity were to carry on the work cheerfully and generously, this result is as unworthy of the Diocese as it is unexpected. The missionaries and the Executive Committee have served the cause faithfully as in former years. The fault, (and it is a greivous one,) is not theirs, nor is it mine. And the loss is not of dollars and cents, but of that "blessing which maketh rich," a blessing withheld when men "come not to the help of the Lord against the mighty." Judges V. 23.

I am very happy to say, however, that the deficiency does not occur in the offerings of the children; they have fully met our expectations in coming up to the amount of last year's contributions, $2,360. I desire to direct the attention of the convention to the fact that for a series of years we have received from the children more than has been used for the salary of the Children's Missionary: and it would only be just that there should be provided for the furtherance of the work, another missionary for the northern part of the Diocese, who should be supported also from the proceeds of the children's mite boxes in Lent.

That the needs are very great, no one who has ever traveled through that portion of the Diocese could doubt; and there has been lately made a most earnest appeal from our brethren in McKean county, asking that something may be done for the retention of the multitudes of Swedes within this Church, where for many reasons, they rightly belong. I am told that there are ten thousand of them in McKean county alone, and if it were possible to send them one of their own countrymen in Holy Orders, multitudes of them could be brought into communion with the Church. They will not mix with other congregations, nor give up their own language in divine worship. It is thought that some money can be raised amongst the Church people in that neighborhood, and surely there are Laymen and congregations in the Diocese who would be interested in such a movement, and give special offerings for at least a year or two towards such a work. Many of these Swedes are now holding influential positions in our towns, and are rapidly increasing in wealth and numbers. By earnestness and effort on our part they may be brought to help the Church, and not to be an influence against her.

It is well known to you that the Rev. Rector of St. Bartholomew's Church, New York City, himself carried on a successful work among the Swedes in Providence, R. I., and has started the same kind of work in his present parish. Would that such an example might be the means of provoking us also to like good works.

But whether our attention be given to these people or not, the need of another General Missionary is apparent to all those who are conversant with the work in the Northern Convocation.

THE BISHOP'S REPORT.

As for that portion of the Bishop's work which can be reported in figures; I have made one hundred and nineteen official visitations to one hundred and four places, fifteen of them twice. I have officiated at two hundred and forty-eight services, preaching one hundred and fifty-four times, and making one hundred and sixty-four addresses. The new places visited number seven, as follows: Beltzhoover, Knoxville, Temperanceville, Canonsburg, Coal Port, Latrobe and Carman. I have celebrated the Holy Communion in public seventy-two times, in private eighteen times, total ninety. I have baptised five adults and twenty-one infants; officiated at five marriages and five burials; have held eighty-five public confirmations, and fourteen in private, confirming eight hundred and fifty-eight candidates, on one hundred and nine occasions. I have also confirmed thirty persons in the Diocese of Ohio, and two in the Diocese of New York. One church has been consecrated, that of St. Joseph, Port Allegany; two corner stones have been laid, Christ Church, Greenburg, and All Saints', Braddock. Three deacons have been ordained, and also one in behalf of the Bishop of Wyoming; five deacons have been advanced to the priesthood. Forty-four Lay Readers have been acting under commission during the past year. There are now six Postulants for Holy Orders, and eight candidates for Priest's Orders. During the year ten clergymen have been received from other Dioceses, and nine have been dismissed, so that the number of clergymen canonically connected with the Diocese is now three-score and ten. In addition to these, there are four clergymen officiating in the Diocese not yet transferred, making a total of seventy-four.

ENCOURAGING FACTS.

It would be impossible to name all the evidences of improvement and progress which have made the last visitation of the Diocese full of encouragement. In addition to the items which will be brought to your notice in the report of the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions, we may note that the Church of the Epiphany, Bellevue and St. Stephen's Church, Wilkesburg, have organized under Articles of Association, and will ask to be admitted into union with this Convention.

The Church of the Good Shepherd, Hazelwood, is about to begin the erection of a stone Church.

There is good prospect of starting a successful Mission at Punxsutawney and its neighborhood, and there is much encouragement at Greenville and at New Castle, and a revival of interest at Tidioute.

The new Church at Greensburg, whose corner stone was laid on September 27th, is rapidly approaching completion, and will be an ornament to the town as well as a cause of pride to us as Churchmen.

A new stone church is also to be erected in St. Luke's parish, Smethport, by the generous gift of a member of the parish.

Another liberal donor is providing a chime of bells for Trinity Church, Rochester.

The congregation at Bradford has met with a misfortune in the complete destruction of the Church of the Ascension and the parish house, the devoted Rector especially suffering the loss of much valuable property. The misfortune, however, has been turned into a blessing for the parish, by the determination to erect a stone church in place of the old frame one which was destroyed. The plans are already chosen, and probably before the meeting of another Convention, the building will be almost if not quite complete.

Thus the work goes on, and every year the Master gives us many more encouragements than we deserve, far outnumbering the hindrances and discouragements, although the latter are not few.

Through the kindness of some friends in Philadelphia, we have acquired two excellent lots for a church in the new town of Jeannette, where it is fitting that we should soon have a mission. Would that Churchmen who are engaged in the many large enterprises similar to that at Jeannette, would think oftener of the spiritual needs of their employes, and always reserve some portion of the land on which they are to build, for the erection of a house of worship. We ought to have land pre-empted in all such large and growing communities as Ford City, Charleoi and Wilmerding ; but alas ! the children of this world are wiser in their generation and for their own purposes than are the same men acting as the professed children of light. It would be an immense gain to us in this Diocese if we had even a small "Church Building Fund," from which every year there might be given a few hundred dollars towards the purchase of church property. We are losing golden opportunities on every hand.

THE LAYMEN'S MISSIONARY LEAGUE.

We have cause to be very grateful for the success which has attended the work of the Laymen's Missionary League, of this city. Work has been carried on under its auspices in five places, and Missions are well established, under the names of St. Martin's, Knoxville, St. George's, West End, St. Timothy, Chartiers and St. John's, Allegheny ; while St. Cyprian's Mission for the colored people, has been maintained by the efficient and faithful labors of one of our Lay Evangelists. A new Mission is just assuming shape at Sharpsburgh. At the annual meeting of the League, on the Eve of St. Matthias' Day, eight Lay Readers and eight Lay Evangelists were commissioned. The form of service used on this occasion was largely taken from an "Office for Admitting Lay Helpers," in use in the Diocese of Long Island ; and the whole scheme of making use of such Lay Helpers is based upon that of the late lamented Bishop Lightfoot, of Durham, in whose Cathedral I witnessed the reception of several Lay Readers and Evangelists in 1888.

If the question be asked, What is the use of such an organization of Lay Helpers? the answer is that the advantages are two-fold; firstly, to the Lay Helper, in that the Church as represented by the Bishop, recognizes and values the working Laity. And furthermore, to be associated with others, gives strength to each worker; and there is an outcome of united sympathy, prayer, aim and work, which can not fail to benefit many more than those who are themselves actively engaged. Hence the advantage, secondly, to the Church. Such an association is at once a call and an encouragement to those who are not Church workers. It directs attention to the need and the duty of the Lay Help. It brings out the latent forces of the Church, and is a new bond of union between the Bishop and Clergy, and Laity. It can not fail to aid in promoting that Diocesan cohesion and organization, which is a want of the Church in our time. There are at present over fifty members of the League. Lay Readers and Lay Evangelists are admitted to their offices by a form of prayer, and Lay Evangelists are to pass through a certain course of study in the English Bible and Prayer Book, in which examinations are held at certain intervals.

The members of the League are now at work with the kind assistance of several Clergymen of the city, under the energetic leadership of the Chaplain, the Rev. J. R. Wightman. There have been confirmed in the Missions under the care of the League, fifteen for St. George's, three for St. Martin's, eleven for St. Cyprian's, three for St. John's, and one for St. Timothy's. making a total of thirty-four. The congregation at St. George's is anxiously seeking for a lot on which to erect a church; St. Martin's congregation has already chosen a lot, and is about to build. It would be a great incentive to the work if lots could be given by some of our people for chapels also at Wood's Run and Chartiers. A great burden has been lifted from the Bishop's shoulders by the manifestation of helpfulness on the part of the young men. It is something of which we may be gratefully proud that we have as many as twenty Lay Readers and Lay Evangelists busily and efficiently at work in the city, in addition to those who are helping in their respective parishes.

Examinations for Lay Evangelists have already been held on the following subjects :

In the Old Testament.—Life and times of Elijah.

In the New Testament.—Gospel of St. Matthew.

In the Church Catechism.—Scripture proofs, up to the Creed.

The Prayer Book.—The structure and teaching of Morning and Evening Prayer; General acquaintance with plan and contents of the Prayer Book.

The next examinations will be held on October first. The subjects that will be taken are :

In the Old Testament.—The Book of Psalms, with the cognate portions of Samuel and Kings.

In the New Testament.—Book of the Acts. The Missionary Journeys of St. Paul.

In the Church Catechism.—The Creed, and succeeding answer, with Scripture proofs.

In the Prayer Book.—The Collects and Prayers historically considered.

In Reading.—Public Reading of Bible and Prayer Book.

All desiring to be admitted as Lay Evangelists must pass successfully these examinations.

All Lay Readers and Lay Evangelists already admitted are expected to attend the instructions preparatory to these examinations, and are affectionately invited to present themselves also for examination at the appointed times, in order to insure progress and added efficiency.

Instructions will be given at Trinity Chapel, Pittsburgh, due notice of which will be given.

These instructions are open to anyone who may wish to attend, especially Sunday school teachers. The attendance of Lay Evangelists and Lay Readers is carefully recorded.

DEACONESSES.

Now that there has been a revival of activity among our Laymen, activity which I hope is but the promise of widespread enterprises on their part in the Missionary field, I would fain express my earnest desire that women also should make use of the increasing recognition by the Church of work appropriate to them.

Says the venerable Bishop of Virginia in his Convention address: "The last General Convention passed a canon—not only as it seems to me, unobjectionable, but admirable—for the revival of what, I believe, is universally admitted to be the Apostolic order of Deaconesses in the Church. It was thought advisable to take advantage of this legislation, and to begin without delay to gather a fund to establish in our own Diocese a home, where such women as should offer themselves for this service might make adequate preparation, both technical and religious, for their important work.

“Accordingly a charter was obtained from the last Legislature of the State incorporating a Board of Trustees by the name and style of the “Bethany Institute,” “for the purpose of establishing and conducting an orphan asylum and hospital, and for educating women in the care and religious training of the young and others, and the work of moral reformation.” * * * Thus has been made an humble beginning of what I believe will prove in time to be, by the blessing of God, one of our most important agencies for doing good to the bodies and souls of men. I ask for the Bethany Institute the prayers and the money of all who desire to promote the work of women in the Church of Christ.”

In New York, a two years' course of study, and arrangements with a full corps of instructors are announced. Grace House Training School for Deaconesses, at 802 Broadway, has for its visitor the Bishop; for its warden, the Rev. Dr. Huntington, of Grace Church; an advisory council of twelve ladies, and a faculty of instructors and lecturers in theology, Old and New Testament learning, the Prayer Book, hymnology, Church history, social science, missionary work, household management, ecclesiastical needle work and Church work.

Now when the conservative Diocese of Virginia, and the progressive Diocese of New York join hands in fostering such enterprises as this, it is pertinent to ask, why can we not also safely adopt and use for the spread of Christ's Kingdom and the fulfilling of our many duties to the world, a like instrumentality.

Several years ago I addressed to the Diocese a Pastoral letter, in which I brought this subject forward in the following words :

“ Herein and hereby, namely, by the instrumentality of organized woman's work, can very much that is now unattempted be accomplished. I know that there are a few women in this Diocese desirous of working for the Church and for their Lord, who would hail any such organized work as a great help to them in “ getting at ” the work they wish to do. I suspect there are more than I have personally met. It is only right, therefore, that all should be notified that it is my purpose and intention as opportunity offers, to receive into the primitive Order as Deaconesses any such godly and well instructed women as shall offer themselves for the work of nursing or teaching, or Bible reading, or visiting, or assisting in parochial or mission work, either permanently or temporarily. The organization will be fashioned after the model of that in the Diocese of Long Island, and will give scope for much variety of work by godly women, whether married or single, whether fully identified with the Order or only associate members.

“ Why should a religious order which claims Apostolic sanction in its origin, which till nearly the close of the third century was the only form of organized church work for women, and which formed as much a part of the machinery of each diocese as the male diaconate, why should it have fallen into complete abeyance for more than a thousand years, and why should its revival now prove so slow, and commend itself so little to the sympathy of the Church in comparison with institutions of a later date ?

“ Sisterhoods are mediæval, but the Order of Deaconesses is undoubtedly primitive, and even mentioned in the Scripture.

“ To quote the weighty words of Bishop Wordsworth “ It would be a blessed work of Christian charity to restore the office of Deaconess in the Church to its primitive simplicity : and to engage the affections and sympathies, and to exercise the quiet piety and devout zeal of Chrstian women, old and young, in the service of Christ, in a regular and orderly manner, under the guidance of lawful authority, and with its commission and benediction, according to Apostolic model prescribed by the Holy Ghost.

“ I hereby call upon all whose hearts respond even slightly and timidly to this announcement, to read the Scriptures and ancient authors, and also to consider whether this may not be a providential method whereby they may duly execute that labor of love to which they know themselves to have been called. Many an event of life is the voice of the Master, although the sound we hear falls from familiar lips. The words which Mary heard were the words of Martha, but the message was from the LORD Himself.” ‘ The Master is come and calleth for thee.’ ”*

Neither at that time nor since did any word of encouragement come to me from either Clergy and Laity, but passing events give the assurance that I was neither extravagant nor visionary in what I then urged upon your attention.

*Pastoral Letter of January, 1886, concerning Christian Instituti, Consecration of Wealth, and Intercessory Prayer.

The need of Deaconesses in our Diocese is just as imperative as in any other; the money to endow an institution for their instruction, or a fund for their maintenance is plentiful, if only God's stewards would devote their wealth to that object. The women to fulfill such a blessed ministry would no doubt be revealed if opportunity were given.

The enthusiasm with which our Methodist Brethren are advocating a similar ministry of women, in various parts of the country, and under the authority of their central body, ought to make our efforts all the more practicable. And so I again affectionately request the Clergy to do what they can to give information on this subject; and I commend it to the Laity as another very attractive channel for the consecration of the means that God has give them.

THE CHURCH HOUSE, LONDON.

The members of the Convention will be interested to hear that in February, 1889, I received a communication from the corporation of the Church House, Dean's Yard, London, informing me that the Church House was now in a condition "to begin a collection of those Documents which relate to the work of the Anglican Church throughout the world." And that the council desired to have "a complete collection of all canons, statutes, constitutions and acts relating to the work of the Anglican Church in all parts of the world; of Books and Documents touching the early Missionary history of Indian, Colonial and other Dioceses and bearing on the developemont of Church life and organization in them," etc. "A nucleus of a library had already been formed, in which are some 4,500 volumes, including a complete set of all the papers issued by the American Church Convention since its beginning, presented by the Bishop of Albany; and also a complete collection of the works on the American Church by the Bishop of Iowa, presented by the Bishop himself."

The request was made that any books or papers relating to this Diocese might be sent them. In accordance with this request, I caused a complete set of the Journals of the Annual Conventions of this Diocese to be strongly and handsomely bound, and forwarded them to the Church House, in return for which I have received a letter of grateful acknowledgement.

The Church House is the headquarters for Church organization and work, and was erected as a memorial of the Jubilee of Queen Victoria. It will without doubt become continually a more important centre of Christian activity, as time goes by.

THE CHURCH NEWS.

You will pardon me, I am sure, for drawing attention once more with renewed emphasis, to the advantage of having a Diocesan paper, since the "Church News" has been brought to Pittsburgh, and is now being edited under the auspices of the Missionary League, by a Clergyman and Layman of this city. We cannot be far wrong in our estimate of the value and importance of this agency, since very many dioceses throughout the Church find the same instrumentality most useful. You must remember that our Methodist brethren make it a point of discipline that every family shall take a denominational paper, and that is one reason for the loyalty, zeal and generosity which characterize the great majority in that vigorous and progressive body. One great reason why our work languishes, and why so many of our parishes and missions are eaten through with selfishness, is that our people do not read concerning the work outside their own borders; and as many cannot afford, (or think they cannot afford) to provide themselves with the larger Church papers, there is a manifest advantage in having a compact, readable publication which shall tell them something of the work done outside their own parishes, and which will encourage them in hearty co-operation for the good of the Church throughout the whole diocese. If the Clergy would give their earnest efforts to the increase of Church literature among their people, they would find an abundant reward in the larger sympathies and aims which the people would instinctively gain from their reading. On the simplest and most practical common sense basis, I have no hesitation in asking for the "Church News" your sympathy and help.

THE CLERGYMEN'S RETIRING FUND SOCIETY.

Among the many subjects which call for attention, there is one which especially comes into prominence in these days, when there is so much said about the insufficient support which is given to the ministry, and especially the inadequate provision made for old age. I most heartily commend to the attention of all the Clergy, and the Laity as well, the Clergymen's Retiring Fund Society. It was organized in 1874. It has now a membership of over five hundred, with $50,000 in the Fund. It might have had five times as much if the Clergy had all vigorously sustained it from the outset.

It would be well if we could increase the amount to a million dollars, and it could easily be done in a generation, if both Clergy and Laity would show an interest in it.

The income of the Fund is to be divided among the Clergy who have reached the age of sixty-five, pro rata, according to the number of yearly payments which each Clergyman has made ; so that it is to the advantage of the younger Clergy to enter the Society, in order that when they have reached the age of benefit, they may receive the larger dividend. It is to be hoped also that for the purpose of increasing the income, Laymen will give of their abundance towards the increase of the Fund. The yearly dues are only at the rate of one dollar per month. At this time there is an effort being made to increase the interest in the Society, and to induce many persons to enlist for five years, paying one dollar or more a year, as ability and interest may suggest, on the third Sunday in Advent, towards increasing the Fund.

All that is needed for success is the earnest co-operation of the Clergy, for whose ultimate benefit it is designed as a pension fund. This fund, it will be observed, is not of the nature of a charity, but is one to which each Clergyman up to the age of benefit, who has made his due contribution, receives, as in every insurance company, his own gain. I urge upon those who hear me, therefore, the seeking for information concerning this matter, and the hearty co-operation of all in carrying it on to success.*

THE MISSIONARY COUNCIL.

In October next our City and Diocese are to be honored by the presence here of the Missionary Council of the Church. That Council is composed of all the Bishops of the Church, all the members of the Board of Managers, and in addition, at least one Clerical and Lay Deputy from each Diocese. This Council is to be held in the city of Pittsburgh, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, October 22d, 23d and 24th.

In connection with it will also be held the Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary; and probably a session of the House of Bishops for the election of two Missionary Bishops.

I am quite sure that the generous hospitality which seems to characterize the citizens of this city when welcoming the members of any profession or calling, will be extended with equal lavishness towards the distinguished representatives of the Church. The Missionary Bishops will be asked to stir us up by putting us in remembrance of our privileges and duties as members of Christ's Sacramental Host, and no doubt the Council will leave behind it a blessing for us in our Church life as well as in our individual consecration to the Master's cause. In order that we may be the more ready to profit by their presence, let us all prepare ourselves by prayer, and by diligent striving to enter more and more into the Missionary spirit, so that our ears may be the more attent to the messages and counsels which our brethren shall bring us at that time. A meeting of Clergy and Laity will be called at an early day to make preliminary arrangements for the Council.

CONCLUSION.

There are many things concerning which I should like to speak, things which have to do with our advancement as a Diocese, and the upbuilding of the Kingdom of God; but I will not longer detain you from the work which lies at our hand as the representatives of the Church in the Diocese. May God grant us the spirit of Unity and Peace; and may He strengthen us in the best elements of Diocesan life, giving us first of all, a clear perception of the grandeur and privilege of our heritage, and then a right mind to fulfill the duties to which He calls us. And may He grant us an abundant supply of that unselfish spirit which shall broaden our sympathies, and enable us to look not only on our own things, but also on the things of others, that we may be both loyal to the truth, and fruitful in every good work.

The Collect for to-day is full of highest teaching. We have used its words; may we really pray it from our heart of hearts.

O Lord God Almighty, who didst endue Thy Holy Apostle Barnabas with singular gifts of the Holy Ghost; Leave us not, we beseech Thee, destitute of Thy manifold gifts, nor yet of grace to use them alway to Thy honor and glory; Through JESUS CHRIST our Lord. Amen.

APPENDIX TO THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS.

OFFICIAL ACTS.

June 5, 1889. Oil City. Opening services of the Annual Convention with business sessions all day. Missionary meeting in the evening.

June 6. Sessions of the Convention until 4 P. M. Executive Committee Board of Missions. Reception in the evening.

June 7. To Titusville, where, in St. James' Church, after a sermon by the Rev. Dr. Purdon, I advanced to the Priesthood, the Rev. Carroll Lund Bates. Present and assisting, the Rev. Messrs. Herron, Kelly, Israel, Hawkes, Fleming and Schepeler. Then to Brookville.

June 8. Longview School. Closing exercises of the school, with musical entertainment, and an address from the Bishop.

June 9. Whitsunday. Celebrated Holy Communion at the Church of the Ascension, Shady Side.

June 11. St. Barnabas. In the evening, Welsh service at Trinity Church, Pittsburgh. The Rev. D. Parker Morgan, of New York, conducted the service and preached the sermon in Welch. The church was full, the music most inspiring, and the Welch people on every hand expressed great delight at this first "Church of England" service in Welch ever held in Pittsburgh.

June 12. Commencement exercises of the Bishop Bowman Institute at Trinity Church. Rev. D. Parker Morgan made the annual address, and the Bishop gave their diplomas to nine graduates.

June 14. Journeyed to Johnstown with Rev. Messrs. Hodges and Bragdon. Spent the day in walking about the desolate and stricken city, and planning with Rev. Mr. Bragdon (who had already been there ten days,) with regard to our church work in the future. In the evening went to Indiana to visit some of our church people who have been sorely afflicted.

June 15. Back again to Johnstown. Found Mr. Bragdon established in headquarters for relief of those in need and for the registration of our surviving people. We engaged a hall to be used for our services.

June 15. Trinity Sunday. Held service with the Rev. Mr. Bragdon in the Peelorville school house, on Prospect Hill. A congregation of more than a hundred assembled, and there were over forty communicants; the Bishop preached, and celebrated Holy Communion. It was a sad service, but yet full of comfort to those who attended. In the afternoon returned to Pittsburgh.

June 17. Many conferences and much work connected with the reorganization of the Johnstown Parish, and the care of the people and the renewal of services.

June 19. Gave letter dimisory to the Rev. H. D. Waller to the Diocese of Long Island, and to the Rev. David Moir to the Diocese of Western New York. Received the Rev. A. D. Heffern from the Diocese of California. Visited Johnstown and conferred with Rev. Mr. Bragdon about the work there. He is ably assisted by Mr. C. E. Snavelly, a lay reader, and will be joined in a few days by the Rev. Mr. Bedinger, of the Diocese of New York, who kindly volunteers his services.

June 21. Journeyed to Sharon, where in St. John's Church at night I preached and confirmed seven.

June 22. To Beaver Falls, and thence to Wooster, Ohio, where in St. James' church I preached and confirmed four.

June 23. First Sunday after Trinity. Preached and confirmed eleven at St. Timothy's church, Massillon, Ohio. In the evening preached and confirmed fifteen colored people, presented by the Rev. Mr. Kemp, Rector of the same church.

June 25. To Washington, Pennsylvania, where in Trinity Church, after a sermon by the Rev. R. S. Smith, I admitted to the Diaconate, Mr. James D. Donehoo, and to the Priesthood, the Rev. P. S. Mesny. In the afternoon assisted at a wedding in Emmanuel Church, Allegheny.

June 27. To Meyersdale for a wedding, and a service in the evening.

June 28. To Johnstown again and thence to Pittsburgh.

June 29. Accepted letters dimissory from the Diocese of Ohio in behalf of the Rev. R. W. Grange.

June 30. Second Sunday after Trinity, assisted at the morning service at the Church of the Ascension, Shady Side, and made an appeal in behalf of Johnstown. In the evening at Mansfield, opened the new Church of the Atonement with a service of Benediction, preached and confirmed three persons.

July 1. Many letters. Several Clergymen met the Rev. Mr. Bragdon at the Church Rooms to hear his report about Johnstown. In the evening, Laymen's Missionary League met at Church Rooms.

July 2. Meeting of the Trustees of the Western University. Many letters, as usual.

July 3. The Rev. Mr. E. H. Edson, of Wellsville, N. Y., arrived on his way to Johnstown, where he has offered his services for three weeks. We have been highly blessed by the help of several Clergymen in addition to the Rev. Mr. Bragdon and the Rev. Mr. Heakes at the beginning. The Rev. Mr. Agnew, the Rev. Mr. Van Waters, the Rev. Mr. Field, the Rev. Mr. Cameron, the Rev. Mr. Bedinger have all spent more or less time in helping in whatsoever could be done for the assistance of the people.

July 5. Meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Diocese.

July 6. In St. Michael's Church, Wayne—after a long ride in company with the choir and other parishoners of St. Paul's, Kittanning, I ordained to the Priesthood, the Rev. Samson Dimmick, who is in charge of the missionary work at Wayne Township, Smicksburg and Red Bank. The candidate was presented by the Rev. W. W. Wilson, who also preached the sermon. The Rev. E. A. Angell, of Foxburg, assisted in the service and united in the laying on of hands. The Bishop celebrated the Holy Communion and confirmed three persons. After the service the people, who had come in goodly numbers from all the country round, had their luncheon in the grove in front of the church.

July 7. Third Sunday after Trinity. In St. Thomas' Church, Smicksburg, after service by the Rev. Mr. Dimmick, the Bishop preached and celebrated the Holy Communion. Also set apart with service of benediction the new chancel which has been added to the church. In the afternoon drove twenty-two miles to Kittanning, where I preached at St. Paul's Church in the evening.

July 11. Much correspondence every day this week. This evening went to Temperanceville in the lower part of Pittsburgh, accompanied by the Rev. Messrs. Coster and Cameron, and also by Mr. Cornelius, Superintendent of the Laymen's League. There, after service in the U. P. church, the Bishop preached. Several years ago there was a mission of our church in Temperanceville, which has been revived, or rather, re-established, under the auspices of the Laymen's Missionary League. Services are held every Sunday, and there is a fair prospect of success.

July 12. Journeyed to Johnstown to consult with the Rev. C. A. Bragdon and others with regard to plans there. Late at night took the train for Philadelphia.

July 14. Fourth Sunday after Trinity. In the morning, assisted in the service at St. Peter's Church, Perth Amboy, N. J. In the afternoon, officiated at a burial service in the same church.

July 21. Fifth Sunday after Trinity, preached in St. Peter's Church, Perth Amboy, and assisted in the service in the evening.

July 22. To Philadelphia and thence to Lancaster, where I visited the parents of our dear brother, the late Rector at Johnstown.

July 25. At Johnstown again to consult with the Rev. C. A. Bragdon and others in regard to our plans.

July 27. Administered the Holy Communion to a sick man.

July 23. Sixth Sunday after Trinity. In the morning at St. Peter's Church, Pittsburgh, I preached the sermon, assisted in the service by the Rev. W. H. Wilson, formerly missionary at St. Cyprian's. In the afternoon visited St. Martin's Sunday School, Mt. Oliver, Pittsburgh, and addressed the children. Afterwards, in the Presbyterian church, Knoxville, after service by the Rev. Mr. Cameron, the Bishop preached. There was a large congregation, among whom were the teachers and pupils of St. Martin's Sunday school, numbering about eighty. The surpliced choir of St. Mark's, South Side, carried the musical part of the services excellently well. Six children were baptized by the Rector. The mission seems to give promise of great usefulness and rapid growth, if only we had a church building fund for the erection of small chapels. It is no exaggeration to say that we might well start immediately a half score of equally promising missions in the immediate neighborhood of Pittsburgh. On the way down from Mt. Oliver I went with one of the enthusiastic members of the Missionary League to see the place where a mission Sunday school and service are held in Beltzhoover bororogh, under the auspices of St. Andrew's Brotherhood of Trinity Church, Pittsburgh.

August 1. Received the Rev. Daniel Duroe, by letters dimissory, from the Diocese of Albany. Went to Johnstown, and inspected the church prospects there.

August 4. 7 p. Trinity. Read service, and addressed the Sunday school, at the Church of the Ascension, Shady Side. Later, preached and celebrated the Holy Communion. In the evening, read service and preached in the same church.

August 6. Feast of the Transfiguration. Celebrated the Holy Communion at Emmanuel Church, Allegheny. The Rev. Mr. Woodle, of Altoona, made the address.

August 7. Officiated at a burial service at St. Mark's Church, South Side.

August 9. Visited McKee's Rocks, and Chartiers, for the purpose of selecting a church lot.

August 11. 8 S. p. Trinity. Early Communion at the Church of the Ascension, Shady Side. Sunday school later. Read service and preached. In the afternoon, service and sermon in the U. P. Church at West End. Evening services and sermon at Shady Side.

August 13. To Washington, for a visit of inspection at Trinity Hall.

August 15. Pastoral visits in St. Paul's Parish, Pittsburgh, in behalf of the Rev. Dr. Crumpton.

August 17. Meeting of the Trustees of the Diocese.

August 18. 9 S p Trinity. Early Communion at the Church of the Ascension. Catechised the Sunday school. Read service and preached. In the afternoon, had a service at St. Peter's Church, for St. Cyprian's Mission. In the evening, service and sermon at the Church of the Ascension.

August 19. Journey to Erie and thence to the Thousand Isles, at Alexandria Bay.

August 25. 10 S p Trinity. Attended services at Clayton, New York. In the evening, at Crossmon's Hotel, Alexandria Bay, after evening prayer by the Rev. Dr. Olin, and the Rev. D. P. Morgan, of New York, I made an appeal in behalf of the new church to be erected.

August 29. Returned to Pittsburgh.

August 30. Attended the funeral of Mr. William Thaw.

August 31. Meeting of the Trustees of the Diocese.

September 1. 11 p Trinity. Read service and preached, in the parlor of Mountain House, at Cresson. In the evening, read Evening Prayer.

September 2. Visited Ebensburg to look at church lots. Thence to Johnstown, where I spent the night.

September 3. Much conference concerning church work at Johnstown. In the evening, went to Indiana.

September 5. At the Church Rooms in Pittsburgh, many talks and consultations. Attended and presided at, a meeting in the Chapel of the Y. M. C. A. in behalf of a proposed blind asylum. In the evening, a meeting of the Laymen's League.

September 6. Administered the Holy Communion to a sick man.

September 8. Twelfth Sunday after Trinity. In the morning preached at St. Peter's Church, Pittsburgh, and in the evening at All Saints' Mission, Braddock. After service by the Rev. Dr. Irvine, I addressed the congregation with regard to their progress and prospects, preached a sermon and confirmed fifteen candidates.

September 9. Conferences at the Church Rooms, and then in company with the Rev. Messrs. Cameron and McLure visited Mt. Oliver to look at lots suitable for church building.

September 11. Various calls upon sick people and poor people in Pittsburgh and Allegheny.

September 12. Received letter dismissory in behalf of the Rev. J. H. La Roche, from the Diocese of Connecticut.

September 13. Journeyed to Johnstown, and spent the day in consultation with several Clergymen and Laymen with regard to the best interests of the church there. Returned home at night.

September 14. Baptized a dying infant in the Homeopathic Hospital, Pittsburgh.

September 15. Thirteenth Sunday after Trinity. Preached and celebrated Holy Communion at St. Paul's Church, Pittsburgh. In the afternoon read service and preached in the Methodist church, Chartiers, where we intend to start a mission. In the evening I went to Trinity Mission, Beltzhoover Borough, read service, baptized three children, and preached to a crowded congregation.

September 17. Journey to Brookville, accompanied from Kittanning by the Rev. J. H. La Roche, the new Rector of that Parish. In the evening, I preached in Trinity Church, Brookville.

September 18. Opening service of Long View School, and an address by the Rev. J. H. La Roche, in the chapel of the school. In the afternoon, accompanied by the General Missionary, I went to Panxsutawney, stopping at DuBois to make some calls. At Panxsutawney, we held service in a hall in the evening, and I preached and baptized a child.

September 19. Celebration of Holy Communion at eight o'clock, followed by pastoral visits. Then in Reynoldsville, where we made various calls, and in the evening, at the Lutheran church, held evening service and sermon, and afterwards a business meeting with the members of the mission.

September 22. Fourteenth Sunday after Trinity. At the Church of the Good Shepherd, Hazelwood, I instituted the Rev. Andrew D. Heffern, as Rector of the Parish, and preached the sermon on the occasion.

September 24. Attended and opened the meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary at St. Andrew's Church, Pittsburgh.

September 25. A public meeting of the Laymen's Missionary League, Trinity Chapel, Pittsburgh.

September 27. Laid the corner-stone of the new Christ Church, Greensburg. There were present several of the Clergy, who went with me by train to Latrobe, where we held services in the evening, in the M. E. church, and the Bishop preached.

September 28. Attended Committee Meeting of the Western University Trustees.

September 29. St. Michael and All Angels. At St. Barnabus, Tarentum, taught a class in Sunday school and afterwards addressed and catechised the Sunday school. At Morning Prayer, baptized one adult and four children; then preached and celebrated the Holy Communion. In the afternoon, preached at Trinity Church, Freeport.

September 30. Officiated at a marriage in St. Thomas' Church, Verona. Then on to New York.

October 1. In New York. Meeting of the Committee on Liturgical Revision; also, Board of Managers of the Missionary Society. In the evening, made an address before the Students of the General Theological Seminary. Committee meeting until late in the evening.

October 2. Opening services of the General Convention in St. George's Church. Organization of the House of Bishops.

October 3. Business sessions of the House of Bishops, on this and succeeding days until the 24th.

October 5. Matriculation Services, and reception to the Bishops and Clergy at the General Theological Seminary. In the afternoon, among other visits, I was privileged to call upon and see the aged Bishop of Ohio, the Rt. Rev. Dr. Bedell. In the evening, visited "Avenue A Mission," of St. George's Church, a vigorous work by Laymen among the outcasts of that vicinity. Short addresses were made by several Bishops and Clergymen who were present.

October 6. Sixteenth Sunday after Trinity. In Christ Church, Rye, whose Rector is the well known "Archdeacon" Kirkby, I preached and celebrated Holy Communion; also made an address at Evening Prayer. In the evening, at the Church of the Holy Apostles, New York City, I preached before the Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

October 7. Public meeting in behalf of the Church Unity Society in Thompson Annex Hall. As President of the Society I conducted the opening service, and then introduced the Rt. Rev., the Bishop of Maine, as Chairman of the meeting, who made a few remarks on taking the chair. Present in twenty of the Bishops had seats upon the platform, together with ~~several~~ ^{many} Clergymen and Laymen from various parts of the country. ~~We were~~ ^{We were} glad to welcome some members of the Canadian Delegation: ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~Arch-deacon~~ ^{Arch-deacon} of Montreal, Judge McDonald, of Brockville, all of whom are especially interested in the cause of Christian reunion. There was a crowded house, four or five hundred being present, and many (I was told,) going away, unable to get in. Addresses were made by the Rt. Rev., the Bishop of Minnesota, Rev. Drs. Schaff and Parkhurst, of the Presbyterian Church, and the Rev. Dr. Nevin, of Rome. This meeting was far in advance of anything that has heretofore been held in behalf of Church Unity, and all who were present, and many others besides, spoke of it with the greatest interest and pleasure, and some desired a repetition of it later in the session. It was thought, however, that it would not be well in the midst of so many other meetings, to attempt another meeting at this time. The influence of our enthusiastic and earnest gathering will, no doubt, be felt during the next three years, especially in view of the fact that towards the end of the Session of the General Convention our Commission on Church Unity met with the Commission appointed by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, and it is well understood that conferences will hereafter be not infrequent between our church and the various Christian bodies to whom we have made declaration of our desire for unity.

October 8. As Acting President of the Church Unity Society, I celebrated Holy Communion in the Chantry of Grace Church, New York, at which a goodly number of Clergy and Laity received. Immediately afterwards a breakfast was partaken of, speeches were made by Bishop Neely, Dr. Schaff, Dr. Hopkins, Judge McDonald, and the Bishop of New York. It was a most enjoyable occasion long to be remembered by all who were present. In the evening the business meeting of the Church Unity Society was held at St. George's Memorial House, the President made his triennial report, the Constitution was amended so as to incorporate the four principles of the "Bishop's Declaration" (which declaration had not been promulgated when the Constitution was first adopted) and discussion was had concerning various matters of interest to the Society. The presiding Bishop kindly consented to act as Honorary President. All the other Bishops were named as Honorary Vice-Presidents; the Bishop of Pittsburgh as Acting President; the Rev. Walker Gwynne as Acting Vice-President; and the Rev. W. S. Sayres as Secretary and Treasurer. The Society makes an earnest request to all Christian people to observe annually the Sunday nearest the Feast of St. Simon and St. Jude as a day for sermons and intercessions in behalf of the reunion of christendom. In the evening of October 8, I again visited the "Avenue A Mission," and made an address to those in attendance.

October 9. Memorial service for Bishop Vail, of Kansas, at which all of the Bishops attended, with the House of Deputies.

October 10. A grand missionary meeting in the Academy of Music. In the evening made an address at the Triennial Meeting of the Sunday School Institute, at the Grace Chapel, New York.

October 11. Meeting of the Committee on Liturgical Revision. Transferred Mr. Charles E. Snively, a candidate for Holy Orders, to the Bishop of Idaho and Wyoming.

October 12. Took part in the consecration of the Rt. Rev. W. A. Leonard, as Bishop of Ohio, uniting with the other Bishops appointed, in the Laying on of Hands.

October 13. Seventeenth Sunday after Trinity. Preached in the morning at Trinity Church, Hoboken. In the evening, preached at the Church of the Redeemer, Brooklyn.

October 14. At St. Barnabas' House, New York, celebrated Holy Communion, and made an address to the City Missionaries, who thus assemble together twice a month for service and council. Committee meeting in the afternoon. In the evening, preached at the new Chapel of St. Luke's Church, in the old "Alexander Hamilton Mansion," 141st street, New York City. Later, attended a very handsome reception given by the Church Club to the members of the General Convention.

October 15. Committee Meetings and House of Bishops as usual all day. Large meeting in behalf of the Church Temperance Society at Chickering Hall in the evening.

October 19. Visited Garden City with its beautiful cathedral, and St. Mary's and St. Paul's Schools.

October 20. Eighteenth Sunday after Trinity. Preached at Trinity Church, New York, in the morning, and in the evening, attended the anniversary services of the Iron Cross Society, at St. John's Chapel.

October 23. At St. John Baptist House after Evensong, confirmed two candidates at the request of the Bishop of New York. In the evening, by invitation of the Presiding Bishop, I was present at the social meeting of the Commission of our Church on Christian Unity; and the Committee of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church. It was a great pleasure to meet these distinguished men, and to share in the delightful Christian courtesy extended in behalf of our Church, by Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan, our well known Layman.

October 24. In close attendance at the House of Bishops all day. The closing service of the Convention was held in St. George's Church, in the evening, when, before a great congregation, the Pastoral Letter was read, and afterwards the members who had been in conference so many days, dispersed to carry the blessings of the Convention far and wide. It was a session long to be remembered for its harmony and practical good work, memorable for what it did not do, and more memorable for the work that it did accomplish. I think no one could attend its sessions without feeling proud of the spirit, the methods and the results of the Convention.

October 25. The Bishops sat in council, that is, not as a legislative body, until 1 o'clock, at the Diocesan House, on LaFayette Square.

October 27. Nineteenth Sunday after Trinity. In the morning, preached at the Church of the Ascension, Philadelphia.

October 28. Many errands and visits in Philadelphia, and a long conversation with the architect who has in charge the building of St. Mark's Church, Johnstown.

November 1. All Saints' Day. Preached and celebrated Holy Communion.

ion at Emmanuel Church, Allegheny. In the afternoon, went to Braddock to lay the corner stone of All Saints' Church. The day was perfect, and all the arrangements for the ceremony were most admirably laid by the Rev. Dr. Irvine, Priest in charge. There were present, of the Clergy, the Rev. Dr. J. C. White, and the Rev. Messrs. Hodges, Graham, Heffern, Lassiter, Mesny and Cameron, the choir of St. Stephens', Wilkinsburg, assisting the local choir in the music. Addresses were made by the Rev. Dr. White, the Rev. Mr. Hodges, and the Bishop. Immediately after the corner stone laying, two persons were confirmed in the Chapel, which is used by our mission. A sociable entertainment followed in an adjoining room.

November 2. Accepted the Rev. Charles M. Kimball, deacon, on letter dimissory from the Diocese of Central New York, and appointed him as Minister in charge of Trinity Church, Brookville.

November 3. Twentieth Sunday after Trinity. Preached in the morning at the Church of the Ascension, Shady Side, and in the evening at Trinity Church, Pittsburgh. After the evening service, baptized two adults and also confirmed them.

November 4. Various conferences at the Church Rooms. Meeting of the Clergy of the city and vicinity in the afternoon. Later, confirmed two persons in private, presented by the Rev. Mr. Duroe, of St. Luke's Church.

November 6. Quiet Day for Women, at Trinity Chapel, Pittsburgh. Bishop Tuttle, of Missouri, celebrated the Holy Communion, and conducted the exercises of the Quiet Day from 10 to 12.30, and from 2 to 4. I assisted him in the services, and at the close read Evening Prayer. Accepted the letter dimissory of the Rev. John Huske, from the Diocese of Western New York.

November 7. Journeyed to Clearfield, where, in the evening, at St. Andrew's Church, I read the service and preached; also made an address to the congregation about parochial affairs, and afterwards had a conference with them.

November 8. Celebration of the Holy Communion at the same Church, at ten in the morning, with a sermon.

In the evening, made a short visit to Peale, where I found the prospects for the advancement of the church most discouraging, owing to the depressed condition of business matters; and also to that which has always been the misfortune of the place, the inaccessible location of the church building. It is hoped that we shall be able to dispose of the building, or at least of the materials of which it is composed, and erect a small chapel more in the midst of the community.

From Peale, I went on to Phillipsburg, which, although outside the limits of our own Diocese, is the most convenient center from which to reach Houtzdale, Ashcroft and Decatur.

November 9. In the evening, at the Church of the Holy Trinity, Houtzdale, after service by the Rev. Messrs. Agnew and Richards, assisted by our energetic Lay Reader, I preached and confirmed six persons.

November 10. Twenty-first Sunday after Trinity. In the same church, preached and celebrated Holy Communion. Then, accompanied by the Clergymen just named, drove to Ashcroft, held service, and preached in the Church of the Good Shepherd. In the evening, preached, and confirmed three at St. Saviour's Chapel, Decatur.

November 11. Went to Coalport, losing much time by waiting at junctions, but reached Coalport in time for service and a sermon in the Lutheran church. The night was very dark, and the roads well nigh impassable, the meeting place far from the center of the town, and yet a very considerable number gathered for service. There is every prospect of a successful mission at Coalport if regular services can be provided. Accepted the letter dimissory of the Rev. John E. Bold, from the Diocese of Western New York.

November 13. At the consecration of Grace Church, Mt. Airy, I preached the sermon, and afterwards enjoyed a social evening with my dear brother, the Bishop of Pennsylvania. At midnight, left for Ridgway.

November 14. Arriving at noon, I went with the Rector, Rev. Mr. Schepeler, to Carman, a lumber town a few miles from Ridgway, where he has established the Mission of the Incarnation. There I confirmed a sick woman, who has been for years confined to her bed. Returning to Ridgway, in the evening, at Grace Church, I preached, and confirmed eighteen.

November 15. To Driftwood, where I met the Rev. J. Cooper, of Renovo, in Central Pennsylvania, who has very kindly been supplying the mission at Driftwood with services. I was accompanied also by the Rev. Mr. Schepeler. We held service in the Union Chapel, where the Bishop preached, confirmed one person, and celebrated the Holy Communion. In the afternoon we traveled on a freight train to Emporium, and in the evening, at Emmanuel Church, I preached and confirmed seven persons, presented by the Rev. Mr. Bates, afterwards confirming a sick woman in private.

November 16. With Mr. Bates to Port Allegany. There we met the Rev. Mr. Marshall, of Coudersport, Central Pennsylvania. In the afternoon, I consecrated St. Joseph's Church, and preached the sermon.

November 17. Twenty-second Sunday after Trinity. In the same church, I preached, confirmed one, and celebrated the Holy Communion; then drove to All Saint's Chapel, Smethport, and preached. In the evening, preached in St. Luke's Church, Smethport, and confirmed thirteen. Among other adornments of the church, I noticed on the re-table a handsome memorial cross, inscribed with the name of the Rt. Rev., the first Bishop of Pittsburgh; also handsome memorial vases, a thank-offering from a member of the congregation. Such memorial gifts, and especially the tribute to Bishop Kerfoot's memory, naturally drew forth an address to the congregation.

November 18. After some calls in Smethport, the Rector accompanied me to Bradford. In the afternoon, I confirmed a sick woman. In the evening, preached in the Church of the Ascension, and confirmed twenty-four; and later confirmed still another candidate who was unavoidably prevented from coming to the service—twenty-six in all.

November 19. Returned to Pittsburgh, stopping on the way for a conference at Oil City, with the Rev. Mr. Brooks and the Rev. Mr. Ogilby. The latter goes to Philadelphia this winter for theological study.

November 20. Much correspondence. Gave letter dimissory in behalf of the Rev. J. O. Ferris, to the Diocese of Nebraska.

November 22. In the evening an encouraging meeting of the Young Men's Missionary League. The Rev. J. R. Wightman was present, the newly appointed Chaplain.

Heard to-day of the munificent bequests made by the late John H. Shoenberger, and gave thanks to God for the encouragement and stimulus which has thus been given to our church work, both in the city of Pittsburgh, and throughout the Diocese. May his noble example, and the widespread admiration which it has elicited, help others also, to whom God has given the stewardship of riches, to remember the house of God and the work of God by their contributions when living, and their ample benefactions at death.

November 24. Sunday next before Advent. Attended the Sunday school at Trinity Church, New Castle, and heard the children sing the catechism. This is a feature of this parish which I suppose is well nigh unique, the Rector being a musician and composer. I have read somewhere, however, that in the days of the Rev. Dr. Newton's rectorship at the church of the Epiphany, Philadelphia, the children used to sing the catechism. At any rate, I can testify from what I heard at New Castle, that it insures the universal recitation of the catechism in a way which I should not have expected. After Morning Prayer, I preached and celebrated Holy Communion. In the afternoon, addressed the children at a baptismal service, and in the evening, preached and confirmed twenty-two candidates presented by the Rev. Mr. Herron.

November 25. Visited Greenville, where we have just completed the purchase of a church building from the Reformed denomination. Found the repairs which are being made, nearly completed, and left directions for the perfection of them.

November 26. Spent a few moments at the meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese, in conference concerning the missionary meetings to be held in December. Various conferences at the Church Rooms. Took a patient to the Homœopathic Hospital, and there saw some of our Church girls who belong to the School of Trained Nurses.

November 27. Officiated at a marriage in Calvary Church, Pittsburgh.

November 29. In the evening at Trijity Church, Washington, after service by the Rev. Messrs. Cowper, Mesny and Kelly, I preached and confirmed ten persons, four of whom were from Trinity Hall.

November 30. St. Andrew's Day. In the Chapel at Trinity Hall, celebrated Holy Communion, and made an address to the school.

December 1. First Sunday in Advent. At St. Thomas' Church, Verona, visited the Sunday school, preached, and celebrated Holy Communion, and confirmed nine candidates. Also baptized the Rector's infant daughter. In the evening, preached at St. John's Church, Pittsburgh, and confirmed seven.

December 2. Visited the Homœopathic Hospital. In the afternoon, presided at a meeting of the Officers of the Laymen's Missionary League.

December 3. Presided during the day at the examinations of the Rev. John R. Wightman, soon to be ordained priest; the Rev. Messrs. Cowpe and Rogers conducted the examinations.

December 6. Meeting of the Laymen's Missionary League.

December 8. Second Sunday in Advent. Celebrated Holy Communion at the Church of the Ascension, Shady Side. Later, preached and confirmed thirteen in the same church. In the afternoon, baptized an infant, catechized the children and made an address at St. Martin's Mission, Knoxville Borough, South Side.

December 9. Officiated at a burial in Philadelphia.

December 11. Visited at Homœopathic Hospital. Gave license to officiate in this Diocese, to the Rev. Reginald A. Cayley, late of London, and now assisting at Trinity Hall Washington. I have also licensed in the same way, the Rev. William C. Rodgers, late of the Diocese of Canterbury.

December 12. In the evening, at Trinity Church, a series of most interesting Missionary Meetings began, under the auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary, of this Diocese. Missionary addresses were made by the Rt. Rev. Ethelbert Talbot, D. D., Bishop of Wyoming and Idaho, and the Rt. Rev. Abiel Leonard, D. D., Bishop of Nevada and Utah.

December 13. Annual meetings of the Woman's Auxiliary, at Emmanuel Church, Allegheny. I celebrated Holy Communion, and made an address; also an address of welcome. In the afternoon the ladies had their business meeting, and during the day addresses were made, as also at the Missionary meeting in the evening, by Bishops Kendrick, Leonard and Talbot. After evening Prayer, steps were taken towards the inauguration among the nurses in our hospitals, of a branch of the "St. Barnabas' Guild for Nurses."

December 15. Third Sunday in Advent. Assisted in the service at Calvary Church, where Bishop Talbot delivered an address. In the afternoon, at Trinity Chapel, (where the people of St. Cyprian's Mission hold their services), I preached and confirmed three persons. In the evening, at Trinity Church, a crowded congregation attested the interest which had been aroused by the Missionary Bishops and addresses were made by the Rt. Rev. John A. Paddock, D. D., Bishop of Washington, and the Rt. Rev. Dr. Talbot.

December 17. A visit to Johnstown to confer with Mr. Bragdon about church affairs and to call on some of the people.

December 18. Called on the venerable Dr. Crumpton on the ninety-first anniversary of his birth. In the evening, attended service at the Church of the Ascension.

December 21. St. Thomas' Day. Administered the Holy Communion to a sick man. In the evening, at Trinity Chapel, devotions and council with the two candidates for the Priesthood, to be ordained to-morrow.

December 22. Fourth Sunday in Advent. The Rev. John R. Wightman and the Rev. J. D. Donehoo, were advanced to the Priesthood in Trinity Church, Pittsburgh. The Rev. R. A. Cayley preached the sermon. The Rev. Messrs. Bragdon and Cowper presented the candidates ; and all these, with the Rev. Samuel Maxwell, united in the Laying on of Hands. In the afternoon the Rev. Messrs. Bragdon and Wightman accompanied the Bishop to Chartiers, where service was held in the Methodist Church, and the Bishop preached. In the evening, preached at Calvary Church, Pittsburgh.

December 25. Christmas day. Preached and celebrated Holy Communion at St. Paul's Church, Pittsburgh.

December 27. St. John, Evangelist. At Trinity Church, Pittsburgh, celebrated the Holy Communion, and afterwards organized a branch of St. Barnabas' Guild for Nurses ; admitting six associates and two Priests-Associate. It is the purpose of the Guild of St. Barnabas to assist its members in realizing the greatness of their calling as nurses, and in maintaining a high standard of Christian life and work. By associating nurses together, and with them other women as friends, it aims to provide, under God's blessing, some of the comfort and power gained by such association. The work of the Guild is therefore both religious and social. There are branches of the Guild in Boston, New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia, Cleveland, etc., numbering over 350 members, and there are in our hospitals in Pittsburgh quite a number of nurses who are about to join the Guild. Any nurses of good character, and probationers in any hospital, whether members of the Episcopal Church or not, are eligible to membership. The receipts in the way of dues, are at present to be set aside for a Sickness and Burial Fund. In the afternoon, a long conference with the Chaplain of the League with regard to the schedule for services during the next quarter.

December 28. Innocents' Day. In the evening, attended the childrens' festival in the Church of the Ascension, Shady Side, and made an address.

December 29. First Sunday after Christmas. In the morning, celebrated Holy Communion at the Church of the Ascension. Later, assisted in the service, and preached. In the afternoon, at Temperanceville, preached for our Mission congregation in the U. P. Chapel ; also addressed the congregation with reference to their affairs ; also had a musical practice with them, and at the close of the service baptized an infant. In the evening, visited the Wood's Run Mission. Service was read by Messrs. Corfield and Brown, and the Bishop preached, after addressing the people at length on their prospects.

December 30. Conference on the Sunday School Institute. In the evening, a meeting of the Laymen's Missionary League.

December 31. Attended meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese at St. Andrew's Church.

January 5, 1890. Second Sunday after Christmas. Preached at Trinity Church, Pittsburgh, morning and evening, and celebrated Holy Communion in the morning.

January 6. Epiphany. Celebrated the Holy Communion at Trinity, Pittsburgh. The Rev. W. C. Rodgers preached. In the afternoon a meeting of St. Barnabas' Guild for Nurses at the Homeopathic Hospital. Preached in the evening at the Church of the Epiphany, Bellevue, the first anniversary of the parish.

January 8. Meetings of the Committee on Bishop Kerfoot Memorial and the Committee on Canons.

January 9. Meeting of the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions.

January 11. Many conferences at Church Rooms. In the evening, at Trinity Chapel, Pittsburgh, received six members and three associates into St. Barnabas' Guild for Nurses.

January 12. First Sunday after Epiphany. In the morning, preached at St. Martin's Mission, Knoxville. In the afternoon, visited the Mission Sunday School at Beltzhoover. Then to Trinity Chapel, Pittsburgh, where the Rev. Dr. Gray, of Nashville, addressed the colored people of St. Cyprian's Mission, with regard to work among the colored people of the South.

January 17. In Canonsburg for a service in the evening, the first service of our Church held there for many years. At half past seven in the evening a large congregation assembled in the rink, fully 400 persons being present. The service was read by the Rev. Messrs. Cowper, Cayley and Rodgers, the Music being rendered by the choir of the Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Mr. Mesny assisting them. The Bishop made an address and afterwards met such members and adherents of the Church as desired to speak with him. We found about twenty-five in all, who might be numbered as belonging to our communion; and there are doubtless many more who are favorably disposed.

January 18. After various calls in Canonsburg, went on to Washington. In the afternoon, held a conference with the Clergy concerning Mission work in the neighborhood, and assisted at the Evensong of Trinity Hall in the Chapel.

January 19. Second Sunday after Epiphany. Finding myself unwell, I was glad to avail myself of the kind services of the Rev. Mr. Rodgers to preach for me in the afternoon at St. George's Mission West End, and in the evening at St. Paul's Church.

January 20. Many conferences at Church Rooms. Administered the Holy Communion to a dying girl belonging to St. George's Mission.

January 21. In the evening, a meeting of the Laymen's League.

January 22. Officiated at a marriage in Pittsburgh.

January 23. Many talks and visits with the sick and bereaved. Met a committee to talk over parochial matters.

January 24. Journeyed to Scottdale, stopping for a few minutes at Greensburg to look at the handsome new church now being erected. Made several calls in Scottdale, and talked over church matters and plans. Found the people hopeful and already in process of buying a lot. In the evening, held service in the Baptist Church and preached.

January 25. Conversion of St. Paul. Eighth anniversary of my consecration. Celebration of the Holy Communion at Scottdale in the hall used for our services. Took the train for Jeanette in company with the Rev. Mr. Lassiter, where we inspected the lots which have been obtained for church and parsonage. Then on to Latrobe, where I called upon our church people resident in the town, and talked over plans for the future. In the evening, went to Johnstown, where I met the Rev. Messrs. Bold and Heakes and a committee from the White Cross Society of the Parish.

January 26. Third Sunday after Epiphany. Service, sermon and Holy Communion in the temporary chapel of St. Mark's, Johnstown. Also confirmed six persons. In the afternoon, catechised the Sunday school and baptized two children. Then to Moxham to see the house which is building for the Rector, and talk over the project of a Chapel in that populous suburb. In the evening, preached a memorial sermon in the Chapel.

January 27. Much consultation with the Rector, Wardens, etc., with regard to church matters at Johnstown. Then on to Indiana.

January 28. Conference with members of our Mission at Indiana and planning for the future. Also made some visits. In the evening, returned to Pittsburgh.

January 30. In the morning, at a meeting held to observe the "Day of Prayer for Colleges," I made an address in the Chapel of the Western University, Allegheny. In the afternoon a meeting of the Trustees of the Church Home.

February 1. Conference with a Parochial committee. In the evening, at Trinity Chapel, received one member into the Guild of St. Barnabas for Nurses, and made an address.

February 2. Septuagesima. At St. Paul's Church, preached, confirmed four, and celebrated Holy Communion. In the afternoon, heard the children catechised most admirably at the Church Home by the Chaplain, the Rev. Mr. Webbe, and confirmed seven. In the evening, at St. Luke's, preached and confirmed seven.

February 7. The worst day of the winter so far, stormy, cold and disagreeable, was the day for the first lecture of the Rev. Dr. Eccleston, in behalf of the Laymen's Missionary League. Nevertheless, over one hundred persons gathered, and the lecture on Westminster Abbey was most instructive and interesting. A larger attendance greeted the lecturer on the following evenings.

February 9. Sexagesima. Administered the Holy Communion to a sick man. In the evening, took part in the service at Trinity Church, where the Rev. Dr. Eccleston preached.

February 11. A meeting of the Trustees of the Church Home.

February 12. In the evening, at St. John's Church, the opening serving of the session of the Southern Convocation was held. The Rev. Mr. Rodgers, of Trinity Hall, preached.

February 13. Celebration of the Holy Communion at St. John's Church, when the Rev. Mr. Grange preached. Afterwards a discussion on Article XXII, "On Purgatory." Session of the Convocation in the afternoon, closing with Evening Prayer at five. The ladies of the congregation treated us with abounding hospitality at luncheon and supper. In the evening, a session of the Sunday School Institute was held at Trinity Chapel. Later, I confirmed one candidate from Trinity Church, New Castle.

February 14. A Quiet Day for the Clergy at St. Luke's Church, most interesting, instructive and helpful; all who were present felt themselves much indebted to the Rev. Pelham Williams, S. T. D., who conducted the exercises of the day.

February 15. Meeting of the Church Home. Letter dimissory in behalf of the Rev. Mr. Heakes, to the Diocese of Central Pennsylvania.

February 16. Quinquagesima.—Calvary Church, Pittsburgh. Visited the Infant School, and the Sunday School, and the Bible Class. All of them large and most admirably conducted. Preached, confirmed fifty-six candidates, and celebrated the Holy Communion. Then taking the train to Irwin I addressed the Sunday School, preached and confirmed four persons in St. George's Church. In the evening, at Braddock, in the hall used by All Saints' Mission, I preached and confirmed twelve.

February 17. In completion of the visitation to Calvary Parish, I confirmed one sick person at Edgewood and another at East Liberty, presented by the Rev. Mr. Hodges. Also baptized the candidate at East Liberty. In the evening at the Homœopathic Hospital, attended a meeting called by the Hospital Sunday Association.

February 18. Held an examination in the English Bible and Prayer Book for those Lay Readers of the Missionary League who desire to be admitted as Lay Evangelists. Six attended the examination, which they passed very creditably, and I am well pleased to have so competent a corps of helpers in this most helpful ministry.

February 19. Ash Wednesday. In the morning attended Divine service at Calvary Church. Visits to the sick. In the evening read service at St. Stephen's Church, Wilkinsburg, and gave a lecture on Bible Study.

February 20. Took part in funeral service in Allegheny. In the evening fulfilled the duty of Chaplain at the opening of the Carnegie Library.

February 21. Conferences at Church rooms. In the evening, service and address at St. Stephen's Church, McKeesport. Afterward, a conference with the Vestry.

February 22. In Calvary Church, at Evening Prayer, I confirmed two candidates, making in all sixty for that parish.

February 23. First Sunday in Lent. Assisted in the service at Calvary Church, where the Rev. Dr. McKay-Smith, Arch-Deacon of New York preached the sermon. In the evening, at Trinity Church, the same clergyman preached the anniversary sermon for the Laymen's Missionary League and after it, I admitted publicly and formally eight Lay Readers and eight Lay Evangelists to serve in the Missions of the League.

February 24. St. Matthias' Day. Celebration of the Holy Communion at Trinity Chapel, in behalf of the Layman's Missionary League. It was an inspiring sight to see twenty-eight busy men, willing to gather together on Monday morning, to join in this corporate act of Communion. After the service the Rev. Dr. McKay-Smith made an address, describing the city missionary work in New York, over which he presides; and then in answer to various questions, gave much profitable information. The Annual Reports of the Secretary and Treasurer were read, and the election for officers was held.

February 26. Ember Day. Evening Prayer and lecture at St. Stephen's, Wilkinsburg. Letters dismissory to Rev. J. Graham to Central Pennsylvania, and to the Rev. James P. Hawkes to Pennsylvania.

February 28. Ember Day. Address at Trinity, Pittsburgh, at noon.

March 2. Second Sunday in Lent. In Church of the Nativity, Crafton, preached and celebrated Holy Communion. Then to Mansfield, where I preached in the Church of the Atonement, and addressed the Sunday School. In the evening, preached and confirmed eight persons in Christ Church, Allegheny.

March 3. Lectures this morning and every evening during the week, on Christian Evidences, at the Bishop Bowman Institute.

March 4. Meeting of the Laymen's Missionary League.

March 5. Service and lecture in the evening at St. Stephen's, Wilkinsburg.

March 6. In the evening, a meeting of St. Barnabas' Guild for Nurses, in the Allegheny General Hospital.

March 7. Confirmed in private two sick persons presented by the Rev. Mr. Maxwell, of Trinity Church; also visited a sick man.

March 9. Third Sunday in Lent. Trinity Church, New Haven. Celebrated Holy Communion; later catechized the children, preached and confirmed seven persons. Then to Dunbar Furnace, where, in the Church of St. John in the Wilderness, I preached and confirmed two persons, and addressed a few words to the Sunday School. In the evening preached at Trinity Church, New Haven.

March 10. Received the Rev. Jos. Moran, Jr., from the Diocese of Fond du Lac. Meeting of the Trustees of the Church Home.

March 11. Lecture at Bishop Bowman Institute. In the afternoon, officiated at a burial service in Washington.

March 12. Closing lecture at the Bishop Bowman Institute. Conference with the Chaplain of the Laymen's Missionary League. In the evening, service and lecture at St. Stephen's, Wilkinsburg.

March 14. Address at Trinity Church at the noon service.

March 16. Mid-Lent Sunday. In the morning, preached and confirmed thirty-one at St. Peter's Church, Pittsburgh. In the afternoon, at St. Andrew's Church, preached and confirmed nine. In the evening, read service and preached at Trinity Church, Pittsburgh.

March 18. Meeting of Trustees and Managers of the Church Home. Visited the old ladies at the Home.

March 19. Meetings and conferences at the Church rooms. In the evening, service and lecture at St. Stephen's, Wilkinsburg.

March 21. To Erie, where, in St. Paul's Church, I preached and confirmed twenty-eight, presented by the new Rector, the Rev. John Huske.

March 22. Journeyed to Sewickley. In the evening, after service at sermon, I confirmed six candidates.

March 23. Passion Sunday. At St. Stephen's, Sewickley, preached and celebrated Holy Communion. In the afternoon, at Christ Church, New Brighton, preached and confirmed six. Then to Rochester, where preached and confirmed seven in Trinity Church.

March 24. Various calls in Rochester, and confirmed two persons in private.

March 25. Various meetings and conferences. Meeting of the Academy of Science and Art. Licensed Mr. W. Howard Falkner as Lay Reader and Evangelist.

March 26. Journeyed to Du Bois; took part in the examination of the Rev. C. M. Kimball for the Priesthood, the Rev. Dr. Mulholland and the Rev. Mr. Bragdon serving as special examiners. In the evening, at the Church of our Saviour, I preached, and confirmed eight persons.

March 27. In Trinity Church, Brookville, after service by the Rev. Messrs. Day and Schepeler, the Rev. Mr. Angell preached the sermon, and I ordained to the Priesthood the Rev. Charles M. Kimball, presented by the Rev. Mr. Bragton; the Presbyters united in the Laying on of Hands. In the evening preached, and confirmed five persons in the same church.

March 28. At Fairmount, in the hall used by the Mission of the Redeemer, after service by the Rev. Mr. Barber, I preached and confirmed seven, and celebrated the Holy Communion; also addressed the congregation with regard to the new church, which it is their hope and intention to build during the coming summer.

March 29. To Lawsonham, where, in the schoolhouse, we had service sermon and the Holy Communion; and in the evening, in the house of one of our devoted people. I read Evening Prayer and baptized three children.

March 30. Palm Sunday. Drove through a snow storm eight miles to St. Mary's Church, Redbank, where, after service by the Rev. S. Dimmick, preached, confirmed two and celebrated the Holy Communion; also addressed a few words to the children of the Sunday School. In the afternoon, to Kittanning, where, in the evening, at St. Paul's Church, I confirmed fourteen, presented by the new Rector, the Rev. J. H. LaRoche.

March 31. Many calls in Kittanning. In the evening at the Church of the Holy Innocents, Leechburg, after service by the Rev. Mr. Bragdon, preached, and confirmed nine persons. I have only recently learned that the services of our Church were held in Leechburg as long ago as 1857 and 1858 by the Rev. Mr. Hopkins, and those services bore fruit in the bringing of one of our prominent churchmen, now living in another place, into the Church's Communion, after many years.

April 1. After a Communion service at Leechburg, in which the Rev. Mr. Bragdon was Celebrant, we came to Freeport, where the Rev. Mr.

Donehoo met us, and we had morning Service, sermon and the Holy Communion in Trinity Church. In the afternoon, I preached, and confirmed two; then to Tarentum for service and sermon, and confirmation of nine candidates in St. Barnabas' Church. Then the Bishop and the General Missionary returned to Pittsburgh by midnight.

April 2. Gave letter Dismissory to the Rev. J. D. Kennedy, addressed to the Bishop of Long Island. In the evening, preached, and confirmed seven at St. Stephen's, Wilksburg.

April 3. Maundy-Thursd. At Greensburg, preached in the hall used by the congregation while the church is building, and celebrated Holy Communion.

April 4. Good Friday. In the morning, preached at the Church of the Ascension, Shadyside. Attended the Passion Service at Calvary Church, most impressively conducted by the Rev. Mr. Hodges. In the evening preached and confirmed five at the Church of the Epiphany, Bellevue.

April 6. Easter Day. Celebrated Holy Communion at Church of the Ascension and made an address. Confirmed seventeen and celebrated Holy Communion at Church of the Good Shepherd, Hazelwood. In the afternoon, at St. George's Mission, West End, preached, and confirmed sixteen, presented by the Rev. Mr. Wightman, Chaplain of the Layman's Missionary League. Then to Mt. Washington, where, in Grace Church, I preached and confirmed fourteen.

April 7. Conferences at the Church rooms.

April 8. Holy Communion with a sick man.

April 9. Meeting of St. Barnabas' Guild for Nurses.

April 10. Address at the Third Annual Commencement of the Pittsburgh Training School for Nurses, at the Homœopathic Hospital.

April 11. At St. Stephen's Church, McKeesport, in the evening, preached and confirmed fifteen, presented by the Rev. Mr. Cayley.

April 13. First Sunday after Easter. In the morning, at Trinity Church, Pittsburgh, confirmed thirty-two candidates from the parish, and three from St. Martin's Mission, Knoxville. In the afternoon preached and confirmed eight candidates from St. Cyprian's Mission, in Trinity Chapel. In the evening, at Emmanuel Church, Allegheny, preached, and confirmed nineteen, three of whom were from St. John's Mission, Wood's Run.

April 15. In St. Luke's Church, Georgetown, preached and confirmed one person.

April 16. At St. Paul's, Fairview, preached, and celebrated Holy Communion. Drove to Beaver Falls, where, in St. Mary's Church, I preached and confirmed twenty-five.

April 17. Journeyed to New Castle, where a goodly congregation assembled in Trinity Church, for a special Confirmation. I confirmed five candidates, making twenty-eight for the year, and celebrated Holy Communion. In the evening at Trinity Church, Sharon, confirmed one person in private, preached, and confirmed seventeen, making twenty-five for the year.

April 18. Holy Communion in private to a sick woman. Long journey to Bradford. In the evening, after service in the rented hall, used by the congregation since the burning of their church, I confirmed seven candidates, making thirty-three for the year. Also addressed the congregation with regard to rebuilding, and had a conference with members of the Vestry.

April 19. Journey to Meadville.

April 20. Second Sunday after Easter. Christ Church, Meadville. Visited and catechised the infant school and the Sunday school; preached, and celebrated Holy Communion. In the evening, preached, and confirmed twenty-five.

April 21. Visits to the infirm and aged. In the afternoon, the Woman's Auxiliary of the Northern Convocation held a meeting which was opened with prayers by the Bishop, and an address by the Rev. Mr. Israel. In the evening, the Woman's Auxiliary had a special service, at which the Bishop preached.

April 22. A meeting of the Northern Convocation of the Diocese at Christ Church, Meadville. The Bishop celebrated Holy Communion, which was followed by a business session of the Convocation, morning and afternoon. In the evening a sermon was preached before the Convocation by the Rev. J. W. Ashton, of Olean, New York.

April 25. St. Mark's Day. In the evening, at St. Mark's Church, Pittsburgh, preached and confirmed twenty.

April 27. Third Sunday after Easter. At St. John's, Erie, preached, confirmed four, and celebrated Holy Communion. In the afternoon addressed the children at their Choral Evensong at St. Paul's Church, Erie. In the evening, at Cross and Crown Church, preached and confirmed sixteen.

April 28. Visited Hamot Hospital. In the evening baptised and confirmed one person in St. Paul's Church, Erie.

April 29. Various calls upon the aged and sick in St. John's and Cross and Crown Parishes.

April 30. At Trinity Church, Conneautville, sermon, and Holy Communion, and in the afternoon preached and confirmed three. In the evening, at Grace Church, Miles' Grove, after services by the Rev. Mr. Thorn, I preached.

May 1. St. Phillip's and St. James' Day. Holy Communion in Grace Church, Miles' Grove; then to North East, with the Rev. Dr. Lamson and the Rev. Mr. Benedict. In the afternoon baptized the infant daughter of the Rector. In the evening, confirmed one person, after service in the Church of the Holy Cross.

May 2. At St. Peter's, Waterford, preached and celebrated Holy Communion; preached and confirmed three at the afternoon service. In the evening preached at St. Matthew's Church, Union City.

May 3. At Corry administered the Holy Communion to a sick woman, met the ladies of the parish in their society, baptized an adult in Emmanuel Church, and gave instruction to the candidates for confirmation. In the evening read service and preached, and confirmed four persons. This parish has been vacant for three months, and sadly needs and desires the ministrations of a Rector.

May 4. Fourth Sunday after Easter. In the morning read service and preached, and administered the Holy Communion to about seventy communicants, before taking the train to Titusville, where I preached in the evening at St. James' Church, and confirmed eight persons.

May 5. Various calls in the parish; confirmed one sick man. Then to Townville, in a violent rain, to hold service in the evening at Calvary Church. I was accompanied on the drive by some young people from St. James' parish, who deserve more than a passing mention for their cheerful endurance of the hardships of the way. It is owing to their delightful company that the cold and wind and rain were well nigh forgotten, and the twelve miles of muddy road marvellously abbreviated. Evening Prayer was read in the Church at Townville, by the Rev. Mr. Thorn; I baptized an infant and confirmed one person, and then returned to Titusville.

May 6. Many calls in company with the Rector, and then to Oil City, where I also made some calls with the Rector of Christ Church, and enjoyed meeting many of the parishioners.

May 7. Journeyed to Tidioute. In the evening, after service by the Rev. Mr. Moran, I preached and confirmed two.

May 8. On to Warren, where I confirmed a sick man in private, and in the afternoon took the train to Kane, in company with the Rev. Dr. Ryan. Preached in the Swedish Church and confirmed two.

May 9. Returned to Warren, and in the afternoon to Clarendon, where I preached in the Presbyterian Church in the evening.

May 10. After a Communion service with two aged church people at Clarendon, we returned to Warren. In the evening at St. Saviour's Church, Youngsville, I met the Executive Committee to confer about church matters, and in the evening preached to a small congregation. The weather was most unfavorable, a hard, cold rain having begun in the middle of the afternoon, and continuing through the night.

May 11. Rogation Sunday. In the morning, at Trinity Church, Warren, I preached, confirmed thirteen, and celebrated Holy Communion. I found this parish, as usual, in a very prosperous condition, out of debt, and anticipating extensive improvements in the church building.

May 12. A meeting of "The Advancement Society" in Philadelphia.

May 13. At the Bible House, New York city, attended a meeting of the Board of Managers of the Foreign and Domestic Missionary Society. Later, in the Mission Rooms, a meeting of the Committee on Arrangements for the Missionary Council.

May 14. Committee meeting in the afternoon.

May 15. The Ascension Day. Assisted in the service at Trinity Church, New York city. The Bishop of Mississippi preached the sermon.

May 15. Officiated at the funeral service of a very dear friend at Trinity Church, Bergen Point, N. J. Then to Philadelphia, and thence to Pittsburgh.

May 17. Many letters and conferences at Church Rooms. Consultation with the Vestry of one of our city parishes.

May 18. Sunday after Ascension. Celebrated the Holy Communion at the Church of the Ascension, Shadyside. In the afternoon preached at St. James' Church, Pittsburgh, and confirmed twenty five. In the evening, the anniversary of the Church Home was held at Calvary Church, Pittsburgh, when the Rev. Y. P. Morgan, of Cleveland, preached the sermon.

May 19. Gave consent to the consecration of the Rev. Dr. W. F. Nichols, as Assistant Bishop of the Diocese of California. Much correspondence, and various conferences at the Church Rooms.

May 20. In the afternoon, in company with the Rev. Messrs. Wightman and Bragdon, visited Knoxville, to examine localities with a view to the choice of a lot for the Church.

May 21. Gave letter dismissory to the Rev. B. S. Lassiter to the Diocese of Central Pennsylvania. Meeting of the Committee on plans for the Church Home. In the evening, meeting of the Guild of St. Barnabas for Nurses in Trinity Chapel.

May 23. To Oil City, where, in the evening, at Christ Church, preached, and confirmed twenty-seven.

May 24. In the afternoon, at St. John's Church, Franklin, assisted at Evening Prayer, and baptized an infant.

May 25. Whitsunday. Preached and confirmed ten in St. John's Church, Franklin, and celebrated Holy Communion. In the evening, at the Church of Our Father, Foxburg, preached, and confirmed nine.

May 26. Monday in Whitsun week. Celebration of Holy Communion in the same Church. In the evening, preached, and confirmed eight in St. Peter's Church, Butler.

May 27. Tuesday in Whitsun week. Accompanied by the Rev. Dr. Wm. White, and the Rev. Mr. London, journeyed to Pardoe, and held service in the afternoon in the hall used by St. David's Mission. Preached and confirmed two; looked at the lots which it is proposed to procure for a Chapel and graveyard. In the evening, at Grace Church, Mercer, preached, and confirmed eight.

May 28. Administered the Communion, as always on my visits to Mercer, to an aged Church woman, confirmed many years ago by Bishop Onderdonk. Returned to Pittsburgh.

May 29. Examination of Candidates for Holy Orders.

Pastoral Letters.

TO THE CLERGY AND LAITY OF THE DIOCESE OF PITTSBURGH.

Beloved Brethren.—The appalling calamity at Johnstown has drawn forth most generous expressions of sympathy from all portions of our land and from beyond the sea. Doubtless you yourselves have contributed to the many funds for the immediate relief of those who have been so sorely and mysteriously afflicted.

But we owe something as members of the same household of faith, to the band of faithful Churchmen who in one dreadful moment have lost church, and school house, and rector.

Many of them, whose eyes do not weep at the remembrance of their other woes, quickly melt at the mention of this, their spiritual destitution, and have said to me, "Oh, it does seem as if we could have borne our trouble more patiently if only Mr. Diller and his lovely wife could have been spared to us."

For years to come they will be utterly unable of themselves to rebuild their church, and to maintain a minister. Let us bear them in our hearts and sustain the work there out of our great abundance.

I urgently request that offerings be made in all our churches and chapels on the last Sunday in June, the second after Trinity, towards the rebuilding of S. Mark's Church as a memorial of the devoted rector; and I request that all remittances may be sent to Mr. T. T. Morrell, the Senior Warden of the parish. If the amount received shall seem to warrant the speedy commencement of the work, I shall hope to lay the corner-stone on the Festival of All Saints, or near that date.

To all who knew and loved our brother, and to all who desire the prosperity of our Church in that afflicted community, I am sure that the appeal for aid will not be in vain.

Faithfully, your Bishop and servant in the LORD,
CORTLANDT WHITEHEAD.

PITTSBURGH, June 20, 1889.

TO THE CLERGY AND LAITY OF THE DIOCESE OF PITTSBURGH.

Dear Brethren.—I hereby notify you that the following changes have been duly and lawfully made in the Book of Common Prayer, and have been canonically certified by the presiding officers and secretaries of the two Houses of General Convention. These rubrics and changes are, therefore, the law for the conduct of Divine service.

It is now lawful to shorten the morning service on Communion Days by omission of the Exhortation, etc., and also by the omission of the prayers following that for the President.

On week days the morning prayer may end with the Collect for Grace and II. Cor. xiii: 14.

It is NOT lawful to shorten either morning or evening prayer by omitting any of the daily Psalms or either of the Lessons from Holy Scripture.

It is the glory of this revision of the Prayer Book that God's inspired word has not been crowded out or in the least degree put into retirement.

In commending the following changes to your studious and loyal observance, I cannot better close than by quoting the well known words of the Prayer Book Preface:

"And now, this important work being [thus far] brought to a conclusion, it is hoped the whole will be received and examined by every true member of our Church, and every sincere Christian, with a meek, candid and charitable frame of mind; without prejudice or prepossessions; seriously considering what Christianity is, and what the truths of the Gospel are; and earnestly beseeching Almighty God to accompany with His blessing every endeavor for promulgating them to mankind, in the clearest, plainest, most effecting and majestic manner, for the sake of Jesus Christ, our blessed Lord and Saviour."

Faithfully your Bishop, and Servant in the Lord,

CORTLANDT WHITEHEAD.

THE FEAST OF THE EPIPHANY, 1890.

TO THE RECTORS, SUPERINTENDENTS, SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS AND PUPILS.

Dear Friends and Fellow Helpers:—The Mite Boxes for Lent are again on their way, and you will all receive a supply supposed to be sufficient for the needs of each Sunday School or congregation. In the smaller Missions, where there are no Sunday schools, our few communicants are requested to use the boxes and send in their offerings at Easter.

Last year our Lenten offerings reached the handsome sum of $2,364.74, which was more than $150 over the result of the year before. I have no doubt that if we all make an earnest effort this Lent, we shall reach the sum of $2,500; and every penny of it is needed; for our work is growing, more Missions are opening, and we could well employ a second General Missionary, and there would be no day idle for him in all the year. Let us then be in earnest this Lent; practicing every sort of self-denial whereby we may save a penny or a dollar, to help on the work which God is blessing on every hand. We are working for the building up of His kingdom, and for the spread of the glorious Gospel which has made our own lives so full of blessings.

Beginning at Septuagesima Sunday, which is the second day of February, let us make our offerings gladly and generously, and the result at Easter will be better than anything we have hitherto attained.

Praying God's blessing upon you, and hoping that the Holy Lenten Fast may prepare us all to keep with truer hearts, the Easter Feast.

Faithfully and affectionately

Your Bishop and Servant in the Lord,

CORTLANDT WHITEHEAD

J. P. HENDERSON, Treasurer, Trustees, Etc.

REPORT OF REV. AUSTIN W. MANN, GENERAL MISSIONARY TO DEAF MUTES.

To the Rt. Rev. CORTLANDT WHITEHEAD, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese of Pittsburgh:

During the year just closed I held services for deaf mutes at Trinity and Calvary churches, Pittsburgh, and All Saints Church, Braddock, with good congregations. The Holy Communion has been celebrated at every morning service at Trinity Church, Pittsburgh. Those receiving come mostly from Braddock, Homestead, Wall, Wilkinsburg and other suburban points. About six months ago I changed the afternoon service from Trinity to Calvary Church on account of the shifting of the center of deaf mute population to East Liberty.

Within the diocese about twenty-five deaf mute communicants may be found. About fifteen belong the city of Pittsburgh and environs. About seven hundred deaf mutes have their homes within the diocese. More than two-thirds have been to school at Philadelphia or Edgewoodville.

It is now fifteen years since work was undertaken among the deaf of this diocese. The services have been kept up with a frequency consistent with my duties in other dioceses. I have now Missions in all of the large cities from the Alleghenies to the Missouri river, which must be visited every six or seven weeks. I am obliged to travel every week throughout the year.

During the period mentioned over five hundred deaf mutes and their hearing children have been received into the church by Holy Baptism, and the Communicant list has grown to nearly four hundred names. Services have been held in over two hundred and fifty parishes and at about twenty-five State schools for deaf children. I have acted as Chaplain of "silent" conventions and re-unions in different States, and distributed over four hundred prayer books, as well as many tracts, which have exerted an influence beyond the silent circle; their hearing friends coming across them have had their thoughts turned towards The Historical Church.

The children of deaf mutes usually hear and speak, and should be gathered into the Sunday school by the rectors; several have been confirmed.

TENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE PITTSBURGH DIOCESAN BRANCH OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY TO THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

The ninth annual report was read at the last meeting of the season, May 28, 1889. The annual meeting was changed from June, at the "time and place" of the Diocesan Convention, to the fall, in order to secure the presence of some of the Missionary Bishops on their return from the General Convention. A "Quiet Day" was held in November by Bishop Tuttle. On Thursday evening, December 12, the first in the series of Missionary meetings took place at Trinity Church, Pittsburgh.

After a brief service, an address was made by the Bishop of the diocese, welcoming and introducing the Missionary Bishops of Utah and Nevada, and of Wyoming and Idaho, who made their usual stirring and interesting addresses, and were heard with deep attention. On Friday morning following there was a Litany Service and Celebration of the Holy Communion at Emmauel Church, Allegheny. Addresses were made by Bishops Kendrick, of Arizona and New Mexico, and by Bishops Talbot and Leonard.

An elegant, abundant and well-served luncheon was supplied by the ladies of Emanuel Church, after which the annual business was held, a large number of delegates being present. The election of officers resulted in the reappointment of all, except the Second Vice President, whose resignation was sent, and Miss Francis Davis, of Meadville, was chosen in her place. A letter from Miss Emery was read, suggesting the objects of joint work for the year, viz.:

To Miss Clarkson's Salary	$100 00
To Miss Dodson's Salary	150 00
Teacher, in Hope School, S. D.	100 00
Missionary Insurance	150 00
Contingent Fund	100 00

Mrs. Richard H. Soule, appointed by Miss Emery to unite the Children's societies under an organization to be called the Junior Auxiliary, spoke in the interests of this branch of the work.

The Church Periodical Club, represented by Mrs. George M. Taylor, was recommended to the interest of Church people. After other interesting letters the meeting adjourned to the Church, where brief addresses were again made by the above mentioned Bishops. In the evening another general meeting took place in the Church, and was well attended.

The last missionary service was held at Trinity Church, Bishops Kendrick and Paddock being the speakers. Not for years had so great a number attended a missionary meeting in Pittsburg, nor listened with deeper attention. Not since the organization of this branch had any meetings met with so great success. The sum of $350.43 were received as the offerings and given to the missionary bishops. A cheque for $703.00 for Bishop Paddock was handed to the treasurer by a member of St. Andrew's Church.

Several new parishes have engaged in the work of the Auxiliary this year. Miss Davis, of Meadville, has given an impetus to missionary work in the limits of the Northern Convocation. The President of the Junior Auxiliary visited Meadville and Franklin, at her invitation, and addressed the children there.

The monthly meetings have had more than the usual average attendance. Many interesting letters have been read, some, soliciting aid, which has been given, if possible; among others, to Rev. Mr. Gray for St. Augustine's Chapel, Nashville, Tenn., $100; to a church at Scotland, S. D., $25, and others. Letters of acknowledgement have been received, among them, one from Miss Brierly, Africa, for a box sent last May, and from Rev. Mr. Agnew, of Houtzdale, Pa., for boxes to himself and to the miners and their families, under his charge. These and others were joint works of the Auxiliary. Much can be accomplished in this way, that would be too great an undertaking for a single society, and a corresponding interest is excited in all who share the work.

The minutes of the meeting have kindly been published in the Church News, for which many thanks are due.

It has been thought best to eliminate as much as possible from the Annual Report, all purely parochial work, and to confine it to missionary reports, in the shape of boxes, monies and other gifts to the missionaries or their families. The work for the Church Home has been considered as belonging to Diocesan Missions, and, as such, published in the Report. From the smaller parishes unable to do much beyond their own parochial work, the smallest amounts will be welcome, to aid in making up the sum annually pledged to Miss Emery, or to help in preparing joint boxes. Even a few articles of clothing contributed is missionary work, and the smallest society might begin by some undertaking of this kind. Many large and generous offerings have been made by individuals in the shape of scholarships, &c. There is much to be thankful for in the past year, and to encourage for the future. This completes the first decade of the Pittsburgh Branch.

Those who remember the difficulties continued with, the indifference with which many efforts were met, the tardy responses to appeals for aid, cannot but see the improvement with grateful hearts. We should remember there is still much to be done. No efforts should be spared until every parish in the Diocese shall show some interest in the work of missions, be the result great or small. Let each give according to its ability, only cheerfully, for "God loveth a cheerful giver."

Rec.-Sec.

REPORT OF JUNIOR AUXILIARY.

The Diocesan Branch of the Junior Department of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions was instituted October 29, 1889, by the appointment of a President, who should endeavor to gather into this authorized department of the Board of Missions, all the children already working under other titles, and should start new branches where the girls and boys had not begun to work. During six months eighteen branches have come under the Junior Department, ten previously at work, and eight new ones, of these two have sent no report.

Several parishes have promised to start branches in the autumn. It is the earnest desire of the President to have a branch in each of the 101 parishes and missions of the Diocese, and she hopes that this half year's report to Convention may reach many Clergymen and Laymen who will enter into correspondence with her to this end. The work requires very little money, it needs only the devotion of one or two women in each parish, to advise and direct the young people.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH HOME.

MAY 18, 1890.

While this year has been in some respects, a very trying one at the Home, we feel that we have much to be grateful for in the continued interest and help of our friends and for some new ones we have made.

The Festival held in June was, as usual, a most gratifying success, indeed more than the usual number of our friends came to assist us in spite of the difficulty in reaching the grounds, owing to the condition of Penn ave., and we shall trust to them this year to come in even greater numbers since the facilities for reaching the Home are so much improved and it will perhaps be the farewell visit to the old house which has opened its doors to many, year after year, since babyhood, and for all we hope is filled with happy memories of June days spent there in helping, if only with their presence, the good work of caring for the helpless. The Festival this year will be held June 19th. In July Mrs. Bissell, feeling her home duties required too much of her time to allow her to give so much of it to the Home, presented her resignation as President, and the managers accepted it with the greatest regret. She continued to act as manager until October, when she withdrew from the Board. The Vice-President, Mrs. McCleane, presided at the meetings until November, when Mrs. L. M. Harding was unanimously elected President.

In October, Scarlet fever was brought into the Home. It was fatal in one case only, but required, of course, the greatest care to prevent the spreading through so large a family of children. There were eight cases. We are deeply indebted to Dr. McFarlane for the care and time he gave to us, and feel too, that mention should be made of the able way in which the Matron performed her duties at that critical time.

In December, Dr. McFarlane presented his resignation as Physician to the Home, much to the regret of the managers, who had learned to rely so much on his skill and also on his kindness. His suggestion of Dr. Gardiner as his successor was accepted by the Board.

Mrs. Knight's resignation as Manager was also presented and accepted with regret. Mrs. Morgan was elected to fill the vacancy.

In March our bank account was so low that it was found necessary to call on the Trustees for funds to pay running expenses.

In March, also, the measles came into our Home, to add to the cares already great, for there had been much sickness among the old ladies, two of whom died.

In the death of our constant friend, Mr. J. H. Shoenberger, we have sustained a loss hard indeed to be replaced. While his removal from the city prevented his presence among us for some years past, we never had cause to feel ourselves forgotten, but on the contrary, constant evidences of his thoughtfulness for us came, and his name will be held in loving memory by all connected with the Home. Even at the time of his death we were remembered, but from this legacy we can realize nothing for some two years. He having always paid quite two-thirds of our Chaplain's salary, we find ourselves obliged to ask if some of our friends will not help us in this matter, a very important part of our work.

You have now heard of our trials and will, we feel sure, have given us your sympathy in them; our blessings too, have been great, for when disease came among us it was not allowed to spread; when death came, except in the case of one little child, it came to those whose race was run and who could lie down at last with the full assurance of a joyful resurrection.

We are indebted to many friends for help of many kinds. It is hard to select names, but among those whom we would like to mention especially, are: Mrs. Bissell, Mrs. Daly, Miss Edrington, Mr. Fredericks, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Cochran, Mrs. Anson Bidwell, Mrs. Aspinwall, Dr. Hanna, Dr. Libbey, Dr. Gardiner and the sewing societies of Calvary, St. Peter's, Emmanuel and St. Stephen's churches, the Church of the Ascension and the Church of the Good Shepherd.

Our family at present is smaller than usual owing partly to the fact that for so long we were unable to admit any children owing to fear of contagion, and also that with the prospect of rebuilding before us, we did not wish to have too many to care for while out of our own Home.

Respectfully submitted,

ANNA D. JOHNSTON, Secretary.

Remarks.—Services have been held regularly at the Christian Home, Locust st., during the year, and occasional services in connection with Layman's Missionary League. The discrepancy in the return of communicants (as compared with last year's report) is due to an error in that report. This is to certify that the report of Communicants of Emmanuel is made from the list of actual Communicants on the Parish register and is correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Remarks—As the church is still in course of erection an estimate of the property, etc., cannot be given this year, nor yet the indebtedness. While during the past year we have had a struggle, this mission is now successful. We have a healthy growth after so many years of deadness. The Church calls the respectful attention of all the denominations. There is no field in the Diocese which needs more Diocesan help and missionary aid, for Bradford is a place well known throughout the United States, and the Episcopal church's honor is at stake. Nearly all other religious bodies are well supported by external help, so as to make a good showing.

Remarks—A full report cannot be made at this time, as all books and papers which would furnish the necessary statistics were burned. Owing to loss of Church building, Parish house and contents, by fire, and increased expenses in the way of rent, fitting up room for worship, &c., the parish is in arrears in many ways, especially in Diocesan assessments, which, unless they can be remitted this year, we shall try to pay soon. If, however, the Diocese will remit the assessments for this time, the Parish would be much relieved. We have met with great losses also in the way of removals. Twenty-four Communicants have gone from us to other localities, thus entailing upon us not only the loss of faithful workers, but our revenue has suffered greatly. $500 would not make good the amount lost by these removals. We shall try to rebuild soon, plans having already been procured for that purpose.

Remarks.—The present Rector took charge October 13, 1889, the Parish having for some time been without regular services. The prospect for this Parish is most encouraging, there being a growing tendency toward churchly sentiment and harmony. Trinity Guild was organized in December, among the ladies of the Parish and through the energy and faithfulness of its members has materially aided the Parish, about $275.00 coming from this source.

Remarks.—Have had no services at Peale, as yet. Sent word that I would hold services, but was told to wait. Service to be held on the third Sunday in June. I think that there is much encouragement in the work at Clearfield; all seem willing to work, and to work hard. I took charge of this work on the first Sunday of last March, and although I have been here such a short time, I know that the work is much brighter than when I first came. We are working for a new church, and hope, with God's help, to commence building next spring. We have something over eleven hundred dollars, and think that we shall be able to very much increase that amount in the coming year.

Very respectfully,

JOHN E. CURZON, Priest in Charge.

The church at Irwin Station is not within borough limits, but over a quarter of a mile away from the depot and cut off from the town by the Pa. R. R. The American population has therefore little to do with the church and it is almost at the mercy of the English miners, who, with few exceptions are such as do little for her support. It is a great mistake to build a church for this class of people (looking for any material aid) unless out of mercy to souls, or, unless American life has a powerful influence and the church in her missionary strength is at the back of the Clergyman in charge. The land around the church will be for sale for building lots by the coal companies this fall, and it is hoped that this will draw families to St. George's church. Special aid ought to be given to make the work at Irwin a success; An eye must be kept on the future.

The present strike at the mines prevents me from giving any definite information on questions marked thus (*). The number of families varies, and so does the number of communicants, without even letters from the Priest in charge.

Remarks.—The mission at Ehrenfeld has been broken up by the removal of the church people to other mission districts. Of the fifty-eight persons reported above as confirmed since last report twenty-nine were presented by the Rev. A. P. Diller, at Ehrenfeld, and fifteen at St. Mark's, Johnstown, and should have been reported last year, had he lived to make his report.

Services are now being held in the rectory at Moxham, a suburb of Johnstown, and the attendance is very encouraging. A substantial chapel is now being erected on the lot opposite the rectory, and will be opened about October 1, at which time the parish expects to secure an assistant minister, in order that two services may be held here every Sunday, without interfering with the work at St. Mark's, two miles northward.

Plans, etc., for the new St. Mark's have been prepared by Robert W. Gilson, of New York, and the work of excavation has begun.

The financial statement covers only the six months from December 1, 1889, to June 1, 1890.

Remarks.—The new church building was finished and the first service (conducted by the bishop) was held June 30, 1889. The church and lot cost about $1,800. Of this amount $500 was contributed by C. C. Crafton, of Crafton, $500 was raised among the generous of Pittsburgh by the efforts of Rev. C. A. Bragdon and Rev. William Thompson, and about $250 by the congregation. There remains a debt of $500, to be paid in two years.

Since the church was opened the congregations have more than doubled; the contributions increased so that they are now sufficient to meet the present ordinary needs of the parish, and all are encouraged to feel that at last we are permanently fixed as a church in this place.

Remarks.—The Industrial school is now under the full charge of the Rector. He is assisted in the work by the Willing Circle of the King's Daughters. The pupils are of every name and creed, and of no creed at all. They are taken mainly from the poorest families in the city; they are taught sewing, cooking and housework. They attend the Saturday Lent services in the church, and they have special Christmas and Easter festivals. The Working Circle and the Faithful Circle aid the Vestry in paying the running expenses of the church, and in the autumn all of the Circles work together as the Woman's Auxiliary.

I hereby certify that 136 is the present number of Canonical Communicants in Trinity Parish, new Castle.

Remarks.—During the past year Dr. E. Phillips and wife have built and given to the parish a building for Sunday school and parish purposes, consisting of two rooms, that can conveniently be thrown into one, neatly and tastefully finished, at a cost of eleven or twelve hundred dollars. This building is erected by them in memory of an infant daughter in Paradise.

In addition to the financial report above, the Woman's Missionary Society made and gave an outfit to the child of a missionary in Virginia.

Also, the Chancel Society have contributed various sums for new vestments and hangings for the chancel.

Remarks.—Debt all paid! Praise the Lord! This parish now requires the undivided time and attention of a Rector. Attendance at all the services has been better the past year than any previous year, and "outsiders" have taken more interest than heretofore. With proper care from the diocese the church in a few years should be well established in the affections of this community. Some of the ministers used to indulge in long tirades against the church. They never "chirp" now, except in private—"stopped the mouths of lions, etc."

This is the first report of the parish of the Ascension, Shady Side, Pittsburgh. The church building is on Eilsworth ave., near Neville street. It is built of frame and has sittings for 310 persons. There is a Sunday School room attached, with accommodation for 100 scholars. The building is finished and thoroughly furnished. The cash receipts of the parish from all sources for the year were $17,791.16. Of this, $5,952.85 were paid out for Parochial and Diocesan objects outside the Diocese. There are $1,355.44 in the hands of the treasurers. The remaining $10,483.89 were paid towards the building and furnishing of the church and the purchase of an organ. The parish has a Woman's Guild with various committees; a branch of the Woman's Auxiliary and one of the Junior Auxiliary. The Woman's Guild raised $1,436.84 in cash during the year for various objects. They sent a box valued at $142.07 to Johnstown, and made various garments for the Church Home. The Rectory committee have $507.66 cash on hand, and pledges of $1,000 additional. The Woman's Auxiliary, during Advent and Lent sent five boxes to missionaries, valued at $457.07, besides cash above reported. The Junior Auxiliary sent two boxes valued at $35, besides cash above reported.

This is to certify that the report of Communicants of the Church of the Ascension is made from the list of actual communicants on the Parish register, and is correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Remarks.—The mortgage indebtedness of the parish is $500 less than a year ago. No parish in the city is better situated for missionary work than St. John's. No parish has more pressing need of suitable church and parish buildings. If left to itself it will be many years before St. John's can do the work it ought to do, as it should be done.

Since December 1st, 1886, there have been regular courses of instructions with lectures for the Lay Evangelists and Lay Readers. There are now eight of the former and ten of the latter regularly at work under the League with two Lay Readers occasionally. There have been frequent meetings of the organization, one of the most important being that of April 28th, at which steps were taken towards the establishment of a Workingmen's Club.

N. B.—The report of the "Missions" of the League is made separately.

THE MISSIONS OF LAYMAN'S MISSIONARY LEAGUE, PITTSBURGH AND ALLEGHENY CITY AND VICINITY.

The Rev. Jno. R. Wightman, Chaplain.

Names of Missions :—St. Martin's, Mt. Oliver, Knoxville. St. George's, West End, Pittsburgh. St. John's, Wood's Run, Allegheny. St. Timothy's, Chartiers. St. Cyprian's, Mission for Colored People, Trinity Chapel, Pittsburgh.

In all of the Missions strong efforts are being made to secure chapels. This is a much needed improvement. There is not one of these Missions that would not be immensely benefitted if there was a neat Chapel on the ground in which to hold services and meetings. It is impossible to present any more complete report at this time; the whole work has been in its present shape but six months, and is not yet sufficiently organized for perfect statistics.

Remarks.—The small number of communion services is due to the fact that, previous to February 26, this parish was partly in charge of a deacon, and partly under the care of a priest, who could hold service only in the evening.

APPENDIX E.

ALTERATIONS IN THE CONSTITUTION MADE SINCE 1880.

Article III of the Constitution Section 3 now reads as follows :

The Lay members shall consist of one Deputy from each parish in union with the Convention, chosen from the Communicants thereof. And each such parish shall have the right to send additional deputies chosen as aforesaid, in such proportion to the number of its registered communicants as the Convention may, from time to time, by canon, prescribe. Provided, however, that the scale of graduation when fixed by canon, shall not be changed before the third next succeeding annual Convention. (Adopted 1889.) The Chancellor of the Diocese shall be ex-officio a member of the Convention, with the right to a single vote in the Lay Order. (Adopted 1890.)

In Article V of the Constitution, the following words were dropped at the Convention of 1890, viz., in Section 2, "And each parish shall be entitled to only one vote." Section 4, "And in such election the Lay Deputies shall vote per capita."

In Article VI, Section 1, the Standing Committee was increased from three presbyters and three laymen to four presbyters and four laymen, by the annual Convention of 1886.

In Article VIII of the Constitution, Section 1, to the Finance Committee was given, by the Convention of 1887, "Custody," as well as supervision and investment of the different funds.

Article X—Admission of Parishes. In 1887 this Article was altered to read as follows:

Any parish formed within the limits of the Diocese, and regularly organized according to the Canons, may be admitted into union with the Convention, on motion, by a majority of votes. Provided, it shall have laid before the Convention its charter or original Articles of Association, or a duly certified copy thereof, wherein it expressly adopts and recognizes the authority of the Constitution, canons, doctrines, discipline and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America. And provided, also, that it shall have complied with the canonical requirements for such admission.

In Article XI a slight alteration was made by the Convention of 1890 with regard to the nomination of a candidate in the election of a Bishop.

ALTERATIONS IN THE CANONS OF THE DIOCESE SINCE 1880

CANON II. In 1889 this canon was made to read as follows :

LAY DEPUTIES.

Section 1. "The Lay Deputies to the Convention shall consist of not more than one member for each parish in union with the Convention, with an additional deputy for every fifty duly registered communicants.

Sec. 2. The appointment of Lay Deputies to the Convention shall be certified to in writing by a Warden or two Vestrymen of the proper parish ; and the certificate shall state that each deputy named in said certificate was chosen from the communicants of said parish ; and also, that the parish is not debarred from representation in the Convention under the provision of Article III, Section 4, of the Constitution of the Diocese. The certificate shall be in duplicate, and one copy forwarded to the Secretary of the Convention, and the other given to the Lay Deputies.

CANON III. Sections 2, 3 and 4 have been altered to read as follows, (1889):

Section 2. The Minister of each Parish shall also keep, in the Church Register, a list of all the members belonging to the Parish, and a list of the communicants of the same. Provided, that the name of no person shall continue on the list of communicants who has not communed during twelve consecutive months, unless such failure to commune has been for reasons satisfactory to the minister ; and Provided also that he shall not enter upon said list the name of any person desiring to become a communicant of such parish, coming from any other parish of this diocese, until he shall have given due notice thereof to the Rector of said parish ; and such Minister, or in case of a vacancy, the Wardens, shall also return to each annual Convention, as of date June 1, of that year, the number of communicants duly registered as above provided, with his or their certificate that it is correct, to the best of his or their knowledge and belief.

Sec. 3. The certified returns above provided for shall be prima facie the basis of Lay representation in the next Convention. They shall be tabulated and published in the Journal ; and a copy of the next preceding section of this Canon shall be sent by the Secretary to each Rector or Parish in the Diocese, before Easter Monday of each year, with a statement as to how many deputies such parish is entitled to elect, according to the certified return from such parish.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of every Clergyman having a seat in the Convention to attend every meeting thereof, or to send to the Bishop a sufficient excuse for absence, and he shall present at every Annual Convention to the Bishop, or if there be no Bishop, to the President of the Convention, a report up to the first day of June, of the condition and statistics of his parish or parishes during the year, to be forwarded to the bishop as promptly as may be, in such manner and form as the convention may, from time to time, prescribe.

CANON V. The Christmas Fund in 1887 was declared to be for the support of aged, disabled or infirm Clergymen, and of the widows and minor children of deceased clergymen.

In 1887 a Canon on Missions was adopted, as follows :

Section 1. The Convention of the Diocese constitutes itself the Board of Missions for the Diocese, and recognizes all the missions of the diocese as rightfully under the charge and direction of the Bishop.

Sec. 2. There shall be annually appointed by the Bishop, subject to confirmation by the Board of Missions, seven (7) Clergymen, and six (6) Laymen, who, with the Treasurer of the Board, shall, with the Bishop as Chairman ex-officio, constitute the Missionary Committee of the Diocese for the ensuing year, and until their successors be appointed and confirmed.

Sec. 3. They shall organize before adjournment of the Convention, and meet at such times and places as they may prescribe, and also at the call of the Bishop.

Sec. 4. It shall be their duty and privilege to confer with, and advise and aid the Bishop in his Missionary work, and especially in providing the ways and means of carrying it on successfully.

Sec. 5. The committee shall report annually to the Board the progress of Missions during the preceding year, and the condition and needs of the Missionary field.

In 1887 a Canon was also adopted "Of the Chancellor," as follows :

There shall be elected, by the Convention, a Chancellor of the Diocese, to hold his office for three years, and until his successor shall be elected. He shall be a Layman, learned in the law, and a communicant of the church. His duty shall be to act as the legal councillor of the Bishop, and of the Standing Committee, and other Diocesan organizations in matters affecting the interests of the church. In case of a vacancy in the office, the Annual Convention next ensuing shall elect a successor for the full term of three years.

In 1886 a Canon was adopted appointing a Committee on Canons, as follows :

At each Annual Convention of the Diocese there shall be elected by ballot a Committee on Canons, to consist of three Clergymen and three Laymen, of which committee the Bishop also shall be ex-officio a member and the Chairman. This committee shall continue in office until the adjournment of the next Annual Convention, and until their successors be elected.

In the Convention of 1889 Canons were adopted : (1.) On the Organization and Admission of Parishes. (2.) On the Judicial System of the Diocese. Which Canons may be found on pages 26 to 31, in the Journal of 1889.

Rules

For conducting the business of the Convention of the Diocese of Pittsburgh, which shall not be suspended, altered or rescinded, without one day's previous notice, unless by an affirmative vote of two-thirds:

A—ORDER OF BUSINESS.

First Day—Morning.

I. At the opening of the Convention the Holy Communion shall be celebrated, which, being ended, the Convention shall be called to order by the Bishop, or in case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or of the absence of the Bishop, or his inability to act, by the President or Senior Presbyter present of the Standing Committee.

II. The Secretary of the last Convention, or, in his absence, some other person appointed by the Bishop, or the officer presiding, shall then call the names of the Clergymen according to the list prepared under the provisions of Canon 1. He shall, also, having previously made a list thereof, call the names of all the Lay Deputies claiming to represent Parishes entitled to representation at the last Convention, who shall have furnished him with certificates, in due form, of their election to this Convention. And the list of names thus made by him shall be prima facie evidence of a right to a seat in the Convention.

The Convention shall then, if necessary, proceed to elect a President, pro tempore, from the Presbyters present.

III. The Convention having been thus organized, the first business thereafter shall be the election of a Secretary. The Secretary may appoint an assistant Secretary.

IV. The President shall then appoint the following Regular Committees:

1. On the Claims of Clergymen to seats in the Convention, to consist of three Clergymen.
2. On the Claims of Lay Deputies to Seats in the Convention, to consist of three Laymen.
3. On the Admission of Parishes into Union with the Convention, to consist of one Clergyman and two Laymen.
4. On the State of the Church, to consist of three Clergymen and two Laymen.
5. On Unfinished Business, to consist of one Clergyman and two Laymen.

The Committee on the State of the Church shall continue from one Convention to the next.

V. The Bishop's Address. But if not then delivered, it shall be in order at any time hereafter.

VI. Reports of the Standing Committee and of the Finance Committee of the Diocese, to be presented and laid on the Secretary's table without debate.

VII. Motions, Notices and Resolutions, not giving rise to debate, shall then be in order.

VIII. Miscellaneous Business.

First Day of the Session—Afternoon.

I. Nominations of the various officers to be chosen by ballot.

II. At 3:30 P. M., Convention to sit as a Board of Missions to review and act on the Report of the Executive Committee.

III. Unfinished Business.

IV. Miscellaneous Business.

Second and Each Succeeding Day.

I. Divine Service as may be ordered or set forth by the Bishop.

II. The reading, correcting and approving the Minutes of the preceding day.

III. Calling the names of absent members, and entering in the Journal those who appear.

IV. The Convention may then take up and dispose of miscellaneous business till 10 o'clock.

V. At 10 o'clock, elections.

VI. Reports from Regular and Special Committees in order.

VII. Miscellaneous Business.

B—GENERAL RULES.

I. The Convention shall meet at 9 o'clock A. M., take a recess from 1 to 3 P. M., and adjourn for the day at 6 o'clock P. M.; Provided, That the House shall not at any time be considered as adjourned without a vote to that effect.

II. All Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church and of churches in full communion with the same, candidates for Holy Orders; and the vestry of the church in which the Convention is held, shall be admitted to the sittings of the Convention, and on reporting themselves to the Secretary, their names shall be entered on the Journal.

III. Of Elections by ballot.

a. Tickets shall be printed with all the names proposed, and the election shall take place on the following day—the voting to be by erasing the names of those for whom the members do not wish to vote but the Supplemental Deputies to the General Convention shall not be nominated nor voted for till the election of the Deputies shall have been completed.

b. When there shall be a failure to elect on the first trial, the balloting shall, upon the second trial, be confined to the three candidates who received the largest number of votes; and upon failure to elect upon the second trial, the balloting shall, upon the third trial, be confined to the two candidates who received the largest number of votes upon the second trial.

c. On counting the ballot such person or persons shall be held to have obtained the concurrent vote of both Orders, and therefore declared elected by the Convention, who shall be found to have been elected by the vote of each Order considered apart from that of the other.

IV. The Committee on the State of the Church shall prepare and present to the next Annual Convention, before its final adjournment, a condensed report and a tabular statement of the State of the Church within the Diocese, to be published with the Journal. And for this purpose the Bishop's Annual Address and all Parochial Reports shall be referred to this Committee; Provided, Nevertheless, that such reference shall not prevent the referring of any part of the Bishop's Address to a Special Committee.

V. Before the final adjournment of any session of the Convention, the Minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read, corrected and approved, after which the Convention shall close with such religious services as the President may direct.

C—RULES OF ORDER..

I. No motion shall be put or debated until it is seconded, and when seconded, it shall be stated by the President before it is voted on; and every motion, when required, shall be reduced to writing.

II. If the question in debate contains several distinct propositions, any member may have the same divided.

III. When a question is under consideration, no motion shall be received unless to lay it upon the table, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone it to a certain time, to commit it, or to amend it; and motions for any of these purposes shall have precedence in the order herein named. If a motion to lay on the table an amendment be carried, the matter before the Convention shall be proceeded with as if no such an amendment had been offered.

The motions to lay upon the table and to adjourn shall be decided without debate. The motion to adjourn shall always be in order.

IV. On a question being put by the President, it shall be determined by the sound of voices for or against it; but any member may require the count of the votes, and tellers for that purpose shall be appointed by the Chair; or any three voters may, previous to a decision by count, require the ayes and nays to be taken, which shall be done by calling the names of the clerical members and the Parishes represented, and all votes by ayes and nays shall be entered on the Minutes.

V, A question once decided shall not be re-considered during the same session without an affirmative vote of two-thirds, nor without a motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on the prior decision; nor shall any question be reconsidered more than once.

OVI. All questions of order shall be decided by the presiding officers subject to an appeal to the House.

Journal of Proceedings.

FIRST DAY—MORNING SESSION.

The Twenty-sixth Annual Convention of the Diocese of Pittsburgh, met in St. Paul's Church, Kittanning, on Wednesday, June 10, at 9 o'clock, A. M.

The Holy Communion was celebrated by the Bishop, with the Rev. R. S. Smith, as Epistoler, the Rev. Wm. White, D. D., as Gospeler; the Rev. R. J. Coster read the exhortations; the Rev. Messrs. Henry Purdon, D. D., John P. Norman, M. D., and the Rev. E. A. Angell, assisted in the administration.

Immediately after the service the Convention was called to order by the Bishop.

The roll call by the Secretary of the last Convention, showed a quorum of each order present, and the Convention was declared open for business.

The Rev. E. A. Angell was elected Secretary, and appointed the Rev. Wm. N. Webbe as his assistant; after which the following Committees were appointed by the Bishop:

REGULAR COMMITTEES:

On Claims of Clergy to Seats—The Rev. Messrs. McLure, Dimmick and Bates.

On Claims of Lay Deputies to Seats—Messrs. H. M. Clark, H. Lee Golden and Josiah Howard.

On Admission of Parishes—The Rev. Mr. Danner, and Messrs. L. M. Plummer and L. H. Wheeler.

On the State of the Church—The Rev. Messrs. Herron, Wightman and Keech, and Messrs. W. H. Falkner and W. D. Corcoran.

On Unfinished Business—The Rev. Mr. Schepeler, and Messrs. McGuire and Brodie.

The Report of the Standing Committee was read by the Rev. R. J. Coster, as follows :

The Standing Committee respectfully report the following official acts for the year ending with the above date.

The Committee elected by the last Annual Convention, consisting of the following members, the Rev. Thos. Crumpton, D. D., the Rev. R. J. Coster, the Rev. Marison Byllesby, the Rev. Robt. Grange and Messrs. Hill Burgwin, J. W. Paul, Felix R. Brunot and E. M. Ferguson, met on July 16, 1890, and organized for business by electing the Rev. Dr. Crumpton as President, and the Rev. R. J. Coster, as Secretary.

On the same day they consented that the Rector, Vestry and Wardens of Christ Church, Greensburg, place a mortgage of $5,000 for three years on their church property.

Oct. 2. They recommended George Leslie as a candidate for Holy Orders.

On the same day they consented to the consecration of the Rev. Edward R. Atwill as Bishop of West Missouri.

Nov. 28. They recommended the Rev. Arthur Douglas Brown, and the Rev. Miles Standish Hemmenway, deacons of this Diocese, for ordination to the Priesthood.

The same day they elected Mr. H. G. Hale on the nomination of the Board to fill a vacancy in the Board of Trustees of the Diocese.

Also same day, elected Mr. John B. Jackson to fill a vacancy in the Board of Trustees of St. Margaret's Memorial Hospital, caused by Mr. Charles L. Fitzhugh, who was elected by the last Convention, declining to serve on the said Board.

Feb'y 2, 1891. They consented to the consecration of the Rev. Henry Melville Jackson as Assistant Bishop of Alabama.

The same day, they recommended Charles Wm. Redfern as a candidate "for deacon's orders only", and Mr. H. G. Hale having declined to serve as a member of the Board of Trustees of the Diocese, they elected Mr. John McClurg to fill the vacancy.

May 11. The Rev. Dr. Crumpton having offered his resignation as a member of the Standing Committee, in consequence of his inability to attend its meetings owing to feebleness from age, they passed the following resolution :

That the Standing Committee are unwilling to accept the resignation of the Rev. Dr. Crumpton, and ask that he consider himself a member of the Committee until the meeting of the next Convention ; and furthermore, that the chairman pro-temp., be requested to communicate this action to their venerable President.

The same day they recommended Thomas J. Garland for ordination to the Diaconate.

The same day, the Vestry of St. Mark's Church, South Side, Pittsburgh, having sent a communication to the Standing Committee stating that a heavy indebtedness of about $4,500 rests upon their Guild House, and that the congregation finds itself unable to meet the accumulating indebtedness, and asking the Committee to suggest some means of helping them out of their difficulty, the Chairman was requested to express the sympathy of the Standing Committee with them in their embarrassment, and to state that, they, as the Standing Committee, are unable to aid them.

June 5. They gave consent to the consecration of the Rev. Davis Sessums, D. D., as Assistant Bishop of Louisiana, and also to the consecration of the Rev. Phillips Brooks, D. D., as the Bishop of Massachusetts.

They recommended the same day William L. H. Benton as a candidate for Holy Orders, and George Leslie for ordination to the Diaconate.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT J. COSTER,

Secretary.

The Finance Committee submitted their report, which with the accompanying schedule of assessments was adopted. The Committee respectfully reports :

The organization for the past year has been continued as it was—Mr. E. P. Jones, Chairman, and Mr. James W. Brown, Secretary.

The Permanent Episcopal Fund at date of last report was $43,997.51, and has been increased by contributions under Canon 5 of the Diocese, from eight parishes $46.78, and $293.96 received from sources which the Treasurer (for reasons explained hereafter) is unable to account for, making the total $44,338.25. The Report of the Treasurer shows the various investments belonging to this Fund.

The office of the Treasurer of the Episcopal Funds, Mr. H. L. Mason, was destroyed by fire on March 11th, 1891, and the current books of accounts of the Episcopal Funds were lost. The main annoyance caused by the loss of the accounts was the proper credit to be given for the money received from various sources. Supposing he could obtain from the various Parishes a statement of the amounts paid him by them during the year, he addressed letters to them all, with a statement of the facts, and a request to advise him if they had paid any money during the year to the various Funds, and if so, what amount. As a large number of Parishes did not reply to his communication, the item of $293.96 in the Permanent Fund, referred to above as unaccounted for, and the further sum of $298.48, unaccounted for in the Income Account, has undoubtedly been paid without credit to the proper sources.

The Christmas Fund has been increased during the year $1,654.25, and now amounts to $16,638.80.

The accounts of the Treasurers of the several Funds of the Diocese have been audited to May 31st, 1891, and found to be correct.

The Committee has made, and herewith reports to the Convention, a statement of assessments on the various Parishes of the Diocese for the amount necessary to raise for the ensuing year, being $3,000.00 for the Bishop's salary, and $1,800.00 for Convention and Diocesan expenses.

Respectfully submitted,

E. P. JONES,

H. J. LYNCH,

W. MULLINS,

JAS. W. BROWN,

PITTSBURGH, June 1st, 1891.

The following preamble and resolutions, was on motion of the Rev H. L. Yewens, referred to the Committee on Canons.

Whereas, communicants are communicants not of a Diocese, but of the Church of Christ :

Therefore, the General Convention of the Church in this country alone has the right to legislate upon the standing of communicants as such :

And the General Convention has so legislated :

Therefore, it is not within the province or power of any Diocesan Convention to legislate about communicants in such manner as to conflict by limitation or otherwise with the legislative action of the General Convention respecting their standing.

But the provisos in Section 2 of Canon iii. of this Diocese do so conflict.

Therefore, Resolved, that Section 2 of Canon iii. is hereby referred to the Committee on Canons for consideration, and to report such Amendments as the facts may render necessary.

The Trustees of the Diocese, submitted their report. (See Appendix A.)

The Rev. Mr. Fleming offered the following resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Canons.

Resolved, That every minister in charge of a parish leaving the same before the end of the Diocesan year, be required to send to the Bishop a report of the condition of his parish as to communicants, financial condition, &c., similar in scope and intention to the annual report required at the end of the Diocesan year.

The report of the Registrar of the Diocese was then presented, as follows :

To the Convention of the Diocese of Pittsburgh :

The Registrar reports :

During the past year, the Journals of the Annual Conventions of the different Dioceses have been received and filed. The Diocese has in its possession a tolerably full set of Journals from the various sister Dioceses in the United States.

An effort was made in 1889, to obtain—as far as possible—full and complete sets from the Dioceses. A communication was sent to each Diocese, setting forth their desire and stating what copies we lacked to complete such sets. It met, however, with almost no substantial response. Also, the Rev. Mr. Heakes, while Registrar, made an accurate list of what Journals we possess, and what we lack—in the case of each Diocese. To him is also due the credit of arranging the Journals in chronological order, and placing the Diocesan files in alphabetical order.

Files of the Spirit of Missions and of our own Diocesan paper, the "Church News," have been made for the past year.

The Diocese is indebted to the Bishop for a large contribution of pamphlets on various subjects, copies of parish papers, programmes of important services, and other articles of interest and value to the history of the Diocese. Would it not be a valuable historical addition to our archives, if all rectors would send copies of their parish papers and other printed matter to the Registrar?

Only 22 parishes and mission stations, I find, have ever, at any time, contributed histories to be inscribed in the Record Book, kept for that purpose. It is certainly desirable that such authentic information should be so preserved before it is too late.

If the collections of the Registrar, in this Diocese, are to contain anything more than a mere file of Journals and the brief sketches in the Record Book, it will soon become necessary to have larger and more permanent quarters than the corner of the Bishop's office, where our library case, containing our forlornly meager collection—stands at present.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

LAURENS M'LURE,

Registrar.

The Committee on the Order of Deaconesses appointed by the last Convention, presented through their chairman, Rev. Dr. Purdon, the following report which was accepted and the accompanying resolution adopted.

A REPORT ON THE ORDER OF DEACONESSES.

It is quite clear, from the study of the Scriptures and ancient Authors, that there existed even in the days of the Apostles a class of ministering women known as Deaconesses. It is equally clear that the functions of their office and the time of life in which they were called to the exercise of the same, differed in many respects from the rules and regulations established by our Church for the government of this revived Order amongst ourselves. We need not wonder at these differences, they are just what we ought to expect, inasmuch as Occidental civilization has widely separated in many essential points from the older, and more stagnant civilization of the East. In our social intercourse we have obliterated the lines of demarcation which even to this day characterize the relations of the sexes in Eastern lands, and, in accordance with the genius of Christ's Gospel, we have sought to elevate woman to her true and proper position as the helpmate of man. Though we have accomplished much in this last direction, much yet remains to be done, much prejudice and narrowness to be overcome, before the crowded and inviting fields of human activities are thrown open to the blessed ministrations of those who were last at the Cross, and first at the tomb. We rejoice, therefore, that the Church in her wisdom has seen fit to revive the Order of Deaconesses, and believe that this onward step will be crowned in the future with the most excellent results.

In the early Church none were eligible to the office of Deaconess unless widows varying in age from forty to sixty years, and their duties were wholly confined to members of their own sex. The Canon, recently enacted by our General Convention, wisely provides for admission into this Order of unmarried women, not less than twenty-five years old, and qualified by previous training for the work assigned them. A provision is also added, allowing any Deaconess to resign her office for reasons known to herself, and thus removes the objection of irrevocable vows which are so obnoxious to some minds. At this point the questions will necessarily be asked, why need we rehabilitate an organization which has sunk into disuse for over a thousand years? Are not the present appliances amply sufficient to furnish free scope for womanly activities? In reply to these questions it would illy become us to disparage in any way the debt of gratitude which we owe to the many godly and devout women in the Church, to their abundant ministrations and self-sacrificing efforts to advance the interests of philanthropy, morality and true religion. We cannot over-estimate their helps and assistances, or the encouragement which they have given to every noble enterprise which has for its object the betterment of our fellow-men. Admitting then to the fullest extent the important part which they have played in the onward and upward march of our Christian civilization, we are still led to ask, in view of the pressing demands of our times, can we not improve on the methods of work employed in the past? Progress marks all the industrial and mechanical departments of our day, increased wants demand increased facilities, and so improvement, discovery, and new applications of old principles characterize all branches of secular labor. We believe, indeed, in the perpetuity of the fundamental truths of the Christian faith, undimmed, untarnished by the flight of time, but the application of those truths and of all that Christ and His Apostles taught, we believe must also be adapted to each passing age, and to the varying conditions of man. It is this wonderful adaptability of the Gospel which renders it so precious, so Divine, because in it the Voice of Christ is heard to warn every generation of men, and to speak those words of power, which are as suited to the men of the twentieth century, as His gracious words were fitted to stir the hearts of those who lived not far from the time, when He died and was buried and rose again the third day from the dead. The learned and exhaustive discourses of the great Dr. Isaac Barrow, even if we had the ability to compose such weighty utterances, would fall now upon listless ears, but the truths which Barrow taught, come to us with fresh power when issuing from the eloquent lips of a Magee or a Liddon: the truths are the same, but the vehicle is changed. Now what has thus taken place in the department of Christian thought, we are desirous of seeing carried out in the department of Christian work. Organized Christian labor is what our age preeminently demands, and unless we meet the want, we shall fall behind in striving for the prize of our high calling. In every Diocese in our land there are unquestionably refined and cultivated women, whose hearts have been warmed by a Saviour's love, who are waiting for the voice of authority and of guidance to call them forth from their places of retirement, and who are anxious, moreover, to gain the necessary training and education in some Institution designed especially for preparing them for effective work. It is to secure such co-laborers and to render them qualified for their respective duties that the call comes to found and endow in every Diocese a Church Training and Home, where earnest and devout women can be taught how to care for the young, to minister to the sick, and in many ways to help and sympathize with the bereaved, the sorrowful and the distressed. As matters now stand, no incumbent is able adequately to discharge the duties of his high office, the demands upon his time are so incessant as to lead to the neglect of many important duties. All men are not gifted alike, all do not possess by nature those administrative abilities which are so essential to the well-being of a Parish. In no branch of Church work is skilled help so much needed as in our Sunday School Department; and never, save in a few exceptional cases, can we hope to see the religious training of the young lifted up to a higher level, until there exists in every Parish a specially trained Deaconess, who by her tact and judgment and superior qualifications can attract and teach our young men and women to become efficient Sunday School teachers. We have here presented a practical way to solve the Sunday School problem, a problem which has given many a heart-ache to every earnest Minister of Christ's Church. Then there is that vast field of sickness and sorrow where a trained ministering servant is so much needed, and who so fitted for this work as one to whom God has given those tender, sympathizing graces which are as balm to the afflicted soul! The great world around us judges of Christianity by its fruits, and nothing, in our opinion, has so commended to the eyes of many the Latin Church, as her splendid charities, and the noble deeds of her self-sacrificing women. We are not without our list of Christian heroes and heroines, but we live at a time when more is expected than ever before in the history of the Church, when wealth has wonderfully increased, and the means are placed within our reach to devise liberal things for God and His Church. Important as is a right belief, a following of Christ and His Apostles in matters of faith, let us not forget that in the last great Assize the questions which will be addressed to us severally are: Hast thou fed the hungry, hast thou clothed the naked, hast thou visited the sick? Not so much what we have believed, as what we have done will be the measure of our final reward. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord; even so saith the Spirit; for they rest from their labors; and their works do follow them!"

In conformity then with the wishes expressed by our Bishop in his last annual Address, we offer the following resolution.

Resolved: That as soon as a sufficient sum has been provided, a Church Training and Deaconess House be established in this Diocese, similar to those already inaugurated in the Dioceses of Pennsylvania and New York.

Respectfully submitted.

HENRY PURDON,	} Committee.
W. N. WEBBE, JOHN HUSKE,
S. C. McCANDLESS,
GEORGE BURGWIN.

The following resolution, offered by the Rev. C. A. Bragdon, was adopted:

Resolved, That the Secretary be instructed to publish in the Journal of 1891, the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese, which shall be in force at the close of this Convention; and also, 1000 additional copies of the same in a separate pamphlet, for distribution.

Mr. Jas. W. Brown, offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Episcopal Fund be authorized to receive from St. John's Parish, Pittsburgh, the sum of $30, and the Treasurer of the Convention and Diocesan Expense Fund, to receive $20, in full payment of assessments against said Parish, for the year ending June 1, 1891.

The report of the Committee on the notification to the Dioceses of the proposed changes in the Prayer Book was read by Mr. Hill Burgwin.

In response to the notification by the Right Reverend Chairman, the Committee on Prayer-Book Revision met in the Church Rooms, Pittsburgh, on Thursday, May 19th, 1891, at 2:30 P. M.

The following members, constituting a quorum, were present: The Right Reverend the Bishop, in the Chair; the Reverend Messrs. Benton, Byllesby and Cowper, and Mr. Hill Burgwin.

On motion Rev. F. C. Cowper was elected Secretary of the meeting.

The Committee then proceeded to business.

It was moved and seconded that the resolutions contained in the "Notification to the Dioceses of the Proposed Changes in the Prayer Book," proposed in the General Convention of 1889, and to be finally acted upon by the general Convention of 1892, be considered separately and in regular order. Carried.

The Chairman of the Committee thereupon read each of the 52 resolutions in said "Notification," and each was voted upon, with the result as follows: Forty-eight [48] were approved, and Four [4], namely: Resolutions 4, 30, 43 and 45, were disapproved.

The following resolution was offered and carried:

Resolved, That this Committee recommends to the Diocesan Convention the approval of the adoption, by the General Convention of 1892, of the proposed changes in the Prayer-Book recommended by the General Convention 1889, with the exception of resolutions 4, 30, 43 and 45.

On motion, Mr. Hill Burgwin was appointed by the Committee to draw up a resolution, to be presented for the action of the Diocesan Convention, recommending to the General Convention the re-arrangement of the contents of the Book of Common Prayer, according to their natural and orderly sequence.

Thereupon Committee adjourned.

[Signed]

FRED C. COWPER,

Secretary.

In accordance with the foregoing action of the Committee, Mr. Hill Burgwin moves the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the General Convention be requested in issuing the next standard edition of the Prayer Book, to provide for the re-arrangement of its contents according to their natural and orderly sequence.

Mr. Jas. W. Brown moved to postpone action until next Convention. Carried.

On motion of Rev. Mr. Taylor, the Bishop was requested to have the proposed changes in the Book of Common Prayer printed in the Diocesan Church News.

On motion of Mr. Reuben Miller, it was resolved that the afternoon session of the Convention begin at 2 o'clock to-day.

Rev. R. S. Smith presented the report of the Committee on Canons, which, on motion of Mr. Hill Burgwin, was made the special order of the day, immediately following nominations for officers of the Diocese.

The Committee on Canons recommends certain amendments to the Canon on the Organization of Parishes, adopted at the last Convention, so that it will read as follows: (Amendments in italics.)

CANON ON THE ORGANIZATION AND ADMISSION OF PARISHES.

SECTION 1. Every congregation regularly and canonically formed in this Diocese, for receiving the ministrations of the Church and for the worship of Almighty God, according to her faith and doctrine, and under her discipline and liturgy, shall constitute a Parish.

SEC. 2. Any parish may organize, with the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee, by the adoption of Articles of Association recommended or approved by the Convention, and the election of two wardens, as hereinafter provided under Form A.

Provided, however, that no such organization shall be had until a specified annual sum, towards the salary of the Rector and the expenses of the Parish, shall have been guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Bishop and Standing Committee. And provided, also, that such organization shall not prevent a subsequent reorganization, with wardens and vestrymen, as hereinafter provided under Form B.

SEC. 3. The following form is recommended for Articles of Association in the case of such organization:

Form A.

"We, the undersigned citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do hereby associate ourselves together as a parish of the Protestant Episcopal Church, in the Diocese of Pittsburgh, for the purpose of receiving and supporting the ministrations of the said Church, and we do hereby declare the following to be the terms and conditions of our said Association:

"1st. The name of the parish shall be.....

"2d. We acknowledge and accept the faith, doctrine, discipline and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, and do promise obedience to the Constitution, Canons and Laws of the said Church, and to those also of the Diocese of Pittsburgh. No person who shall deny or disclaim the doctrine or authority of said Church shall hold any office in this organization.

"3d. Annually on.....,* the adult communicants of the parish shall elect two of their number to serve for the ensuing year as Senior and Junior Wardens. who, with the Minister in charge shall constitute the Vestry, or board of management, of the parish, and when the parish shall have been admitted into union with the Convention of the Diocese, the said communicants shall also at the same time elect a deputy or deputies, to represent them in the Convention.

* Here insert any date agreed upon for the annual election.

"4th. No real estate held by or for the use of this parish shall be alienated or encumbered without the consent of the Board of Trustees of the Diocese.

"5th. We hereby agree that [A. B.] shall be Senior Warden and [C. D.] Junior Warden of this parish until the next annual election.

In testimony whereof, witness our hands this day of
A. D. 18 .

SEC. 4. Any parish not receiving aid from the Convention may organize with the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee, by the adoption of Articles of Association, recommended or approved by the Convention, and the election of not less than five vestrymen, whose powers and duties, when not defined by the Articles of Association, may be prescribed by by-law.

SEC. 5. The following form is hereby recommended for Articles of Association in case of such organization; and any parish duly organized under this form may apply to the civil courts for a charter of incorporation.

Form B.

We, the undersigned citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do hereby associate ourselves together as a parish of the Protestant Episcopal Church, in the Diocese of Pittsburgh, for the purpose of receiving and supporting the ministrations of the said Church in the County of [City] of and Commonwealth aforesaid, and we do hereby declare the following to be the terms and conditions of our said Association:

"1st. The name of the parish shall be.....

"2d. We acknowledge and accept the faith, doctrine, discipline and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America; and do promise obedience to the Constitution, Canons and Laws of the said Church, and to those also of the Diocese of Pittsburgh. No person who shall deny or disclaim the doctrine or authority of said Church shall hold any office in this organization.

"3d. The temporal affairs of this Association shall be managed and directed by the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen, to be chosen as hereinafter provided, and in case of a vacancy in the Rectorship, by the Wardens and Vestry alone. The Rector shall be chairman ex-officio of the vestry, and entitled to one vote.

“4th. The Rector shall be elected by the vestry in such manner as the by-laws shall prescribe; provided, however, that no person shall be eligible to the office of Rector or Minister, unless he shall have had Episcopal ordination, and be in full standing with the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and recognized as such by the ecclesiastical authority of this Diocese, who shall be notified of the proposed election at least one week before the election is held.

“5th. The Rector shall have the right to direct and control the uses to which may be put any consecrated church edifice belonging to the parish, and for the due exercise of this right, and for the due and proper celebration of Divine service therein, he shall be responsible to the ecclesiastical authority of the Diocese alone.

“6th. The vestry of this church shall consist of not less than 5 [five] adult male members of the Church and of this parish, to continue in office for one year, and until their successors shall be elected. The election of vestrymen shall be made every year on,* by the majority of the votes cast at a meeting called for the purpose, by those baptized adult members of the church (who shall appear by the vestry books to have paid, at least six months before such election, for a pew or sitting in the parish church) or (who shall have been recognized and registered one month before the day of election by the rector and wardens, as usual attendants on the services of the church, and as contributors to the expenses of the parish for the six months preceding), or (who shall be communicants of this church, duly and canonically registered as such, for six months preceding the election).

“7th. The vestry shall have full power to choose their own officers, and annually at the first meeting after their election, the rector shall choose one of their number to be Senior Warden, and the vestry shall elect another to be Junior Warden, who shall both be communicants of this church.

* Here insert any date agreed upon for the annual election.

"8th. No real estate held by or for the use of this Association, shall be alienated or encumbered without the consent of the Board of Trustees of the Diocese, and in case this Association be dissolved, all of its property, real and personal, shall vest in the said Board of Trustees, in trust, to hold the same for, or to convey the same for the use or benefit of, any future congregation of the Protestant Episcopal Church regularly and canonically formed and organized in the same place or in its vicinity.

"9th. We hereby agree that [A. B.] etc., shall be the vestrymen of this parish until the next annual election."

In testimony whereof, witness our hands the day of
A. D. 18 .

SEC. 6. The Convention requires that the vestry be of baptized members of the Church, and recommends that when reasonably practicable they be chosen from the communicants of the parish.

SEC. 7. No alteration in the Articles of Association of any parish shall be made unless approved by a majority of votes of the registered communicants of the parish present at a meeting called on due notice, and then submitted to and approved by the Convention.

SEC. 8. Before the formation or organization of a new parish, notice in writing, by those proposing such action, shall be given to the Bishop and Standing Committee, and proper publication thereof shall be made in the neighborhood one month in advance, giving time and place of a proposed meeting for the purpose aforesaid. And in case of a proposed organization the notice shall state whether such organization is to be under Form A or Form B, as recommended by the Convention, with such changes therein, if any, as may be proposed; and no parish shall be admitted into union with the Convention unless it shall have submitted its Articles of Association to the Bishop and Standing Committee two months previous to the meeting of the Convention.

SEC. 9. The Convention may, by a two-thirds vote, dissolve its union with any parish, provided notice of said proposed action shall have been given in the preceding Annual Convention.

In the Rules of Order. C. IV, the Committee recommends that instead of the words "the parishes represented," the words be inserted "then of the lay members," so that the Rule of Order will read:

IV. On a question being put by the President, it shall be determined by the sound of voices for or against it; but any member may require the count of the votes, and tellers for that purpose shall be appointed by the chair; or any three votes may, previous to a decision by count, require the ayes and nays to be taken, which shall be done by calling the names of the clerical members and then of the lay members, and all votes by ayes and nays shall be entered on the minutes.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS.

A meeting was held at the Church Rooms on Wednesday afternoon, December 10. Present - The Bishop, the Rev. Messrs. Smith and Yewens, and Messrs. Hill Burgwin and H. B. Brunot. The Rev. R. S. Smith was elected Secretary.

The Committee met for the consideration of the matters which had been referred to them by the last Convention. Of the amendments to the Canons noted on page 22 of the Journal of 1890, all were adopted except No. 5. Of the amendments to the Canons, proposed, as on page 23 of the Journal of 1890, all were adopted, with the addition in Section VIII, as printed under the seventh head, that the following words are to be inserted after the words "recommended by the Convention," namely, "with such changes therein, if any, as may be proposed."

With regard to the suggestions presented to the Convention by Mr. Foster, and referred to the Committee, as noted on page 24 of the Journal of 1890, the Committee are of the opinion that it would be expedient to leave the settlement of the date when the financial year of the parish should close to the discretion of each parish, inasmuch as any parish can take the necessary steps to have its charter altered.

With regard to the resolutions offered by the Rev. Mr. Benton and referred to the Committee, as noted on page 24 of the Journal of 1890, the Committee is of the opinion that it might be well for the several parishes to alter their charters so as to make the financial year of the parish correspond with that of the Diocese. The Committee recommends that if any day be set for the financial year of the parish to end, it might well be the last Monday in May, inasmuch as the Convention meets early in June.

With regard to the Canon concerning the fund for aged and infirm Clergy, as noted on page 25 of the Journal of 1890, the Committee is of the opinion that we already have in this Diocese a Canon which is amply sufficient for our present purposes; but it would recommend that the Convention of the Diocese give its commendation to the principle recognized in the sixth section of the proposed Canon, as quoted on page 26 of the Journal of 1890, which creates a retiring fund and gives annuities to clergymen after reaching the age of 65, on certain conditions.*

On motion it was resolved that the Canon on the Organization and Admission of Parishes, as printed in the Journal of 1889, on pages 26 and 27, be further amended in the third sub-section of Section III, by substituting for the word "Rector," the words, "Minister in charge."

On motion adjourned.

R. S. SMITH, Secretary.

The report of the Librarian of the Church Rooms was read.

REV. FATHER IN GOD, AND MY DEAR BISHOP:

I respectfully submit the following report, as being the sum total of visitors to the Church Rooms, Diocese of Pittsburgh, from Feb. 7, 1891, to June 4, 1891.

Very respectfully,

NORVILLE DEAN, Librarian.

*The words referred to are as follows: As soon as said Fund shall reach the sum of thirty thousand dollars, the Trustees shall grant an annuity to every Clergyman who (1) has reached the age of sixty-five years, and (2) has been canonically connected with the Diocese for the five years immediately preceding his application for an annuity, and (3) has been for at least five years of his last term of canonical residence a settled Minister of the Diocese or a Missionary duly appointed by the Ecclesiastical Authority.

On motion of Mr. Hill Burgwin the sum of $350 was appropriated for the maintenance of the Church Rooms for the ensuing year.

The Bishop then read his Annual address.

On motion of Rev. J. L. Taylor, it was ordered that the charge in the Bishop's Address be printed in the Church News and distributed to the Clergy of the Diocese.

Mr. C. K. Chamberlain,
 " H. W. Armstrong,

Mr. Kenton Chickering.

The following resolution offered by Rev. Mr. Byllesby and seconded by Rev. Mr. Israel, was adopted.

Resolved: That a Committee of three Clergymen and one Layman be appointed to express the feeling of this Convention, on the retirement of the Rev. Thomas Crumpton, D. D., from official connection with the Convention. The Bishop appointed the Committee as follows: Rev. Wm. White, D. D., Rev. R. S. Smith, Rev. Rogers, Israel, and Mr. Wm. Metcalf.

The Committee on claims of Lay Deputies to seats in this Convention, presented their report, and the credentials of several parishes being reported as imperfect, the Committee were instructed to confer with the deputies from said parishes and report later.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Ryan, that part of the Bishop's Address relating to the Permanent Episcopal Fund, was referred to a Committee of seven laymen. The Bishop appointed the Committee as follows :

Mr. H. L. Foster,

“ P. H. Miller,

“ E. M. Ferguson,

Mr. D. C. Herbst,

“ W. D. Corcoran,

“ Wm. Mullins,

Mr. Geo. C. Burgwin.

The Secretary made an explanation relative to the heading of Mr. Burgwin's resolution on the subject of the Board of Trustees of St. Margaret's Hospital (see Journal of 1890, p. 46.), showing that the resolution was not offered as a substitute, but as additional to the resolutions offered by the Committee, see Journal of 1890, p. 38.

The Committee on the admission of new parishes reported in favor of the admission of St. Clement's Church, Greenville, adopted.

The report of the Committee on Canons was then taken up; whereupon Mr. Hill Burgwin, in behalf of the Committee, moved that the Canon on the organization of Parishes, reported by the Committee be adopted as a substitute for the Canon on that subject adopted in 1889.

Mr. Metcalf moved that the recommendations of the Committee be laid on the table.

Lost on a division. Ayes, 28; Nays, 33.

Rev. Mr. Mackay moved that action on the report be postponed to next Convention. On a vote by orders the motion was lost by non-concurrence.

CLERGY.—AYES, 28; NAYS, 33.

LAY.—AYES, 25; NAYS, 20.

Rev. Mr. Mackay then moved that this subject be made the order of the day for to-morrow at 10 A. M. Mr. Hill Burgwin moved. as an amendment to take it up immediately after the Report of the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions, this afternoon. The amendment carried, and the motion as amended was adopted.

At this point the Convention went into session as a Board of Missions.

Mr. Henry L. Foster submitted his report as Treasurer, and the Rev. Dr. Ryan read the report of the Executive Committee. The resolutions accompanying the same were adopted seriatim.

The report and resolutions are as follows:

REPORT OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

Your Committee would respectfully submit the following report : The Mission work of the Diocese has been carried on upon the old lines and has met with a fair measure of success. The children's offering has been larger than last year and the treasurer's report shows but a small deficit. The perennial obstacles to aggressive and fully successful church work show themselves nowhere more clearly than in the mission field. As long as the missionary treasury is forgotten and as long as the clergy are possessed with the restless spirit, so long must the work of the Master be done in an inadequate and inefficient manner. Still there has been distinct advance in the material and spiritual condition of the missions.

At Moxam, a mission of Johnstown, a chapel has been built and consecrated.

The Rev. F. C. Cooper has started a mission at Canonsburg. Services are held in a hall every Sunday afternoon by the Rev. Mr. Cooper or by one of the General Missionaries.

At Rochester a tower costing $1,350.00 has been erected by the people and a chime of bells costing $2,850.00 has been given to the church.

At Greenville a chapel has been added and the church has been thoroughly remodeled and refitted under the efficient direction of the Rev. F. J. Keech.

The chapel at Union City has been completed and is to be consecrated on St. Matthew's Day, next.

The church at North East has been refitted and refurnished through the energy of the ladies.

The $1,500.00 debt at Brookville has been paid and the Church is ready for consecration.

At Kinzua a tower and visiting room have been added to the Church. A fine bell has been placed in the tower.

At Driftwood, plans for a Church have been adopted and $700.00 raised toward the erection of the same.

The Berwind & White Coal Co. has generously donated a lot at Horatio and a chapel has been built costing about $1,500.00.

Oak Ridge, Armstrong Co., has a new Church which is expected to be completed by June 20th. This Church is already paid for mainly through the efforts of Mr. J. C. Baker.

New memorial windows have displaced all the old ones at Indiana and add much to the appearance of the church.

At Scottdale a lot has been bought and paid for and the contract let for a Church costing $2,600.00.

Gifts amounting to $700.00 have been received for a new Church at Latrobe.

The following missions have no clerical supply: Brookville, Emporium, Punxsutawney and Coalport, Crafton and Mansfield, Blairsville and Indiana, and Meyersdale. It is proposed to combine the work at Irwin, Latrobe and Jeannette and place a clergyman in charge. These places are all on the line of the Pennsylvania road.

The Rev. J. Cooper has taken charge of Union City and Waterford. The Rev. Chas. M. Kimball goes to North East and Miles Grove immediately after Convention. The Rev. F. E. Badger has charge of Freeport and Tarentum.

Thus much has been accomplished; it is but a small showing compared to what should be the normal growth of the Church. The late census shows that there are nearly 2,000,000 people in this great Diocese and in two whole counties, Greene and Forest, the voice of the Church is never heard. Large towns are springing into existence all about us and we stand listless by, as though there were no call of duty and no reward for faith. The Church owes it to herself to let her light shine at least in every shire town and above all in every center of education where young and progressive minds are ready to be moulded by efficient influences. We ought to see to it at once that the Church is adequately represented at Grove City, Edinboro, Clarion, Charleroi and Ford City.

In early Christian times the Church worked from below upwards in society. Now, in too many instances, she does not enter a community until religious opinions are settled and social relations strengthen denominational lines. In small villages individual opinion is plastic; there other religious bodies make their most effectual appeal. The population of the villages is constantly moving to the large towns and from the towns to the cities. The Church, confining its work to the larger centers of life, finds itself confronted by settled convictions, positive prejudice and social influence. It is a marvel that her growth has been so great.

A table of statistics has been carefully compiled from the Diocesan Journals of the last six years. It is appended to this report. It must be confessed that even a casual glance at this table will show the most unwilling that the results of mission work are often only too meagre and incommensurate with the outlay of money and effort. It is to be conceded that there is a constant tendency on the part of our communicants to migrate to the cities. Still there ought to be a larger growth than can be found in many of our missions during the last five years. Two causes may in part account for this lack of growth. The salaries paid to our missionaries are altogether too small.

Then, further, our missionaries are not enough reinforced by the moral and intellectual support of the church at large. Our Methodist brethren have their chairmen and Presiding Elders who supervise and complement the labors of those who are put under them. Our Bishop now does more mission work than the large majority of his Episcopal brethren, and more than the Diocese should expect from him. He is "instant in season and out of season." The general Missionaries are singularly faithful and efficient and yet it must be conceded that larger and more successful work can be done and ought to be done. To get the whole field and the work done within easy view, would it not be well to publish the table of comparative statistics of all our missions for the last five years? And with that should there not go a carefully prepared map of our Diocese showing where the Church is at work, where the field has been neglected, the population of the towns and the centers of education? This would bring the facts plainly before us and then surely some wise plan could be devised to bring the work of the Church more into accord with her great commission.

Let us remember that the influence of the Church is vastly needed in just the places where she is not represented. She is a saving power, but she is something more; she is at the same time an educating, broadening, civilizing power.

Then we must face the problem how best to make the work of our mission staff more efficient, how to give them the supervision and sympathy and encouragement which they so grievously need.

More prayer, more faith, more consecration are absolute prerequisites. But would it not be wise, speaking from a business standpoint, to give larger salaries and so secure more efficient and more contented men? Even if the number of mission stations committed to each man was increased, the work would be done in a more satisfactory way.

Then some move ought to be made towards a more intimate supervision of the missionary field. One effect of such supervision should be that the efforts of the missionaries would be reinforced by the tact and wisdom of some clergyman of larger experience. In view of these facts, the following resolutions are respectfully submitted.

FIRST. That the Diocesan Convention appropriate $6,500.00 for Missions.

SECOND. That the Convention direct the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions, to devote the income from the Shoenberger fund to Church extension.

THIRD. That the table of statistics appended to this report, the chart and explanations attached be published in the Diocesan Journal.

FOURTH. That the Executive Committee be authorized to prepare and publish a map which shall exhaustively show the population and ecclesiastical condition of this Diocese.

This Committee reiterates to the Diocesan Convention their opinion that the parishes of the Diocese ought to provide the Committee with at least one dollar for every actual communicant in the Diocese; and farther that we call the attention of the members of the Convention to the fact that in the past six years the missions and assisted parishes of the Diocese have come much nearer to this limit in their contributions to Diocesan Missions than have the parishes and children combined.

ALBERT W. RYAN, Secretary.

For Executive Committee of the Board of Missions.

Rev. Mr. Fleming offered the following resolution:

Resolved. That the Committee on the State of the Church be instructed to draw up a comparative table of statistics showing the growth of the parishes and missions of the Diocese for the past five years; and that such table of statistics be published in "The Church News" and the Journal of the Convention. Carried.

The following pledges were made towards extinguishing the deficit in the treasury of the Board of Missions :

St. Peter's Church, Pittsburgh.....	$25 00
Christ Church, Meadville.....	10 00
Christ Church, Oil City.....	25 00

The Rev. R. Meech.

The report of the Committee on Canons was then taken up as the order of the day and discussed by Mr. Burgwin, Rev. Mr. Mackay and Mr. Wm. Metcalf.

While the discussion was still pending, adjournment was had until 10 o'clock, A. M. Thursday.

SECOND DAY—MORNING SESSION.

JUNE 11, 1891.

After celebration of the Holy Communion, the Convention was called to order by the Bishop, at 10 o'clock.

The minutes of the first day's session were read and approved.

The roll of the Clergy not answering yesterday was called and attendance noted.

On motion of Mr. Reuben Miller, the roll call of Lay Deputies was dispensed with, and those not in attendance yesterday were requested to hand in their names to the Secretary.

The report of the Board of Trustees of St. Margaret's Hospital was presented and read by the Secretary.

The Committee on the claims of Lay Deputies to seats presented their corrected report as follows:

The Committee on the claims of Lay Deputies respectfully report that the Deputies from the following parishes are entitled to seats in this Convention:

The report of the Committee on the State of the Church was read by the Chairman, Rev. J. D. Herron.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE STATE OF THE CHURCH.

By a gain of 848 canonical communicants during the past year the Diocese has at length reached the high water mark of 10,000.

This fact deserves the first place in the report of your Committee, as it is not a flood tide which will ebb away, but the formation of a mighty river which shall make glad the waste places of the earth.

The year just closing has been one of marked prosperity to the Diocese, both in its missionary operations and in its parish life.

The Parochial Reports indicate, in many instances, more than they express. It is a matter of regret that, when the Convention appoints a Committee on the state of the Church, any portion of its clerical membership should withhold the information which that Committee deems necessary for the perfection of its work. Especially is this true of the reports of Parish societies, such as the Woman's Auxiliary and the Brotherhood of S. Andrews.

It is a matter of congratulation that 23 parishes report as many working branches of the Woman's Auxiliary, and that 12 parishes report as many chapters of the Brotherhood. But your Committee have personal knowledge that the Auxiliary is established in parishes which have not reported it, and the same is doubtless true of the Brotherhood. But that these two societies are fast becoming the principal channels for the play of spiritual energy in our parishes, is a mark of progress in the effective work of the Diocese.

There seems to be a misunderstanding among the clergy concerning the purport of a part of the information asked for in the parochial blanks.

These blanks were prepared by your Committee, under the direction of the Bishop, by the order of the Convention. In that part of them which refers to communicants, they were prepared with reference to the Canon of communicants and to the expressed wants of many of the clergy.

The old blanks were unsatisfactory, because some of the clergy were unwilling to report merely the canonical communicants, and many would pay no attention to the Canon which requires the non-continuance upon the list of communicants of persons not communicating during the year.

The Canon requiring that three lists shall be kept, a list of all the members belonging to the Parish, a list of communicants, and by implication, a list of communicating communicants, your Committee thought best to embody the requirements of the Canon in the report.

But as an explanation is called for, your Committee would submit the following. Suppose that a parish reports 200 confirmed persons, 180 entitled to the Communion, as recorded in the Register, and 160 actual or canonical communicants. It is thought that the first two ought to be the same; but there must be in every parish confirmed persons who are not recorded as communicants, because of never having presented themselves to receive the Communion. For if a rector is not to continue upon his communicant list those who have not communicated within a year, he would hardly enroll as communicants those who have not received the sacrament at all.

The clergy may object to giving this three-fold information; but, if it is objectionable, the propriety of having a committee on the state of the Church at all, may at once be called in question.

Your Committee have no desire to trespass beyond their province; but they would like to have that province clearly and accurately defined.

Your Committee would also call attention to the fact that the operation of Canon III. Section 2, has been mainly by guess work; and they would respectfully recommend that, unless the Canon be repealed or amended, some system of recording the individual communions of communicants be adopted by the clergy. Such a system is in practical operation in the chapel of S. Augustine, New York, with about 800 communicants, and it is successfully operated in this Diocese in the parishes of Christ Church, Meadville, and Trinity, New Castle. Without such a system, which is of much value beyond this present use, the Canon must in a great measure fail of the end which it has in view.

Your Committee would note the following marks of parochial activity. Three costly memorials have been placed in Emmanuel Church, Allegheny; and three windows in Christ Church, Brownsville.

The parish at Greenville has sprung into new life, and the Church building, which scarcely more than a year ago was a dilapidated meeting-house, is now a gem of churchly beauty. The improvements in S. Paul's, Kittanning, are evident to all; and it is a matter of much rejoicing that the Church at Tidioute has been renovated and reopened.

A Parish building is under way at Butler; and the burdensome debt at Brookville has been paid. These, while not in themselves marks of spiritual life, are indications of that life.

All that is now needed for its full development, is greater missionary activity and aggressive work.

The following parishes failed to send to the Bishop their required reports, and hence your committee has been obliged to use the tabulation of last year.

Ashcroft, Good Shepherd,
Greensburg, Christ,
McKeesport, S. Stephen's,
North East, Holy Cross,
Waterford, S. Peter's,

Bradford, Ascension,
Mansfield, Atonement,
Miles' Grove, Grace,
Sewickley, S. Thomas,
West Brownsville, S. John,

It is impossible for your Committee to report the financial condition of the Diocese, as these and several other important parishes have failed to report in this particular.

The Laymen's Missionary League reports an increase of 170 communicants, and the General Missionaries an increase of 112.

These two agencies need to be strengthened by more funds and by more assistants.

"Nothing succeeds like success." The Diocese is on the crest of the wave. Let there be no ebb, but an ever-advancing flow.

Respectfully submitted,

J. D. HERRON,

REV. J. R. WIGHTMAN,

W. HOWARD FALKNER,

W. O. CORCORAN.

REV. F. J. KEECH,

The Bishop announced the following appointments:

Examining Chaplains.

NORTHERN CONVOCATION,

The Rev. John H. McCandless, The Rev. John Hnske,
The Rev. Harry L. Yewens,

SOUTHERN CONVOCATION.

The Rev. W. N. Webbe, The Rev. Daniel Duroe,
The Rev. John E. Bold.

General Missionaries.

The Rev. Chas. A. Bragdon, The Rev. Pedro S. Mesny.

The Rev. Rogers Israel moved the appointment of a Committee on the official organ of the Diocese, the Church News. Carried, and the Committee appointed as follows:

The Rev. Rogers Israel, Mr. Stephen C. McCandless.
Mr. Raphael W. Shuman.

The Convention then proceeded with the election of officers of the Diocese for the ensuing year.

The Bishop appointed as tellers of the clerical vote, the Rev. A. S. R. Richards, and for the lay vote, Mr. R. C. Cornelius, and M. S. Guth, M. D. The roll was called, the ballot taken and the tellers retired to count the same. The Rev. Rogers Israel presented the Report of the Commissioners of the American Church Building Fund. as follows:

Whereas the Commissioners of the American Church Building Fund have endeavored to gain the interest of the various parishes of this Diocese on this most worthy object, by letters and appeals, but with so little success that but ten parishes have responded, and that only to the amount of $82.63;

Therefore, be it resolved: 1st, that, as this fund has not only the endorsement of the General Convention, the Bishops of the Church, including our own Diocesan, but also that of the Convention of this Diocese, the clergy be once more requested to bring this matter to the attention of their various parishes annually on the day appointed by the General Convention. 2d, that, as the day appointed for this offering, the second Sunday in November, is the same as that appointed by the Diocese for taking the offering for the Permanent Episcopal Fund, the date of this latter offering be changed to the first Sunday in Lent.

ROGERS ISRAEL, }
WILLIAM METCALF, } Commissioners.

The Rev. Wm. White, D. D., Chairman of the Committee on the retirement of Rev. Thomas Crumpton, D. D., presented the following Report.

Inasmuch as the Rev. Dr. Crumpton, on account of age and change of residence has tendered his resignation of the Presidency of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Pittsburgh. This Convention in accepting it desires to put on record its sense of obligation to him, for his twenty-five years of faithful service in office, and more than twice that period in the ministry of the Church; leaving an example of ministerial fidelity and devotion to official duty which it would be well for ministers and officers of the Church to copy. Resolved, that the above be entered on the minutes of this Convention, and that a copy be sent to the Rev. Dr. Crumpton by the Secretary.

WM. WHITE, D. D.,
Chairman.

Adopted by a rising vote.

Mr. H. L. Foster offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved: That the thanks of this Convention are hereby tendered, to the Rector and Vestry of St. Paul's Church, Kittanning, for the use of the church, for the sessions of the Convention; to the choir of the church for their attendance at the services; to the families of the parish for their hospitality, and also to the ladies who provided the mid-day lunch for the entire Convention.

Rev. Andrew Fleming offered the following resolution, which on his motion was referred to the Committee on Canons.

Resolved: That in the absence of the Rector or Minister from any Parish, at the end of the Diocesan year, the Warden or Lay Reader of such parish be required to prepare and send to the Bishop, the customary Parochial Report, before the meeting of the annual Diocesan Convention and that the Secretary be instructed to send to the Wardens the necessary blanks.

Mr. James W. Brown offered the following resolution which was adopted.

Resolved: That all unpaid assessments for Bishop's salary and Convention and Diocesan expenses made prior to those laid by the Convention of 1890 be cancelled.

The Convention then proceeded to the consideration of the order of the day, which was the report of the Committee on Canons.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Ryan, the whole matter of amendments to Canons was referred back to the Committee on Canons, with instructions to report to the next Convention.

On motion of Rev. Andrew Fleming, the following proposed amendments to the Canons were referred to the Committee on Canons, on a division; Ayes, 31, Noes, 31.

The Bishop voting in the affirmative.

Form A.

"3d. Annually on.....the adult communicants of the parish, shall elect two of their number to serve for the ensuing year as Senior and Junior Wardens, and, when practicable, five men connected with the parish, two of whom shall be members, who with the minister in charge, &c.

Form B.

"6th. The Vestry of this Church shall consist of not less than five men connected with the parish, and, when practicable, members of the church, to continue in office &c.

Sec. 6. The Convention recommends that when reasonably practicable, the Vestry be chosen from the communicants of the parish.

On motion of Mr. Hill Burgwin, the following resolution was adopted.

Resolved: That the Committee on Canons be instructed to have their report printed, and to send three copies to each clergyman in the Diocese, at least three weeks before the next Diocesan Convention, with the request that two copies be given to his Lay deputies.

On motion of the Rev. C. A. Bragdon, the Secretary was instructed to print 750 copies of the Journal of this Convention.

On motion of the same the Treasurer was instructed to pay to the Secretary of the Convention, the sum of $100, and to the Assistant Secretary, the sum of $25.

The Convention further instructed the Treasurer to pay the sum of $10.00 to the Sexton of St. Paul's Church, Kittanning.

The following resolution offered by Mr. W. Howard Falkner, was adopted.

Resolved: That Section 8 of Form B, be referred to the Committee on Canons, with instructions to frame a clause that shall comply with the laws of the Commonwealth; and that a clause be inserted in accordance with the bill of 1844, limiting the income of the corporations from sources other than real estate.

On motion the recommendation of the Committee on Canons, with regard to Rules of Order C. IV., was adopted. (See Report of Committee on Canons.)

The Tellers then presented the report of the first ballot as follows:

There being no Election and the hour of adjournment having arrived, the Convention took a recess until 2 P. M.

SECOND DAY—AFTERNOON SESSION.

Pending the Roll-call on the third ballot, on motion of Rev. J. C. White, D. D., by unanimous consent the ballot was dispensed with and the Secretary was instructed to cast the vote of the Convention, for Rev. M. Byllesby, for the remaining clerical member of the Standing Committee, for Mr. W. L. Chalfant for the remaining member of the Board of Trustees of the Diocese, and for Rev. Robert W. Grange as the remaining clerical member of the Committee on Canons. The Secretary cast the vote as ordered and the Election was declared complete.

The Rev. Rogers Israel, on behalf of the Committee on the Church News, presented the following as their report:

1st. The committee on Church News find that the Church News is not supported by the parishes of the Diocese.

2nd. That, unless such support be given it, the paper must continue to suffer not only in influence, but in ability to continue its present excellent standard.

Now your committee believing this periodical, which has been heartily endorsed by this Convention to be capable of great influence in the Diocese if properly distributed and supported, respectfully but most urgently request the hearty and immediate assistance and co-operation of the clergy of the Diocese in extending the subscription list, especially since your committee is informed by the editors that unless the present paltry subscription list of about 350 be increased by 500 within two months, it will be impossible to continue the publication.

RAPHEL SHUMAN,
ROGERS ISRAEL,
S. C. McCANDLESS.

On motion of Mr. Jas. W. Brown, the sum of $25 was appropriated for the extra Edition of the Church News, containing the Bishop's Address.

There being no further business, the minutes of the day's proceedings were then read and approved. Hymn 285 was sung; prayers were offered by the Bishop and the Convention adjourned sine die.

CORTLANDT WHITEHEAD,

Bishop of Pittsburgh and President of the Convention.

EDMUND A. ANGELL, Secretary.

REPORT OF REV. AUSTIN W MANN..IN CHARGE OF DEAF-MUTE CONGREGATIONS.

To the Right Reverend CORTLANDT WHITEHEAD, D. D., Bishop of Pittsburgh :

I respectfully report services for deaf mutes at the following places during the conventional year just closed. Trinity and Calvary Churches, Pittsburgh ; St. Paul's Church, Erie, Trinity Memorial Church, Warren ; St. James Memorial Church, Titusville ; and the State School for Deaf children, Edgewoodville.

Deaf-mute Communicants in the Diocese. Pittsburgh, 8 ; Braddock, 5 ; Homestead, 2 ; McKeesport, 1 ; Johnstown, 1 ; Erie, 1 ; Lundy's Lane, 1. Total 19.

I have served thirteen other Dioceses during the year beside Pittsburgh, and have thirty baptisms, and forty-two confirmations to report. Several of the latter were performed by you in Southern Ohio.

In sixteen years, I have planted Missions in all the large cities of the great and growing middle-west. The record of Baptisms of Deaf-mutes, and their hearing children shows 553 names, and the Communicant list shows the names of 432 Deaf-mutes.

Last summer, I attended the Twelfth National Convention of Educators of the deaf, held in New York City ; and state Conventions of deaf-mutes at Pittsburgh and Indianapolis. Of the latter I was re elected president. I served the third re-union of the Canada Deaf-mutes as Chaplain, and baptised several persons. At St. James Cathedral, Toronto, a service was held with a congregation of over 200 persons from all parts of the Dominion.

I would be very glad if the Rectors would visit the deaf-mutes living within their parochial limits ; and encourage them to attend the regular services by inducing church people to show them the places in the prayer book, which they soon learn to find alone. By showing interest in this manner, several Rectors in other Dioceses have succeeded in bringing deaf-mutes, and their hearing kindred to Baptism and Confirmation. I am ready to go where ever desired by any Rector, who may desire a sign service for the deaf-mutes we may find.

I need an assistant at Pittsburgh to hold services while I am visiting my other Missions. He could help hold the ground already gained, and gain more.

CHARACTER OF THE MISSION TO THE DEAF.

Peculiar practical difficulties arise in the pursuit of this exceptional work. Deafness does not usually affect all of a family, or pass from parent to child. So the deaf are not gathered together in families and communities, like ordinary congregations, but are scattered, one here and one there, in every class of life and in every part of the land. In the great cities congregations can be gathered, elsewhere the missionaries travel about, ministering to those they can reach. Everywhere it is a Mission to Individuals.

CHRISTIAN UNITY AND THE DEAF.

The fact that the deaf are too few for denominational divisions should be widely understood and accepted by Christians of every name. In view of the plainly expressed wish of our Saviour that all Christians be ONE, no excuse can be presented for attempting to disturb the minds of the deaf on religious questions. They should be allowed to enjoy the unity so long had within the borders of the historic Church, whose Prayer Book System meets their spiritual needs in a special manner.

REPORT OF THE REV. THOMAS CRUMPTON, D. D.

PITTSBURGH, June 2d, 1891.

To the Right Reverend CORTLANDT WHITEHEAD, D. D., Bishop of Pittsburg:

My Dear Bishop:—My ministerial services for the past conventional year have been limited to two infant baptisms in private, and one marriage. The report of St. Paul's Church will bet from Rev. Mr. Wightman.

Yours Respectfully, Etc., Etc.,

THOS. CRUMPTON.

REPORT OF REV. JAS. G. CAMERON.

To the Right Reverend CORTLANDT WHITEHEAD, D. D., Bishop of Pittsburgh:

Reverend Father:—I beg leave to report that since March 1st, 1891, when I retired from the rectorship of St. Mark's Church, Pittsburgh, I have officiated regularly, with the approval of the Bishop of this diocese, at the Church of the Evangelists, Philadelphia, as one of the assistant priests of that parish.

Respectfully submitted.

JAMES G. CAMERON.

May 30th, 1891.

REPORT OF REV. SAMUEL MAXWELL.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., June 9th, 1891.

To the Right Reverend CORTLANDT WHITEHEAD, D. D., Bishop of Pittsburgh:

Dear Bishop:—I herewith report that since the last Diocesan Convention I have been in Europe for several months, and since my return have officiated frequently in the following dioceses: Pittsburgh, Newark, New York, Ohio and Massachusetts.

SAMUEL MAXWELL.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF ST. MARGARET'S HOSPITAL.

PITTSBURGH, PA., June 10, 1891.

The Trustees of St. Margaret's Memorial Hospital have to report that nothing has been done since the last Convention towards the settlement of the estate of the late John H. Shoenberger.

Suits have been brought by the McCormack heirs in the States of New York and Pennsylvania against the executors of the will, and until these shall have been terminated no settlement can be made.

When it became known to the Trustees that legal complications were likely to arise they met and formed a temporary organization, electing William Mullins, Chairman and Wilson Miller, Secretary.

A permanent organization will be effected at an early day, in compliance with the terms of the will and in accordance with the laws relating to corporations of this character.

General C. L. Fitzhugh, who was elected one of the Trustees by the last Convention having declined to serve, Mr. John B. Jackson was appointed by the Standing Committee to fill the vacancy.

Respectfully submitted,

W. MULLINS, Chairman.

CESAN BRANCH OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY
TO THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

The past year dawned brightly for the Pittsburgh Branch in that the Missionary Council held its meeting here in October. The enthusiasm and zeal then aroused have borne fruit throughout the year. The presence of the Missionary Bishops, of Miss Emery and Miss Carter, and of the earnest workers from all quarters who came together to give information and to incite each other to good works, gave a new impulse to the missionary labors of this diocese. A knowledge of the great needs and wide interests of the work which the auxiliary is pledged to assist, was extended in words of eloquence and earnestness, which moved all hearts. From China, Japan, the west and south, were heard the urgent appeals for help to seize upon the golden opportunities now offered. At the Annual Diocesan meeting, held at this time, Miss Emery stated the objects for which our joint contributions for this year were desired.

Miss Spencer, who at this meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary, during the Council, spoke on the subject of "Privileges as well as Privations," has recently been very suddenly removed from the labors, with her work uppermost in her thoughts, until the last.

At the officers' meeting, presided over by Miss Emery, it was decided to lay aside the project for a united offering of the society which had been proposed—the object suggested being the furnishing of rooms for its use in the New Church Mission Building—until the General Convention of 1892, in order to combine every effort for the completion of the enrolment fund at that time. Miss Carter being present, and having conferred with the Bishops, then in session, who gave their endorsement to the proposal for renewed efforts in behalf of this great object. The Auxiliary, as a body, pledged itself to take up this work, hoping to be able to report the completion of the $1,000,000 fund in October, 1892.

Acting upon this resolution, and in addition to the ordinary contributions of money and sending of boxes, the systematic collection of money for this purpose has been undertaken and carried on by a number of parishes. A separate secretary and treasurer appointed, and a large number of missionary or mite boxes procured and distributed. Miss Carter accepted an invitation to meet and speak informally to all interested in missionary work, in St. Andrew's Sunday School rooms, on the 23d of April, and she also made an address at Trinity Chapel on the evening of April 24th. Printed pamphlets with a history of the Enrolment Fund and its plans and purposes as to the use of the money, have also been widely circulated in this Diocese, and every effort has been made that ignorance of its existence and designs may no longer exist. At least, one grand sermon has been preached on the subject, in Pittsburgh which, if it could be widely circulated, would hardly fail to move every heart. For want of time and space this subject must be dropped at present, but let us all remember that it is a great work and the time is short. On February 5th there was a Quiet Day in Trinity Chapel. The exercises were conducted by the Rev. Dr. Bates of Cleveland. The deep thought and earnestness of his addresses were calculated to benefit all present.

In addition to the joint amount pledged to Miss Emery, and the work for the enrolment fund, several other joint contributions have been made to different objects by a number of parishes. A box to a missionary in the Diocese, a box of bags to a sale in Kansas, and as Lenten work, boxes to the Indian schools in South Dakota.

A new and promising addition to the parish branches—is that of the Church of the Epiphany, at Bellevue. The President, and some others, visited the parish, receiving a cordial welcome. The rector, holding a service, with an inspiring missionary address. A helping hand from the clergy is highly appreciated by the women of the Auxiliary.

The Church Periodical Club has increased the number of its librarians and contributions, and is doing a good work in supplying reading matter to many who cannot afford to indulge in that luxury.

The Constitution requiring some changes to make it accord with the altered time for the annual meetings, a Committee was appointed to attend to it, with the following result. This Article was added: "This Constitution may be amended by a proposition made in writing at a regular meeting and passed upon finally at a subsequent regular meeting, or at a meeting called for that purpose—all parishes in connection with the branch having been notified. Such an amendment shall be adopted only by a majority vote of those present."

Articles 10 and 11 were revised, and a resolution taken to accept the changes, etc., chiefly regarding the times of meetings. With great regret we were obliged to accept the resignation of Mrs. Soule, president of the Junior Auxiliary, on account of her removal from the Diocese. That she has conducted these first two years of the children's work with great ability and success, her report will show. She will be greatly missed in the Woman's Auxiliary on account of

REPORT OF THE SECOND VICE-PRESIDENT.

In sending the report for the last half year's work in the northern convocation, I am sorry that I cannot mention the organization of more parish branches, but with the exception of a promising one in New Castle, there have been no new ones formed. While some are in a flourishing condition, others show a falling off in interest, due, in most cases, to the parish being without a rector, and in others, to the rector having no sympathy in the work. Reports have been sent by ten of the thirteen parish branches. From the remaining three—Corry, DuBois and Sharon—I have been unable to receive satisfactory replies. However, after the second annual meeting, which we expect to hold in Meadville about October 1st, we will hope for added interest and greater results.

JUNIOR AUXILIARY.

SECOND ANNUAL REPORT.

The Junior Auxiliary ends its second working year with twenty-five branches, an increase of eight over its first year, and with growing interest among the children—many parishes reporting larger numbers working in the branches than last year.

An enthusiastic missionary meeting was held in Carnegie hall, Allegheny, on Wednesday afternoon, October 22, 1890, during the session of the Missionary Council. Bishop Whitehead presided, Bishop Talbot of Wyoming and Idaho; the Rev. F. R. Graves of Wuchang, China, and Archdeacon Kirkby of Rye, N. Y., made interesting addresses.

The hall was filled—about half the audience being grown people—the offering was $76.32.

The special work of the Diocesan branch for the year was the raising of $100 for the support of St. Thomas' Day School, Wuchang, China, and this has been accomplished, together with much other good work, as will be seen by the following report of parish branches.

The fitting out of Christmas trees is one of the principal objects of all the Junior Auxiliaries, and our branch has not been behind hand in thus giving pleasure to the mission stations.

It is with the deepest regret that the President gives the work to another, as she is leaving the diocese, and she wishes to express her thanks to the Bishop, the clergy, the Woman's Auxiliary, the Parochial Secretaries, and the Church News, for the cordial interest they have taken in this work among the children.

MRS. GEORGE C. BURGWIN.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE MANAGERS OF THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH HOME, MAY 10, 1891.

When we had the pleasure of submitting our last Annual Report to our friends, it was with the hope that, before another year had passed, we would have been in our new home; but such difficulties were found in trying to provide a suitable place in which to care for the family during the building, that the summer passed, and then it was decided to wait until the spring to begin, and then to put the new house in front of the old one, in this way our work can go on without interruption, so that the old home, just as it has always been, will once more, welcome its friends at the Festival to be held on the 25th of June. This year has, like the last, brought more sickness than usual to the family under our care, but as the winter has been one of such general ill health, we cannot but feel thankful that, with so many young children and old people gathered together, matters have not been worse, and since February, the health of the inmates of the Home has been very good. In June last the teacher, Miss Haines, presented her resignation, and Miss Indiana Loomis, who had served with us very acceptably before, in that capacity, came to take her place temporarily. The managers were very sorry to lose Miss Haines, whose work with the children had given great satisfaction, and it was with their hearty good wishes that she left the Home to be married. Miss Indiana Loomis is still with us, and the school work has been well and conscientiously looked after by her.

In July Mrs. William Carr's resignation as Manager was presented to the Board, and as she stated that she could not reconsider it, it was accepted with much regret.

In October Mrs. Reuben Miller was unanimously elected Vice President.

In December the Managers having heard that reports of ill treatment of some children in the Home had been circulated, the President had the person with whom they were found to have originated brought to the Board, when it was shown that her statements were trivial and obviously false, and exhibited only a most striking case of ingratitude, as three of her children had been cared for, for two years without any board being paid, and for a longer time for a very small sum. It seems right to call attention to this, as the complaint was so generally heard of through the newspapers.

On December 24th, Jeannette Kelso died, having been ill for only a few days, with typhoid fever. This was the only death in the Home during the year. It then seemed advisable to have a thorough overhauling, and, after a search of several days, sewer gas was found to be escaping. All was put into the best possible condition, but at an expense which has told heavily on the slender income of the Home.

In January Miss Hancock resigned as Manager from St James Parish, as she had left it and was a member of St. John's. Her resignation was accepted, and she was then elected as Manager from St. John's, the Board being very unwilling to lose her services.

Mrs. William House was elected to fill a vacancy from St Peter's.

In March Miss Dohrman was elected Manager from Emmanuel.

The annual visitation of the Bishop was made on February the 2d, an occasion much enjoyed by all in the House.

The death of Mrs. Geo. F. McCleane was felt as the loss of a dear personal friend by Managers and inmates of the Home, alike; for, while owing to more urgent duties, she had resigned from the Board and from her position as Vice President, in September, it had been hoped that she would join us again, for, as Manager or simply as a friend of the Home, we felt so sure, always, of her sympathy and help. she was so much one of us and had for so long, loved and cared for the work done.

Miss Loomis, the Matron of the Home, has continued, as for the past seven years, to give great satisfaction. Her service has been not only of the hands, but of the head and heart, and the Managers wish to take this opportunity to express their appreciation of her work, and also of that of Dr. Gardner, who has cared so faithfully for the health of the family during the past year; and of our Chaplain, the Rev. Mr. Webbe, whose ministrations are nowhere more prized.

We would thank, to the best of our power, our many kind friends who have thought of us, and put those thoughts into such practical and helpful forms, as, for several years, Messrs. J. M. Gusky & Co. have provided two days of much active pleasure to the children and many more of anticipation and of retrospect in the Summer picnic and the visit made at Christmas by Santa Claus, loaded with toys for the children and useful gifts for the older members of the family. Money, provisions, toys &c., have been sent by the various sewing societies of Calvary, Trinity and St. Peter's Churches, and of the Church of the Good Shepherd of Pittsburgh, of St. Stephen's Church, Sewickley; St. Stephen's, McKeesport, and the Church of Our Father, of Foxburg.

It is very hard to pick out names of personal friends to mention, but of the kindness of Dr. Harris we must speak. He most generously furnished us with drugs, etc., until he had the great misfortune to lose his entire establishment by fire. Recently he has notified the Managers that he will furnish them with everything in his line free of charge as has been his custom in the past. We must also speak of Dr. Hanna, the Ear and Eye specialist, who has so skillfully treated a number of children who have been under his care; and of Mr. Bakewell Phillips, who has done all the advertising for the Festival, and whatever other notices we have needed he has printed for us.

There are now in the home sixty children and ten aged women. Twenty-eight children have been admitted and twenty-four taken out during the year. These have all been cared for, as the Treasurer's report shows, at an expense greater than the amount of funds provided, so that we had to call on the Trustees for five hundred dollars, but the cases were so needy, and there were so many more appeals for admission than we could grant. To refuse others would have seemed like a loss of faith that provision would be made for those who so sorely needed our care.

Will you not help us even more abundantly than before to look after these little ones and those who, in their last years, appeal to us for protection and shelter? Are we not one family, and should not those who have give to their Mother, the Church, to care for her more helpless children?

Respectfully submitted,

ANNA D. JOHNSTON,

Secretary.

Remarks.—The number of communicants dropped from the list during the past year is 10. The additions to the actual list have been those gathered from the great body of Churchmen, who have been living for years without respect for the Church, or from families arriving from time to time, from Great Britain, as well as those admitted from confirmation class. The Church in Braddock is progressing though amidst much opposition from without (on account of her activity), and in a few instances from unchurchly conduct on the part of those who should uphold her honor.

Remarks.—The noticeable lack of missionary zeal in this Parish, may in part be accounted for, on the ground, that all the energies of the Church people have in the last year been directed toward the liquidation of their Church debt, which they have happily, through the aid of kind friends in Philadelphia, succeeded in doing.

The Busy Workers, a society of the younger girls, under the instruction and leadership of Mrs. Geo. Heber, have by their faithful efforts been of valuable service to the Sunday School, having placed in the library a large number of books, and have provided the Church with a number of serviceable articles.

Remarks.—In consequence of the Bishop's invitation in S. Ohio, the rite of confirmation was postponed till after June 14th.

In addition to the Memorials mentioned in previous Reports, the following have been placed in the Church: Three windows, as follows: one in memory of Elizabeth Lorraine, wife of Nelson B. Bowman; one in memory of Mary Clarke Dawson and Louisa Dawson Patterson; and one in memory of Robert Clarke and Sarah Clarke, his wife. Also a solid silver Communion Service, consisting of Tankard, Paten, and Goblet, and Alms Basin' presented by the late Isabella L. Sweitzer, each piece a special memorial. To accompany this service a solid silver Cruet, by a friend in memory of a beloved child. Miss Sweitzer, also left by will the sum of $500 for a brass Altar Rod, brass Cross and two Vases.

The late Mrs. Mary McKenna, provided by will for three memorial windows, at a cost of $500 each. And also $1,000 as a fund for the perpetual repair of the fences around the Church and grounds. The memorials are ordered and in course of preparation.

Remarks. | Since Nov. 1890, the ladies of the Parish Aid have raised $349 20 towards the erection of a Parish Building.

We are indebted to Mr. William White, for paint for the outside of the Church, and to Mrs. White and Miss Isabella for having it put on.

Rev. Dr. White has, as he did last year, given his services gratis every other Sunday during the past year, and has also assisted me in my parochial work. I give services at Gomersal, Butler County, every other week. Attendance good.

(1.) I have given the number of persons who have been Confirmed in the Parish, and are still members of the Congregation. The whole number of persons Confirmed in the Parish is 216.

(2.) Respecting Communicants I beg to offer a few remarks:

(a) Neither the Church nor this Diocese has made any provision or appointed any mode for the Re-Admission of Communicants: I cannot therefore place any number opposite that word. If "Returned" had stood there I should have taken it to mean Communicants, who having neglected their privilege in a former year, or years, had returned to the obedience of this duty, and could have made an entry, I think.

(b.) I have separated the heading "Received from other Parishes and admitted" because there were persons coming under each head separately—the later being persons who had lived in the parish for some time without being as Communicants—strictly of course they should have produced Certificates from such Parishes as they had formerly Communicated in, or of their Confirmation:—but there were sufficient reasons for not being strict, especially in view of the common neglect of such certificates.

(c.) I have never made any answer to the heading "Names not reported under Canon III," yet last year the printed report of the convention represented me as having reported 11 under that head. I am not responsible for that number, how the mistake was made of course I know not. I expect to have no difficulty in proving at this convention that the proviso's of that Canon are without authority, but of course the committee of the state of the church has formed the reports with relation to it.

(d.) I am confident that a little investigation will prove to the members of the committee that a Communicant properly means, not one who communicates, (commune in this sense is pigeon English) but one who is entitled to Communicate—one who has the right to do so—the Colloquial use of the term in the former sense is convenient, but in accurate; therefore the application to it of the term "actual" is no more suitable than it would be to say "an actual lawyer," or "an actual physician." Remarks—The work is promising and with earnest efforts on the part of Rector and parishioners for two or three years, together with some little financial aid from outside, to purchase (or help to purchase) a rectory, the Parish will become self-supporting. The improvements have consisted in erecting a small Chapel, putting new Pews, new Carpet, Furnace, new Organ, new Quoir-seats, new Font and Memorial Gifts of Alms Basin, Altar Service-book, Altar-vases and Memorial Font Cover.

The Woman's Guild has met every week, and has done admirable work, the Altar Guild, too, has met every two weeks, and has also accomplished much good in furnishing flowers for Altar, and is now working for a new Altar. The Parish have contributed the sum of $31 00 for Diocesan Missions.

Remarks.—St. Luke's church is a mission of Trinity Memorial Church, Warren, Pa. Its statistics have hitherto been included in the report of Trinity Memorial Church, and are now separated for the first time. Mission services have also been held at Corydon three times, and at Sugar Run and Morrison's Run, once each.

The church building at Kinzua, has been much improved lately by elevating the ceiling and adding a tower and bell, and vestry room. The generous and efficient assistance of the General Missionaries is here by acknowledged.

Remarks.—The Holy Communion was celebrated by different Priests as the Deacon could procure them. In addition the Deacon held 48 services on Sundays and 6 services on Holy days in other places round about. At these services he baptized 15 children and had one funeral. At the services mentioned he delivered 43 sermons or lectures. During the time the missionary was absent from the chapel Mr. T. J. Brereton as Lay preacher carried on the services, besides always assisting on the days the missionary was officiating. The mission has lately secured a valuable lot on which they intend to build a church this summer, if the necessary funds can be raised. The church is greatly needed as the chapel is entirely too small for the needs of the congregation. Many and many a person who desires to attend the services cannot do so as we have not the room for them.

Remarks.—During the year it was found necessary to enlarge the church building. This was done by the addition of about one hundred additional sittings.

In December last, through the efforts of the women of the Parish, a large, new and comfortable brick dwelling house was purchased as a Rectory, at a cost of $11,500. A cash payment of $4,300 was made. The interest on the remaining indebtedness is assured. Plans which promise a speedy reduction of the debt have been adopted.

Remarks.—During the past year the small interior of our church has been renovated and thoroughly repaired. Gas has taken the place of oil lamps. The furnace removed to basement, and the whole is now in good and perfect order. Our congregations have been good both Sundays and week days with a growing interest on the part of nearly all our people. The number reported in our Sunday School includes a large Bible class of adults conducted by Mr. H. M. Clarke and myself, also on off Sundays Mr. H. M. Clarke takes charge of the Sunday School, and has just made arrangements to give the morning service at the usual hour. Two societies have been formed during the past month viz: "Brotherhood of St. Andrews" with 9 charter members. "Daughters of the King" with 14 charter members, by the systematic workings of which we trust to reach every person in our Parish, and largely increase our congregation.

The interior of the church has been very much improved during the past year.

The communicants living at Kinzua and Kane, were formerly reported in the number returned for the Parish. The communicants at Kinzua are now returned in a separate report. The five (5) communicants at Kane have been placed under the spiritual care of the General Missionary—the Rev. P. S. Mesny.

"I HEREBY CERTIFY that the number of communicants reported from Trinity Memorial Parish, Warren, to the Annual Convention of June 10, 1891, is correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

The school house has a new carpet and other improvements. The church windows have been repaired. The rectory and grounds have been repaired and improved, and land having thirty feet frontage has been added by Mr. James McIlvain. Repairs and improvements have been accomplished under the auspices of the Trinity Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary. The St. Cecilia Guild has assisted the rector in the purchase of music for the choir, and is successfully raising money for the organ and choir, besides attending to the necessities of the altar and vestry. The St. Hilda Guild devotes itself to the needs of the Sunday school and Sunday school library, the last owing its existence and increase entirely to this guild. The report of St. Thomas' mission, Canonsburg, is incorporated in the parochial report of Trinity church in all respects except the report of services. Since the mission opened in October, 1890, there have been held 18 public services on Sundays. The Holy Communion has been administered once, 3 persons have been confirmed and 5 have received the Sacrament of Holy Baptism.

The Bishop's Address.

DEAR BRETHREN OF THE CLERGY AND LAITY :

There are many things which render a meeting of the Convention outside of our See city inconvenient to some. And yet there is a multitude of reasons on the other side, which are by no means to be overlooked. We have several venerable parishes in the Diocese, dating their organization from the times of White and Onderdonk, whose age and history, and present prosperity and promise, claim recognition from even so large a body as the Diocesan Convention.

I am especially glad, therefore, to give you greeting in St. Paul's Parish, Kittanning, whose praise for certain qualities of steadfastness and loyalty, should be in all the churches, and whose prestige in the community might well be envied by many of our parishes even in much smaller places.

We have here enshrined the labors and memories of such faithful, zealous, untiring missionaries as Bennett, Killikelly, and Hilton—and a line of active, aggressive younger men. That line is worthily closed (for many years, we hope) by the present rector, the results of whose activity, and of the generosity of the people under him, you behold in the renovated church, bright services, and abounding hospitality which we all enjoy at this time.

When this parish was organized in 1829, there were but nine parishes in all the territory forming this Diocese, where now there are over one hundred places in which our Church is ministering.

Three of these old parishes were in what we know as the Northern Convocation. There was the one parish in Pittsburgh, and one in each of the following towns : Georgetown, Brownsville, Butler, Menallen, and New Haven. Two generations of Church folk have passed away since then. Mainly from force of providential circumstances, and from no one's fault, some of the parishes mentioned have made but little progress in size and importance ; one or two have dwindled almost to nothing. But by God's good providence this parish has passed from a vigorous youth into a sturdy maturity, and bids fair to make continually better progress and more honorable record in the years to come.

This, we of the city should appreciate and be thankful for ; but we must see it in order to appreciate it.

The tide sets towards the great city ; and the young people who recruit the city churches, come in large numbers from the outlying county towns and villages, and hamlets.

Another argument, this for the strenuous prosecution of Diocesan Missions. Another exemplification of the oft repeated text : "There is that scattereth, and yet increaseth."

If we in the See city water the outlying fields, we shall all the more rejoice in a harvest of churchly and religious life returned to us in the young people, who, removing from the remote places, find the sphere of their religious as well as commercial activity in the local metropolis.

I am sincerely glad, therefore, that every now and then, we have a session of the Convention in some such encouraging and instructive parish as this, itself the result of missionary labor, and ministering continually in more ways than one to help on the cause.

Another year of much prosperity calls for renewed gratitude as we assemble in our twenty-sixth Annual Convention. A thousand persons confirmed, various church debts paid, and churches consecrated, many gifts bestowed as memorials, wide-spread harmony, and general progress made, all these things should secure grateful recognition and encourage us to go bravely on. Even our discouragements, and the opposition which we sometimes meet, operate in this Diocese, as always in the Church's history since the beginning, to make the standard bearers braver, and the workers and soldiers more resolute and united. And here as always. "this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith." Faith in God as the Vindicator of His truth. Faith in the undying life of the Church. Faith in the ultimate triumph of the Catholic Creeds, over against the vagaries of individuals, or the violence of partizanship, or the oppositions of science, falsely so called. The intelligent Churchman has this immense advantage over all other men, that he is so sure of the future that he can afford to be quiet and trustful and patient in the present. The history of the past gives him assurance for the future. He is not fearful for the ark of God. He knows in whom he has believed, and is sublimely confident that in due time all men shall come into the unity of the Faith, simply because it is the Faith, and the promise of God standeth sure.

Indeed he can but see in the prevailing temper of the times, the sign of those latter days, which, while they are to be filled with trouble, are yet to be hailed as heralding the speedier coming of Him whose right it is to reign, and the perfecting of the Church built upon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets.

Of all the descriptions of intelligent Churchmanship ever coming under my notice, I do not remember to have seen any which was more accurate and helpful than this, which I have for many years endeavored to make the standard for myself. It is from the pen of that manly and most efficient Bishop, formerly of Bedford, and now of Wakefield, Bishop Walsham How.

The intelligent Churchman, he says :

"Reverences the Church Catholic, but he thanks God that his lot is cast in the purest branch of it. He glories in the historic continuity of his Church, but he does not hold mediæval teaching and customs to be therefore glorious. He believes in the Divine origin and spiritual endowments of the Church, but he is not ashamed to agree with the reformers in appealing to Holy Scripture, and (after Holy Scripture) to the primitive fathers and purest ages of the Church. He believes the Church of Rome has erred grievously, but he does not, therefore, affirm the orthodoxy of Dissent. He does not esteem the Church of England faultless, but he marvels at the fewness of her faults. He loves his Church with all his heart, but that does not make him uncharitable to Romanists and Dissenters. He is very thankful for the great Church revival of the last generation, but he does not undervalue the awakened life and unwonted preaching of the cross of Christ, which were due to a different school in the previous generation. In his services he aims at reverence and solemnity, and not at display. He welcomes all that fosters a spirit of true worship, and avoids all that has the look of a meretricious following of Rome. His ritual is simple and dignified, not complicated or distracting. He thinks no pains too great to bestow upon the reverent and devotional rendering of the services, but dreads dissipation of devotion by profuseness of ceremonial. His Church is comely ; orderly, attractive ; manifestly a house of prayer ; a place where reverent kneeling is at least as carefully provided for as comfortable sitting ; a home for the poor ; daily open to the 'two or three.' Festival and fast are well marked, and the seasons of the Christian year miss not their fitting decorations. The Anglican has long ago learned to pay due honor to the Holy Sacraments, which he holds to be two. He delights to provide for his flock frequent and early communions, though not teaching the necessity of fasting receptions ; and his baptizing of infants is itself a sermon. He refuses not to learn new lessons from any. He knows how spiritual life is helped and deepened in Retreats. He has proved how souls are rescued from Satan, or brought nearer to God, in Missions. He is not obstinately conservative, though he dreads novelties as such."

Now, add to this character the zeal and activity which this nineteenth century demands, and you have a Christian worker whose influence will tell most strongly for everything true and steadfast, elevating and ennobling : whose work will commend the Church and her holy ways in every community, and whose preaching and living will conjointly serve to build up the people in the most holy faith.

For the whole thing is based upon absolute confidence in truth, and in the God of truth.

He who teaches the truth plainly, firmly, lovingly, positively, and not by attacking others, is sure of success, and at any rate, of a quietness and serenity which as the world does not give it, neither can the world destroy.

In this spirit let us look out upon the controversies of the time : unseemly controversies they are concerning both the faith and order of the Church. Surely no better words as to this have been uttered than these which you all have read :

"If we are sensible of a tendency in our own generation to hold loosely and dubiously the truths of a personal Creator, a divine Saviour, and an Inspiring Spirit speaking through the Word and ministry and sacraments, then let us remind ourselves that it is our calling to help ourselves and to help others not to let go, but to keep, our trust. What is wanted in these days is not so much discussion, as, first, sympathy and tenderness to all honest doubt, and then the inculcation of positive truth, and then the loving service for our fellow-men which helps us, and which teaches them, to convert speculation into action, and the hesitancy of the questioner into the active and eager devotion of the loving disciple. There is nothing in the position of a minister of our Church which prevents his cultivating the most open and candid spirit towards all questions that may challenge him. But it is time, as one certainly not open to the charge of narrowness has said, "to disown allegiance to those theories of so-called freedom of thought and inquiry which allow every man's right to assume the ignorance and folly of all his predecessors, to approach all religious questions as if he were the first man, after the order of Melchisedec, without father or mother,—to approach them as though he had the authority and wisdom, and independence of humanity itself, instead of being a mere tendril of that noble and sturdy vine. There are truths in regard to religion, history, Christianity, which are no longer properly in debate. True they are debated; as Hazlitt debated the Newtonian astronomy; as Godwin debated the existence of society; as Buckle debated the influence of religion on civilization, but they are debated only by eccentric, abnormal or presumptuous minds."  "There is no insolence so insupportable as that of the sincere egotists who expect to have humanity stop its business and stand on its defence to answer their moral and religious crochets—as if every knight errant of the day might open his lists in the public squares of Christendom and were entitled to break his lance with the Church before its claims could be considered settled and absolute."

Let us cherish our freedom, but not forget that the well established and authoritative truth has wrought and guaranteed that freedom for us. Let us never permit "what we know, to be upset by what we do not know." Let us have the high aim to build up rather than to destroy—after the example of Him who came not to destroy even the old law, but to fill it full of higher and nobler meaning. A low aim never hit a high mark. And it is worth while to remember that it is a hundred times better to believe too much than to believe too little, to be too reverential than to be careless and indifferent, to be too strong in the faith than to be too weak.

Let us serve the Master with such loyalty to His Person, such allegiance to His Truth, as will not for a moment permit any departure from the ancient Faith or any dalliance on our part with views or practices which seem to bring the least dishonor upon His cause.

With men, however mistaken, we must seek to be tolerant ; with falsehoods, or half-truths, or fallacies, or sins, never. Treachery to one's own conscience and to God's truth witnessed to by the Church of all the ages, is falsest charity to ourselves and to the world.

These are times which try men's souls ; but he is wise who looks beyond the present to that sure future where the Victory shall be with those who "abode in the truth", not the truth which they themselves have fancied or evolved, but which has the stability and promise of "the Faith once for all delivered to the Saints."

It is worth our while to notice, that much of the talk that we hear these days allies itself most unconsciously with the Roman Doctrine of Developement. Extremes meet. "The nineteenth century knows more of essential religious truth, than did the first centuries," it says: "Do not believe what the Fathers believed, and that only. We have changed all that. We have outgrown that." But that there is one Faith for the souls of men now and in all the ages since the beginning - just that, nothing more and nothing less, is the true Catholic doctrine. It is well that the Revised Version, (product of modern scholarship), puts over against these false statements the stronger and more exact translation of the words just quoted and bids us earnestly to contend for "the Faith once for all delivered." That Faith has, as I said, an established stability and the Master's promise for the future.

"One symptom of the rejection of Church authority on the part of the recent critics is their use of the word traditional. It is with them a word of contempt. They seem to think they have sealed the doom of any statement about the books of Scripture, when they have called it "the traditional view." . . . But the doctrine of the Trinity is the traditional view." The Catholic doctrine of the Person of Christ is "the traditional view." It is part of the Faith once delivered to the Saints. The presumption in the Church is always against new views . . . But novelties grow old . . . Ancient heresies were new, grew old and died. Modern schools of unbelief run the same course. The naturalist miracle theory of Paulus gave place to the myth theory of Strauss. Renan modified Strauss. Strauss himself changed his own views before his death. The Tübingen theories of the New Testament books have had their day. They have lost the attractiveness of novelty. They are decaying and ready to vanish away. The Deism of the eighteenth century has been replaced by the Agnosticism of the nineteenth.... A flight of sky rockets seem, while they last, to put out the stars. A first-class comet will monopolize the whole sky. But the traditional stars keep their places in the heavens, and as for the other, "thou shalt look after his place and he shall be away."—[Rev. Dr. S. M. Clarke, in Ch. Eclectic.

But while these delusions last—the Church does well to warn, and to strengthen, her own children, and as many others as she can reach against their pernicious influence.

Strange is it that men do not see that they themselves are fulfilling the warning words of the inspired Apostle :

"In the last days, perilous times shall come".... "The time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but having itching ears they shall heap to themselves teachers after their own lusts; and will turn away their ears from the truth and turn aside unto fables."

"It must needs be that offences come. But woe to that man by whom the offence cometh. It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones which believe in Me."

Does it mean nothing that in these days this solemn utterance of the Master seems to have lost its significance ?

In starting on then with the work which God has given us to do, let us reconsecrate ourselves to carry the Gospel everywhere within our borders with all loyalty and honesty "as the Lord hath commanded and as this Church hath received the same," helping and not hindering the free grace of God which seeks through us rich manifestation to the souls of men. The passing tempests of the day will not affect the foundations of that eternal structure founded on the Rock, concerning which the Lord gave His most sure word of promise, "the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." How much comfort and courage still flow forth from the Master's clear ringing assurance : "Fear not, little Flock, it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the Kingdom." "In quietness and confidence shall be our strength." "Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on Thee."

REPORT OF WORK DONE.

Notwithstanding the clamor that the powers of evil are gaining strength, it is noteworthy that the Confirmations, especially in our busiest centres have been this year larger than ever; in our own Diocese the number is far above the average.

I have visited ninety-eight parishes and missions, thirty of them twice, and eight of them thrice; making one hundred and thirty-six visitations in all. On ninety-two occasions in public, and twelve in private, I have laid my hands upon one thousand and one persons.

In the Diocese of Southern Ohio also, on twenty occasions, I confirmed one hundred and seventy-eight candidates, making one thousand and one hundred and seventy-nine for the year, and seven thousand seven hundred and eighty during my Episcopate. I have taken part in two hundred and sixty-three services since the last Convention, preaching one hundred and fifty-four times, and making two hundred and sixteen addresses, confirmation and other.

I have baptized thirty-eight infants and five adults, (Total forty-three), and have celebrated the Holy Communion seventy-one times in public and eight in private. I have officiated at marriages five times and at burials six times. Seventeen Sunday Schools have been catechized, four corner stones laid, five churches consecrated and one new Church opened. Various memorial gifts have been blessed and set apart for their holy uses. I have attended two meetings of the House of Bishops, and the meeting of the Missionary Council, and have met with Vestries, Committees, Guilds, Trustees, &c., on forty six occasions.

Twelve Clergymen have been dismissed, and eight received into the Diocese, one of whom was instituted. Two Priests have been ordained. One not in active duty has died, and one Deacon deposed. There are now officiating in the Diocese sixty-eight Clergymen, five of whom are not canonically resident. There are also six Lay Evangelists, and forty three Lay Readers at work; nine candidates for Holy Orders, and seven Postulants not yet admitted as candidates.

TWO NOTABLE EVENTS.

Among the joyful events of the year none have given more genuine pleasure than the Consecrations of St. Mark's Church, Johnstown, and Christ Church, Meadville. The latter, after years of debt happily removed by the untiring labors of the rector, and the increasingly glad offerings of his willing people. The former, the gift of sympathizing Church people all over the United States, whose generosity has enabled us to erect a Church building, dignified, beautiful, and well appointed in every particular, an ornament to the city, a source of pride and gratification to all our people, and an acquisition of no mean value to the Diocese. There are now remaining no pressing debts of any great amount upon any church edifice within our borders, with the single exception of that upon All Saints', Braddock; and that debt, I am firmly convinced, is the result of the sanguine hopes and untiring devotion of the zealous and hard working priest who has been enabled to carry forward the work of that parish to a beautiful and satisfying result, but has at the same time assumed as a burden upon his own too willing shoulders, a debt of ten thousand dollars. Would that we might all feel as if a thank offering might well be offered to God for His many mercies, by lifting somewhat of the weight which now presses so heavily upon the heart and mind of our brother who has done so much. He merits much better treatment than the mere cold criticism of his impulsiveness, and it would be a graceful thing if this Diocese, receiving at least $30,000 for the Church at Johnstown, and perceiving how graciously God has helped us to get rid of burdens in all directions, should help to pay this debt now resting upon All Saints', Braddock. I should be very hard-hearted if I did not recognize the unremitting labors, painstaking and oftentimes unappreciated, which have procured the erection of such a beautiful Church as that which has for its only drawback this financial difficulty.

A new Church awaits Consecration this month at Bellevue, and during the coming year it is expected that there will be new chapels opened without debt, at Oak Ridge, Osceola, Scottdale, Jeannette, and we hope also at Knoxville, West End, Ford City, and Sharpsburg. May God stir up the hearts and wills of His faithful people to make ventures for his sake and to do great things for Him. To us, as well as to the disciples of old, the exhortation surely comes, "Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught."

In His work, as in all things, the proverb remains true, "Nothing venture, nothing have."

DEPOSITIONS.

It is a sad fact that there have been eighteen Depositions from the ministry reported during the year. The large number naturally causes inquiry. Some of them are for immorality, but by far the larger number for causes not affecting moral character, but because of unfitness in mind, health, or peculiar circumstances.

One clergyman has done himself great credit and doubtless helped others, by the following letter which is worthy of wide spread recognition as the utterance of a sincere and honest man.

"Rt. Rev. and Dear Sir :

I find it my duty to tender you my resignation as a Minister in the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, and to ask that it be accepted, and steps taken for my deposition. My reason for this action is that I am no longer able to give those interpretations to parts of the Creeds and Articles that one holding the office of a Minister in the Church is in duty bound to give. Therefore, I feel that to longer retain my office would make me disloyal to the Church, and untrue to my own convictions."

THE DEPARTED.

In God's good providence we have lost none of the Clergy in active duty by death during the year, * but we have suffered in the roll of the laity by the departure of three of our brethren well known in the Diocese and the Convention.

Mr. Robert A. McIlvaine's name has appeared many times on the list of deputies, coming from Trinity Church, New Haven, where for a long series of years he served as Senior Warden, and proved himself the earnest friend and generous supporter and benefactor of the parish. He was a man of loyal devotion to his Church, faithful in advocacy of her claims, and living consistently as the disciple of her Lord. He died on April 2nd, in the fear of God and in the hope of a joyful resurrection.

After a long and most painful illness patiently borne, there passed away in peace on the morning of the 15th of May, Mr. Robert Bruce,

*The Rev. Thomas D. Pitts, DD., died May 18th. His mind had been seriously affected for several years.

Senior Warden of Calvary Church, Pittsburgh, and for many years a delegate to this Convention. Nurtured in another Communion, he became a Churchman by conviction, and was known to all as an outspoken champion of his faith to a marked degree. The tenderness and profound religious feeling of his nature were richly manifested during his tedious and agonizing sickness, and the memory of his closing days as well as of his useful life, is full of comfort to those who survive him.

Meeting in this venerable parish we all the more deeply sympathize in the loss, which it as well as the whole Diocese has sustained in the death of the late Edward S. Golden—so many years its Senior Warden. He passed away on Sept. 4th, last, having exemplified through a long and trying illness the virtues of a truly Christian character, honored and beloved by citizens and Church people, who were his neighbors and friends.

In the years of his prime he was a notable member of this Convention, and no one can read the Journals of the Convention from the organization of the Diocese until about six years ago, without perceiving how Mr. Golden impressed himself upon those meetings, and had much to do in the shaping of the legislation of the Diocese. He was a staunch Churchman, and ordered not only his own life, but the lives also of his household in the fear of the Lord.

Of all these brethren it may be fitly said that they were good and faithful servants of the Master.

Three of our Bishops have been called home, the faithful Bishop of Massachusetts, Dr. Benjamin H. Paddock, the eloquent Dr. John W. Beckwith, Bishop of Georgia, and the whole-hearted, loyal Bishop of Milwaukee, Dr. C. F. Knight. They were not old men, but borne down by the many labors and anxieties of their official life. Such men the House of Bishops and the whole American church, could ill afford to lose, nor will their places easily be filled; for each in his peculiar line of work and phase of character, was of the best and stannchest quality.

We must not fail to remember lovingly and gratefully, also, the distinguished men of our Mother Church, who during the twelve-month have passed away; especially Dr. Liddon and the two Archbishops of York, Dr. Thomson and Dr. Magee, so noble in themselves and in their work for the Church and truth of God.

All these we commemorate, "Whose example, O Lord, and steadfastness in Thy faith, and keeping Thy holy commandments, grant us to follow."

THE PERMANENT EPISCOPAL FUND.

I must not neglect to impress upon the Convention once again the immense injustice done to the missionary and benevolent work of the Diocese by the deficiency in the Permanent Episcopal Fund, which necessitates an assessment upon the parishes almost always irksome and in some cases excessive.

There is a canon of the Diocese as plain as words can make it, laying upon the clergy and parishes as a duty, an annual offering for the increase of this Fund. The Convention has fixed the second Sunday of November as the day for that offering. The purpose of the canon is to gradually reduce taxation and relieve the parishes of a burden as unpleasant to the Bishop as it is worrisome to the Rectors and Vestrymen. Had the canon been obeyed by all the parishes since the formation of the Diocese, a few moments' computation will show any business man upon what high vantage ground as to Episcopal Endowment we should now have stood. For the annual increase would never have fallen below $500 and probably would have reached a much higher figure.

Then when the full amount of $80,000 or $100,000 was once reached, the energies of the Diocese could have been devoted to some other purposes which equally redound to the glory of God and the upbuilding of His Kingdom. The method proposed is simple, practicable and efficient. The former rector of Calvary Church, Pittsburgh, however, was for many years almost the only rector who faithfully and regularly complied with the Canon. His approval of the plan was a great encouragement, but his example was not fruitful in gaining imitators.

Instead of an Episcopal Fund increasing every year since the organization of the Diocese, we find that at the beginning $35,000 was secured ; that this increased to over $51,000 in 1875, and for ten years made no advance. Then by reason of depreciation of property, the amount fell to $46,000 in 1886, and by a further depreciation in 1889, has been brought down to $44,000 with contributions coming in each year which scarcely aggregate $150. I am quite sure that the Finance Committee sincerely regret with me this diminution of our resources, which seems to have been unavoidable.

And surely the Convention will appreciate the fact that we are ten times better able to day to restore to the fund what has been lost and bring it on to a larger amount, than were the comparatively few Churchmen who raised the original amount of $51,000. There is nothing nearer my heart, in the financial department, than the completion of the Episcopal Fund. It would be an immense relief to me and the parishes. It can be made $80,000 if you will. Is there no one whom God hath blessed, disposed to do something generous with regard to it? Is there not room in the last testaments of some of our Churchmen for mention of the Episcopal Fund? To complete it, would be to free our hands for grander and nobler tasks. I ask that a committee be appointed looking toward the increase of the Permanent Episcopal Fund.

Three measures are likely to be effectual in increasing it.

First.—The obtaining of promissory notes of any amount, from individuals or parishes, bearing interest; the interest to be used for the increase of endowment.

Second.—The obtaining of annual subscriptions, of any amount, towards the endowment.

Third.—The obtaining of any sums, paid down at once, to be added to the principal of the Episcopal Fund.

There is no self interest in this request except such as is naturally connected with my desire not to be a burden upon any in the Diocese. I make the request in the interest of my successor in office, and of the burdened parishes, and of the work of the Lord which needs to be done.

At any rate I may properly urge upon the Clergy their canonical duty of receiving the offerings of the people once a year—if possible on the second Sunday in November—for this object.

Let us not permit the canon to lie any longer a dead letter upon our statute book.

CAREFULNESS CONCERNING BAPTISM.

In my address two years ago I had occasion to refer briefly to Baptism in the following words:

“With many who come to Confirmation there is found to be much doubt about their Baptism, as to its method and its form. It is manifest that in various Christian bodies, great carelessness prevails upon these points ; and the Clergy should be diligent in their inquiries as to the Baptism of those who present themselves for the Laying on of Hands, inasmuch as the administration of the apostolic ordinance is conditioned upon the ratifying of the promises and vows expressed or implied at the initial sacrament. All the more because of the carelessness of others, we should be careful ourselves to administer Baptism as this Church directs ; and not without a reason do I draw attention to the fact that our communion recognizes but two methods of baptism, immersion and pouring. It is not lawful to devise a third method, which is neither immersion nor pouring, nor yet again sprinkling, but a sort of mopping the brow with the hand, which has been thrust into the consecrated water. A thorough dipping, a good honest pouring—these are the only legitimate methods in this Church ; the latter method, no doubt, with reference to the promise, certainly not symbolized by any other mode : “Upon my servants and upon my handmaids, will I pour out my Spirit.” I affectionately commend this subject to my brethren of the Clergy.”

There is urgent need to repeat these cautions and suggestions because the matter has been emphatically thrust upon my notice during the past year.

In my annual rounds I meet, of course, adherents of almost every sect and denomination, and have many conversations with them. I find that the ignoring of Baptism as the initial sacrament, or as a sacrament at all, is alarmingly prevalent. In an emotional and subjective system it has small reason for being—and hence it has come to pass that among the Methodists at least, there is a widespread misuse of it, and a departure from the Holy Scriptures and all pure Christian practice, to a degree which I could not have conceived possible. It is a common custom, certainly in the rural districts, for those who are converted in revival meetings, to come to the Lord's Supper during the months of probation, and not to be baptized until, being proved worthy, they are received into full membership. I am assured by preachers and others of that communion that this is their constant practice in the case of those not baptized in infancy.

So it happens that a Methodist may be a communicant without being baptized, and the same may be true of some other denominations. During the past year a woman who had been a communicant member of the Methodist body for twenty years, seeking Confirmation in the Church, was for the first time led to see that she needed to be admitted into the household by the appointed way before she could properly sit at the Master's table. Other such instances are known to me.

We need not argue against this custom, nor strive arduously to refute John Bunyan's elaborate but utterly absurd contention on the subject. It is enough for us to say that Holy Scripture and ancient authors and the history of the Church everywhere through all the centuries, give consentient, unwavering testimony against any such mal-arrangement of the two great sacraments and such perversion of their meaning, as that which I have felt it my duty to speak of.

"We have no such custom, neither the Churches of God," and we owe it no less to our brethren than to ourselves to call attention to such a grievous departure from the truth. We know well what John Wesley thought and would have said concerning it.

And the importance of it is that it has to do with the doctrine of "free grace," which the sacramental system so fully emphasizes. The subjective system is continually slipping over into the practice of good works, whereby trust is placed in one's experience or feeling, in something possessed or something done, sometimes in one's faith itself. "Now, having these things, feeling these things, you are worthy to come to Baptism"—it is said; "first show yourself good, and then we will receive you."

The gospel of Free Grace and Mercy in Christ Jesus, as the Churchman understands it, is utterly foreign to this system, and the fact that Baptism is rather a means of grace from God than a mere profession of faith on our part, is almost entirely lost sight of.

It remains for us to be exceedingly careful to make inquiry of all those who come to Confirmation; concerning their baptism, by whom was it done, how was it done, with what matter, with what words, and at what date; of all of which, record should be made.

Among the new rubrics soon to be embodied in our Prayer Book is this, which the carelessness of manifold denominationalism has made necessary:

"If there be reasonable doubt [for any cause], concerning the baptism of any person, such person may be baptized in the manner herein appointed, saving that, at the immersion or the pouring of water, the minister shall use this form of words :

If thou art not already baptized, N. "I baptize thee in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen."

The whole subject of Baptism is worthy of re study by all the Clergy, as the reverent administration of it should be one of their highest privileges and most gratifying duties. A careless administration lends itself to the prevalent idea that the sacrament is of little value, and more of an imposition than a blessing inestimable.

FAMILY PRAYER.

Finally I come to speak of a matter intimately connected with baptism, its inner meaning and spirit—and that is, that well-spring of household religion, Daily Family Prayer. Do the clergy appreciate what a deficiency there is in the spiritual fibre of their parishes, because of the prevailing disuse of Family Prayer ? Do the Laity ever stop in the bustle of these busy days to consider how they are depriving their children of one of the best and most powerful influences for good ? Indeed clergy and laity alike are defrauding God of His rightful due. It is undoubtedly true that there are more family prayers offered in the houses of Mohammedans, Buddhists, and pagans to day than in the Christian homes of America. Honest prayers they are, too, and, although mistaken, entering we doubt not, into the ears of the "Lord of Sabaoth." Pagans and Mohammedans are not ashamed of their religion as we are. They do not build great houses in which from top to bottom there is no place of prayer, and no slightest hint of any acknowledgement of an Almighty and Beneficent Power, in whom we live and move and have our being. They worship and are not ashamed to worship with their children and households at the domestic shrine. But we—the story of Belshazzar is repeated in multitudes of our homes where Church people calling themselves Christian,—dwell :—"Thou hast praised, (said Daniel) the gods of silver and gold, of brass, iron, wood and stone, which see not nor hear nor know ; and the God in whose hand thy breath is and whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified. "Therefore was the part of the hand sent from Him, and this writing was written . . . Thou art weighed in the balances and found wanting."

We are losing so much of spiritual growth, and keeping away from our children so much of highest blessing,—we are already reaping, in the prevailing unbelief, so much of the fruit of neglect—that I cannot forbear to utter a word of warning; and add a word of most loving exhortation that the Clergy will do their utmost to encourage and establish this holy and time-honored custom, so reasonable and so full of blessing, in every household in the Diocese.

And now, invoking the blessing of the Triune God, Father, Son and Holy Ghost, I bid you God speed in the work which lies closest to our hand in this our Annual Convention.

APPENDIX TO THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS.

OFFICIAL ACTS.

June 11, 1890. St. Barnabas' Day.—Annual Convention at St. Peter's Church, Pittsburgh. Celebrated Holy Communion, and read Convention address. Business sessions of the Convention all day. A meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary at Trinity Church in the evening, at which I presided, and addresses were made by the Rev. Mr. Huske, and the Rev. Dr. McConnell.

June 12. Convention sessions from 9 A. M., until 4:30 P. M. Took the train for Washington.

June 13. Celebration of the Holy Communion at Trinity Hall. Later, Morning Prayer and the Closing Exercises of the school. In the evening, at Trinity Church, Washington, I confirmed ten candidates, presented by the Rector, the Rev. F. C. Cowper.

June 15. Second Sunday after Trinity.—In the afternoon, at St. George's Mission, West End, catechised and addressed the Sunday School, and also preached. In the evening, preached at St. John's Mission, Wood's Run.

June 16. A very satisfactory meeting was held this afternoon preparatory to the meeting of the Missionary Council, which is to be held in Pittsburgh, in October. Various Committees were appointed, as e. g., Finance, Hospitality, Hotels and Lunches, Music, the Press, Printing, etc.

June 17. Received the Rev. James Foster from the Diocese of Iowa. In the evening, at Emmanuel Church, a meeting of the St. Barnabas' Guild for Nurses. The Rev. Mr. Bylleshy made an address, and I received one member and two associates.

June 18. Officiated at a burial in Allegheny Cemetery.

June 19. A meeting of the Trustees of the Church Home. In the evening, officiated as Chaplain at the Commencement of the Curry University.

June 20. A meeting of the Executive Committee on Missionary Council. Later, a meeting of the Committee on Hospitality.

June 22. Third Sunday after Trinity.—At St. Paul's Church, preached, and addressed the congregation with regard to their present condition and prospects. Called on the venerable Rector, the Rev. Dr. Crumpton, as the bearer of the message sent him by the Convention. In the afternoon, in the building of the Young Men's Christian Association at Sharpsburg, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Webbe of St. John's Church, I held service and preached.

June 23. Attended a meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary, to make preparatory arrangements for the Annual Meeting, at the time of the Missionary Council.

June 24. St. John Baptist's Day.—In St. James' Church, Philadelphia, assisted in the service of the Consecration, of the Rev. Wm. Ford Nichols, D. D., as Assistant Bishop of California. The sermon was preached by the Rt. Rev., the Bishop of New Jersey.

June 25. Committee Meeting in Pittsburgh.

June 26. Consecrated St. Barnabas' Church, Tarentum, and celebrated Holy Communion. The Rev. Messrs. Lamson and La Roche, and the venerable Dr. White made addresses. In the evening at St. Paul's, Kittanning, I confirmed five candidates, and addressed them.

June 27. Leaving Kittanning in the early morning, with the Rector and a large party of the Church people of St. Paul's, we reached St. Michael's, Wayne Township, in time for morning service and Holy Communion. Dr. William White, also, much to our pleasure, was able to accompany us, to this scene of his former labors, where he was heartily welcomed by the congregation. After luncheon in the grove near the Church, the Bishop and the priest in charge, the Rev. Mr. Dimmick, drove to Smicksburg, and there, in St. Thomas' Church had service and a sermon. In all these services we had the presence and welcome assistance of the Rev. Mr. Bragdon, General Missionary, who from Smicksburg went on to Punxsutawney, while the Bishop turned southward to Indiana.

June 29. St. Peter's Day.—Service and sermon and Holy Communion in Christ Church, Indiana. In the afternoon, baptised an infant. In the evening, read service and preached, and confirmed three persons.

June 30. Leaving Indiana early in the morning came to Pittsburgh, and thence to Verona, having read in the paper of the accident which occurred to the Rev. F. R. Brunot. Was glad to find him almost miraculously spared, with bones unbroken, and in a cheerful spirit of gratitude, recovering from the shock and the bruises. In common with his many friends, I rejoiced in his preservation.

July 1. Officiated as Chaplain at the opening of the Convention of the Deaf and Dumb, held in the lecture room of the First Presbyterian Church. It is gratifying to see how prominent a position our Church occupies among these people, who dwell in "the land of silence." There is no other Christian body that cares for them so widely, so systematically, and so tenderly as does the Church. Not only our own efficient Missionary, the Rev. Mr. Mann, is conspicuously useful among them, but the Rev. Dr. Gallaudet, the Rev. Mr. Koehler, the Rev. Dr. Clerc and others, in the present, as the Rev. Mr. Syle and his co-workers have been in the past.

July 6. Fifth Sunday after Trinity.—At the Church of Our Father, Foxburg, preached, and celebrated Holy Communion. Also preached in the evening.

July 7. In Christ Church, Oil City, after Evensong, confirmed five persons, and addressed them.

July 9. Journeyed to Ridgway, where I met various parishioners in the afternoon; and in the evening, after Evensong, confirmed five persons in Grace Church, and made an address to the congregation. At this service there were accepted, and placed upon their table a very handsome brass cross and flower vases, the gift "in memoriam" of a member of the congregation. These are by far the handsomest as yet given in the Diocese. After the service the Bishop met the Vestry for consultation.

July 10. In the same Church, baptised the infant son of the Rector, preached, and celebrated Holy Communion. Leaving Ridgway at noon, I reached Greenville after a continuous ride of six hours, and in the evening, after service in the newly opened St. Clement's Church, I made an address to the congregation, and confirmed six persons, presented by the Priest in charge, the Rev. F. J. Keech. We had the pleasure, also, at this service, of the presence and assistance of the Rev. J. D. Herron.

July 11. Returned to Pittsburgh.

July 13. Sixth Sunday after Trinity.—Celebrated Holy Communion in the Church of the Ascension, Shady Side, and attended Evensong in the same Church. Many letters and conferences, and various calls upon the sick and afflicted, occupied me during the week.

July 20. Seventh Sunday after Trinity.—At the Mountain House, Crescon, I read service and preached in the morning; and in the evening Evensong, and afterwards singing of hymns with those who chose to remain. By the courtesy of the proprietors, and with the cordial assent of many of the guests, arrangements were made for continuous services during the summer. There were also services at Ebensburg, by the Rev. Mr. Sargent, of Southern Ohio.

July 22. Made a visit to the wonderful new town of Charleroi, in Washington County, to select lots for a Church. It is astonishing to note the enterprise and progress of this busy place. It might well be expected that Christian men in laying out such large enterprises, would put aside some part of it for Christian or educational purposes, but alas! no, we "are not as the heathen" who really make sacrifices for their gods and their religion; and churches and schools have to beg their way.

July 23. Administered the Holy Communion to a sick man. Had several conferences at the Church Rooms. Busy with preparations for an absence of ten days at the seashore.

July 25. To Fisher's Island, New York.

July 27. Eighth Sunday after Trinity.—At St. John's Chapel, Fisher's Island, assisted at morning and evening prayer, and celebrated Holy Communion.

August 3. Ninth Sunday after Trinity.—In the same chapel, preached, and celebrated Holy Communion. Assisted in the service at evening prayer.

August 6. Feast of the Transfiguration.—At Trinity Chapel, Pittsburgh, after a sermon by the Rev. Wm. O. Lamson, I celebrated Holy Communion. The Rev. Messrs. Wightman and Rodgers assisted in the service, and several others of the Clergy were present in the congregation; but a very small number of the laity found time to "keep the Feast." Let us hope that every year will give proof of increased appreciation of it. Not without many good reasons has this been added to the Feasts of our Lord, commemorating as it does, the only conspicuous incident in His earthly career, hitherto unnoticed in our calendar, and yet by far the most wonderful and valuable attestation to His Divinity vouchsafed before His Resurrection.

August 10. Tenth Sunday after Trinity.—At St. Stephen's Church, McKeesport, after morning prayer read by the Rev. D. L. Fleming, I instituted the Rev. James Foster into the rectorship of the parish, and preached. The Rector celebrated the Holy Communion. In the afternoon Mr. Fleming read service, and I preached, in St. Timothy's Mission, Chartiers, service being held in the public school house. In the evening, at St. Martin's Mission, Knoxville, Mr. Fleming again read service, and I baptised two infants, and preached. It was a great pleasure to have with me all day, my dear brother and former presbyter, whose early life was entirely associated with Pittsburgh, and who received his commission both as Deacon and Priest, by the "laying on of my hands."

August 11. Called on various persons in affliction, and on the sick.

August 12. Officiated at a burial service in Pittsburgh.

August 14. Visits to the sick. Left home for recreation.

August 17. Eleventh Sunday after Trinity.—At Toronto, Canada, attended service at St. James' Cathedral, and Holy Trinity Church.

August 21. Officiated at a marriage at St. Peter's Church, Perth Amboy, New Jersey.

August 24. St. Bartholomew's Day.—Made an address, and celebrated the Holy Communion at Beaumaris Hotel, Lake Muskoka, Canada. Also addressed the people after evening prayer. The service was read by the Rev. Mr. Hart, of Toronto, Canada; and the Rev. Mr. La Roche, of our own Diocese, assisted in the music.

August 31. Thirteenth Sunday after Trinity.—At Beaumaris, read the service, and made an address morning and evening. Among the guests at the hotel, we raised enough money to purchase a lot close to the hotel and the landing place, for the erection of a Chapel. This has for some years been a mission station served by a missionary of the Diocese of Algoma.

September 7. Fourteenth Sunday after Trinity.—Attended service morning and afternoon in St. Paul's Cathedral, Buffalo.

September 8. Arrived at home safely. Attended to many letters. Gave letter of dismissal to the Rev. W. J. C. Agnew, to the Diocese of New York.

September 12.—Accepted letter dismissory in behalf of the Rev. F. Woolcott, from the Diocese of Springfield. The Rev. Mr. Woolcott has taken charge of St. Saviour's, Youngsville, and Christ Church, Tidioute.

September 13. Appointed the Rev. P. S. Mesny second General Missioner of the Diocese, to have charge of that work in connection with the Rev. Charles A. Bragdon, from October 15.

September 14. Fifteenth Sunday after Trinity.—Confined to my house by remains of sore throat, from which I had suffered during the week.

September 15, to 20. Many letters, conferences, visits, etc.

September 18. Meeting of the Committees preparing for the Missionary Council.

September 21. St. Matthew's Day.—At St. Stephen's Church, Wilkesburg, had the early celebration of Holy Communion. Later, preached at St. Paul's Church, Pittsburgh, and met the members of the vestry for a few minutes after service. In the afternoon, at Trinity Mission, Sharpsburg, the Rev. Mr. Webbe read service, and I preached. Congregational meeting afterwards. In the evening, at Trinity Church, Pittsburgh, I read service and preached.

September 22. Meeting of the Northern Convocation, at Trinity Church, New Castle. Opening service in the evening. The Rev. Y. P. Morgan, of Cleveland, preached the sermon before the Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

September 23. Celebration of the Holy Communion, in Trinity, New Castle. Business sessions of the Convocation during the day. It was a great pleasure to see the prosperity and happiness of the people of this parish, led by their energetic and faithful rector. There have been days of darkness in the past, but the prospect is full of cheer, and there seems no reason why the future should not be all bright. The ladies of the parish, with their accustomed hospitality, made the session of the Convocation very enjoyable, and the congregations were large at the public services.

September 25. Journey to Erie, where I made several calls, in company with the Rector. Then to Union City, for services and sermon in St. Matthew's Church, which had been enlarged and renovated and adorned in a beautiful manner, under the direction of the Rev. Mr. Thorn. The congregation now has a really beautiful sanctuary. And almost all the money necessary for the improvements has been raised.

September 26. To Titusville for the night.

September 27. By reason of failure in the connection of trains could not reach Smethport, but going as far as possible, remained in Bradford over night.

September 28. Seventeenth Sunday after Trinity.—Drove over to Smethport in the early morning, eighteen miles, arriving in time to preach and celebrate Holy Communion in St. Luke's Church. In the afternoon preached in All Saints' Chapel, East Smethport. In the evening preached and confirmed fifteen in St. Luke's. In this parish I found, as usual, a united and happy people, and all eagerly looking forward to the erection of their new church upon the lots recently purchased and most eligibly situated.

September 29. St. Michael and All Angels.—Celebration of the Holy Communion in St. Luke's Church; calls made and letters written. In the afternoon drove over to Port Allegany, 14 miles. In the evening preached and confirmed three candidates, presented by the Rev. W. F. Shero, in St. Joseph's Church.

September 30. In the same Church, baptized four children and celebrated Holy Communion. Then on to Emporium, where I preached, and confirmed five at the evening service in Emmanuel Church.

October 1. On my way to Clearfield, stopped at Driftwood for two hours or so; called on most of our people, and discussed the building of a Chapel. The lot has been generously given to us by Mr. J. H. Cochran, of Williamsport, and over $700 has been subscribed towards the Chapel. At noon I went on to Penfield, where the Rev. Mr. Curzon met me, and we drove over to Clearfield, 16 miles, for service, sermon and the confirmation of ten candidates at St. Andrew's Church in the evening. The Rev. Messrs Mesny and Richards met me here and accompanied me on my further journey.

October 2. To Phillipsburg, where I tarried for a few hours to confer with persons interested, concerning the outlying missions just across the line between Phillipsburg and this Diocese. In the evening, at St. Laurence's Chapel, Osceola Mills, I preached and confirmed six. Here we have a very attractive little Chapel, the gift of our faithful deacon, the Rev. Mr. Richards, ably and generously assisted by our equally faithful Lay Reader, Mr. T. J. Brereton. The Chapel is minute, and the work only in its beginning, but no one is wise who holds in small estimation a seed; because it holds within it "the promise and potency" of a great future.

October 3. In the morning baptized two infants in St. Laurence's Chapel and celebrated Holy Communion. Then on to Houtzdale. In the evening, at the Church of the Holy Trinity, I preached and confirmed seven, and afterward met the Executive Committee for conference with regard to the affairs of the parish. Found all the people hopeful and full of earnestness for the future.

October 4. Drove over to Coalport, 14 miles. Held service in the afternoon in the Lutheran Church, and baptized six children. The service was read by the Rev. Mr. Hemenway, of Punxsutawney, who had come hither to meet me. Taking the train at 5 o'clock we went on to Punxsutawney.

October 5. Eighteenth Sunday after Trinity. In the morning held service for the people of Christ Mission, Punxsutawney, in Odd Fellows' Hall; Litany, sermon, confirmation of six candidates and celebration of the Holy Communion. Then drove to Horatio, a coal mining town within a few miles of Punxsutawney, where a large congregation had gathered in the Methodist house of worship. The Bishop preached and confirmed nine. Here we have lots already given for a church and several hundred dollars subscribed. Drove to Adrian, another coal mining town in an opposite direction from Punxsutawney; one of the best cared for I have ever seen, the proprietors of the mines taking much intelligent and careful interest in their employes. Here we have a very prosperous and hopeful mission. A large congregation crowded the Union Chapel. I preached and baptized one child, confirming also six candidates. These 21 persons presented for the "Laying on of Hands" to-day are the first fruits of the ministry of the Rev. M. S. Hemenway. He has proved himself full of energy and efficiency, and his labors are acceptable to the people of the congregation. Immediately adjoining the Union Chapel is a handsome brick church and rectory belonging to the Roman Catholics, and costing somewhere in the neighborhood of $15,000, the gift of one woman, a devotee of that church. We need churches and establishments in scores of places in this Diocese. Why is it that no heart is stirred to put our Church on firm foundation in some of these crowded communities?

October 6. After visiting the Roman Church, just mentioned, and also the hospital, provided by the proprietors of the mines and ministered to largely by trained nurses of our communion, I officiated at a marriage in the Union Chapel. It was an interesting feature of the marriage that the groom received confirmation the evening before, and the bride, who had been matron at the hospital, is a member of the Guild of St. Barnabas for Nurses, of which Guild we have so prosperous a branch in Pittsburgh, and of which the Rev. Mr. Cameron and myself are chaplains. In the afternoon a long, wet drive of 26 miles, to Indiana. Whence on the next day I returned home.

October 8. Many conferences at the Church Rooms, and, in the afternoon a meeting in Trinity Chapel, to make preparations for a Junior Auxiliary meeting during the session of the Missionary Council. Gave letters dimissory to the Rev. Joseph Moran, Jr., and the Rev. J. D. Donehoo. The former goes to the Diocese of Milwaukee; the latter to the Diocese of Ohio.

October 9. Many letters and consultations. In the evening, met with a committee from S. Matthew's Mission, Homestead.

October 10. Meeting of the Laymen's Missionary League.

October 11. Gave letter dimissory to the Rev. S. Q. Miller, who goes to the Diocese of Pennsylvania. A long and efficient ministry in this diocese gives abundant evidence that he will do excellent work in the larger field to which he has been called. In the afternoon, held a service for the Inauguration of a Chime of Bells, at Trinity Church, Rochester. The occasion was one of great interest to the community, and there was a large assembly of people. Addresses were made by the Rev. W. O. Lamson, and the Bishop, and two persons were confirmed.

October 12. Nineteenth Sunday after Trinity. Sermon and Holy Communion at Trinity Church, Pittsburgh. In the afternoon, preached, and confirmed ten, at St. George's Mission, West End. Also addressed the Sunday School. In the evening, preached at St. Mark's, South Side.

October 13. Meeting of ladies to consult about improving the appearance of the church rooms. Many letters, etc., as also on the succeeding days of the week.

October 15. At the Church of the Epiphany, Bellevue, held service, and confirmed four persons, presented by the Rev. Mr. Dyess.

October 16. Administered the Holy Communion to a sick man. In the afternoon, officiated as Chaplain at the Convention of the Locomotive Engineers, at the Opera House in Pittsburgh.

October 18. St. Luke's Day. Attended service at Trinity Chapel. Many arrangements in preparation for the meeting of the Missionary Council.

October 19. Twentieth Sunday after Trinity. Journeyed to Johnstown in company with Bishop Tuttle, of Missouri, and Bishop Perry, of Iowa, who had kindly consented to grace with their presence the ceremony of the laying of the corner-stone of the new church. At 11 o'clock the Bishop of Missouri preached a most delightful, helpful sermon, and I celebrated the Holy Communion. In the afternoon, the corner-stone of St. Mark's Church was laid, after an appropriate service in the temporary chapel. Addresses were made by the Rev. Joshua Kimber, D. D., of New York, the Rev. George M. Christian, of Newark, N. J., the Bishop of Iowa, the Bishop of Missouri, and the Honorable Benjamin Stark, of Connecticut. There were also present the Rev. Messrs. Heakes, Bragdon, Mesny and Bold.

October 20. Preparations for the Council. In the afternoon, a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions of the Diocese. In the evening, a service preliminary to the meeting of the Missionary Council.

October 21. Opening service of the Missionary Council at Trinity Church, followed by business sessions during the day. In the evening I presided at a missionary meeting in Carnegie Hall.

October 22. Assisted at the celebration of the Holy Communion at Trinity Church. Sessions of the Council all day. In the afternoon, I presided at a meeting in behalf of the Junior Auxiliary at Carnegie Hall, as also at a missionary meeting in the same place in the evening.

October 23. Celebrated the Holy Communion in Trinity Church for the Diocesan Officers of the Woman's Auxiliary. Sessions of the Council, and of the House of Bishops all day until five. I had the pleasure then of entertaining twenty-five of the bishops at my house. Others had left town, or were about to leave, and could not, therefore, join their brethren in this, which was to me, of course, one of the pleasantest features of the Council.

October 24. All-day meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary, at Calvary Church; attended the opening service, made an address, and listened to some of the speeches. It was a most delightful and profitable day, as all acknowledged.

October 26. Twenty-first Sunday after Trinity. Early Celebration at the Church of the Ascension. Later, assisted in the service at Trinity Church, Pittsburgh, when the Bishop of Tennessee preached a sermon. In the afternoon, a delightful Missionary Meeting at St. Andrew's Church, when addresses were made by Bishops Talbot, Leonard, and Kendrick. In the evening, preached at St. John's Mission, Wood's Run.

October 27. Meeting of the Trustees of the Church Home. Meeting of the Trustees of the Diocese. Evening, meeting of the Executive Committee of the Laymen's Missionary League.

October 28. SS. Simon and Jude. Baptized an infant in St. Thomas' Parish, Verona.

October 29. Baptized an infant at the Church of the Ascension, Shady Side.

October 31. Officiated at a Burial service at Trinity Church, Pittsburgh, and at Allegheny Cemetery.

November 1. All Saints. Consecrated All Saints' Chapel, Johnstown, and celebrated Holy Communion. The Rev. Mr. Hodges, of Calvary Church, Pittsburgh, preached the sermon. The request to consecrate was read by the Rev. Mr. Bold, and the sentence of consecration by the Rev. Mr. Bragdon. There were also present the Rev. Messrs. Woodle, Heakes and Mesny, who assisted in the service.

Held a meeting of the parishioners in the afternoon to talk over matters connected with the new St. Mark's Church, which is being rapidly erected.

Confirmed one person in All Saints' Chapel, after the consecration services.

In the evening journeyed to Latrobe.

November 2. Twenty-second Sunday after Trinity. At Latrobe, service in Odd Fellows' Hall with the Rev. Mr. Bragdon. There were about eighty persons present and thirteen communicants. Much interest is shown by the members of this new mission, and it is hoped that substantial evidence will be given of their earnestness before very long. It seems that there was a parish organization in this town as long ago as 1835, but there has been no service there for a very long time.

In the evening, at Jeannette, we held service in a hall, the first service of our church in this new town. There were over a hundred persons present, some of them from Christ Church, Greensburg, who, with the rector and choir, came to assist in the service. But the great majority were residents of Jeannette, mostly English people; and we hear that there are forty or fifty families living there who rightly belong to the Church of England. We have two lots upon which to build, but no means at hand with which to provide a chapel. And since this first service, the hall in which we held it has been rented to be turned into a tenement, and we are therefore unable at present to promise regular services.

Spent the night at Greensburg.

November 3. In company with the Rev. Messrs. Bragdon and Mesny I visited Wilmerding, a town rapidly increasing in size, and the centre of a large population. Looked at lots to see if there were any appropriate for a church. In the afternoon met with the clergy of Pittsburgh at a social gathering at the Rev. Mr. Hodges'.

November 4. Went to Georgetown to visit an aged church woman who is ill. Several conferences at the church rooms.

November 5. Letters all day, and several visits in the evening.

November 6. With Rev Mr. Bragdon, visited Coraopolis, to hunt up church people, and see what prospects there are for a mission.

In the afternoon assisted at a burial service at St. Peter's Church, Pittsburgh.

November 7. Made several visits upon poor people who had been reported as belonging to our church in a portion of the city remote from any church. This I did in company with a very earnest church worker, who, with others, is desirous to have a mission established in that district. We made further inquiries a few days later, but did not find encouragement for immediate action.

In the evening the monthly meeting of the Guild of St. Barnabas for Nurses, held in Christ Church, Allegheny. One new member was received, and the Rev. Mr. Lamson made an address.

November 9. Twenty-third Sunday after Trinity. Celebrated Holy Communion at the Church of the Ascension, Shady Side. Morning service and sermon at Christ Church, Allegheny, with an address on Diocesan Missions.

In the afternoon preached for St. Cyprian's Mission, baptized one child and confirmed five candidates presented by the Lay Reader, Mr. Bratt.

In the evening preached at St. Luke's Church.

November 10. In Allegheny, confirmed a woman for St. Cyprian's Mission. Many visits and conferences this and other days of this week.

November 11. Attended the funeral of Chancellor Goff, of the Western University.

In the afternoon a meeting of laymen was held at the church rooms. The Bishop brought to the notice of those present the great increase in the number of suburban towns, and the need for church buildings and church services among those rapidly increasing communities, especially at Charleroi, Jeannette and Wilmerding. After discussion, the following resolution was adopted: Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed, with the Bishop as chairman, to consider this matter, and to formulate some suggestions to be presented at a future meeting. After further discussion it was resolved that this committee be requested to increase their number by the addition of five other laymen; and to take into consideration the whole matter of church extension in the city and outlying towns, with a view to furthering the more general interest of the laymen of the city in the church's advancement. It is hoped that from these resolutions something practical may ere long result. Certainly no more important matter presents itself to those who would have our church do its duty in the field which God has given us.

November 13. Visited a sick woman.

November 14. Visits to sick people.

November 15. Meeting of the Trustees of the Western University.

November 16. Twenty-fourth Sunday after Trinity. Read service at Trinity Church, Pittsburgh, preached and made an address in behalf of Diocesan Missions. After service, baptized a child.

In the evening, at St. Matthew's Chapel, Homestead, addressed the congregation, preached and baptized four children.

After the service met the Executive Committee of the Mission. The people seem much encouraged, and the attendance at the services held by the Lay Evangelist is very good. The Mission is now served regularly by Mr. D. W. Williams, under the immediate direction of the Bishop, and has been thus taken under the care of the Laymen's Missionary League.

November 19. Many letters, visits and conferences during this week. Committee on Church Extension.

November 22. To Greenville, where in the evening I preached in St. Clement's Church, newly repaired and adorned, and confirmed seven candidates presented by the Rev. F. J. Keech. It is surprising to see the progress that has been made in this parish during the five or six months since the Rev. Mr. Keech has had charge of it. A Sunday School Chapel has been added, new pews for the church provided, the floors entirely carpeted and three handsome stained glass windows added. Best of all, the expense of these improvements has been provided for, and the ladies and all the people are harmoniously and zealously at work. It was a great encouragement to make this visitation.

In the afternoon, driving over to Mercer, we were able to have a service in Grace Church in the evening, when the Rev. Mr. Keech read the service and the Bishop baptized a child and preached.

November 24. Administered Holy Communion to an aged church woman and then returned to Pittsburgh.

November 26. Officiated at a funeral in Trinity Church, Pittsburgh, and Allegheny Cemetery.

November 17. Thanksgiving Day. Celebrated Holy Communion at the Church of the Ascension.

November 29. Opened the session of "The King's Daughters" with prayer. Meeting of the Committee on Church Extension at the Church Rooms.

November 30. First Sunday in Advent. Preached and celebrated Holy Communion at the Church of the Ascension. Attended evening prayer at Calvary Church, Pittsburgh.

December 3. Preached in the evening at the Church of the Advent, Philadelphia, one of a series of sermons commemorative of the semi-centennial of the parish.

December 6. Spent a portion of the day at Johnstown, inspecting the new church, and consulting with the rector and the Rev. Mr. Bragdon. In the evening went on to Indiana.

December 7. Second Sunday in Advent. Service, sermon and Holy Communion at Christ Church, Indiana. Sunday School service in the afternoon with an address. Evening. Service and sermon at the same place.

December 8. Gave consent to the consecration of the Rev. Dr. H. Melville Jackson, as Assistant Bishop of Alabama. In the evening a meeting of the Laymen's League in the Church Rooms.

December 9. In the evening opened with a service of benediction, the new Chapel of the Transfiguration erected by the Trinity Church chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew's. Addresses were made by the Rev. Mr. Lamson and the Bishop.

December 10. Meeting of the Committee on Canons.

December 12. Meeting of persons interested in the formation of a Church Extension Society, which was organized by the adoption of a constitution, which will soon be submitted to the acceptance of as many laymen as possible in the City of Pittsburgh and vicinity. The whole object of the society will be to obtain annual subscriptions for the erection of churches, from $5.00 upwards, so that there shall always be a fund from which donations may be given or loans made for that purpose. Particulars will be given before long, and it is hoped that many will see the wisdom and practical utility of the plan.

Gave letter dimissory in behalf of the Rev. S. D. Day to the Diocese of Central New York.

December 13. Journeyed to Meyersdale.

December 14. Third Sunday in Advent. In Trinity Church, Meyersdale, preached, baptized one infant, confirmed two persons and celebrated the Holy Communion. In the evening preached again, the service being read by the Rev. R. T. Jefferson.

December 15. Presided at a lecture delivered by Dr. Falkner, of Germantown, in Trinity Chapel, before the Laymen's League.

December 18. Called, as is my annual custom on this date, to see our venerable father, the Rev. Dr. Crumpton, to pay him my respects, to offer congratulations and best wishes for a new year of life. This year it was his ninety-second birthday, and, though feeble in body, he was full of interest in what is going on in church and State, and looks forward to the end of life with the serene confidence of one long "at peace with God."

Accepted the Rev. H. J. Beagan from the Diocese of Ohio. The Rev. Mr. Beagan takes charge of St. Mary's, Beaver Falls, and St. Paul's, Fairview.

December 20. Ember Day. Spent the evening in devotion and conference with the Rev. Messrs. Brown and Hemenway, to be advanced to the priesthood on the morrow.

December 21. Fourth Sunday in Advent. A very full and busy day. I preached in the Church of the Ascension, ordained two priests and celebrated Holy Communion. The candidates were presented, the Rev. Mr.

Brown by the Rev. Mr. Danner, and the Rev. Mr. Hemenway by the Rev. Mr. Mesny. With these united in the laying on of hands the Rev. Messrs. Grange and McLure. In the afternoon the Rev. Messrs. Brown and Danner accompanied me to Chartiers, where I found St. Timothy's Mission in a prosperous and hopeful condition. After evening prayer I preached and confirmed four persons, presented by the Rev. Mr. Brown, the chaplain of the Layman's League. Then we trudged a long distance through the snow and taking a skiff, ferried the Ohio to Wood's Run, where, in the chapel used by St. John's Mission, I baptized three infants and preached, returning home at eleven.

December 22. Presided at a lecture in Trinity Chapel delivered by the Rev. Mr. Hodges before the Layman's League.

December 25. Christmas Day. Celebration of the Holy Communion at the Church of the Ascension.

December 27. Officiated at a burial service in the Church of the Ascension, Pittsburgh.

December 28. Innocents' Day. Celebrated Holy Communion with a sick person. In the evening preached and confirmed five in St. Stephen's Church, Wilkinsburg.

January 4, 1891. Second Sunday after Christmas. In the evening preached at Calvary Church. During the week many conferences in the church rooms and calls upon the sick, etc.

January 11. First Sunday after the Epiphany. Preached at St. Peter's Church, Pittsburgh.

January 13. Accepted letters dimissory in behalf of the Rev. R. T. Jefferson from the Bishop of Indian Territory.

January 14. Celebrated a marriage at Trinity Church, Pittsburgh.

January 16. Went to Oil City, where in the evening at Christ Church I confirmed eight persons and addressed them.

January 17. Journeyed to Bradford, and in the evening held a conference with the Vestry of the Church of the Ascension.

January 18. Second Sunday after the Epiphany. Sermon and Holy Communion in the chapel used by the congregation of the Church of the Ascension, Bradford; also made an address to the congregation concerning their present condition and prospects. Their church having been burned down several months ago, they are now about to erect another. The parish is at present under the efficient care of the Rev. W. O. Lamson. In the afternoon held services with the Sunday school, baptised two infants and addressed the children. In the evening preached.

January 19. In company with the Rev. Mr. Lamson, inspected plans for the new church, and made a number of parochial visits. In the evening enjoyed a reception kindly tendered by members of the parish; later took the train for Pittsburgh.

January 20. Gave license to the Rev. F. J. J. Smith, a clergyman of the English Church, to officiate temporarily in this diocese, he being in charge of Grace Church, Ridgway, at present.

January 25. Septuagesima. At St. Paul's Church in the morning made an anniversary address to the congregation, preached, confirmed eight persons, and celebrated the Holy Communion. The church has been cleaned and renovated. Plans for a parish house are in progress; the new rector, the Rev. J. R. Wightman, has taken hold of the work with great enthusiasm, and is being heartily seconded in all his projects by both old and young in the congregation. The beloved and venerable Dr. Crumpton, in his ninety-third year, gave us the benediction of his presence at this service, although unable because of increasing infirmity to take any official part. In the afternoon, in company with the Rev. Mr. Wightman, I visited Trinity Mission, Sharpsburg, one of the missions of the Laymen's League, where I found the hall used by our congregation filled with an interesting audience. I baptized an infant, preached, and confirmed six candidates. In the evening addressed the congregation at St. John's Church, preached and confirmed a class of thirty-nine, presented by the Rev. Mr. Webbe. The church was crowded, the surpliced choir well trained, more orderly and devout in behavior than is sometimes the case; and all hearts in the congregation full of courage and hope, because of the bright prospects of St. John's parish in the erection soon of a handsome church.

January 26. Conferences at the church rooms.

January 28. A wedding at Brownsville.

January 29. Reception of the Laymen's Missionary League at the Academy of Science and Art, Pittsburgh.

January 30. Conference with a committee from a suburban parish.

January 31. At Washington visited Trinity Hall, and in the evening in Trinity Church preached and confirmed four persons.

February 1. Sexagesima. After morning Prayer and Litany in Trinity Church, catechized and addressed the Sunday school, and later preached and celebrated Holy Communion. In the afternoon, with the rector, drove to Canonsburg, where in the rink we had service with a very large congregation and the Bishop preached and confirmed three. In the evening at the same place we had another service with addresses by the Rev. Mr. Cowper and myself. There seems every prospect for a mission at Canonsburg where long years ago there was a parish started, in the days of Bishop Kerfoot.

February 2. Purification. In the morning at the Church Home, Pittsburgh, the Rev. Mr. Hodges made the address and I celebrated Holy Communion. In the afternoon the Rev. Mr. Webbe, Chaplain, catechized the children, and I made an address.

February 3. Attended a meeting of the House of Bishops at the Diocesan House, New York.

February 4. Returned to Pittsburgh and presided at a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions at church rooms in the evening.

February 5. Quiet day for women at Trinity Chapel, Pittsburgh. The addresses were made by the Rev. Dr. C. S. Bates, of Cleveland. I celebrated Holy Communion and assisted him in the other services of the day. In the evening at Calvary Church presided at a Missionary meeting and made an address in behalf of Diocesan Missions. I was prevented from enjoying the sessions of the Southern Convocation which met during the day.

February 6. Quiet day for the clergy at the Church of the Ascension at Shadyside. The addresses were made by the Rev. Dr. Bates, as on the day previous. In the presence of the clergy I read the Sentence of Deposition of the Rev. James Harvey Gray, Deacon, who declared in writing his renunciation of the ministry. The causes of such renunciation were, as far as I know and believe, not such as affect his moral character.

February 7. Journeyed to New Castle where, in the evening, I met many of the church people.

February 8. Quinquagesima. Visited the Sunday school, preached and celebrated Holy Communion. In the evening preached and confirmed twelve, and also made an address to the congregation.

February 9. Journeyed to Springfield, Ohio, to fulfill some appointments in behalf of Bishop Vincent. In the evening at the Church of the Heavenly Rest preached and confirmed seven.

February 10. In the same city preached in the evening at Christ Church and confirmed five, one of whom was a deaf mute, presented by the Rev. Mr. Mann.

February 11. Ash Wednesday. In the morning at Christ Church, Dayton, preached, and confirmed sixteen. In the evening at the church in Hamilton, preached and confirmed eight.

February 12. In the evening at St. Andrew's Chapel, Addyston, preached and confirmed three.

February 13. In the evening at the Church of the Resurrection, Fern Bank, preached and confirmed six.

February 15. First Sunday in Lent. At Grace Church, College Hill, addressed the Sunday School, preached and confirmed four. Drove seven miles to Hartwell, where I preached and confirmed eleven. Drove seven miles to Church of the Epiphany, Walnut Hills, where in the evening I preached again and confirmed five.

February 16. Attended the Noonday Lenten meeting in Cincinnati, and in the evening at Church of the Nativity, Price Hill, preached and confirmed three.

February 17. Traveled to Portsmouth, where in the evening at All Saints' Church I preached and confirmed seven.

February 18. In the same city, in Christ Church, preached and confirmed seven.

February 19. At Circleville, in St. Philip's Church, took part in the service and made an address at Even-song, and in the evening preached and confirmed eleven.

February 20. Returned to Pittsburg. Correspondence, conferences and visits occupied the next two days.

February 22. Second Sunday in Lent. At Calvary Church, Pittsburgh, Rev. D. W. Rhodes, of Cincinnati, preached the sermon and I confirmed thirty-two persons; afterwards confirmed two in private. In the afternoon at the Mission of the Incarnation, Knoxville, I read service and preached, and afterwards met the Executive Committee and congregation to talk over their financial matters. In the evening at St. Peter's Church occurred the anniversary of the Laymen's Missionary League. The service was very hearty and the congregation very large. Seven lay evangelists and seven lay readers were publicly licensed to their respective offices. The Rev. D. W. Rhodes preached the anniversary sermon.

February 24. St. Matthias. This is the day for the annual meeting of the Layman's Missionary League. It began with a celebration of the Holy Communion in Trinity Chapel, after which the election of officers took place, and various reports were read. The meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary took place also this morning at Trinity Chapel, which meeting I opened with prayer and short address. At noon baptized an infant in Trinity Church.

February 25. Conference at the church rooms. Gave Letter Dimissory to the Rev. William Thorn to the Diocese of New Jersey. Accepted letter Dimissory in behalf of the Rev. A. A. Bresee from the Diocese of Ohio. The Rev. Mr. Bresee comes to us to take the position of assistant in St. Mark's Parish, Johnstown.

March 1. Third Sunday in Lent. At New Haven addressed the Sunday school at Trinity Church, and later preached, confirmed six, and celebrated Holy Communion. In the evening at St. Peter's, Uniontown, preached and confirmed seven.

March 2. Confirmed one person in private at Uniontown, and made several visits. Then to Scottdale, where I preached in the evening in the German Reformed Church, and confirmed four persons. Conference with a minister desiring to come into the ministry of this church.

March 3. In the evening at the church rooms met a committee from one of our rural parishes. Also attended a meeting of the St. Barnabas' Guild for nurses, at Christ Church, Allegheny.

March 4. Meeting of the Church Extension Society.

March 5. Left home for visitations in Southern Ohio. In the afternoon, at Trinity Church, Newark, attended a service for deaf mutes, held by the Rev. W. A. Mann, and confirmed four deaf mutes, presented by him. In the evening preached and confirmed eighteen (one of them a deaf mute,) presented by the rector, the Rev. H. C. Johnson.

March 6. At the Church of the Epiphany, Urbana, after Evening Prayer I preached and confirmed four persons, presented by the Rev. F. J. Mallett.

March 7. At Piqua met some of the parishioners of St. James' Church at the rectory, by the kind courtesy of the Rev. and Mrs. Ramsey.

March 8. Fourth Sunday in Lent. Preached and confirmed nineteen, and celebrated Holy Communion at St. James' Church, Piqua. In the evening at St. Paul's, Greenville, preached and confirmed nine, presented by the Rev. Mr. Sykes.

March 9. Many visits in Greenville, and then on to Xenia. In the evening at Christ Church, after service by the Rev. Mr. Young, of Springfield, and Mr. Bope, a lay reader in charge of Xenia, I baptized two adults, and confirmed twenty-five persons. This large class is a striking illustration of what can be done, and well done, by a faithful, zealous and prudent lay reader. I am hopeful that this agency will be used more and more in our own Diocese.

March 10. Various visits in Xenia, then a very delightful visit to the Home for Orphans of Soldiers and Sailors, where eight hundred children are most bountifully cared for by the State of Ohio. The institution is well worth a visit, and it was gratifying to find among the efficient teachers and matrons, quite a number of our own church people. In the afternoon journeyed to London, where I preached in the evening at Trinity Church and confirmed six, presented by another efficient lay reader, Mr. Rambo, who has charge of the parish. This closed my round of visitations in Southern Ohio, in which I officiated in twenty-three services, preached nineteen sermons, made twenty-five addresses, and confirmed one hundred and seventy-eight persons. It was a great pleasure to meet so many earnest Christian people, and to have experience of their delightful hospitality. I count it also a privilege to have been able to assist, in any manner, my dear brother, the Assistant Bishop of Southern Ohio, for whose speedy return in renewed health and vigor we offered our united prayers at all these visitations.

March 11. Returned to Pittsburgh and found much to occupy me during the remainder of the week, in correspondence and conferences.

March 12. Read Evening Prayer at the Church of the Ascension.

March 13. Made an address at the noon meeting at Trinity, Pittsburgh.

March 15. Fifth Sunday in Lent. In Christ Church, Meadville. Visited the infant class. Later, preached and celebrated Holy Communion. In the afternoon, preached at St. Andrew's Chapel, Vallonia. Also addressed the Parish Sunday school in Christ Church. In the evening preached and confirmed thirty persons, presented by the Rev. Mr. Israel.

March 16. Confirmed one sick person in private. Assisted at Evening Prayer.

March 17. Went on to Conneautville, where I was met by the Rev. Mr. Mesny, and we had a service and a sermon in the afternoon. Then going on to Miles Grove, we had a service at night, and I preached and confirmed two persons, in Grace Church.

March 18. In the evening, at the Church of the Holy Cross, Northeast, I preached and confirmed three, and made an address of congratulation to the congregation with regard to the adornments and repairs made upon their church building, and with regard to the prospects for the future.

March 19. Going to Erie we met a special train, provided by the courtesy of our good friend, Maj. Reynolds, to take the clergy to Waterford. There in St. Peter's Church, after service by the Rev. Messrs. Huske and Mesny, (the Rev. Mr. Fleming being also present.) I preached. In the afternoon went on to Corry, where in the evening, at Emanuel Church, I preached and confirmed twenty-seven, presented by the Rev. Mr. Schepeler.

March 20. Confirmed two persons in private, making twenty-nine in all; then to Union City, where in St. Matthew's Church, I baptized two children, confirmed three persons, preached and celebrated Holy Communion. In the evening at Trinity Chapel, Erie, I preached and confirmed six, presented by the Rev. Mr. Huske.

March 21. Confirmed one person in private for St. Paul's Parish. Various calls. Met the vestry of St. Paul's socially in the evening.

March 22. Palm Sunday. Addressed the Sunday school at Cross and Crown Church, Erie. Also, the Sunday school of St. John's, Rev. A. Fleming, where I preached and confirmed seven, and celebrated Holy Communion. In the afternoon, at Cross and Crown, preached and confirmed twenty-seven, presented by the Rev. Mr. Price. In the evening, at St. Paul's preached and confirmed twenty-six presented by the Rev. Mr. Huske.

March 23. Monday before Easter. Confirmed one person in private for St. Paul's, making in all thirty-four for that parish. In the evening, at St. Saviour's Church, Youngsville, I preached and addressed the congregation, and confirmed two persons, presented by the Rev. Mr. Woolcott.

March 24. Tuesday before Easter. Holy Communion in the same church. Then to Warren, where I confirmed one person in private for Trinity Church. Then to Kinzua, where we were called to service in St. Luke's Church by the loud tones of the new bell, procured by the zeal and energy of the Rev. Dr. Ryan and the people. Service was read by the Rev. Dr. Ryan and the Rev. Messrs. Lamson and Mesny. The Bishop preached and confirmed seventeen, a wonderfully large class for this small community. It is the fruit of much labor on the part of Dr. Ryan and the general missionaries and other clergy of the Diocese who have visited Kinzua, and who have given instruction and exhortation to the people. The same gratifying results might be achieved in many other places in the Diocese if like missionary zeal were shown by neighboring rectors. The experiment is worth trying.

March 25. Feast of the Annunciation. Holy Communion at Kinzua, and one more person confirmed. In the afternoon, at Trinity Church, Warren, one person was confirmed whose engagements prevented her being present with the class at the later service. At four o'clock the Rev. Mr. Mesny preached, and I confirmed twenty-three persons, presented by the Rev. Dr. Ryan. These with the class at Kinzua, make the number presented by him, forty-three. In the evening, at Christ Church, Tidioute, I preached and confirmed two, presented by the Rev. Mr. Woolcott.

March 26. Maundy Thursday. Holy Communion in the same church, with an address. Also confirmed one person. Then journeyed to Oil City. In the afternoon, in Christ Church, made an address, and set apart for their holy uses a silver chalice and paten, presented by the Young People's Society. In the evening preached and confirmed twenty-seven, presented by the Rev. Mr. Brooks.

March 28. Easter Even. Took part in the service at Evening Prayer in the Church of the Ascension.

March 29. Easter Day. Early Communion at the Church of the Ascension. Later, at St. Luke's Church, Pittsburgh, confirmed sixteen, and celebrated Holy Communion. In the afternoon visited St. Luke's Sunday school, and also that of St. James' Church. Later, confirmed fourteen at St. James'. In the evening preached and confirmed eleven in the Church of the Ascension.

March 30. Calls on the sick and afflicted. Meeting of the Church Extension Society.

March 31 to April 3. Much correspondence and many conferences, visits to the sick and afflicted, etc., etc.

April 3. With Rev. M. Bragdon visited Johnstown to inspect the Church and make arrangements for its consecration. In the evening at Jeannette, in the hall occupied by St. Stephen's Mission, I preached and confirmed eight persons. This mission is developing considerable strength under the care of the Rev. Mr. Van Waters, of Greensburg.

April 4. Meeting of Trustees of the Diocese.

April 5. First Sunday after Easter. At Emmanuel Church, Allegheny, preached, confirmed sixteen and celebrated Holy Communion. In the afternoon visited the Sunday School, large in numbers and most successful in operation. Later, held service and preached for S. Cyprian's congregation. In the evening preached at Trinity, Pittsburgh, and confirmed sixteen presented by the Rev. R. Hudson.

April 6. Calls on the sick and bereaved. Meeting of choir masters. Meeting of Church Extension Society.

April 7. Administered the Holy Communion to a dying woman. In the evening, service for S. Barnabas' Guild for Nurses at the Church of the Ascension.

April 8. Many letters and visits. Evening prayer at Church of the Ascension.

April 9. Officiated at a burial service.

April 10. In the evening at the Church of the Atonement, Mansfield, preached and confirmed seven presented by the Rev. N. N. Badger.

April 11. Meeting of Church Extension Society.

April 12. Second Sunday after Easter. At St. Peter's Church, Pittsburgh. Preached and confirmed twenty six, also baptized an infant. In the afternoon preached at St. Andrew's Church, Pittsburgh, and confirmed fourteen. In the evening at Grace Church, preached and confirmed ten.

April 13. Assisted at a burial service. Many errands, letters, calls, etc. Meeting of Laymen's Missionary League.

April 13. At Christ Church, Greensburg; preached and confirmed seven.

April 14. In Philadelphia, at the Academy of Music, officiated as chaplain at the Commencement of Jefferson Medical College.

April 15. In New York, at the Church of the Holy Communion, celebrated the Blessed Sacrament at the annual meeting of the Council of St. Barnabas' Guild for Nurses. I was assisted in the service by the Rev. Mr. Mottet and Archdeacon Mackay-Smith. Mr. Mottet most hospitably entertained the members of the Council at luncheon in the rectory of the Church, and after luncheon kindly showed us over the many delightful charities connected with his parish—the Old Woman's Home, chapel, school rooms, baby shelter, etc. At the business session of the Council I presided. It was pleasant to meet so many of those particularly interested in the Guild of St. Barnabas', especially as the progress and zeal of our Pittsburgh branch seem to be gladly appreciated by the Council and members in general.

April 17. Arriving at Johnstown in the morning, inspected the church, and conferred with the Rector about the consecration services on May 31st. Then on to Braddock, where I preached in All Saint's Church—a most attractive and complete affair it is—and confirmed nineteen presented by the Rev. Dr. Irvine.

April 19. Third Sunday after Easter. At Hazelwood; addressed the children at the Church of the Good Shepherd. Afterwards preached, confirmed sixteen, and celebrated Holy Communion. In the evening, at S. Stephen's Church, McKeesport, I preached and confirmed twenty-nine.

April 20. Took part in the exercises at the installation of Dr. Holland as Chancellor of the Western University. Also attended a meeting of the Trustees. Met with committee from S. George's, West End. Evening Benediction of Rectory of Calvary Church.

April 21. Met various committees and persons at the church rooms. Accepted Rev. F. E. Badger, from Diocese of Central New York.

April 22. A long journey all day to Bradford, stopping for an hour at Foxburg. In the evening, in the chapel of the Church of the Ascension, Bradford, confirmed a class of twelve and addressed them. Of the clergy there were present the Rev. Messrs. Lamson, Ryan, Israel, Bragdon, Mesny and Keech, assembled for a session of the Northern Convocation, and for the laying of the corner-stone of the new Church at Bradford.

April 23. Laid the corner-stone of the new Church of the Ascension. All the arrangements were most admirable and complete, and nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of the occasion. The weather was beautiful and the prospects for the future seemed as unclouded as the sky. Addresses were made by the Bishop, the Rev. Dr. Ryan, the Rev. Mr. Lamson and Mr. C. L. Wheeler. A bounteous collation was provided by the ladies after the services were over. The clergy are much indebted to the thoughtfulness and hospitality of the Rev. Mr. Lamson and the vestry for a delightful morning.

Leaving Bradford at noon with the Rev. Messrs. Mesny and Keech, I journeyed to Ridgeway, where I preached in the evening and confirmed seven, presented by the Rev. Dr. Smith, priest in charge.

April 24. Various calls in Ridgeway. Then to Sugar Hill, where I preached in the evening at the Church of the Intercessor, and confirmed eight, several of them from the Brockwayville Mission.

April 25. S. Mark's Day. Holy Communion at the same Church. Later, administered the sacrament to a sick person; then journeyed to Dubois.

April 26. Fourth Sunday after Easter. Morning prayer at the Church of Our Saviour, Dubois, and baptized one adult. Later, preached, confirmed a class of thirty-three, presented by the Rev. Mr. Hemenway, and celebrated Holy Communion. After service baptized an infant. In the afternoon drove to Reynoldsville and preached in the Lutheran Church for the Mission there, the "Church of the Holy Spirit." In the evening at the Opera House in Dubois, preached to a large congregation. We were glad to have with us in the services of the day the Rev. Mr. Van Waters, formerly rector here, and now about to take his departure for S. David's parish, East Portland, Oregon. He leaves many friends behind him here and at Greensburg and elsewhere in the Diocese, who all unite in best wishes for the future. Everything at Dubois gives abundant promise for the future growth and prosperity of the parish.

April 27. On to Punxsutawney. Service at the new chapel (S. Columba's) at Horatio, and a conference with the Trustees and people about money matters. In the evening in the Union Chapel at Adrian, I preached.

April 28. Drove twenty miles in the early morning to Brookville, being indebted for this delightful ride, as always when at Adrian for most abounding hospitality and many kindnesses, to Mr. and Mrs. Haskell, of New York. Arrived at Brookville, the Bishop consecrated Trinity Church; preached the sermon and confirmed ten persons presented by the Rev. Mr. Kimball. There were also present of the clergy, the Rev. Messrs. Bragdon, Mesny and Hemenway. In the afternoon we took the train for Oak Ridge, and at four o'clock I laid the corner-stone of the Church of the Good Shepherd at that place, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Barber, who is minister in charge, and the Rev. Messrs. Bragdon, Mesny and Kimball. The weather was bright and inspiring, and the presence of a brass band gave great eclat to the occasion.

The erection of this chapel is in well deserved recognition of the faithful work of the Rev. Mr. Barber, who at Oak Ridge and at Fairmount has sown good seed, which we are sure cannot possibly come to nought. His efforts have been most efficiently seconded by lay people in both places, and the names of Baker, Harper, Lace and others should not be forgotten. In the evening, at the hall in Fairmount, used by the Mission of the Redeemer, the Bishop baptized one infant and two adults, preached and confirmed ten persons.

April 29. Officiated at a marriage in Pittsburgh.

April 30. In St. Mary's Church, Red Bank, after service by the Rev. Messrs. Dimmick and Mesny, I preached, confirmed eight and celebrated Holy Communion. The Rev. Mr. Mesny accompanied me to Lawsonham, where we had service in the school-house in the evening.

May 1. Ss. Philip and James.' Holy Communion at Lawsonham, where I confirmed two persons. Then on to Titusville where, in the evening, at St. James' Church, I preached and confirmed eight, presented by the Rev. Dr. Purdon.

May 3. Fifth Sunday after Easter. In St. John's Church, Franklin, preached, confirmed eleven, presented by the Rev. Mr. Yewens, and celebrated Holy Communion. Then on to Foxburg, where, in the Church of Our Father, I addressed the congregation, preached and confirmed nine, presented by the Rev. Mr. Angell.

May 4. Rogation Day. Journeyed to Kittanning and in the evening drove over to Ford City with the Rev. Mr. La Roche, and held service and preached in the Methodist Church. Drove back to Kittanning.

May 5. Rogation Day. In the evening, at the Church of the Holy Innocents, Leechburg, preached, and confirmed five persons, presented by the Rev. Mr. Bragdon.

May 6. Rogation Day. Returned home and received into the Church by confirmation, Mr. M. H. Hill, late minister of the Reformed (German) Church. Gave letter dimissory in behalf of the Rev. E. L. Ogilby, to the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

May 7. Ascension Day. At Trinity Church, Rochester, preached and confirmed nine, presented by the Rev. Mr. Danner. Also celebrated Holy Communion. In the evening, at Christ Church, New Brighton, confirmed two persons in private, preached and confirmed twelve candidates, and also conferred with the vestry.

May 8. Preached in St. John's Church, Sharon, and confirmed six persons, presented by the Rev. Mr. Williams.

May 10. Sunday after Ascension. At Sewickley, in St. Stephen's Church, catechised the children of the Sunday School, and afterwards preached, confirmed nine, presented by the Rev. Mr. Benton, and celebrated Holy Communion. In the evening, presided at the anniversary service of the Church Home, held in St. Andrew's Church, Pittsburgh.

May 11. Many letters. Lecture on Moral Philosophy at Bishop Bowman Institute. The meeting of the Trustees of the Western University. In the evening a meeting of the Laymen's Missionary League. Gave letter dimissory in behalf of the Rev. Charles A. Morrill to the Diocese of New Hampshire.

May 12. Letters, lecture at the Bishop Bowman Institute. In the evening service and meeting of the St. Barnabas Guild for Nurses at Christ Church, Allegheny.

May 13, 14. Letters and conferences. Lectures at the Bishop Bowman Institute.

May 15. Meeting of the trustees of the Church Home.

May 16. Meeting of the Church Extension Society. In the evening, at the Church of the Epiphany, Bellevue, I preached and confirmed nine, presented by the Rev. Mr. Dyess.

May 17. Whitsun-day. Sermon and Holy Communion at the Church of the Epiphany, Bellevue. Appointments made for the evening were, by request, postponed.

May 19. Tuesday in Whitsun week. Meeting of the Committee on Prayer Book Revision.

May 22. Ember Day. In the evening at St. Peter's Church, Butler, I preached and confirmed ten, presented by the Rev. Mr. London.

May 23. Returned to Pittsburgh and thence to Beaver Falls.

May 24. Trinity Sunday. Morning prayer with the Sunday school of St. Mary's, Beaver Falls, after which I catechized the children. I found the school well versed, and evidently well trained in many ways. There is great hope for any parish where the Sunday school work is carefully maintained. At the later service I preached and celebrated Holy Communion. In the evening preached again in the same church and confirmed twelve, presented by the Rev. Mr. Beagan.

May 25. Meeting of the trustees of the Bishop Bowman Institute.

May 26. At St. James' Church, Pittsburgh, I preached and confirmed twenty-one candidates, which, with the class presented on Easter Day, makes the total for the year in St. James' parish, thirty-five.

May 27. Visited Greensburg for the purpose of inspecting the church and conferring with the people concerning the continuance of services. Then to Indiana for the same purpose.

May 28. To Johnstown to assist in preparations for the consecration of the church on Sunday. In the evening returned to Pittsburgh.

May 30. Returned to Johnstown where the clergy were busy during the day getting the church in order and receiving those who had come to attend the service of consecration. Among them was Bishop Dudley, of Kentucky, who had kindly consented to preach the sermon. In the evening was held the service for the benediction of the various memorial gifts, lectern, pulpit, chapel, altar, litany desk, choir stalls, organ, memorial altar and reredos, and various smaller things. There was a good attendance and the service was most impressive. We know that our food is sanctified by the word of God and prayer, and it seemed especially appropriate that in the Johnstown Church the many expressions of remembrance of those who are departed should be particularly set apart in the same way.

May 31. First Sunday after Trinity. This was the second anniversary of the terrible catastrophe at Johnstown, and we were very glad to be able to consecrate the new church on this day. There were present of the clergy the following, beside the Bishop of the Diocese and the Bishop of Kentucky, namely, the Rev. Mr. Richards, the Rev. Mr. Bragdon, the Rev. Mr. Mesny, the Rev. Mr. Bresee, the Rev. Mr. Webbe, the Rev. Mr. Woodle, of Altoona, the Rev. C. S. Field, of Philadelphia, the Rev. H. Swentzel, of Scranton, and the Rev. Mr. Bold, rector of the parish. We had a joyous service, not unmingled with tears, and a strong, instructive, helpful sermon, from the Bishop of Kentucky. There was a large number of communicants with representatives from Philadelphia, Lancaster, Pittsburgh, Greensburg, Blairsville, Indiana and other places, near and far. May "the Lord graciously remember all our offerings and accept our burnt sacrifice, grant us our hearts' desire, and fulfill all our mind."

In the afternoon at All Saints' Chapel, Moxham, I confirmed a class of eleven, presented by the Rev. Mr. Bold, and addresses were made by the Rev. Messrs. Woodle and Swentzel. In the evening at St. Mark's Church, after choral even-song, addresses were made by the Bishop of Kentucky and the Rev. Messrs. Swintzel and Field. It was a happy and most successful day, filled with blessing.

June 1. Celebration of the Holy Communion in the side chapel of the new church. This is a beautiful feature of the plan, which can be cordially commended to any who are building churches, as affording an attractive place for early celebrations and for week-day services. It was very gratifying that thirty communicants should be present at an early hour, to whom Father Field made a short, affectionate farewell address, before taking his departure across the sea, perhaps nevermore to return.

June 2. Many letters and conferences in Pittsburgh, and preparations for the consecration of Christ Church, Meadville. In the evening a meeting of St. Barnabas' Guild for Nurses, at Emanuel Church, Allegheny. I made an address and admitted seven nurses and one associate. Gave letter dimissory to the Rev. G. A. Carstinsen to the Diocese of New York.

June 3. Journeyed to Meadville. In the evening, after evening prayer in Christ Church, read by the Rev. Mr. Dealey, of Western New York, and the Rev. Mr. Mesny, I confirmed a class of thirty-eight, presented by the Rev. Israel, making a total of sixty-nine for the year. At the close of the service the large congregation moved into the new parish house, where, after singing, prayers and addresses, the building was formally declared open for its various purposes. Most admirably is it adapted for all the uses of a parish building. On the basement floor are kitchen and dining hall, lavatory and bath-rooms. The dining hall will be ordinarily used as a gymnasium for the young men of the parish guilds. On the second floor is the Sunday-school room, library and class-rooms, etc. On the third floor is a large drill-room for the Knights of Temperance, a reading-room and a game-room. Nothing could be more complete and satisfactory. And the zealous rector and his most helpful parishioners may well feel proud and thankful for their achievements in this as in many other things.

June 4. The great event for which many preparations have been made took place to-day, namely, the consecration of Christ Church, Meadville. As early as 6 o'clock in the morning sixty-five communicants were present, and sixty-three at the second celebration at 8:30. The consecration service began a quarter before 11, and the church was crowded, and the music most beautifully rendered by the large choir of men and boys, assisted by several of the ladies of the parish. It has never been my privilege to be present at any service in the Diocese more admirably arranged or more perfectly performed. Everything flowed on without a jar or mistake from beginning to end. After the consecration service morning prayer was read by the Rev. Mr. Huske, and the Rev. Dr. Ryan, and the sermon was preached by the Rev. William H. Lewis, of the Diocese of Connecticut, during whose rectorship the church was built. There were also present and assisting in the service, the Rev. Dean Morgan, of Ohio, the Rev. Dr. Purdon, and the Rev. Messrs. Dealey, Williams, Brooks, Herron, Schepeler, Keech, Bragdon, Mesny and Fleming. The Altar Guild of the parish handsomely entertained the clergy and invited guests at luncheon. In all respects it was a day long to be remembered.

Taking the train for Greenville, with the Rev. Messrs. Bragdon and Herron, I preached in St. Clement's Church in the evening and confirmed a class of sixteen, presented by the Rev. Mr. Keech, making a total of thirty-nine for the year.

June 5. Journeyed to Pittsburgh, and thence to Kittanning

June 6. Drove with the Rev. Messrs. LaRoche and Mesny to St. Michael's Church, Wayne, where a goodly congregation had assembled for confirmation and Holy Communion. The clergy made addresses and I confirmed five candidates, presented by the Rev. Mr. Dimmick. After luncheon with the people and a call upon a sick man, we returned to Kittanning.

June 7. Second Sunday after Trinity. Attended the Sunday school service at St. Paul's, Kittanning, and catechized the children. Later, addressed the congregation, congratulating them upon the renovation and adornment of their church, the inauguration of their surpliced choir and the encouraging condition of their parish. After sermon I confirmed a class of eighteen and administered the Holy Communion to a large number of persons. In the afternoon drove with the Rev. Mr. LaRoche to Ford City, where we held service in a hall, and the Bishop preached and confirmed four. We have in Ford City fifteen families, and about fifty souls. Mr. LaRoche is giving this mission much valuable time and attention, with prospect of good results. Returning to Kittanning I preached again in St. Paul's Church and confirmed a supplemental class of three, making a total of thirty, presented by the Rector this year.

June 8. Preparations for the Convention. Service with addresses in the evening.

June 9. A meeting of the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions. A service and addresses in behalf of church unity in the evening.

June 10. Opening service of the Diocesan Convention.

PASTORAL LETTERS.

AN OPEN LETTER

WITH REGARD TO THE CHRISTMAS FUND OF THE DIOCESE OF PITTSBURGH,
TO THE REV. J. L. TAYLOR, NEW HAVEN, PENN'A.

Rev. and Dear Brother:—I have received a letter from you dated the 17th of December, in which you inform me of something concerning which I was ignorant, that there are in the minds of Clergymen and Laymen of this Diocese, certain objections existing in regard to the offering on Christmas Day for the Fund for Disabled Clergymen. You say: "The first is that there are no beneficiaries in this Diocese, and so no need for the offering; if it be urged that we should provide for the future, the statement is made that the money of the Fund has been earning only a little over three per cent for several years, and that it is worth more in the owners' pockets; that a large part of this Fund is lying idle instead of earning current interest." You further remark that these objections are not in your own parish particularly, but that you have heard them in groups of talkers at Diocesan Conventions, and by individuals, and that you think the objections are quite prevalent in the Diocese.

I am very glad of the opportunity you have thus given to make a statement with regard to the Christmas Fund.

Having consulted with the Treasurer of that Fund, I find the objectors whom you quote are very much at fault in their impressions. The Christmas Fund is invested as follows:

One Mortgage of $5,000 at five per cent.

One Mortgage of $1,600 at six per cent..

One Mortgage of $700 at six per cent.

$7,000 in Bank Stock, which is drawing four per cent.

All monies on hand are deposited with the Fidelity Title and Trust Company and are drawing four per cent.

In the present condition of the market this is not by any means a bad showing; and you will see that there are no funds lying idle.

With regard to the statement that we have no beneficiaries, it should be noted that there are aged Clergy of the Diocese who might rightly lay claim to assistance from this Fund, but who are providentially so circumstanced that they do not happen to need its aid. But at any time the youngest and strongest may be cut down in the midst of abundant labors, and the full income of the Fund be needed.

However, it is more with regard to the future that we should especially have the increase of this Fund at heart. By reference to page 25 of the Journal of 1890, it will be seen that the subject of Annuities for Aged and Infirm Clergy has been brought to the attention of the Convention by a Canon commended by the House of Deputies of the General Convention. In that Canon occurs the following paragraph:

"As soon as said funds shall together reach the sum of $30,000, the Trustees shall grant an annuity to every Clergyman who (1) has reached the age of 65 years, and (2) has been canonically connected with the Diocese for the five years immediately preceding his application for an annuity; and (3) has been for at least five years of his last term, a canonical resident and settled minister of the Diocese; or a missionary duly appointed by the Ecclesiastical authority."

It has always been my hope to see this principle added to our Canon concerning the Christmas Fund; and with this in mind it has always been a great encouragement to see the fund increasing and not drawn upon at present by beneficiaries. I should be glad indeed if the Convention of the Diocese would commend, and all the people of the Diocese heartily endorse a purpose and endeavor to increase the Christmas Fund to at least $50,000; and then to give, under certain conditions, to all clergymen of the Diocese who have reached old age, a pension for the remainder of their days, as of right and not as of charity.

With this object in view, and with the hope that the offering this year may be a large and generous one, I have thought it well to bring to the knowledge of the Clergy and Laity of the Diocese, through you, the foregoing information with regard to the present condition and future prospects of the Fund.

Believe me, my dear brother,	Very faithfully yours,
	CORTLANDT WHITEHEAD,
PITTSBURGH, DECEMBER 20TH, 1890.	BISHOP OF PITTSBURGH.

DIOCESE OF PITTSBURGH.

TO THE CLERGY, SUNDAY SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENTS, TEACHERS, AND PARENTS, AND CHURCH PEOPLE GENERALLY:

Dear Brethren and Helpers:—In accordance with our custom, which is sanctioned by the Convention, and the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions, I shall soon send to you all, Mite Boxes, to be used by children, and adults, also, for the collection of a generous offering during Lent in behalf of Diocesan Missions.

That which we sought last year is now a reality. We have two General Missioners, both of them hard at work accomplishing much good in the outlying portions of the Diocese. Many new towns are rising, and people who love our Church, many of whom belong to it, are asking for our services. The most that we can do will not entirely supply our need, so we pray you to be more self-denying and generous than ever in helping on this work for Christ and His Holy Church. Nothing can so truly manifest your self-denying love for the Master, and nothing can so certainly bring you a profitable Lenten season, as to make up your minds to deny yourselves some pleasure, or by hard work to earn some money which may be put to so good a purpose. Let the elders not only give themselves, but suggest methods whereby the children and young people may make their offering larger. And let us all, with earnest purpose of heart, as to the Lord, and not unto men, give and pray, and labor, that our sacrifices, so small and necessarily unworthy, may yet be acceptable in His sight, for the sake of His Dear Son.

Faithfully, your Bishop and servant in the Lord,
CORTLANDT WHITEHEAD.

EPIPHANY, 1891.

N. B.—All Mite Boxes should be distributed certainly by Quinquagesima Sunday, referred to and asked about constantly during the weeks intervening, and opened on Easter Day. Please send the amounts promptly thereafter to the Treasurer, Mr. H. L. Foster, Oil City, Penna. We need at least $2,500 this year. Last year the amount was almost $2,400.

CONCERNING DIOCESAN MISSIONS.

TO THE CLERGY AND CONGREGATIONS OF THE DIOCESE.

Dear Brethren:—I write to you concerning that which has been very appropriately termed "the Church Militant in Western Pennsylvania." The Annual Convention, at its last session, appropriated $6,500 for carrying on the war, and to the resolution the following words were added: "We rely on the efforts of the clergy and the liberality of the laity to raise the amount according to their respective strength and financial ability." No apportionment was made, nor minimum amount mentioned as needed from each parish, but the whole matter was left to the honor and generosity of our clergy and people. I would fain believe that there is abundant basis for such action, and that your honor and generosity are not deficient. But it is not sufficiently borne in mind that, while you have a full year to make up your contributions, the missionaries must be paid quarterly, and it is expected that there shall be a quarterly contribution in every parish and mission station in the Diocese, which should be promptly remitted to the Treasurer at Oil City. Consequently, while we expect to have $6,500 at the close of the year, we ought also to be able to expect that one-fourth of that sum will be on hand every quarter. But the fact is that, although much more than half of the year is gone, the treasury has received very much less than one-half the amount appropriated. To relieve the overburdened treasurer, to remove anxiety from the hearts and minds of the Executive Committee, to be "cheerful givers" in the very best sense, let us immediately do what we can to rise to the full measure which the circumstances seem to demand, contributing largely and speedily, in all our congregations, "according to their respective strength and financial ability." I can assure you that the work is going on prosperously; there are many hopeful signs, and if there were clergymen sufficient to fill all our vacancies this would be a year of great prosperity. All we ask is the hearty co-operation and generous sympathy of our brethren. Will not the Clergy speak a good word, giving as much information as possible with regard to the work, and will not our brethren of the Laity open their hearts and hands, and make the remainder of this year full of encouragement?

Faithfully your Bishop and servant in the Lord.

CORTLANDT WHITEHEAD.

N. B.—Considerable information with regard to the work of the Board will be found in the last report of the Executive Committee, on pages 27 to 29 of the Journal of 1890. Also from time to time in the columns of the Church News, which is now a better paper than it has ever been before, ably edited and managed by two clergymen and two laymen of Pittsburgh. The paper ought to be largely read by both clergy and laity throughout the Diocese. As it would increase the intelligence of our Church people, by making them familiar with what is going on outside of their own narrow borders, so it would broaden their sympathies and stimulate their liberality. Subscriptions should be sent to the Church News Association, Sixth street and Penn ave., Pittsburgh.

TO ALL THE CLERGY AND CONGREGATIONS IN THE DIOCESE OF PITTSBURGH:

Dear Brethren :—To many of you it is known, but by some, perhaps, forgotten, that we have in this Diocese a society of great usefulness, called the "Prayer Book Society," which for many years, in an unobtrusive but most efficient way, has given Prayer Books without stint to parishes and missions asking for them. This Society has always besought your contributions on Whitsunday, because it was on this Feast that the first Prayer Book in English was enjoined to be used in all churches, June 9, 1549. I most heartily join the ladies of the Society this year in especially commending their claims to your attention, and asking your generous assistance.

Not only have they been during the past year, as usual, most valued "helpers in Christ," but they have had a peculiar trial in that their supply of Prayer Books and Hymnals was completely destroyed by fire shortly after they had replenished their stock. There is every reason why we should help them to the utmost of our ability. Our Missionaries and mission congregations know well how good it is to have such willing helpers to whom to turn when books are needed, either for the public services, or for private distribution. I need scarcely recount the many advantages which result through the wide distribution and use of the Book of Common Prayer. Wherever it goes it is an influence for good which no one can rightly estimate. It is the very best missionary, full of "the gospel of the grace of God." We can do no better missionary work for the souls of men in this Diocese than by increasing the usefulness of our Diocesan Prayer Book Society, if possible, an hundredfold. Will you not, then, all unite in an offering for the replenishing of their treasury on Whitsunday? I feel that our people will gladly respond to this appeal.

Believe me,

Your Bishop and servant in the Lord.

CORTLANDT WHITEHEAD.

PITTSBURGH EASTERTIDE, 1891.

The Prayer Book Society has distributed eight thousand books in the Diocese during the past five years. A fresh supply of books will be ordered to replace the stock destroyed by fire, and the Society will be ready by the 1st of May to receive and attend to any applications. Contributions should be sent to the Treasurer, Miss C. Kerfoot, 917 Aiken avenue, Pittsburgh.

Applications may be sent to any of the officers.

President, Mrs. J. S. McMillin, Grand View avenue, 32d ward, Pittsburgh.

Secretary, Miss Peunock, 23 Cedar avenue, Allegheny.

Librarian, Miss MacCormick, 25 Cedar avenue, Allegheny.

Treasurer, Miss C. Kerfoot, 917 Aiken avenue, Pittsburgh.

Constitution of the Diocese of Pittsburgh.

JUNE, 1891.

ARTICLE I.

Acceding to the General Constitution.

SEC. 1. The Church in the Diocese of Pittsburgh, being a constituent part of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, accedes to, recognizes and adopts the Constitution and Canons of that Church, and acknowledges its authority accordingly.

SEC. 2. The Diocese of Pittsburgh embraces all those counties of the State of Pennsylvania lying West of the eastern line of the counties of McKean, Cameron, Clearfield, Cambria and Somerset, viz: The counties of Erie, Crawford, Mercer, Lawrence, Beaver, Allegheny, Washington, Greene, Venango, Warren, Forest, Clarion, Butler, Armstrong, Westmoreland, Fayette, McKean, Cameron, Elk, Jefferson, Clearfield, Indiana, Cambria and Somerset.

ARTICLE II.

Meeting of Convention.

2 SEC. 1. There shall be a stated Convention of the Church in this Diocese, to be held in the City of Pittsburgh, on the second Wednesday of June, of each year, unless a different time and place be fixed by a preceding Convention.

SEC. 2. For any sufficient cause, occurring after the designation of the place of meeting of the Annual Convention, the Bishop, or in case of his inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee, may appoint another time or place, or both, for the meeting of the Convention.

SEC. 3. The Bishop, or if there be no Bishop, or he be incapable of acting, the Standing Committee, shall have power to call a special Convention. There shall be not less than thirty days' notice previous to the day appointed, given to the Clergy and the several Parishes in the Diocese, by a circular letter; such special Convention shall be held at the place designated by the Ecclesiastical Authority calling it; and at such special Convention no other business shall be transacted than that stated in the notice calling the Convention.

ARTICLE III.

Members of Convention.

SEC. 1. The Convention shall be composed of Clergymen and Laymen.

SEC. 2. Every Clergyman, in regular standing, who shall have been canonically and actually resident in the Diocese, and engaged in the parochial, missionary or educational work of the Church, under the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese for three months preceding any Convention, shall be entitled to a seat and vote in such Convention in all cases except that of the election of a Bishop, in which case the qualifications necessary to vote shall be as hereinafter provided in Article XI of this Constitution. Provided, that no Clergyman so qualified shall lose his right to a seat and vote by reason of sickness or old age.

SEC. 3. The Lay Members shall consist of one Deputy from each Parish in union with the Convention, chosen from the communicants thereof. And each such Parish shall have the right to send additional Deputies, chosen as aforesaid, in such proportion to the number of its registered communicants as the Convention may, from time to time, by Canon prescribe. Provided, however, that the scale of graduation, when fixed by Canon shall not be changed before the third next succeeding annual Convention. The Chancellor of the Diocese shall be ex-officio a member of the Convention with the right to a single vote in the lay order.

SEC. 4. No Parish shall be entitled to a representation in the Convention which shall have failed to pay all dues and assessments levied upon it by authority of the Convention, unless it shall have so failed for reasons which shall be deemed satisfactory by the Convention itself; and it shall be the duty of the Treasurers of the various Funds established by the Convention, at the opening of each session, to present to the Secretary a list of such Parishes as are delinquent in this regard, in order that the same may be placed in the hands of the Committee on Claims of Lay Deputies to seats.

ARTICLE IV.

President of Convention.

The Bishop, or Bishop in charge of the Diocese, shall, ex-officio, preside in Convention, and be entitled to a vote. The Assistant Bishop, when there is one, shall also have a seat and vote, and in the absence of the Bishop, shall preside. In case of vacancy in the Episcopate, or of the absence of the Bishop, and of the Assistant Bishop, or their inability to act, then the members shall elect from the Presbyters a President pro-tempore.

ARTICLE V.

Transaction of Business.

SEC. 1. Such Clergymen and Lay Deputies as shall at any time be duly assembled in Convention, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

SEC. 2. The Clergy and Lay Deputies shall deliberate as one body, and shall vote as such: Provided, That on a call of any five members, the Convention shall vote by Orders. In which case, the concurrence of both Orders shall be necessary to give validity to a measure.

SEC. 3. On every question, the votes of a majority of those present, or when voting by Orders, the votes of a majority of those present of the two Orders respectively, shall decide.

SEC. 4. All elections, except as provided in Article XI, shall be by ballot, unless the same be dispensed with by unanimous consent; and no person shall be considered as elected to any office, to be filled by the Convention, unless he obtain the concurrent vote of both Orders. All officers, and members of committees shall continue in office until their successors be chosen.

ARTICLE VI.

Secretary and Treasurers of the Convention.

SEC. 1. At each Annual Convention, a Secretary shall be chosen, who shall continue in office till a successor be appointed. His duty shall be to take minutes of the proceedings, and when approved to enter them in a proper book; to preserve the Journal and Records; to attest the public acts of the body ; and faithfully to deliver into the hands of his successor all books and papers belonging to the Convention, in his possession.

SEC. 2. A Treasurer of the Convention, as also Treasurers of the different Funds held subject to the control of the Convention, shall be elected annually, to remain in office till their successors be chosen. They shall close their respective accounts at the end of the financial year, and present the same to the Finance Committee, to be audited and laid before the Convention.

ARTICLE VII.

Standing Committee.

SEC. 1. The Convention shall elect annually a Standing Committee, to consist of four Presbyters and four Laymen, who, when there is no Bishop, or he is incapable of acting, shall be the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese. 1886

SEC. 2. The Clerical members of the Standing Committee must be of those entitled to seats in the Convention of this Diocese.

SEC. 3. The Lay members of the Committee must be communicants of some Parish of the Diocese, in union with the Convention.

SEC. 4. The Committee, at their first meeting, shall choose a President from among the Clerical members, and a Secretary either Clerical or Lay. The Secretary shall keep a record of the proceedings of the Committee ; and all books and papers in their hands relative to the Church, shall be subject to the examination of the Bishop and of the Convention.

SEC. 5. The Standing Committee shall have authority to fill all vacancies that may occur during the recess of the Convention, in their own body, or in any Committee appointed to sit during the recess of the Convention, and also in such offices as are held by annual election.

ARTICLE VIII.

Finance Committee.

SEC. 1. The Convention shall elect annually by ballot a Finance Committee, consisting of five Laymen, who shall have the supervision, custody and investment of the different Funds which are subject to the control of the Convention. 1887

SEC. 2. This Committee shall also audit and report to the Convention the accounts of all officers charged by the Convention with the receipts and disbursement of funds.

SEC. 3. It shall also be the duty of this Committee to prepare and report to each Convention, a Schedule of Assessment upon the Parishes of all such sums as it may be necessary to raise by assessment for the ensuing year, and such report, as it is finally adopted in Convention, shall be binding on the Parishes.

SEC. 4. The financial year of the Diocese shall begin on the first day of June.

ARTICLE IX.

Deputies to General Convention.

SEC. 1. At every Annual Convention next before the meeting of the regular General Convention, four Clergymen and four Laymen shall be elected to represent this Diocese as Deputies to such General Convention. It shall also in like manner elect four Clergymen and four Laymen as Provisional Deputies, to act in the case hereinafter mentioned, with priority of right in rotation according to priority of time of election, and among those elected at the same time, according to plurality of the aggregate vote received by them respectively.

SEC. 2. The Clerical Deputies shall be Presbyters entitled to seats in the Convention of this Diocese, and the Lay Deputies shall be communicants in this Church and residents in this Diocese.

SEC. 3. Should a vacancy occur by resignation, removal from the Diocese, death or otherwise, among the Deputies or Provisional Deputies, between the stated times of election, the vacancy shall be filled by any Convention during or prior to which such vacancy shall occur.

SEC. 4. In case of failure or neglect of the Convention to elect Deputies, those already in office shall continue until successors are chosen.

SEC. 5. It shall be the duty of the Deputies elect to signify to the Bishop, in writing, at least one month before the meeting of the General Convention, their acceptance of the appointment and intention to perform its duties. In default of which, or in case of any vacancy, or failure to attend, the Bishop shall notify, according to time of election and plurality of aggregate vote as aforesaid, so many of the Provisional Deputies as shall be necessary to insure a full representation of the Diocese. Provided, that in case of any Provisional Deputies having had an equal number of votes, the Bishop shall elect which of them to notify as aforesaid.

ARTICLE X.

Admission of Parishes.

Any parish formed within the limits of the Diocese, and regularly organized according to the Canons, may be admitted into union with the Convention, on motion, by a majority of votes. Provided, it shall have laid before the Convention its Charter or original Articles of Association, or a duly certified copy thereof, wherein it expressly 1887 adopts and recognizes the authority of the Constitution and Canons of this Diocese, and the Constitution, Canons, doctrines, discipline and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America. And provided, also, that it shall have complied with the canonical requirements for such admission.

ARTICLE XI.

Election of a Bishop.

The election of a Bishop for this Diocese shall be made in Convention, in the following manner: After nomination in open Convention the Order of the Clergy shall appoint, by ballot, some Clergyman fit and qualified, for that Office, and if this appointment be approved by the Lay Order, he shall be declared duly elected. If two-thirds of either Order be represented at Convention, a majority vote shall determine the choice of such Order; otherwise, a vote of two-thirds shall be necessary for that purpose: Provided, That in all cases of the election of a Bishop, no Clergyman shall be entitled to a vote unless he shall have been, for at least six months immediately preceding the election, personally and canonically resident in this Diocese. 1890

ARTICLE XII.

Alteration of Constitution.

This Constitution, or any part thereof, may be altered in the following manner only: The proposed alteration or amendment shall be submitted in writing to the Annual Convention, and if approved by a majority of each Order, shall lie over to the next Annual Convention, and if again approved by a majority of each Order, the Constitution shall then stand altered or amended as proposed.

Canons of the Diocese of Pittsburgh.

AS ADOPTED IN CONVENTION.

CANON I.

Of a List of Clergy in the Diocese.

The Secretary of the Convention shall keep a register of the Clergymen entitled to seats or votes in the Convention of this Diocese, in the following manner: The Bishop, or when there is no Bishop, the President of the Standing Committee, shall, on the day of meeting of the Convention, deliver to the Secretary or in case of his absence, to such other person as may be appointed by the Presiding Officer of the Convention, a certified list of the Clergymen in regular standing and canonically connected with the Diocese, specifying their cures or their residences and employments respectively; and also the dates of the ordination or reception of those who have been ordained or received into the Diocese within the year immediately preceding. From this list the Secretary shall prepare, in conformity with Art. III. Sec. 2, and Art. XI. of the Constitution, a roll of the Clergy entitled to seats or votes in the Convention; and the list thus prepared shall be prima facie evidence as to the rights of Clergymen to seats or votes in the Convention.

CANON II.

Of Lay Deputies.

SEC. 1. The Lay Deputies to the Convention shall consist of not more than one member for each Parish in union with the Convention, with an additional deputy for every fifty duly registered communicants.

SEC. 2. The appointment of Lay Deputies to the Convention shall be certified to in writing by a Warden or two vestrymen of the proper parish; and the certificate shall state that each deputy named in said certificate was chosen from the communicants of said parish; and also, that the parish is not debarred from representation in the Convention under the provision of Art. III, Sec. 4, of the Constitution of the Diocese. The certificate shall be in duplicate, and one copy forwarded to the Secretary of the Convention, and the other given to the Lay Deputies.

CANON III.

Of Parochial Registers and Reports.

SEC. 1. The Vestry of each parish shall provide a suitable book, to be called the Church Register, which shall belong to and remain with the Vestry, as part of the Church records. In this Register the Minister, or if there be none the Senior Warden, shall keep a record of all the baptisms, confirmations, marriages and funerals solemnized in the parish; specifying the name and date of the birth of the child baptized, with the names of its parents and sponsors; the names of the persons confirmed; the names of the adults baptized, and of his or her witnesses; the names of the persons married; the name, and where practicable the age, of the person buried; and also the time when each rite was performed.

SEC. 2. The Minister of each parish shall also keep, in the Church Register, a list of all the members belonging to the parish, and a list of the communicants of the same: Provided, That the name of no person shall be continued on the list of communicants who has not communed during twelve consecutive months, unless such failure to commune has been for reasons satisfactory to the Minister; Provided, also, that he shall not enter on said list the name of any person desiring to become a communicant of such Parish, coming from any other Parish of this Diocese, until he shall have given due notice thereof to the Rector of said Parish; and such Minister, or in case of a vacancy, the Wardens shall also return to each Annual Convention, as of date June 1st of that year, the number of communicants duly registered as above provided, with his or their certificate that it is correct, to the best of his or their knowledge and belief.

SEC. 3. The certified returns above provided for shall be prima facie the basis of lay representation in the next Convention. They shall be tabulated and published in the Journal; and a copy of the next preceding section of this Canon shall be sent by the Secretary to each Rector or Parish in the Diocese, before Easter Monday of each year, with a statement as to how many Deputies such Parish is entitled to elect, according to the certified return from such Parish.

SEC. 4. It shall be the duty of every Clergyman having a seat in the Convention to attend every meeting thereof, or to send to the Bishop a sufficient excuse for absence, and he shall present at every Annual Convention to the Bishop, or if there be no Bishop, to the President of the Convention, a report up to the first day of June, of the condition and statistics of his parish or parishes during the year, to be forwarded to the Bishop as promptly as may be, in such manner and form as the Convention may, from time to time, prescribe.

CANON IV.

Of Missions.

SEC. 1. The Convention of the Diocese constitutes itself the Board of Missions for the Diocese, and recognizes all the Missions of the Diocese as rightfully under the charge and direction of the Bishop. 1887

SEC. 2. There shall be annually appointed by the Bishop, subject to confirmation by the Board of Missions seven (7) Clergymen, and six (6) Laymen, who, with the Treasurer of the Board, shall with the Bishop as Chairman ex-officio, constitute the Missionary Committee of the Diocese for the ensuing year, and until their successors be appointed and confirmed.

SEC. 3. They shall organize before adjournment of the Convention, and meet at such times and places as they may prescribe, and also at the call of the Bishop.

SEC. 4. It shall be their duty and privilege to confer with, and advise and aid the Bishop in his Missionary work, and especially in providing the ways and means of carrying it on successfully.

SEC. 5. The Committee shall report annually to the Board the progress of Missions during the preceding year, and the condition and needs of the Missionary field.

CANON V.

Of the Chancellor.

There shall be elected, by the Convention, a Chancellor of the Diocese, to hold his office for three years, and until his successor be elected. He shall be a Layman, learned in the law, and a communi- 1887 cant of the Church. His duty shall be to act as the legal counsellor of the Bishop, and of the Standing Committee, and other Diocesan organizations in matters affecting the interests of the Church. In case of a vacancy in the office, the Annual Convention next ensuing shall elect a successor for the full term of three years.

CANON VI.

Of the Committee on Canons.

At each Annual Convention of the Diocese there shall be elected by ballot a Committee on Canons to consist of three Clergymen and three Laymen, of which committee the Bishop also shall be, ex-officio, a member and the Chairman. This committee shall continue in office until the next Annual Convention and until their successors be elected.

CANON VII.

Of the Registrar.

There shall be a Registrar of the Diocese, to be elected by the Convention, and to hold office for one year, and until his successor is elected.

He shall act as Clerk at all ecclesiastical trials and inquiries had in the Diocese, and shall have charge of the records thereof. He shall also have charge of all documents belonging to the Diocese, which relate to its history or that of any parish therein; of the journals of all Conventions of this Diocese, and those of other dioceses presented to this, and of all books and papers committed to him by the Convention.

He shall enter into a proper book, kept for the purpose, a classification, according to counties and parishes, of the various amounts subscribed and paid in, on account of such permanent funds as may be raised by authority of the diocese, or be placed under its control.

He shall also act as historiographer of the diocese, noting, from time to time, any facts which illustrate its history, or that of any portion thereof, and shall report to convention, each year, an abstract of his proceedings.

He shall have the right to issue proper certificates of any facts upon the records of his charge.

All books, papers and documents in his charge shall be subject to the call of the Convention, and shall be open to the inspection of the Bishop, the Standing Committee, and of any committee of the Convention or Diocese.

CANON VIII.

Of the Bishop's Salary, and of Assessments.

SEC. 1. The salary of the Bishop, until otherwise ordered by the Convention, shall be four thousand five hundred dollars per annum.

SEC. 2. Assessments for the Bishop's salary shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Episcopal Fund, quarterly, on the first days of July, October, January and April. Assessments for expenses of Convention shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Convention on or before the first day of August.

SEC. 3. The list of such parishes as are delinquent, furnished to the Secretary of the Convention under Art. III, Sec. 4, of the Constitution, shall be published in the Journal of Convention.

SEC. 4. Any parish which shall deliver to the Finance Committee its approved interest-bearing bonds, or other approved bonds or securities, or any sum of money, as a contribution to the Episcopal Fund of the diocese, shall be relieved from the payment of any yearly assessment for the Bishop's salary thereafter made upon such parish, to the extent of the yearly interest paid upon any such bonds or securities, or received upon such money, for the year for which such assessment may be made.

CANON IX.

Of the Christmas and the Episcopal Fund.

SEC. 1. A fund to be called the Christmas Fund is hereby established for the support of aged, disabled or infirm Clergymen and of the widows and minor children of deceased Clergymen of this Diocese, in aid of which fund a collection is hereby directed to be taken in each parish on Christmas Day. This fund, and the income thereof, shall be expended under the direction of the Bishop and Standing Committee.

1872

SEC. 2. A fund, to be called the Episcopal Fund, is hereby established for the support of the Episcopate in the Diocese, which shall consist of the present Episcopal Fund of the Diocese, and such additions or contributions as may from time to time be made thereto ; and it shall be the duty of every Clergyman having a cure within the Diocese to cause a collection to be made in his parish at least once in every year for the increase of the permanent Episcopal Fund of the Diocese.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the rector or minister in charge of each parish or congregation in the Diocese to ask an offering from his people at each annual Episcopal Visitation, which shall be placed in the hands of the Bishop, to be used at his discretion for the benefit of needy persons, and which shall be known as the Bishop's Charity Fund.

CANON X.

On the Organization and Admission of Parishes.

SEC. 1. Every congregation regularly and canonically formed in this Diocese, for receiving the ministrations of the Church and for the worship of Almighty God, according to her faith and doctrine, and under her discipline and liturgy, shall constitute a parish.

SEC. 2. Any parish, mission or otherwise, may organize, with the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee, by the adoption of Articles of Association recommended or approved by the Convention and the election of two Wardens, who, with the rector, shall have in charge the spiritual and temporal interests of the parish.

Provided, however, that no such organization shall be had until a specified annual sum, towards the salary of the rector and the expenses of the parish, shall have been guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Bishop and Standing Committee. And provided, also, that such organization shall not prevent a subsequent re-organization of the same parish, with Wardens and Vestrymen, as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 3. The following form is recommended for Articles of Association in the case of such organization :

We, the undersigned citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do hereby associate ourselves together as a parish of the Protestant Episcopal Church, in the Diocese of Pittsburgh, for the purpose of receiving and supporting the ministrations of the said Church, and we do hereby declare the following to be the terms and conditions of said association :

1st. The name of the parish shall be

2d. We acknowledge and accept the faith, doctrine, discipline and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, and do promise obedience to the Constitution, Canons and Laws of the said Church, and to those also of the Diocese of Pittsburgh. No person who shall deny or disclaim the doctrine or authority of said Church shall become or continue a member of this parish.

3d. Annually on Monday in Easter week, the adult communicants of the parish shall elect two of their number to serve for the ensuing year as Senior and Junior Wardens, who, with the Rector, shall constitute the Vestry, or Board of Management of the parish, and when the parish shall have been admitted into union with the Convention of the Diocese, the said communicants shall also at the same time elect a deputy or deputies to represent them in the Convention.

4th. No real estate held by or for the use of this parish shall be alienated or encumbered without the consent of the Board of Trustees of the Diocese.

5th. We hereby agree that [A. B.] shall be Senior Warden and [C. D.] Junior Warden of this parish until the next annual election.

In testimony whereof, witness our hands this.....day of.....A. D. 18...

SEC. 4. Any parish may organize with the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee, by the adoption of Articles of Association, recommended or approved by the Convention, and the election of not less than five vestrymen, whose powers and duties, when not defined by the Articles of Association, may be prescribed by by-law.

SEC. 5. The following form is hereby recommended for Articles of Association in case of such organization:

We, the undersigned citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do hereby associate ourselves together as a parish of the Protestant Episcopal Church, in the Diocese of Pittsburgh, for the purpose of receiving and supporting the ministrations of the said Church in the county of.....[city] of.....and Commonwealth aforesaid, and we do hereby declare the following to be the terms and conditions of our said Association:

5th. We hereby agree that [A. B.] shall be Senior Warden and [C. D.] Junior Warden of this parish until the next annual election.

In testimony whereof, witness our hands this.....day of.....A. D. 18...

Sec. 4. Any parish may organize with the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee, by the adoption of Articles of Association, recommended or approved by the Convention, and the election of not less than five vestrymen, whose powers and duties, when not defined by the Articles of Association, may be prescribed by by-law.

Sec. 5. The following form is hereby recommended for Articles of Association in case of such organization:

We, the undersigned citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do hereby associate ourselves together as a parish of the Protestant Episcopal Church, in the Diocese of Pittsburgh, for the purpose of receiving and supporting the ministrations of the said Church in the county of.....[city] of.....and Commonwealth aforesaid, and we do hereby declare the following to be the terms and conditions of our said Association:

1st. The name of the parish shall be.....

2d. We acknowledge and accept the faith, doctrine, discipline and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, and do promise obedience to the Constitution, Canons and laws of the said Church, and to those also of the Diocese of Pittsburgh. No person who shall deny or disclaim the doctrine or authority of said Church shall become or continue a member of this parish

3d. The temporal affairs of this Association shall be managed and directed by the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen, to be chosen as hereinafter provided, and in case of a vacancy in the rectorship, by the Wardens and Vestry alone. The rector shall be Chairman ex-officio of the vestry, and entitled to one vote.

4th. The rector shall be elected by the Vestry in such manner as the by-laws shall prescribe; Provided, however, that no person shall be eligible to the office of rector or minister unless he shall have had Episcopal ordination, and be in full standing with the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and recognized as such by the Ecclesiastical Authority of this diocese.

5th. The rector shall have the right to direct and control the uses to which may be put any consecrated church edifice belonging to the parish, and for the due exercise of this right, and for the due and proper celebration of Divine service therein, he shall be responsible to the Ecclesiastical Authority of the diocese alone.

6th. The Vestry of this church shall consist of not less than (five) adult male members of the Church and of this parish, to continue in office for one year, and until their successors shall be elected. The election of Vestrymen shall be made every year on the Monday in Easter week, by the majority of the votes cast at a meeting called for the purpose, by those baptized adult male members of the Church (who shall appear by the vestry books to have paid, at least six months before such election for a pew or sitting in the parish church) or (who shall have been recognized and registered one month before the day of election by the Rector or Wardens, as usual attendants on the services of the Church, and as contributors to the expenses of the parish for the six months preceding,) or (who shall be communicants of this Church, duly and canonically registered as such, for six months preceding the election.)

7th. The Vestry shall have full power to choose their own officers, and annually at the first meeting after their election the Rector shall choose one of their number to be Senior Warden, and the Vestry shall elect another to be Junior Warden, who shall both be communicants of this church.

8th. No real estate held by or for the use of this association, shall be alienated or encumbered without the consent of the Board of Trustees of the Diocese, and in case this association be dissolved, all of its property, real and personal, shall vest in the said Board of Trustees, in trust to hold the same for, or to convey the same for the use and benefit of, any future congregation of the Protestant Episcopal Church regularly and canonically formed and organized in the same place or in its vicinity.

9th. We hereby agree that (A. B.) etc., shall be the Vestrymen of this parish until the next annual election.

In testimony whereof, witness our hands the.....day of.....A. D. 18...

Any parish may apply for a charter of incorporation under these articles.

SEC. 6. The Convention requires that the Vestry be of baptized members of the church, and recommends that when reasonably practicable they be chosen from the communicants of the parish.

SEC. 7. No alteration in the Articles of Association of any parish shall be made unless approved by a majority of votes of the registered communicants of the parish present at a meeting called on due notice, and then submitted to and approved by the Convention.

SEC. 8. No parish shall be admitted into union with the Convention unless it shall have submitted its Articles of Association to the Bishop and Standing Committee two months previous to the meeting of the Convention.

SEC. 9. The Convention may, by a two-thirds vote, dissolve its union with any parish, provided notice of said proposed action shall have been given in the preceding annual Convention.

CANON XI.

On the Judicial System of the Diocese.

SEC. 1. On the passage of this Canon there shall be elected three lay communicants of the legal profession to hold office, for one, two and three years respectively, as may be determined by lot, and until their respective successors be chosen.

Annually thereafter a like qualified layman shall be elected to succeed him whose term of office shall have then expired.

One of them, to be elected as hereinafter provided, shall act as presiding Judge on the trial of a Presbyter or Deacon, and he with one or both of the other two, shall constitute a Court of Revision.

There shall also be elected at each annual Convention, five Presbyters and five Laymen, who shall constitute the Court Array, from which shall be selected the Court Panel as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 2. Proceedings for the trial of a Presbyter or Deacon shall be begun in one of the following modes only :

1st. By information in writing from a communicant of the Church to the Standing Committee : setting forth with reasonable certainty the charge, and, briefly, the facts relied on to sustain it. Provided, however, that the person making this information shall annex thereto an affidavit that from personal knowledge, or from credible information, he believes the facts to be substantially true as stated, and a pledge that he will make every reasonable effort to prove them, should the accused be put on his trial.

2d. When any Presbyter or Deacon of this Diocese shall have reason to believe that there is in circulation a charge affecting his moral or religious character, he may, with the advice in writing of any two Presbyters of the Diocese, demand, in a communication to the Standing Committee, that they make an inquiry into the truth of such charge.

3d. If the Bishop knows or is informed of any charge against any Clergyman of the Diocese, which, if true, would constitute an offense for which that Clergyman would be justly liable to presentment and trial, he may, in writing, request the Standing Committee to make inquiry into the truth of such charge.

SEC. 3. On receipt of such information, demand or request, the Standing Committee shall proceed without unnecessary delay to investigate the truth of the charge in question. They shall appoint some lay communicant of the Church, in the profession of the law, to be Church Advocate, who shall act during the subsequent investigation, not as prosecuting counsel, but as legal adviser of the Committee on such questions as they shall submit to him. The sittings of the Committee shall be private. They shall hear such proof as may be produced before them to sustain the charge; and shall determine whether upon the facts and law of the case, as presented to them, there are sufficient grounds to put the accused upon his trial. Should their determination be that there are such sufficient grounds, they shall direct the Church Advocate to prepare a Presentment, and to that end shall place in his hands the charge on which they are of opinion a trial should be had, and also the testimony taken to sustain the same. And in all subsequent proceedings the Church Advocate shall be considered as representing, and as counsel for, the Church.

SEC. 4. The Presentment, when signed by the President of the Standing Committee and attested by the Secretary, shall, together with the testimony, be at once submitted to the Bishop, who, within thirty days thereafter, shall either have the same placed in the hands of the Church Advocate, with written instructions that he take the necessary measures to organize the Court and place the accused on his trial, or he may, at his discretion, endorse on the Presentment an order quashing the whole proceeding, giving his reasons in full for such action, and file the same with the Registrar of the Diocese. Or, should the Presentment contain more than one charge, he may, by a like endorsement, quash as to one or more of them, and have the Presentment placed in the Church Advocate's hands with instructions to proceed on any remaining charge or charges.

SEC. 5. The Church Advocate, when duly instructed to proceed as above provided, shall have a copy of the Presentment served on the accused, and shall appoint a time and place for selecting one of the three Judges to preside at the trial, which shall be done either by agreement in writing, or by each party striking off one name of the three. At the same time and place, the accused may file a demurrer to the Presentment or any part thereof, with the reason therefor, and, if such reason involve a question of doctrine or ritual, the Bishop, and if otherwise, the presiding Judge, shall dispose thereof. But if no demurrer be filed, or if the same be overruled, the accused should be called on to plead. If the plea be GUILTY, the whole record shall be submitted to the Bishop for further action, but if the plea be NOT GUILTY, proceedings shall then be had for organizing the Court for trial.

SEC. 6. At the time and place appointed for selecting the Court, either party may challenge for cause any member of the Array, and as often as the presiding Judge shall sustain such challenge, he shall proceed to fill the Array by having drawn by lot the name of some member of the last preceding Diocesan Convention who was in attendance thereat, clerical or lay, as the case may require.

Thereupon the accused shall have the right to elect, by writing filed, whether he will be tried by a panel of Presbyters only, of Laymen only, or by a mixed panel of both orders. The panel shall then be selected, each party striking off one name from the list of clerical or lay members of the Array as the case may be, or in case of a mixed panel, by alternate challenges of seven members of the whole Array, the accused having the first and last challenge.

The three members unchallenged shall constitute the Panel, and, with the presiding Judge, shall constitute the Court for the trial of the accused.

SEC. 7. Before the trial shall begin, the members of the Panel shall severally subscribe and file the following statement :

"I [A. B.] do hereby solemnly assert as in the presence of Almighty God, that so far as I am conscious, I have not prejudged the case of the Rev. [C. D.] now about to be tried, and I believe that I can render and shall endeavor to render, God helping me, a just and impartial verdict according to the evidence." And should any member file in writing a statement that he cannot conscientiously subscribe the foregoing formula, his place shall be filled, as in case of a challenge for cause when sustained.

SEC. 8. A verdict may be rendered by a majority of the Panel, and under a charge of crime or immorality, shall be either "Guilty" or "Not Guilty" of the charge. And if the verdict be guilty, it shall further set forth the facts in the several specifications under that charge which are found to be true, and also state what sentence they recommend to be pronounced against the accused.

Under any other charge in a Presentment on which a Clergyman is tried, the finding of the Panel shall be in the nature of a special verdict, setting forth the facts specified in the Presentment, which any two of the Panel find to be true in substance. And under a Presentment containing a charge involving the doctrine of the Church, the verdict shall find and set forth as nearly as may be the words and language of the teaching charged to be of a doctrine contrary to that held by this Church.

SEC. 9. After verdict, motions for a new trial or for entry of judgment on the verdict may be made in form and manner as provided in the rules of procedure, and be heard and determined by the Court of Revision. And it is provided that on motion for a new trial, this Court may revise any exercise of discretion by the Presiding Judge in the conduct of the case, and also the fitness and propriety of any rule of procedure under which he acted.

And it is further provided that under motions for entry of judgment all questions involving the doctrine of the Church shall be formulated by the Court and referred to the Bishop, whose judgment thereon shall be binding on the Court.

Should a new trial be granted, the new panel shall be selected by alternate challenges under supervision of the presiding Judge, from the deputies, clerical or lay, or both, who were in attendance at the last preceding Diocesan Convention.

In place of selecting the court panel by alternate challenges, the church advocate and the accused, with the sanction of the presiding Judge, may make such selection by agreement between them, signed and filed of record, and such selection may be made of presbyters or laymen not included in the court array.

SEC. 10. Where judgment shall have been finally entered on the verdict, if it be against the accused, the record shall be laid before the Bishop for sentence, which may be of less but not of greater, magnitude than that recommended by the court panel.

And it is further provided that, in view of the difficulty of obtaining original testimony in Ecclesiastical Courts, from their want of power to enforce the presence of witnesses and the production of papers, the presiding Judge, at his discretion, and when in his judgment a just determination of the facts in issue would be thereby promoted, may modify, enlarge and extend those exceptions now recognized and allowed in the State Courts, to the Rules which require the production of primary or original evidence only.

SEC. 11. The accused Clergyman may appear and defend by Counsel, who must be a communicant of the Church. And should he refuse or neglect to appear and defend in person or by Counsel, after due notice, he may, by the Court, be adjudged in contumacy, and be thereupon suspended and subsequently degraded from the Ministry by the Bishop.

SEC. 12. The Registrar of the Diocese, or in case of his inability to attend, some Clergyman or lay communicant, to be appointed by the presiding Judge, shall act as Clerk of the Court.

SEC. 13. No Clergyman shall be presented or convicted for an offense committed more than three years prior to the presentment.

SEC. 14. The reasonable costs and expenses of an ecclesiastical trial as allowed by the presiding Judge shall be paid by the Diocese, as also those of the accused Clergyman on recommendation of the Court, in case of his acquittal.

CANON XII.

Of Persons Repelled from the Holy Communion.

When a person who has been repelled from the Holy Communion appeals to the Bishop, and is not restored by him, the Bishop may, and if the person repelled demands it, shall appoint one Presbyter of this Diocese, and two laymen, communicants in some other parish than that of the person repelled, who shall make inquiry into the facts of the case, and shall make report thereof with their opinion thereon, to the Bishop, who may restore the person, or otherwise, as he may deem proper.

CANON XIII.

Of Vacant Parishes.

SEC. 1. The Bishop shall take order for supplying vacant parishes or congregations with occasional services, at the expense of the parish or congregation so supplied.

SEC. 2. When a parish becomes vacant, it shall be the duty of the Wardens thereof to give notice to the Bishop, or if there be no Bishop, to the president of the Standing Committee, forthwith.

CANON XIV.

Of Amendments.

The Canons may be amended in the following manner only: Amendments must be proposed in writing to the annual Convention at least one day before action thereon, and be referred to, and reported upon by, a standing Committee on Canons; which committee shall be constituted and appointed in accordance with the Rules of Order which may, from time to time, be adopted by the Convention.

CANON XV.

All former Canons of this Diocese are hereby repealed.

Rules of Order.

For conducting the business of the Convention of the Diocese of Pittsburgh, which shall not be suspended, altered or rescinded, without one day's previous notice, unless by an affirmative vote of two thirds: 188

A.—ORDER OF BUSINESS.

First Day—Morning.

I. At the opening of the Convention the Holy Communion shall be celebrated, which, being ended, the Convention shall be called to order by the Bishop, or in case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or of the absence of the Bishop, or his inability to act, by the President or Senior Presbyter present of the Standing Committee.

II. The Secretary of the last Convention, or, in his absence, some other person appointed by the Bishop, or the officer presiding, shall then call the names of the Clergymen according to the list prepared under the provisions of Canon 1. He shall, also, having previously made a list thereof, call the names of all the Lay Deputies claiming to represent parishes entitled to representation at the last Convention, who shall have furnished him with certificates, in due form, of their election to this Convention. And the list of names thus made by him shall be prima facie evidence of a right to a seat in the Convention.

The Convention shall then, if necessary, proceed to elect a President, pro tempore, from the Presbyters present.

III. The Convention having been thus organized, the first business thereafter shall be the election of a Secretary. The secretary may appoint an Assistant Secretary.

IV. The President shall then appoint the following Regular Committees:

1. On the Claims of Clergymen to seats in the Convention; to consist of three Clergymen.

2. On the Claims of Lay Deputies to seats in the Convention; to consist of three Laymen.

3. On the Admission of Parishes into Union with the Convention; to consist of one Clergymen and two Laymen.

4. On the State of the Church; to consist of three Clergymen and two Laymen.

5. On Unfinished Business; to consist of one Clergyman and two Laymen.

The Committee on the State of the Church shall continue from one Convention to the next.

V. The Bishop's Address. But if not then delivered, it shall be in order at any time thereafter.

VI. Reports of the Standing Committee and of the Finance Committee of the Diocese, to be presented and laid on the Secretary's table without debate.

VII. Motions, Notices and Resolutions, not giving rise to debate, shall then be in order.

VIII. Miscellaneous business.

First Day of the Session—Afternoon.

I. Nominations of the various officers to be chosen by ballot.

II. At 3:30 P. M. Convention to sit as a Board of Missions to review and act on the Report of the Executive Committee.

III. Unfinished business.

IV. Miscellaneous business.

Second and Each Succeeding Day.

I. Divine Service as may be ordered or set forth by the Bishop.

II. The reading, correcting and approving the Minutes of the preceding day.

III. Calling the names of absent members, and entering in the Journal the names of those who appear.

IV. The Convention may then take up and dispose of miscellaneous business till 10 o'clock.

V. At 10 o'clock, elections.

VI. Reports from Regular and Special Committees in order.

VII. Miscellaneous business.

B.—GENERAL RULES.

I. The Convention shall meet at 9 o'clock A. M., take a recess from 1 to 3 P. M., and adjourn for the day at 6 o'clock P. M.; Provided, That the House shall not at any time be considered as adjourned without a vote to that effect.

II. All Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church and of Churches in full communion with the same, candidates for Holy Orders; and the Vestry of the church in which the Convention is held, shall be admitted to the sitting of the Convention, and on reporting themselves to the Secretary, their names shall be entered on the Journal.

III. Of elections by ballot:

a. Tickets shall be printed with all the names proposed, and the election shall take place the following day—the voting to be by erasing the names of those for whom the members do not wish to vote; but the Supplemental Deputies to the General Convention shall not be nominated or voted for until the election of the Deputies shall have been completed.

b. When there shall be a failure to elect on the first trial, the balloting shall, upon the second trial, be confined to the three candidates who received the largest number of votes; and upon failure to elect upon the second trial, the balloting shall, upon the third trial, be confined to the two candidates who received the largest number of votes upon the second trial.

c. On counting the ballot such person or persons shall be held to have obtained the concurrent vote of both Orders, and therefore declared elected by the Convention, who shall be found to have been elected by the vote of each Order considered apart from that of the other.

IV. The Committee on the State of the Church shall prepare and present to the next annual Convention, before its final adjournment, a condensed report and tabular statement of the state of the Church within the Diocese, to be published with the Journal. And for this purpose the Bishop's Annual Address and all Parochial Reports shall be referred to this committee; Provided, nevertheless, that such reference shall not prevent the referring of any part of the Bishop's Address to a special committee.

V. Before the final adjournment of any session of the Convention the minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read, corrected and approved, after which the Convention shall close with such religious services as the President may direct.

C.—RULES OF ORDER.

I. No motion shall be put or debated until it is seconded, and when seconded, it shall be stated by the President before it is voted on: and every motion, when required, shall be reduced to writing.

II. If the question in debate contains several distinct propositions, any member may have the same divided.

III. When a question is under consideration, no motion shall be received, unless to lay upon the table, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone to a certain time, to commit or to amend: and motions for any of these purposes shall have precedence in the order herein named. If a motion to lay on the table an amendment be carried, the matter before the convention shall be proceeded with as if no such an amendment had been offered.

The motions to lay upon the table and to adjourn shall be decided without debate. The motion to adjourn shall always be in order.

IV. On a question being put by the President it shall be determined by the sound of voices for or against it: but any member may require the count of the votes, and tellers for that purpose shall be appointed by the Chair: or any three votes may, previous to a decision by count, require the ayes and nays to be taken, which shall be done by calling the names of the clerical members and then of the lay members; and all votes by ayes and nays shall be entered on the minutes.

V. A question once decided shall not be reconsidered during the same session without an affirmative vote of two-thirds, nor without a motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on the prior decision: nor shall any question be reconsidered more than once.

VI. All questions of order shall be decided by the presiding officer, subject to an appeal to the House.

D.—RULES OF ORDER AT THE ELECTION OF A BISHOP OF THIS DIOCESE.

The election of a Bishop for this Diocese shall be made in Convention in the following manner:

1. First of all, the President of the Convention shall, in the hearing of the Convention, read Article XI of the Constitution, and also these Rules of Order, that all may prepare themselves for the duty about to be performed. Then he shall read the form of testimonials which are to be signed in behalf of the Bishop-elect, and shall then announce that nominations will then be next in order.

2. During the making and discussing of nominations the Convention shall go into Committee of the Whole, and shall sit with closed doors. When the committee has risen the Chairman shall report its action to the Convention, after which any member may make a personal nomination, but without comment or discussion. When all things are ready, all present shall be called to prayer, the Veni Creator shall be said, and other supplications added by the President of the Convention, followed by silent prayer and the Lord's Prayer.

3. Then the tellers having taken their places, the names of the Clergy shall be called, all other voices being suppressed. The tellers shall count the ballots aloud in open Convention, silence being maintained by the assembly while this is done. The ballots being counted, the tellers shall report, and the President shall declare the result.

4. After a nomination shall thus have been duly made by a constitutional majority vote of the Clergy, the vote of the Lay order shall be taken in like manner as above provided, in approval or non-approval of such nomination.

5. When an election shall be complete, prayers and praises may be offered. But if there be no nomination by the Clergy, or a vote of non-approval by the Laity, new balloting must be made with all solemnity as before, until by God's Holy Spirit a Bishop be duly chosen and declared elected.

6. No word of comment as to any nomination, or in praise or censure of any Clergyman shall be in order except in Committee of the Whole upon call of any three members of the Convention, save only when the balloting is in progress.

7. These Rules of Order shall not be set aside except by a vote of two-thirds in both Orders.

By-Laws for a Parish.

ADOPTED BY THE CONVENTION AND RECOMMENDED FOR USE IN THE DIOCESE, JUNE 16TH, 1870.

Of Election of the Vestry.

SECTION 1. The Vestry shall be elected by ballot, at a meeting of the parish duly announced by the Rector and Wardens, to be held in the Church on Easter Monday at 10 o'clock, A. M., or at such fixed hour as the Vestry shall name. At the meeting, the Rector, or in case of absence or vacancy, the Senior Warden, or the Junior Warden, or one of the members chosen by the meeting, shall preside. The meeting shall elect its Secretary. Two tellers shall be appointed by the Chairman; and the judges of election shall be the Rector and Vestrymen present. The polls shall be open at least one hour; and if necessary, until five ballotings shall have been had. The majority of votes cast in each ballot shall be necessary to the election of a Vestryman.

SEC. 2. If the whole number required by the Charter be not thus elected, the names necessary to fill the Vestry shall be taken by lot out of the members of the last Vestry not chosen at this election, the lots being cast by the Chairman and Secretary in the presence of the meeting. The result of the election shall be declared by the Chairman and recorded by the Secretary before the adjournment of the meeting.

SEC. 3. The newly elected Vestrymen shall be called together by the Chairman of said meeting within one week after the election.

II.

Of the Meetings of the Vestry.

SECTION 1. Regular meetings of the Vestry shall be held once in three months, or oftener if the Vestry so direct. Special meetings of the Vestry shall be held upon due notice from the Secretary, at the request of the Rector or of either of the Wardens, or of two Vestrymen. Such notice to be in writing, and left at the house or place of business of each Vestryman, stating the time and place of meeting.

SEC. 2. At their first meeting after the election, the Vestry shall elect, from among their own number, a Secretary and a Treasurer, and such other officers as may be directed by the Charter and By-Laws. After the officers of the Vestry shall have been thus elected, the Vestry shall then elect Lay-Deputies and Supplemental Deputies to represent the Parish at the ensuing Diocesan Convention, as required by the Constitution and Canons of the Church; and in case of failure to elect officers and lay-deputies, or either or any of them at the said meeting, the election may be held at any subsequent meeting of the Vestry. All elections shall be by ballot, unless the same shall be dispensed with by unanimous consent.

SEC. 3. In the absence of the Rector, the Senior Warden, or in his absence, the Junior Warden, shall preside at the meetings of the Vestry. If the Rector and Wardens be absent, then any other member present may be appointed Chairman, for the time. A majority of the Vestry shall be necessary to constitute a quorum.

SEC. 4. The order of business at the meetings of the Vestry shall be as follows, viz:

The minutes of the preceding meeting shall be read.

Reports of Committees read and acted on.

Unfinished business.

Communications may then be presented and disposed of.

Any other business then in order.

SEC. 5. The rules of order of the last Diocesan Convention shall be the rules of order for the meetings of the Vestry, so far as applicable, save in such matters as the Vestry shall regulate for itself.

III.

Of the Election of a Rector or Assistant Minister.

SECTION 1. To the election of a Rector or Assistant Minister, the votes and consent of a majority of the members of the Vestry given by ballot shall be necessary; and to the election of an Assistant Minister, the previous consent of the Rector to the nomination shall have been expressed in writing.

SEC. 2. In either case, the person to be elected must have been openly nominated, at a previous meeting of the Vestry duly convened, and the notice for the meeting of the Vestry at which such election is intended, shall express such intention; and no election as aforesaid shall be held until at least one week shall have elapsed from and after the nomination of the person.

IV.

Of the Wardens, Secretary and Treasurer.

SECTION 1. The Wardens shall have a general superintendence of the property of the corporation; and shall take care that the Sexton and other officers perform their respective duties in a satisfactory manner. 1. They are to see that the church is kept in good repair and fit for use, and that it be used exclusively for the purposes of its consecration. 2. To provide, at the common expense, the necessary books, surplices, etc., for the due celebration of the sacred offices. 3. To collect the offerings of the congregation and bring them to the Rector. 4. To maintain order and decorum during the time of public worship. 5. In the event of a vacancy in the rectorship, to notify the Bishop, and ask for ministerial service, and during any such vacancy to take charge of the parish register, church books, plate, etc. 6. To report to the Ordinary any violation of the Canons or rubrics on the part of the rector of the parish; and to have and exercise all such rights, and perform such duties as are imposed upon them by the rubrics and canons of the Church.

SEC. 2. It is the duty of Vestrymen to see that the financial affairs of the church and congregation be faithfully administered; to see that the salary of the rector be regularly paid; to make provision for the current expenses of the church; and, in absence of the Wardens, to do such other duties as in that case are assigned to them.

SEC. 3. The Secretary shall keep regular minutes of the Vestry, and duly notify its members of all its meetings, and perform generally such duties as appertain to the office.

SEC. 4. The Treasurer shall receive all the revenues of the parish, and disburse the same under the orders of the Wardens and Vestry. He shall enter, in a book to be kept by him, all sums received and paid by him, which book shall always be subject to inspection by the Rector, Wardens and Vestry. He shall pay the Rector and all other officers of the congregation respectively their stated salaries quarterly, and take proper receipts as his vouchers therefor, and shall, at each regular meeting of the Vestry, make report of the finances of the parish.

CHARTER
OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES FOR THE DIOCESE OF PITTSBURGH.

APRIL, 1870.

ARTICLE I.

The name and style of the Corporation shall be "The Board of Trustees for the Diocese of Pittsburgh."

ARTICLE II.

The Corporation shall consist of the Bishop, for the time being, of the Diocese of Pittsburgh, and eight laymen, communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church, residing within the limits of said Diocese.

ARTICLE III.

The Bishop of the Diocese shall be, ex-officio, President of the Board, and there may be also elected a Vice-President, Secretary and such other officers as the Board desire, whose duties shall be as prescribed by the By-Laws.

ARTICLE IV.

The lay members of the Board shall be annually elected by the Convention of the Diocese: Provided, however, that in case of failure or omission to elect as aforesaid, the Trustees then in office shall hold over until their successors be duly elected.

ARTICLE V.

The powers and duties of said Corporation shall be to receive, hold and properly dispose of all estate, real and personal, which may be given, granted, conveyed, devised bequeathed or transferred to it, in trust for any religious, charitable or educational use or purpose connected with the Church in said Diocese, or any portion thereof, or for the aid, benefit or advancement of any parish or congregation, or of any religious, charitable or educational association of Churchmen in said Diocese.

ARTICLE VI.

At any regular stated meeting of the Board, three members shall form a quorum for the transaction of business. But at any special meeting, five members shall be necessary to form such quorum.

ARTICLE VII.

The following named persons shall constitute the Board of Trustees, viz.: Rt. Rev. John B. Kerfoot, Bishop of the Diocese of Pittsburgh, and Messrs. B. B. Vincent, John H. Shoenberger, Edward S. Golden, Geo. W. Cass, Alfred Howell, Ebenezer Brewer, James Dick and Thomas J. Brereton, who shall hold office until their successors be duly elected.

CHARTER
OF THE FINANCE COMMITTEE OF THE DIOCESE OF PITTSBURGH.

MARCH, 1870.

ARTICLE I.

The name and style of the Corporation shall be "The Finance Committee of the Diocese of Pittsburgh."

ARTICLE II.

The Corporation shall consist of five laymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, residing within the limits of the Diocese of Pittsburgh, who shall be annually elected by the Convention of the Church in said Diocese: Provided, that in case of failure or omission to elect as aforesaid, the members then in office shall hold over until their successors in office be duly elected.

ARTICLE III.

The powers and duties of said Corporation shall be to receive, hold and properly dispose of all estate, real and personal, which may be given, granted, conveyed, devised, bequeathed or transferred to it in trust for any religious, charitable or educational use or purpose connected with said Church in said Diocese, or any portion thereof, or for the use, aid, benefit or advancement of said Diocese, or of any religious, charitable or educational association of the Churchmen therein: Provided, that the clear yearly income or value of the property at any time held by the said Corporation shall not exceed the amount authorized by the laws of this Commonwealth.

ARTICLE IV.

The officers of the Corporation shall consist of a President and Secretary, who shall be members thereof; and such other officers as may be necessary, whose duties shall be as prescribed in the By-Laws.

ARTICLE V.

The following named persons shall constitute the said corporation until the first annual election provided for in this Charter, and until their successors be chosen, viz: Edward S. Golden, Josiah King, Henry J. Lynch, William H. Byram, Malcolm Hay.

CHARTER .
OF THE CHURCH HOME ASSOCIATION.

ARTICLE I.

The Corporation shall be styled the "Church Home Association," and shall consist of all the members of the Protestant Episcopal Church, over twenty-one years of age, residing in the county of Allegheny, who shall contribute to the funds of the Corporation, as follows: Annual contributors to an amount which shall, from time to time, be fixed by the Board of Managers, shall be Corporators for the current year; and contributors to the amount of one hundred dollars shall be Corporators for life.

ARTICLE II.

The object of this Association shall be to provide an Asylum for the aged, the infirm, and the helpless members of the Protestant Episcopal Church, in the county of Allegheny.

ARTICLE III.

The affairs of the Corporation shall be directed and controlled by a Board of Trustees, consisting of eight male members, and a Board of Managers, consisting of sixteen female members, of the said Corporation, to be constituted and appointed as hereinafter provided.

ARTICLE IV.

The Board of Trustees shall receive and hold the title to all real estate acquired by the Corporation, and shall have the charge and control of its funds and finances. The Board of Managers shall have under their direction and superintendence, the internal and domestic arrangements of the Home.

ARTICLE V.

An Annual Meeting of the Corporators shall be had during the month of January, in each year, for the purpose of electing a Board of Trustees and a Board of Managers, for the ensuing year. The Board of Trustees shall fix the time and place for such meeting, and cause to be given due public notice thereof, and the Boards of Trustees and Managers, respectively, shall make to that meeting a full report of their proceedings for the past year.

ARTICLE VI.

Any Corporator who shall contribute to the funds of the Corporation the sum of one hundred dollars, shall become an honorary member of the Board of Trustees, or of Managers, for his or her life, as the case may be, and any contributor of the like amount, shall be entitled to nominate and appoint any person eligible to the office, an honorary member for life, of either of said Boards.

ARTICLE VII.

The Board of Trustees and Managers respectively, shall have authority to make all necessary By-Laws and regulations for their own government ; to fill all vacancies in their respective Boards ; and generally to adopt all such measures as the objects and purposes of the Association may require ; Provided, that the By-Laws and other regulations adopted by the Board of Managers, shall be subject to the approval of the Board of Trustees.

ARTICLE VIII.

The two Boards of Trustees and Managers, should they deem it expedient, may meet from time to time in joint session, for action or counsel and advice, and to that end may adopt such rules and By-Laws as they may deem expedient for the government of such joint meetings, and for effecting the purposes thereof.

ARTICLE IX.

The following named persons, to-wit : John H. Shoenberger, Hopewell Hepburn, Thomas M. Howe, George W. Jackson, Felix R. Brunot, Calvin Adams, Hill Burgwin and ——— McKnight, shall compose the Board of Trustees ; and the following named persons, to-wit. : Mrs. William B. McClure, Mrs. John H. Shoenberger, Mrs. ——— Fortune, Mrs. William F. Johnston, Mrs. Hill Burgwin, Mrs. F. R. Brunot, Mrs. George W. Jackson, Mrs. David Holmes, Miss Indiana Trainer, Mrs. Margaret Briggs, Miss Wilkins, Mrs. Symington, Mrs. T. J. Bigham, Mrs. George W. Cass, Mrs. Jane O. Morgan and Mrs. Biddle Arthurs, shall compose the Board of Managers until the first annual election under the provisions of this Charter.

ARTICLE X.

All children who may be the proper recipients of the care and bounty of the Church Home Association, may be bound to the Association, in like manner as prescribed in the General Laws of the Commonwealth, in relation to apprentices. And the Association shall in the Indenture come under the obligations usual in such case. And further: the said Association, in all cases where children under its care by apprenticeship, or otherwise, become in the opinion of its officers of proper age and qualifications to learn some business or occupation not taught within its walls, shall have power, under its official seal, and with the consent of the children, to bind them to suitable persons to learn such business or occupation.

ARTICLE XI.

1. The Bishop of the Diocese of Pittsburgh shall be, ex-officio Visitor of the Church Home Association and Honorary Member of the Board of Trustees.

2. Honorary Members of either Board of Trustees or Managers shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of membership, equally with those elected by the Corporators.

3. Stated meetings of the Board of Trustees shall be held at the Home at 3 o'clock, P. M., on the first Tuesdays of February, May, August and November, in each year, and at such meetings those members present shall be a quorum for the transaction of business. Provided, that no real estate held by the corporation shall be aliened or encumbered by a vote of the Board, unless a majority of the members be present.

4. The Anniversary Meeting may be held in any other month than January, under appointment of the Board of Trustees.

CHARTER OF THE BISHOP BOWMAN INSTITUTE, PITTSBURGH, PA.

PETITION FOR CHARTER.

To the honorable, the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas, in and for the County of Allegheny and State of Pennsylvania:

Your Petitioners, John Barrett Kerfoot, as Bishop of the Diocese of Pittsburgh, John H. Shoenberger, Thomas M. Howe, Thomas J. Brereton, Hill Burgwin, William Metcalf, John H. Bailey, Abram Garrison, and Ormsby Phillips, Citizens of this Commonwealth, having associated themselves together for the purpose of promoting the cause of Christian Education, are desirous of being incorporated and made a Body Politic for the better and more effectual accomplishment of that purpose :

They therefore do hereby set forth the Articles, terms, conditions and purposes of their said Association under and according to which they pray your Honors to grant them a Charter of Incorporation, as provided by the Acts of Assembly of this Commonwealth.

JOHN BARRETT KERFOOT, Bishop of the Diocese of Pittsburgh.

JOHN H. SHOENBERGER,

THOMAS J. BRERETON,

HILL BURGWIN,

JOHN H. BAILEY,

WILLIAM METCALF,

ABRAM GARRISON,

THOMAS M. HOWE,

ORMSBY PHILLIPS.

ARTICLES AND PURPOSES OF THE ASSOCIATION.

ARTICLE I.

The name and style of the Corporation shall be "The Bishop Bowman Institute", and its purpose and business shall be to build up and carry on an Institute or School in the County of Allegheny and State of Pennsylvania, which shall offer to the young all the advantages of a thorough and liberal Christian Education.

ARTICLE II.

The Corporation shall consist of a Board of Trustees; all of whom shall be members of and attached to the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pittsburgh.

ARTICLE III.

The Bishop of the said Church, or in case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the President of the Standing Committee of the said Diocese shall be a member and ex-officio President of the said Board of Trustees.

ARTICLE IV.

The Board of Trustees shall at their first meeting in each year, elect a Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer; whose duties shall be prescribed by the By Laws: Provided, that the Treasurer need not be a member of the Board.

ARTICLE V.

The Rector of the School shall be elected and may at any time be removed by the Board upon an affirmative vote of five members: Provided, that such election or removal shall not be valid unless approved in writing by the President. The Teachers and other officers of the School shall be appointed and may be removed by the Rector, subject to the approval of the President.

ARTICLE VI.

No action of the Board shall be valid as against the vote of the President, or in case of his absence as against his written remonstrance communicated to the Board within ten days after official notice thereof, unless re-adopted thereafter by an affirmative vote of at least five members.

ARTICLE VII.

At any regular stated meeting of the Board, the President and three members shall be a quorum for the transaction of business; at other than stated meetings, or in the absence of the President, five members shall be necessary to constitute said quorum.

ARTICLE VIII.

Any member of the Board other than the President, may be removed upon cause shown, and by an affirmative vote of six members, subject to the approval of the President; and all vacancies in the Board by death, removal or otherwise shall be filled by the remaining members of the Board.

ARTICLE IX.

Professorships and Scholarships in the Institute may be endowed under such regulations as the By-Laws may prescribe.

ARTICLE X.

In case of a dissolution of this Corporation, all the property of the same shall vest in Trustees duly appointed by the proper Court, in trust, to hold and convey the same to and for any future Board of Trustees duly elected by the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Pittsburgh, to carry out and effect the purposes of this Charter.

ORDERS OF COURT.

RESPECTING SAID CHARTER.

In the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny County:

And now, to wit: June 2d, 1866, the foregoing petition and instrument of writing having been presented to the Court and the said Court having perused and examined the same; and the Objects, Articles and Conditions therein set forth and contained appearing lawful and not injurious to the community, the Court do order and now direct the said instrument of writing to be filed in the office of the Prothonotary of this Court, and that notice be given in the Pittsburgh Weekly Gazette, a newspaper printed in this County, for at least three weeks, setting forth that an application has been made to this Court to grant such Charter of Incorporation as set forth in the foregoing Articles of Association.

By THE COURT.

FINAL ORDER.

In the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny County, No. 550 of June Term, 1866.

In the matter of the application for a Charter of Incorporation of "The Bishop Bowman Institute".

And now, to wit, June 30, 1866, it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that publication has been made as directed in the former order of this Court, made the second day of June A. D.

1866, and no sufficient reason having being shown to the contrary, the said Court doth hereby decree and declare the petitioners, John Barrett Kerfoot, as Bishop of the Diocese of Pittsburgh, John H. Shoenberger, Thomas M. Howe, Thomas J. Brereton, Hill Burgwin, William Metcalf, John H. Bailey, Abram Garrison, and Ormsby Phillips, and their successors shall become and be a Corporation or Body Politic according to the Articles and Conditions set forth and contained in the instrument of writing accompanying their said petition, and the Court do further direct that this Charter of Incorporation now granted be recorded in the office for recording of Deeds in this county.

BY THE COURT.

In testimony whereof I, Jacob H. Walter, the Prothonotary of said Court, have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Court, the day and year aforesaid.

Twenty-seventh Annual Convention.

JOURNAL OF PROCEEDINGS.

FIRST DAY MORNING SESSION.

The Twenty-seventh Annual Convention of the Diocese of Pittsburgh met in Trinity Church, Pittsburgh, on Wednesday, June 8th, at 9 o'clock, A. M.

Holy Communion was celebrated by the Bishop, with Rev. Rogers Israel as Epistoler, the Rev. A. W. Ryan, Ph. D., as Gospeler, and the Rev. Rector of Trinity, A. W. Arundel, assisting in the administration.

Immediately after the service the Convention was called to order in Trinity Chapel by the Bishop.

The roll call by the Secretary of the last Convention showed a quorum of each order present, and the Convention was declared open for business. Rev. E. A. Angell was elected Secretary and appointed the Rev. John R. Wightman his assistant, after which the following regular committees were appointed by the Bishop :

On Claims of Clergy to Seats—The Rev. Messrs. Brown, La Roche and Dimmick.

On Claims of Lay Deputies to Seats—Messrs. Geo. C. Burgwin, McGunnegle and Ashby.

On Admission of Parishes—Rev. Dr. Norman and Messrs. Gow and McFarlane.

On the State of the Church—Rev. Messrs. Herron, Curzon and Bates, and Messrs. Cornelius and Corcoran.

On Unfinished Business—Rev. A. S. R. Richards, and Messrs. Davis and Crocker.

The Finance Committee presented their report, which was accepted, and the schedule of assessments and the several recommendations were adopted :

The committee respectfully reports :

REPORT OF THE FINANCE COMMITTEE FOR THE YEAR ENDING
MAY 31, 1892.

The committee organized for the year by the election of Mr. E. P. Jones, Chairman, and Mr. James W. Brown, Secretary.

Dr. L. H. Harris having declined the election, the committee for the past year has consisted of four.

The Permanent Episcopal Fund, at date of last report, was stated to be $44,338.25, including $293.96, which was reported as received from sources unaccounted for, owing to the destruction of the Treasurer's books and papers by fire during the year past. It has been since discovered that this amount should not have been credited to the Permanent Fund, and has therefore been deducted, making the amount on hand at date of last report $44,044.29, which has been increased by contributions, under Canon V of the Diocese, $185.96, and $11.59 from Mr. H. L. Mason, making the total amount of the fund $44,241.84. A list of investments will be found with the Treasurer's report.

The Christmas Fund has been increased, by interest $477.37, dividends $280, and contributions $1,039.18; and a payment of $2.75 for recording a mortgage leaves the total amount of the fund $18,432.60.

The accounts of the Treasurers of the several funds have been audited and are herewith presented to the Convention.

The account of the Treasurer of the Hospital Fund is also herewith presented.

The committee has made and herewith reports to the Convention a schedule of assessments on the various Parishes of the Diocese for the amount necessary to raise for the ensuing year, being $3,000 for Bishop's salary, and $1,800 for Convention and Diocesan expenses.

The committee would also recommend that the allowance of $100 per annum allowed the Bishop for postage and other expenses be increased to $300.

Respectfully submitted,

E. P. JONES,
H. J. LYNCH,
JAMES W. BROWN,
Finance Committee.

The Rev. Mr. Yewens offered the following amendments to Canons II and III, which were referred to the Committee on Canons :

CANON II.

SEC. 1. The additional deputies from each Parish authorized by the Constitution (Art. III, Sec. 3) shall be in the proportion of one for every fifty duly registered communicants who have communicated during the twelve months immediately preceding the 31st of May last past, (including any who may have been prevented from communicating by necessary and unavoidable causes), and no more.

SEC. 2. The basis of representation in each Convention shall be a certified return which the Minister of each Parish is hereby required to make, (or the Wardens, if there be no Minister), of the number of communicants who have communicated during the time specified in Sec. 1, (including those therein specially included). And these returns shall be tabulated and published in the Journal.

CANON III.

SEC. 1. Omit all after the word "keep" in line four to the word "Parish" at the end of the clause, and substitute therefor these words, "the records required by Sec. 5 of Canon XV in Title 1 of the General Convention."

SEC. 2. Omit the first proviso altogether. Further, in the second proviso, omit the word "also," and after the word "that" substitute, for all that follows, these words, "when he enters the name of a communicant who brings a certificate of his or her good standing from a Parish of this Diocese, (as required by Sec. 1 of Canon XII in Title 2 of the General Convention,) he shall give due notice thereof to the Rector who gave the certificate." Further, omit all that follows in Sec. 2.

Omit Sec. 3.

SEC. 4. Omit all from the word "and" (line three) to the second "be" in the last line but one, and insert instead thereof these words, "the report which he is required, (or the Wardens in the case of a vacancy) to present, or cause to be delivered, to the Bishop or President of the Convention by Sec. 1 of Canon XVIII in Title 1 of the General Convention shall be sent to the Bishop as soon after the first day of June as reasonably can be done."

The Rev. E. A. Angell offered certain amendments to Canon IV, which were referred to the Committee on Canons :

[Amendments are in Italics.]

CANON IV.

Of Missions.

SEC. 1. The Convention of the Diocese constitutes itself the Board of Missions for the Diocese, and recognizes all the missions of the Diocese as rightfully under the charge and direction of the Bishop.

SEC. 2. The Diocese shall be divided by the Bishop into two or more missionary districts, not exceeding six in number, for the more convenient management of the missions of the Diocese.

SEC. 3. The Clergy and one Lay representative from each Parish within the limits of the missionary district shall form the Convocation thereof. The Lay representative shall be elected by the Vestry, or, where there is no Vestry, he shall be appointed by the Minister in charge. Each Convocation shall organize at the call of the Bishop, with such officers as itself shall deem necessary, and thereafter shall meet at least twice a year for the purpose of considering the prospects and needs of its missionary field, and of stimulating the missionary zeal of the people.

SEC. 4. The Convocation of each missionary district shall nominate to every Annual Convention, sitting as the Board of Missions, three clergymen and two laymen of the Convocation to be members of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese. Other nominations may be made in the Convention; and from the whole number of nominations thus made there shall be elected at each Annual Convention, sitting as the Board of Missions, seven clergymen and six laymen, who, with the Treasurer of Missions, and with the Bishop as Chairman, ex-officio, shall constitute the Missionary Committee of the Diocese for the ensuing year, and until their successors be elected. Provided, That of the persons elected there shall be at least one clergyman and one layman resident in each missionary district.

SEC. 5. The Missionary Committee shall organize before adjournment of the Convention, and meet at such times and places as they may prescribe, and also at the call of the Bishop.

SEC. 6. It shall be their duty and privilege to confer with and advise and aid the Bishop in his missionary work, and especially in providing the ways and means of carrying it on successfully.

SEC. 7. The committee shall report annually to the Board the progress of missions during the preceding year, and the conditions and needs of the missionary field.

SEC. 8. There may be appointed by the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Missionary Committee, an Archdeacon for the Diocese, to whom shall be committed the immediate supervision and management of the missionary work of the Diocese in all its details. In the absence of the Bishop he shall preside at the meetings of the Convocations, and shall have a seat as counselor in the meetings of the Missionary Committee. His salary for services and expenses of travel and postage shall be determined by the Missionary Committee.

The Bishop, on behalf of the Secretary of the Committee on Canons, stated the Committee had no formal report to make to this Convention.

The Committee on the Episcopal Rooms reported through the Rev. Mr. Heffern. The report was accepted and the appended resolution was adopted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPAL ROOMS.

The Episcopal Rooms have been used during the past year as the headquarters of the Bishop, General Missionaries and Registrar; as the publication office of the Church News; as the meeting place of the various corporations of the Diocese, Committees of Convention, Examining Chaplains' and Laymen's Missionary League, and as the Diocesan Library and Reading Room.

The Librarian reports number of visitors:

City Clergy.....	365
Rural.....	254
Laymen	1060
	—	1679
Number of Meetings.....		34

The library of the late Rev. R. S. Smith has been given to the Diocese and is already at the rooms.

The Treasurer's account shows that besides the appropriation of $350, the sum of $105.13 has been expended, the additional amount having been secured by the Treasurer through subscriptions.

The committee recommends the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Convention appropriate the sum of $350 for the expenses of the Diocesan Rooms for the current year.

Respectfully submitted for the committee,

A. D. HEFFERN, Chairman.

The Bishop appointed the following Committee on Episcopal Rooms for the ensuing year:

The Rev. A. D. Heffern, Messrs. Geo. C. Burgwin, E. M. Ferguson and H. S. Paul.

The Trustees of St. Margaret's Hospital presented their report (see Appendix A) which was accepted.

The Registrar's report was then read and adopted.

REPORT OF THE REGISTRAR OF THE DIOCESE OF PITTSBURGH.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Pittsburgh :

The Registrar would respectfully report as follows :

He has received and filed the Convention Journals of some fifty Dioceses and Missionary Jurisdictions ; has received and filed several programmes of services used at the openings of churches: and on other special occasions, sent, in answer to the request made in his last report ; he has received and filed the Parish papers of Calvary Church, Pittsburgh, Trinity Church, Pittsburgh, Grace Church, Pittsburgh, and of Christ Church, Meadville. Also, he has received a file of the Churchman and of the Spirit of Missions extending back for some twenty years, given by a layman of the Diocese, for which he has no room at his disposal in the Episcopal Rooms.

Twenty-four churches and missions are represented in the Historical Record of the Diocese, none of the others having ever made any return to the Registrar.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

LAURENS M'LURE, Registrar.

The Rev. Mr. Fleming offered the following resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Canons:

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Convention be instructed to erase from every parochial report the certificate of the Rector or Warden as to the correctness of the number of communicants reported.

The Trustees of the Diocese presented their report (see Appendix A).

The Chancellor presented the forms of two Deeds of Trust, which were ordered printed in the Appendix to the Journal. (See Appendix A).

The Rev. Dr. White, of Butler, was presented to the Convention by the Bishop, and said a few words of greeting.

Mr. James W. Brown moved that a committee of three be appointed to send the greetings of the Convention to the Rev. Dr. Crumpton. Agreed to. The Chair appointed the Rev. Geo. Hodges and Messrs. Mason and Douglas.

The report of the Standing Committee was then read by the Secretary, the Rev. M. Byllesby.

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE.

PITTSBURGH, June 1st, 1892.

The Standing Committee respectfully reports the following official acts for the year ending with the above date :

The committee elected by the last Annual Convention, consisting of the following members, the Rev. R. J. Coster, the Rev. Marison Byllesby, the Rev. George Hodges and the Rev. Rogers Israel, and Messrs. Hill Burgwin, J. W. Paul, Felix R. Brunot and E. M. Ferguson, met September 15, 1891, at the Church Rooms, and organized for business by electing the Rev. R. J. Coster, President, and the Rev. Marison Byllesby, Secretary.

The Secretary was directed to communicate to the Rev. Thomas Crumpton, D. D., late President of the committee, the sentiment of the committee upon his final retirement from the office which he so long and acceptably filled.

They also gave consent to the consecration of the Rev. Isaac Lea Nicholson, D. D., Bishop-elect of the Diocese of Milwaukee, and to the election of the Rt. Rev. Ethelbert Talbot, D. D., Bishop-elect of Georgia.

On the 30th of October, 1891, they gave consent to the application of the Vestry of Christ Church, New Brighton, for the execution and delivery of a mortgage for $1,800 upon the Rectory premises.

On the 28th of December, they gave canonical consent to the consecration of the Rev. Cleland Kinloch Nelson, D. D., Bishop-elect of the Diocese of Georgia. Also, on the same day they recommended Mr. George Gunnell, Jr., and Mr. Lindsay DeB. Little to the Bishop as candidates for Holy Orders.

On the 25th of February, 1892, they declined canonical consent to the application of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Springfield for the election of an Assistant Bishop on the ground of "extent of territory." At the same meeting they recommended the Rev. Joseph Barber, Deacon, to the Bishop for ordination to the Priesthood. Also, on the same day, they gave consent to the application of the Vestry of Christ Church, New Brighton, for permission to sell the Rectory premises belonging to the Parish, the same being encumbered by a mortgage which the Parish is unable to liquidate and the property being unsuitable for its purpose.

On May 3d, 1892, they recommended the Rev. T. J. Garland to the Bishop for ordination to the Priesthood. Also, they recommended Mr. Samuel Simpson Marquis to the Bishop for Deacon's orders, and Mr. Howard Falkner for admission as a candidate for Holy Orders. They also recommended Mr. J. Alexander Vance, (whose papers were presented September 15, 1891, but laid over for want of a constitutional quorum) for ordination to the Diaconate. At the same time they gave consent to the application of Christ Church, Greensburg, for permission to place a mortgage of $9,000 on the church property; and to the application of Christ Church, Meadville, to place a mortgage of not more than $10,000 on the property of the Parish.

On May 25th, they gave consent to the sale of the present property of St. Paul's Church, Pittsburgh, on condition that the property to be purchased be secured inalienably for the use of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

On May 31st, they authorized the Finance Committee of the Diocese to receive the legacy of the late John H. Shoenberger, amounting to $32,029.48 to the Board of Missions of this Diocese. At the same time they postponed action on the testimonials of the Rev. Charles Reuben Hale, D. D., LL. D., Assistant Bishop-elect of the Diocese of Springfield, on account of informality in the papers presented.

On June 9th, the committee gave consent to the consecration of the Rev. Charles Reuben Hale, D. D., LL. D., Assistant Bishop-elect of the Diocese of Springfield.

Respectfully submitted,

MARISON BYLLESBY, Secretary.

The Rev. Mr. Grange invited the Convention to meet next year at the Church of the Ascension, Pittsburgh,

On motion of Rev. Mr. Hodges, the invitation was accepted.

The committee appointed to present congratulations to Dr. Crumpton presented their report, which was unanimously adopted, by a rising vote, as follows :

REPORT OF COMMITTEE TO PRESENT CONGRATULATIONS TO DR. CRUMPTON.

The Convention desire to assure Dr. Crumpton of their remembrance of him in his absence, which they regret, and extend to him their sincere good wishes for his continued health and happiness.

GEORGE HODGES,	} Committee.
H. L. MASON,
SAM'L B. DOUGLAS,

The Rev. Mr. Angell offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the Secretary be instructed to have printed 750 copies of the Journal.

The Bishop then read his annual address. (See Appendix D).

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Coster, that portion of the Bishop's address referring to the Rev. R. S. Smith was referred to a committee consisting of the Rev. Mr. Coster and Messrs. Lynch and Hale.

On motion of Rev. Dr. Ryan, that portion of the Bishop's address regarding the Clergymen's Retiring Fund Society was referred to a committee consisting of the Rev. Dr. Ryan, the Revs. Messrs. Danner and Heffern and Messrs. Church and Guth.

The Rev. Mr. Huske offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That a committee be appointed by the Chair, consisting of six clergymen and six laymen, to whom shall be referred that portion of the Bishop's address which bears upon the Division of the Diocese.

The committee appointed consisted of the Revs. Messrs. Huske, Purdon, Herron, Brooks, Israel and Ryan, Messrs. Sturges T. Dick, Stanford, J. C. Hamlin, Brundred, Rockwell and Reed.

The Rev. Mr. Herron offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That that portion of the Bishop's address which refers to the Bishop Kerfoot Memorial be referred to the Committee on the Bishop Kerfoot Memorial, to report to-morrow.

Carried.

The Bishop appointed the following clergymen as Examining Chaplains for the year:

Northern Convocation.

Rev. H. L. Yewens,

" J. H. McCandless,

" T. A. Stevenson.

Southern Convocation.

Rev. A. D. Heffern,

" J. L. Taylor,

" J. H. Barnard.

On motion of Mr. Hill Burgwin, Convention took a recess until 2:30 P. M.

2:30 P. M., FIRST DAY—AFTERNOON SESSION.

The order of the day being the nominations for officers, the following nominations were made:

Treasurer of the Convention—Mr. H. J. Lynch.

Treasurer of the Board of Missions—Mr. H. L. Foster.

At this point a question was raised as to the legality of this vote under Article V., Section 4, of the Constitution; and Mr. Hill Burgwin then moved that the Secretary be instructed to cast the ballot of the Convention for those officers just chosen by viva voce vote. Agreed to.

The Secretary cast the ballot as instructed.

Mr. James W. Brown asked to be recorded as objecting to this vote.

Mr. Hill Burgwin offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That elections shall be held in the following order :

- 1st. For Deputies to the General Convention and their alternates.
- 2d. For Standing Committee.
- 3d. For Committee on Canons.
- 4th. For any and all offices then unfilled.

The Rev. Mr. Fleming moved that the Secretary have the names of the persons to be voted for to-morrow printed in the order of their nomination. Agreed to.

At 3:30 o'clock the Convention went into session as the Board of Missions.

The report of the Executive Committee was read by the Rev. Dr. Ryan, as follows :

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

The Executive Committee of the Board of Missions would respectfully report :

The work in the mission field during the past year presents no very striking features, but the progress has been steady and most encouraging. The chart which was prepared by Mr. Wm. Metcalf of this Board, and which shows the statistics of missions and mission parishes for seven years past, reveals to us this fact, that while the gain in any one year may be small, yet in the course of several years the mission work has shown remarkable, and, at the same time, healthful advancement.

The following items are of present interest to this Diocese :

Braddock. The church at Braddock, on which there rested so heavy a debt, was burned down in August, and the insurance money and the property which were held by the Rev. Dr. Irvine individually, are responsible for the payment of the indebtedness. The old mission and the old name have been given up ; the congregation have bought a new lot, and have erected a small chapel, the debt upon which at Christmas time was about $1,800. The debt has, however, been almost entirely paid, so that there is a small indebtedness on the chapel, and ten years time in which to pay for the lot. The mission is now named for the Holy Trinity, and has been lately under the care of Rev. Mr. Barnard, Second General Missionary. It will take time to revive the work, but there is no reason to doubt of its ultimate success.

Bellevue has grown with a true, solid prosperity. The congregation is about to erect a Parish building.

Homestead has been without regular services for a long time, but we hope to have a resident clergyman there in the Fall.

At Mansfield the work goes quietly on ; nothing to report.

Tarentum and Freeport have taken on new life under the administration of Rev. Mr. Johnson.

At Leechburg, under the care of Rev. Mr. Bragdon, much progress was made toward paying off the small indebtedness, which will be cancelled very soon, when the Parish will be able, no doubt, to support the services of a missionary.

Red Bank, Wayne Township and Smicksburg, which have been faithfully served by Rev. Mr. Dimmick, can not, because of their situation, be expected to show much growth, although they manifest a good, strong vitality. At Wayne Township they are taking measures to build a new church.

Driftwood and Port Allegany have taken on new life, and are asking now to have the constant services of a clergyman, for whose support they offer a creditable sum.

The people at Fairmount are thinking of erecting a chapel similar to the one at Oak Bridge under the care of Rev. Mr. Barber, whose advancement to the priesthood was among the notable events of the year, and has added much to the efficiency of his work.

We are fortunate in having the services of the Rev. G. C. Whyte,

Ph. D., at Punxsutawney, Horatio, Adrian and Brookville. The chapel at Horatio, by his efforts, has been freed from debt, and the congregation at Punxsutawney are beginning to think of erecting a chapel.

A new chapel of St. Laurence has been built at Osceola Mills and the mission at Peale has been revived. The people at Osceola and Houtzdale are asking for the services of a clergyman.

The missions at Miles Grove and Conneautville suffer from the loss of regular services, but arrangements will soon be made for their supply.

Union City is making steady progress. Many improvements have been made in St. Matthew's Church, and it will be consecrated in September.

The new church of St. Bartholomew, at Scottdale, has been opened, and Scottdale has been connected with New Haven, and a clergyman, Rev. Mr. Hargrave, has taken charge of both.

Blairsville and Indiana are looking up under the care of the Rev. Mr. Vance.

The Sunday School has been maintained, with a few services from clergymen, at Brockwayville, during all the past year.

Meyersdale still suffers from its isolated condition, and has had very infrequent services.

Christ Church, Tidioute, has so far made progress that it asks for the entire services of a clergyman.

A new mission has been started at Johnsonburg, and that place will be connected with Youngsville and Kane, and a clergyman should be provided for them.

The mission at Kinzua still shows wonderful vitality, and promises good things in the future.

The old complaint must be repeated that constant changes and vacancies go far to retard the work. Doubtless the fault rests with both the Laity and Clergy, but would it not be wise policy for the Clergy to come to realize that there are difficulties and drawbacks in every field, and that every man ought to try and "earn a good degree" in that part of the mission work over which he is placed as a steward of his Master? As it is, some clergymen seem to remain in a charge until its peculiar problems present themselves and insist on a solution, and then they seek a new field, as though there they would not have to face the same stern duty, show the same loyal service.

Again and again has the Treasurer's account been overdrawn, and he is compelled to come to this Convention with a deficit amounting to $1,500.00.

Thanks to the generosity of some of our good laymen, the missionaries have been paid in full, but must there not be culpable neglect on our part when any such deficiency occurs? Any sort of methodical effort ought to bring in the contributions at least quarterly. And have we any right to be anything less than methodical and profoundly interested in this general work of the Church, which is more pressing and more a matter of duty than that which lies about our very doors?

The Treasurer pays the missionaries' stipends promptly at the expiration of each quarter. We owe him and the generous layman, who advances his own money to pay our obligations, a debt of gratitude. Every motive of honor should prompt us, systematically, to meet our share of this responsibility. It is doubtless true that different plans for raising the missionary contributions must be resorted to in different Parishes. But it is a just contention that some system ought to be adopted in every Parish which would enable it to send its fair quota of contributions before they are needed by our Treasurer.

Brethren, we are not here to contend for rights, nor to quibble about words. We are brought face to face with duties of a most solemn and serious sort. Let us meet those duties in a conscientious, business-like way, and each one, to the best of his ability, do his fair share in giving, or even more than his fair share, as a loving service to the Master.

Would that every one could understand the conditions and promise of the missionary work. Towns are springing into existence and growing into prominence where the voice of the Church is never heard. There are counties even, in which we have neither minister nor church. The young men and women of our Diocese are congregating in educational centers where the Church ought to be active in exerting her peculiar influence. Unfortunately, in many of these places, the Church has no representation, and we are losing an intelligent population which would shortly be a power in propagating the faith as we understand it.

From every side comes up the urgent request for services. Favorable openings multiply about us. Can we possibly fold our hands and do nothing? We have vast wealth within the borders of our fold, and the Church can give her people an education which they can find nowhere else. Christians of other names are entering into our heritage. Can we justify ourselves for inactivity, for lack of knowledge of the work, and of zeal in its propagation?

We beg to submit the following resolution :

Resolved, That this Convention appropriates $—— for mission work in this Diocese for the coming year. That each Parish be earnestly requested to send in its fair quota of quarterly contributions before the 1st of July, October, January and April, when the salaries of the missionaries are due.

ALBERT W. RYAN,

Secretary for The Executive Committee of the Board of Missions.

GEORGE C. BURGWIN,

The Committee on Deficit in the Missionary Treasury reported through Mr. H. L. Foster, Chairman, as follows :

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON DEFICIT IN MISSIONARY TREASURY.

Resolved, That the Convention having voted last year an appropriation of $6,500 for the mission work of this Diocese, is morally bound to provide for the present deficiency before adjournment and should do it by parochial or personal pledges, now to be made.

Adopted.

Mr. Hill Burgwin offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the Convention having heard the remarks of the Rector of St. Andrew's, accompanied by his personal pledge that the deficiency will be made up within thirty days from this time, do accept the said pledge as a sufficient accomplishment of the purpose of the resolution just adopted.

The Rev. Mr. Ensworth offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That this Convention desires to express its sympathy and condolence for the people of Titusville, Oil City and vicinity in the appalling calamity that has recently visited them in the great loss of life and destruction of their homes and property; that we especially tender our sympathy to the Rectors and their congregations in that afflicted region.

Resolved, That every Rector of a Parish in this Diocese be requested and urged to take an offertory on the first Sunday after his return home in aid of the bereaved churches and suffering communities; and that the amounts so raised be forwarded at once to the Rev. Dr. Purdon, of Titusville, and the Rev. Mr. Brooks, of Oil City, to be divided equally between them.

Committee on Unfinished Business reported as follows, through the Rev. A. S. R. Richards:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The Committee on Unfinished Business beg leave to report that the only unfinished business appearing on the minutes of the last Convention appears on page 33 of the Journal, as follows:

Resolved, That the General Convention be requested, in issuing the next standard edition of the Prayer Book, to provide for the rearrangement of its contents according to their natural and orderly sequence.

Respectfully submitted,

A. S. R. RICHARDS,
CLEMENT W. SMITH.

Mr. Hill Burgwin offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the proposed alterations in the Book of Common Prayer to be acted on in the next General Convention be referred to our Deputies-elect to that Convention.

Mr. H. J. Lynch offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the traveling expenses of the Clergy to and from this Convention (whose Parishes have paid all assessments) be paid by Treasurer and that the Sexton of Trinity Church be paid $10.

Mr. Hill Burgwin offered the following resolutions regarding the alterations to the Prayer Book:

Resolved, That the next General Convention be requested to authorize the printing in full of the Proper Psalms and the Selection of Psalms in future editions of the Book of Common Prayer.

Resolved. That the next General Convention be requested—

1st—To appoint a joint commission with instructions to publish, as soon as practicable, an edition of the Book of Common Prayer and other offices of the Church, embodying therein all changes and alterations made therein prior to the adjournment of the Convention ; and to report a revised copy thereof to the Convention of 1895 for adoption as the standard.

2d—And further, that said commission be authorized to publish the Book of Common Prayer and the Book of Offices in separate volumes

Mr. Hill Burgwin moved the adoption of the following resolution :

Resolved, That the General Convention be requested in issuing the next standard edition of the Prayer Book, to provide for the re-arrangement of its contents according to their natural and orderly sequence.

First resolution adopted. Second resolution, the Rev. A. W. Arundel asked for a division of the question. That part referring to a standard Prayer Book in 1895 was adopted. That part referring to two volumes of the Prayer Book was lost. Third resolution was adopted.

The Committee on Resolutions, in memory of the Rev. R. S. Smith, reported through the Rev. Mr. Coster, as follows :

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

Your committee appointed to prepare a minute in regard to the death of the Rev. Richard S. Smith desire, in fulfillment of their duty, to express their high appreciation of his great worth as an earnest churchman and a Christian gentleman. He was identified with this Convention from the organization of this Diocese, and was one of its most faithful workers and most trusted advisors. He was twice a Deputy to the General Convention ; he was long a member of the Committee on Canons, and for many years an active, earnest worker in the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions. He was always deeply interested in the missionary efforts of the Diocese, and endeavored by word and act to promote a harmonious and generous policy in every attempt to extend the Master's kingdom in our borders.

He was a wise, conservative churchman, full of the spirit of his Divine Master. He was steady and consistent in all his actions, wary of new schemes, and firm in the conviction that the churchman's first duty is submission to the Church's authority and guidance in the work that he tries to do in the Master's name. Amid the restlessness and change caused by insufficient support and uncongenial surroundings, he forgot self and worked on steadily and faithfully for thirty years in one Parish, devoting to the duty which Providence had laid upon him all the gifts of mind and heart of a richly-endowed nature.

Those who have sat with him in this body can never forget his dignified manner, his courteous speech, his conciliatory action.

"Among the many lives that I have known, None I remember more serene and sweet."

His presence, his voice, his words, all marked him as a man of peace, as one filled with the spirit of Christ; and though dead, he yet speaketh by his simple faith and his blameless life.

"And now amid the haunts he loved so well
He sleeps, but wakes elsewhere, for God hath said." Amen.

ROBERT J. COSTER,
H. J. LYNCH,
H. G. HALE.

Adopted by a unanimous rising vote.

The order of the day being elections, the Chair appointed Revs. Messrs. Garland and Dyess, tellers for the Clerical vote, and Messrs. Reed and Howard, tellers for the Lay vote—on deputies to the General Convention. The roll was called, a ballot was taken, and the tellers retired to count the vote.

The tellers reported the result of the first ballot, as follows:

A second ballot was then taken for two Clerical Deputies and two Lay Deputies to the General Convention.

The Committee on the State of the Church made its report through the Rev. Mr. Herron, Chairman, as follows :

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE STATE OF THE CHURCH.

The Committee on the State of the Church have had much difficulty in the performance of their work by the negligence of the Clergy in returning their reports to the Bishop at the proper time. It would be well if it were made a canonical requirement that the reports be in the hands of the committee on the day before the assembling of the Convention.

No reports were received from the following Parishes and mission stations, the first two of which are excusable for the remissness :

St. Peter's, Uniontown.	Lawsonham Mission.
St. James', Titusville.	Latrobe Mission.
Bradford, Ascension.	Mercer, Grace.
Clarendon, All Saints'.	Miles Grove, Grace.
Dunbar, St. John's.	Meyersdale, Trinity.
Greensburg, Christ.	New Brighton, Christ.
Homestead, St. Matthew's.	Ohio Township, St. Paul's.
Irwin, St. George's.	Port Allegany, St. Joseph's.
Jefferson County Missions.	Reynoldsville, Holy Spirit.
Jeanette Mission.	Sugar Hill, Intercessor.
Kane Mission.

These Parishes reported 1,276 communicants last year, and with no report this year, the number of communicants which the Convention reports for the Diocese of Pittsburgh must necessarily be inaccurate. Upon the basis of last year's report of these Parishes and stations, the communicants now number 10,472. Your committee are of the opinion that this number would be increased if the requirement of the canon of communicants was faithfully observed. It has come to the knowledge of the committee that the report of the canonical communicants has, in many cases, been purely guesswork. The amendment of this canon is confessedly a pressing need, especially as a number of the reports show that no attention has been paid to the requirement of the canon. Your committee would therefore call the attention of the Convention to the apparent fact that the canon is considered by a part of the Clergy as unconstitutional. The state of the Church, however, is not mainly a question of mathematics, and your committee take pleasure in reporting that the Brotherhood of St. Andrew is now established in 25 Parishes with an aggregate membership of 300.

One-half of this number are in the two cities of Allegheny and Pittsburgh. The chapters of this Brotherhood have proved a blessing to the Parishes in every instance, enlisting, as they do, the strength of the young men. Both the political and the industrial progress of the world are due, to a large extent, to the energy of young men, and your committee would commend the Brotherhood of St. Andrew to every Parish of the Diocese, as an agency for the developing of a spiritual force which is already bringing this branch of the Church Catholic to the forefront in the battle of the Lord against unrighteousness. A similar society for the extension of Christ's kingdom among young women, called "The Daughters of the King," a purely Church society, formed upon the same basis as that of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, and subject exclusively to the Rectors of the Parishes, is, in two of our Parishes, Christ Church, Tidioute, and St. John's, Woods Run, proving a valuable additional agency in the spiritual improvement of the state of the Church.

The Executive Committee of the Board of Missions have already reported upon the state of the Church in this regard, and your committee would heartily commend that report, and would emphasize the words of the General Missionary, that "there is yet very much land to be possessed, and it is to be hoped that more men and more means will speedily be forthcoming to the successful prosecution of the great and growing work of Diocesan Missions."

Much good work is being done independently of the Board of Missions, as by the Rectors of Kittanning, Monongahela City and Tidioute, at Ford City, Charleroi and Hemlock. The Church is very much awake throughout the Diocese to its needs and responsibilities.

ROBERT C. CORNELIUS,
W. W. CORCORAN,

The Rev. Mr. Fleming offered the following resolution, which was, on motion, laid on the table :

Resolved, That Section 4 of Article III, of the Constitution be amended by the insertion of the following clause after the word "itself" on the fifth line : "Nor shall any Parish be entitled to a representation in the Convention which shall have failed to send in the customary Parochial report, unless excused by the Convention," and also by the insertion after the word "Convention" on the sixth line of the following: "and of the Chairman of the Committee on the State of the Church."

The report of the Rev. Geo. Rogers, General Missionary, was presented, (see Appendix A).

A third ballot was then taken for two Clerical Deputies and one Lay Deputy to the General Convention.

Mr. Hill Burgwin moved that after this ballot has been taken we go on to ballot for members of the Standing Committee of the Diocese. This was agreed to and the following tellers were appointed, for the Clerical vote, Rev. Messrs. Schepeler and Hemenway; for the Lay vote, Messrs. Corson and Rose.

The Rev. J. L. Taylor moved to suspend the rules of order to allow further nominations for members of the Standing Committee. Agreed to.

The Rev. Henry Purdon, D. D., was nominated.

On motion of Mr. Hill Burgwin, it was agreed that after the taking of this ballot a recess should be taken until 2.30 P. M.

The roll was called, the ballot was taken, and the tellers retired to count the vote.

ACTION OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE DIOCESE OF PITTSBURGH, RELATING TO CONVEYANCES.

At a meeting of the Trustees of the Diocese of Pittsburgh, held on January 23d, 1892, the following resolutions were adopted :

1. That ordinarily the Board will entertain no application for the acceptance of a Deed of Trust, unless said application is accompanied with

First. A brief abstract of title.

Second. A description of the property to be conveyed to the Board of Trustees.

Third. A statement as to what improvements, if any, there are on the land or what improvements are proposed to be put on it; and the Deed shall in all cases set forth explicitly the Trusts, if any, upon which it is proposed to convey.

Fourth. A statement of any and all indebtedness, if any, subject to which the conveyance is made.

2. That the foregoing resolution be printed for convenient reference and use.

REPORT OF REV. AUSTIN W. MANN,

PRIEST, GENERAL MISSIONARY TO DEAF MUTES.

To the Right Reverend CORTLANDT WHITEHEAD, D. D., Bishop of Pittsburgh:

Between June 1, 1891, and June 1, 1892, I held services for deaf mutes at Trinity and Calvary Churches, Pittsburgh, and St. Paul's Church, Erie, with increased attendance. Holy Communion has been celebrated at each morning service at Trinity Church, Pittsburgh, baptisms, Calvary Church, Pittsburgh, 1; confirmations, Trinity Church, Pittsburgh, 6 at one service, 2 at another—total, 8; St. Paul's Church, Erie, 1; total, 9. Communicants, Pittsburgh and environs, 24; Erie, 2; Lundy's Lane, near Miles Grove, 1; McKeesport, 1. Total, 28.

Baptisms during the year, in the entire field of fifteen Dioceses, 44; confirmations, 74; communicants, 503. Besides the usual services in churches and chapels during the year, I have officiated at State schools for deaf children and served as Chaplain of Alumni Conventions. Prayer-books, Lenten literature and tracts have been distributed as in past years.

If the rectors of country Parishes would show an interest in the deaf, living within their parochial limits, by calling on them and encouraging attendance at regular services, by having church people show them the places in the Prayer-book, much good will result. A number have been brought to baptism and confirmation in this way.

Messrs. B. R. Allabough and Frank A. Leitner, officially connected with the Western Pennsylvania School for the Deaf, were licensed by you this year to read the Church's Services under my direction. They report increasing attendance and interest.

REPORT OF REV. THOS. CRUMPTON, D. D

PITTSBURGH, June 7th, 1892.

Right Reverend CORTLANDT WHITEHEAD, D. D.,

MY DEAR BISHOP: I hope you will excuse the lateness of my report, and attribute it not to neglect, but to the forgetfulness of my infirmities. I have performed no ministerial services during the last year.

Yours most affectionately, etc.,

THOS. CRUMPTON,
Amber Street, E. E., Pittsburgh.

REPORT OF REV. WM. WHITE, D. D.

Have held services at Butler on the alternate Sundays since October, when the Parish became vacant, and is so yet. Since, have been able to give one service when there was no supply, either by the General Missionaries or by the Missionary in charge. My services are as follows: Services on Sundays, 26; marriages, 2; baptisms, adults, 2; children, 9. Total, 11. Holy Communion, 5.

WILLIAM WHITE, D. D.,
Missionary Emeritus.

VERONA, PA., June 1st, 1892.

To the Right Reverend CORTLANDT WHITEHEAD, D. D.

My Dear Bishop:—Herewith I send you my report of work done as General Missionary from April 22d to May 31st, 1892: Visited 7 Parishes: Oil City, Meadville, Franklin, New Castle, Ridgway, Warren and Brownsville, and 13 Missions, viz.: Mercer, Greenville, Miles Grove, Conneautville, Leechburg, Kinzua, Johnsonburg, Kane, Brockwayville, Du Bois, Rothmel, Reynoldsville and Oak Ridge. I have preached 25 times to congregations which numbered in the aggregate 892 people, made several addresses to Sunday Schools, administered Holy Communion 5 times, the number of recipients being 80. Baptized 1 infant, and made a large number of calls at the various missions. During this, my first tour, principally through the northern half of the Diocese, nothing has so strongly impressed itself on my mind as this, "There is yet very much land to be possessed," and it is to be hoped that more men and more means will speedily be forthcoming to the successful prosecution of the great and growing work of Diocesan Missions.

Faithfully yours,

GEORGE ROGERS, General Missionary.

To the Right Reverend CORTLANDT WHITEHEAD, D. D.

My Dear Bishop:—My work since my appointment on Feb. 14th, 1892, may be briefly stated as follows: Public Services—Offices of the Church at various places, 62 times; Celebration of the Holy Communion, 9 times; Sermons and Addresses, 54; Administration of Holy Baptism to 5 persons; Officiated at 1 funeral.

Respectfully submitted,

Your obedient servant in the Church,

J. H. BARNARD, General Missionary.

ST. MARGARET MEMORIAL HOSPITAL.

PITTSBURGH, PA., June 8, 1892.

To the Secretary of the Convention.

Dear Sir:—Since my report to the last Convention the Board of Trustees of St. Margaret Memorial Hospital organized as a body corporate under the laws of Pennsylvania, and elected the following officers, to wit. : William Mullins, President; Wilson Miller, Secretary; John B. Jackson, Treasurer. This action was taken in compliance with the 15th clause of the will of the late John H. Shoenberger, but, owing to legal obstacles, nothing further has been accomplished.

The latest information that the Board has obtained from the Executors is that the Hospital bequest is about to be, or has been already, attacked.

This action will necessarily cause further delay until the question shall have been disposed of. But aside from this the Executors state that the estate is so far from settlement that considerable time must elapse before the Hospital bequest can be reached.

Very respectfully yours,

W. MULLINS, President.

TWELFTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE PITTSBURGH DIO-CESAN BRANCH OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY
TO THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

The past year has been marked by no great changes, and the work of the Society has progressed in a quiet and uneventful manner.

According to the change in the Constitution, the Annual Meeting was held November 3d. It took place in Trinity Chapel. After a brief service and address by the Bishop of the Diocese, Bishop Brewer, of Montana, gave an interesting sketch of his jurisdiction, his needs and methods of work, gracefully adding that he saw the great necessities of the Diocese of Pittsburgh as well. At the business meeting the same officers were re-elected for the ensuing year.

The Enrollment Fund was again discussed, and a plan proposed for taking mite boxes and contributing in them at least five cents weekly, to be presented as part of the "United Offering" of the Woman's Auxiliary, at the time of the General Convention, in October. Had the enthusiasm of the preceding year, aroused at the time of the Missionary Council in Pittsburgh, been sustained, much better results might have been gained. But different discouraging circumstances have combined to greatly dampen the interest felt at that time.

Miss Carter being compelled by ill health to resign active work for the Board of Missions, and taking charge of an Indian Hospital at White Earth Reservation, Minnesota, her friends in Pittsburgh contributed, through the Women's Auxiliary, the necessary salary. As many supplies were needed, several barrels of groceries, etc., were sent by different Parishes.

January 25th being the tenth anniversary of Bishop Whitehead's consecration, some members of the Woman's Auxiliary thought it would be suitable and acceptable to present him with an offering for his diocesan work. Accordingly, the sum of three hundred and thirty-three dollars ($333.00) was contributed, which he was much pleased to receive. There is a growing sense of the needs of our own Diocese which may bear good results in the future.

The sum pledged to Miss Emery for the year, from this Diocese, was six hundred dollars :

For Foreign Insurance.....	$150
For Miss Goepp, China	150
For Mrs. Clarkson, South.....	125
For Miss Francis, St. Elizabeth's.....	125
For Domestic Contingent Fund.	50
Total.....	$600

The large city Parishes, for the most part, fulfilled their pledges in good season, but the smaller sums from more distant points have been slowly contributed. What we need very much is the co-operation of the smaller Parishes, especially those outside the city of Pittsburgh. Those delegates near might occasionally attend the monthly meetings. Of course, those more distant lose some opportunities of hearing all that is needed and spoken of at such times, but full reports are furnished in the Church News, and any information would gladly be given by either of the Secretaries. Besides all else that comes up, a certain sum is pledged in the beginning of the year to Miss Emery for specific objects named. Small amounts of even five dollars from Parishes unable to do more, would be of great assistance. Some send ten dollars, which are as gladly received as much greater sums from the larger Parishes. With much to be grateful for, the year has not been free from discouragements. Some Parishes are burdened with debt, or engaged in church building, or hampered in other ways.

Whatever the causes, the Auxiliary Society is not the last to feel any diminution in contributions. And yet very much depends on its ability to meet its engagements. It is careful not to promise more than it can reasonably expect to fulfill. For several years, until the present, it has not increased the sum of five hundred dollars for joint work. This year six hundred dollars were pledged, instead of fifteen hundred asked for. We cannot enlarge our borders without steady, systematic effort. The amount that it can contribute should be considered by each parochial society at the beginning of a working season, be the sum great or small.

The work that offers is almost boundless. Appeals from all quarters are coming in, and there are generous hearts and willing hands, but still the needs cannot be met. We should be thankful that among those largely blessed with this world's goods there are some ready to make up many deficiencies. Were it not so, our reports would fail to make so good a showing.

The Church Periodical Club continues its good work, and has increased the number of Librarians. In response to a request for assistance to begin an Endowment Fund as a memorial of Mrs. Fargo, who established the work and had charge of it until her death, Bishop Whitehead sent a contribution through the Woman's Auxiliary, and it is desirable that others be added. So far, reading matter has been sent by mail at the cost of the donor, but as the work increases funds are necessary for printing, postage and other expenses. A much larger number might be interested in this labor of love at the cost of a little effort and expense to each individual. All information on this subject may be obtained from Mrs. H. Doubleday, No. 201 Coltart Square, Correspondent for this Diocese. The total number of books, papers, etc., distributed the past year is five thousand, four hundred and seventy-five.

A "Quiet Day" for women was held in Trinity Chapel, February 20th. The services were conducted by Bishop Whitehead, Rev. Dr. Holland, of St. Louis, and the city clergy. Our thanks are due the Church News for full reports of all the monthly meetings. All parochial and hospital work is acknowledged there, while the Annual Report is confined to missionary work.

In closing, it must be stated that the whole amount pledged by the Pittsburgh Branch has been made up. The reports from some Parishes of the Northern Convocation have been quite encouraging, owing to the careful oversight of the Second Vice President, Miss Davis, of Meadville. With a branch of the Auxiliary in every Parish, under an earnest and diligent leader, the results attainable can hardly be estimated. That this may some day be the case is our earnest prayer, with devout thanksgiving to the great Head of the Church for that which He has so far permitted us to do in His Name.

M. A. TSCHUDI, Recording Secretary.

REPORT OF JUNIOR AUXILIARY FOR YEAR ENDING JUNE, 1892.

The third year of the Junior Auxiliary of the Diocese of Pittsburgh concludes with its usual report of work done, new branches formed and general interest maintained. Those of us who have had experience with the work of children—and grown people—know that the difficulty does not consist in starting a branch of some new organization, but in sustaining the interest, energy and enthusiasm with which the work began. On the whole our Juniors have done well; some few have waxed weary, but the majority have persevered when such labor involved self-denial both of precious playtime and still more precious pennies. There are now twenty-nine working branches in this Diocese, representing city Parishes and those in the country, where distance comes in as an additional hindrance in missionary zeal. Several branches have been formed in Parishes where there is as yet no branch of the Woman's Auxiliary. Could we but realize that our work is fitting the boys and girls to take place as members of the Laymen's League, St. Andrew's Brotherhood, and the Woman's Auxiliary, making them better, because more intelligent Church men and women, I think we would strive to make our meetings more helpful and attractive in every way, and more productive of the best good.

Our joint contribution of $125 for a scholarship in Japan is larger than last year's, and we feel that we owe this to the earnest work of Mrs. Soule, who so well laid down the principle of larger giving each year.

Our Christmas work was also well planned and arranged. Many branches began preparations during the Spring and Summer, and the thirteen well-filled boxes sent to the Rev. Charles Cook, South Dakota, showed that not only the children but also the parents had an interest in the Indians.

It is proposed to hold quarterly meetings of the Junior Auxiliary Branches next year, realizing how much is to be gained from organization and interchange of thought and experience.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF THE BOARD
OF MANAGERS OF THE CHURCH HOME.—1891-'92.

This has been a year so uneventful that but little history has been made. Much too uneventful for the wishes of the Managers who had had visions of the building of a large, airy, convenient house where those under their care could be better looked after, and where they, themselves, would soon be freed from the continual cry for repairs which they know will but tide over an emergency, and that very soon others will be needed, until they have come to look on the old house as a sort of crazy quilt made up of new and old patches, the few new ones only serving to show more clearly the dilapidation of the whole.

Should this be so, when $15,000 added to what is already held by the Trustees would build a house such as is needed to properly carry on the work of caring for the helpless members of the Church? Will not those present here to-night give as he is able that we may have a clean, wholesome home, properly equipped for our work, which is the thing desired, not an ornamental building but a useful one.

We wish very much that our friends would accept an invitation extended by means of circulars distributed in the Churches some time since and come to see for themselves the condition of the Home better than they can do in the crowd at the Festival, and we feel sure that if they will do this they will better appreciate the urgent need of a new house. One of our subscribers visited the Home for the first time last Winter and showed how he was impressed by making a very generous gift, and he also said that he would always feel that in no way could he better use his money when he thought of those little children taken often from so much want and neglect and cared for and taught and given healthful minds and bodies with which to start in their life's work. In June Mrs. James P. Speer presented her resignation as Manager which was accepted with great regret, she being one of the oldest members of the Board. Miss Louise Speer was elected to fill her place.

In July an extra meeting was held to select a new teacher, Miss Indiana Loomis having resigned after having filled the vacancy, caused by Miss Haines' departure, very acceptably to the Managers. Several names were presented and at the August meeting Miss Fair was chosen. She has proved most valuable and well suited to her position. In September Mrs. D. G. Stewart's resignation was presented and accepted with much regret. In January Mrs. Reuben Miller also presented her resignation as Manager, on account of ill health, but was asked to take a vacation of a year and then resume the work if she is able. In November Mrs. H. C. Frick was elected Manager.

February 2d being the Feast of Purification, the Bishop made his annual visitation, spending the entire day at the Home and holding two services at which the Rev. Mr. Danner, our new Chaplain, was present ; these services are much appreciated, especially by our aged inmates, and this day is looked forward to by them for many weeks. In February Mrs. A. S. M. Morgan was elected Vice President.

The usual Christmas visit of Santa Claus under the direction of Gusky's was made and was a source of great delight to the children and pleasure to the rest of the household. Many others of our friends remembered us at this time. The Fair and Festival held last June was more successful than ever before, and the sum netted was a very important addition to the income of the Home, which is still too small to supply the needs of the family, and again this year the Board of Trustees have had to be called upon to make up the deficit, as they have done for three years past. This is not due, we hope, to any extravagance on the part of the Managers, but to the fact that as yet we have received nothing from Mr. Shoenberger's legacy, and miss his annual contribution, which it was meant to replace. The health of the household has been good, with the exception of the illness incident to old age. Mrs. Blackhurst, one of the aged inmates, died in June last, after a lingering illness.

There are at present 60 children in the Home. 20 children have been returned to relations and friends, and 21 have been admitted during the year. Five have been provided with good homes. There are eleven old people in the Home at present.

Miss Loomis still continues to give the greatest satisfaction as Matron, and the Managers wish to express their appreciation of her services. They would also like to thank personally each of their generous friends, but can select only a few of many names. The following Churches have sent most acceptable contributions of clothing, etc. : The Church of the Ascension, Calvary, Emmanuel, St. Andrew's, St. Luke's, St. Paul's, St. Peter's, the Church of the Good Shepherd ; Hazelwood, St. Stephen's ; Sewickley, and from Foxburg.

Dr. Hanna, Dr. Harris, Dr. Lippencott, the Children's Hospital, the Cancer Hospital, have all been kind friends to us in need.

The Festival will be held on June 16th, and we depend on you to help us make it a success.

Respectfully submitted,

ANNA D. JOHNSTON, Secretary.

PROPER FORMS AND INSTRUCTIONS FOR MAKING
CONVEYANCES TO THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE DIOCESE OF PITTSBURGH.

FORM NO. 1.

From Individual Grantors to the Board of Trustees of the Diocese.

THIS INDENTURE,

Made this first day of June, Anno Domini, 1892, by and between John Smith, of the County of Allegheny in the State of Pennsylvania, and Mary his wife, parties of the first part, and the Board of Trustees for the Diocese of Pittsburgh, a corporation or body politic, duly incorporated by the laws of Pennsylvania, and having its office or principal place of business in the City of Pittsburgh and State aforesaid, party of the second part,

WITNESSETH, That the said parties of the first part, for and in consideration of the sum of [usually one dollar] have granted, bargained and sold, and by these presents do grant, bargain, sell and convey to the said party of the second part, its successors and assigns,

All that certain lot or parcel of land, situate in the Borough of Norfolk, County of Allegheny and State aforesaid, bounded and described as follows :

[Describe the property carefully by metes and bounds, referring to a plan where one exists.]

The above described land being [part of] the same which Thomas Jones and wife, by their deed dated the 4th day of July, 1876, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of said County in Deed Book Vol. 50, Page 99, granted and conveyed to the above named [John Smith or Mary Smith] as by reference to said [plan and] deed will more fully and at large appear.

To have and to hold the land and premises hereinbefore described and conveyed, with the appurtenances, to the said party of the second part, its successors and assigns, to and for the use and behoof of the said party of the second part, its successors and assigns forever :

In trust, however, and upon the condition to hold the same under the Constitution and Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, for the use and benefit of said Church in the Diocese of Pittsburgh in the said Borough of Norfolk ; the net revenue and income thereof to be applied to the use aforesaid under the direction of the Bishop for the time being, of the said Diocese, until some congregation or Parish of the said Church, legally and canonically organized in the borough aforesaid, and received into union with the Convention of the said Diocese, shall have been legally incorporated under the laws of the said State, and then, by and with the advice and consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee of the said Diocese, in trust, to grant and convey the said property to the said Parish corporation, to be held by it under the terms of its Charter, with provision made in such conveyance that the grantee corporation shall not alien or encumber the said land and premises without the consent of the above named Board of Trustees being first had and obtained. Provided also, however, that the said Board of Trustees in its discretion, and for promoting the true ends and purposes of this trust, shall have power to sell and convey, or otherwise dispose of the said property, or any part thereof, and hold the proceeds of any such sale or sales under the same trusts, and for the same purposes as above described, and without liability upon the part of said Board of Trustees for any moneys not actually received by it, nor for any act or default upon its part done or suffered in good faith, and without liability on the part of any purchaser or vendee in any sale made by said Board of Trustees for the true and proper application by them of the proceeds of any sale made by them as aforesaid.

[The usual covenant of Warranty.]

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, The said parties of the first part have hereunto set their hands and seals. Dated the day and year first above written.

Signed, sealed and delivered in the presence of us,

[SEAL.]

[SEAL.]

FORM No. 2.

From an Incorporated Parish to the Board of Trustees.

THIS INDENTURE,

Made this first day of June, Anno Domini, 1892, by and between the Rector, Church-Wardens and Vestrymen of St. Jude's Church, Clifton, in the County of Allegheny and State of Pennsylvania, a corporation duly incorporated under the laws of the said State, party of the first part, and the Board of Trustees for the Diocese of Pittsburgh, a corporation or body politic, duly incorporated by the laws aforesaid, and having its office or principal place of business in the City of Pittsburgh and State aforesaid, party of the second part,

· WITNESSETH, That the said parties of the first part [and so on as in Form No. 1, which is to be followed as far as the words "in trust, however"];

In trust, however, and upon condition to hold the same under the Constitution and Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, and for the use and benefit of said Church in the Diocese of Pittsburgh aforesaid; the net revenue and income thereof, and the use and occupation of any Church edifice and other buildings erected thereon, to be under the control and direction of the Bishop, for the time being, of the said Diocese, for the use of the Church aforesaid, and primarily of the congregation or Parish of St. Jude's Church so long as it may continue in union with the Convention of the said Diocese. . Provided also, however, that the said Board of Trustees in its discretion, and for promoting the true ends and purposes of this trust, shall have power to sell and convey, or otherwise dispose of the said property, or any part thereof, and hold the proceeds of any such sale or sales under the same trusts, and for the same purposes as above described, and without liability upon the part of said Board of Trustees for any moneys not actually received by it, nor for any act or default upon its part done or suffered in good faith, and without liability on the part of any purchaser or vendee in any sale made by said Board of Trustees for the true and proper application by them of the proceeds of any sale made by them as aforesaid.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, and under and by virtue of a resolution to that effect duly adopted at a meeting of the Vestry of the said St. Jude's Church duly held on the 10th day of May, 1892, William Brown, Rector of the said Church, hath hereto set his hand and affixed the corporate seal of the said corporation, party of the first part, attested by Edward Williams, the Secretary of said Vestry.

COUNTY OF ALLEGHENY, }
CITY OF PITTSBURGH, } ss :

Be it remembered that on this day of May, A. D. 1892, before me a Notary Public in and for said County, residing in the City of Pittsburgh, came personally Edward Williams, Secretary of St. Jude's Church, Clifton, who being duly sworn did make oath and say, that he was present and did see William Brown, Rector of St. Jude's Church, Clifton, sign the above and foregoing written conveyance, and affix thereto the common and corporate seal of said corporation, which is the same seal now thereto affixed, and then deliver the said conveyance as the act and deed of the said corporation ; and that the said Edward Williams did thereupon subscribe his name as Secretary of said Corporation, to the said conveyance in due attestation ; and his name now subscribed thereto as such Secretary as aforesaid, is in the proper handwriting of him, the said Edward Williams.

Subscribed and sworn to, this day of , 1892, before me

NOTES.

1. The above forms are given because they are most frequently in use. They may readily be used on other occasions, mutatis mutandis.

2. The trusts expressed in these forms may also be changed, condensed or amplified at pleasure, but should always contain the clause providing that the property should be held under the Constitution, etc., of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, for the use and benefit of the said Church in the Diocese of Pittsburgh.

3 No conveyance should be executed unless the emergency be pressing, nor in any case be recorded, till submitted to the Chancellor or Board of Trustees for examination.

4. All deeds should contain a reference to the title of the grantor.

5. A corporation, whether grantor or grantee, is a person, and must grant or purchase by its correct corporate name, to be ascertained by examination of its charter ; the individuals forming the corporation should not be named.

6. As a necessary preliminary to the execution of any deed under Form 2, the corporation grantor must adopt a resolution authorizing a deed to be made on the trusts which are set forth in the deed.

7. In a deed from a corporation special care must be taken to have the attesting clause beginning "In testimony whereof," etc., and also the probate before the Notary Public, drawn in proper form.

8. It should be borne in mind that if a deed be made to the Board of Trustees without specific trusts upon which the property is to be held, complications might arise and judicial proceedings become necessary to straighten or remove them.

REMARKS.—The undersigned took charge of this work, together with that at Indiana, on Easter Day. Services are held in each place on alternate Sundays. The report from each Parish is of necessity very fragmentary. For more than a year they have been without regular services. The affairs of St. Peter's, Blairsville, are found to be very much disorganized. The records of past official acts are incomplete and afford but little satisfactory data to draw from. The Church edifice, from its long disuse, needs much repairing. The congregation is now making a strong effort to raise the necessary funds to put it in better condition. The town is growing rapidly and many new families are moving in. From these we hope to increase our number, and grow strong where heretofore we have been weak.

REMARKS.--The above report should be regarded rather as that of a new and successful Mission than that of an old Parish. The church was destroyed by fire in January, 1890, and during that year the Parish declined to the point of extinction. It was little else than a name, a lot of ground with a heap of ruins, a dilapidated rectory and some insurance money in bank, when the present incumbent took the work in charge, in January, 1891. Within six months from that date the chapel portion of the church was ready for use and the services transferred thither. On the 6th of December following the beautiful church itself was formally opened by the Bishop of the Diocese, fully and richly appointed. To accomplish this and to put the rectory in complete repair, have strained the resources of the Parish and of its friends to the utmost, rendering it impossible to give that attention to outside demands ordinarily expected. The old records of the Church were destroyed with it, and new statistics could only be approximately given. What has been done is a valuable contribution to the missionary work of the Diocese and of the Church at large, both in material property and as a centre of influence in the future. The Woman's Guild, Young People's Association and the Industrial School have worked most effectively and contributed largely to the general expenditures, while the St. Andrew's Brotherhood has started a hopeful mission in the neighborhood, under one of its members, now a licensed Lay Reader.

REMARKS.--In my last report I mentioned certain memorials as ordered and in course of preparation. I have the pleasure of saying that they have been completed and put in place during the year, as follows: Three very beautiful windows, as provided for in the will of the late Mrs. Mary McKenna. All the windows in the church--eight in number, including the chancel--are memorial, and form a beautiful and harmonious series. The brass altar rail, oak top, the brass cross, and two cases provided for in the will of the late Miss Isabella L. Sweitzer, are finished and in place, as memorials to her grandparents. Mr. George W. Johnstone and Mrs. Eliza Johnstone McCormick have placed in the church during the year an elegant brass prayer desk, oak top, to the memory of their parents, John and Jane Johnstone.

REMARKS.—The Guild of the Nativity, organized in November last, and composed of ladies belonging to the congregation, has done very efficient work. The receipts from all sources have been $97.49; of which has been expended in various good works the sum of $85.29. During Lent the Guild prepared and sent to a missionary in West Virginia a box valued at $75.

Early in January, seven gentlemen of the Parish organized a Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew. The Chapter is number 780, and is proving a very useful Parish helper.

REMARKS.—The present Rector took charge Jan. 1st, 1892. The report in some respects is necessarily incomplete. Official acts of the Rev. C. L. Bates, also of Rev. F. E. Badger, are included in statistics.

Messrs. Geo. M. Judd, Josiah Howard and John Gilmore did valuable service as Lay Readers during a six months' vacancy of Rectorship in conducting Sunday and week-day services, and their aid is much appreciated still by the present Rector.

A Rectory is in the course of erection—a memorial to the late C. B. Howard, former Senior Warden, in loving memory by his sons.

The Parish is in good condition and the attendance during the year upon all the public services has been better than ever before. A new pipe-organ has been ordered, and the money is in hand to pay for it. The whole of the old debt has been provided for. The parishioners are attentive and reverent in Church, and are willing to do what is reasonable and right. The Woman's Guild has been especially active and faithful; the Altar Guild young ladies have done much that is commendable and helpful, and the Chapter of the Junior Auxiliary has worked and accomplished "good things" in behalf of "Colored Missions." The Vestrymen are reliable and sagacious business men, and the Rector, at this time, upon resigning his post of duty, to take up a more laborious work in the distant west, feels that the time is not very far off when St. Clement's Parish will rank high in the list of Parishes in this Diocese. May God speed the day!

ALEXANDER VANCE, Minister in Charge.

REMARKS.—Services were resumed here on 1st Sunday after Easter, having been suspended for more than a year. Our little Church community has in the meantime remained about stationary in numbers. The Bishop has visited the station several times in the interim, but aside from that the Church has been continuously closed. The only hope for much expansion is at the large State Normal School, which is located in Indiana; and though that will not directly benefit the Parish yet it will the young people concerned and the Church at large. Efforts are being made to put the Church edifice in better repair. Electric lighting has been put in already, and the other needed improvements will be added slowly.

REMARKS.—Under the caption, "Repairs, Improvements, Memorials, etc.," is reported the sum of $2,651.20. Of this amount about one thousand dollars came from parishioners; the balance from extra-parochial sources.

A Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew has been organized and is doing good work. Two of the members, Messrs. Citz and Corthell, conduct evening prayers regularly every Sunday at All Saints', except the fourth Sunday in each month, when they take the service at St. Mark's, the Rector being at All Saints'.

REMARKS.—The Parish is working for a new organ to replace the old one, which is almost worn out. It will cost $2,200, and will be in place by Sept. 1st, 1892. The Rector has continued the mission service at Ford City regularly through the year, and can report the work there in shape for the immediate building of the church, for which a lot is already secured, through the generosity of Capt. Ford, of the Plate Glass Works. When the church is completed, we have in hand $500; then it is to be hoped that a regular missionary may be sent there by the Board. During the year St. Paul's Sisterhood has been organized. It has proved a most active and valuable association.

REMARKS.—1. The apparent discrepancy between the stipulated salary of the minister and the amount paid, is explained by the fact that the present minister has not been in charge a full year.

2. The minister regrets that the arrangement of the Sunday services is necessarily such that he seldom has an opportunity to see or instruct personally, the children of the Sunday School.

REMARKS.—The Parish received a donation this year of $400.00 from Mrs. John H. Shoenberger, being the amount of an old mortgage which the Shoenberger estate held against the Parish, of which the present vestry were ignorant, but which they paid in full on presentation. This amount, most kindly refunded by Mrs. Shoenberger, was made the nucleus of a Sinking Fund for Church Improvement.

The vestry have now resolved to build an entirely new Church to cost $16,000, and the plan is now to begin next Spring. The Improvement Committee have already $1,000 in bank, and both congregation and vestry feel that the Church can be built at an early day. It is a cause for congratulation that the Parish becomes self-supporting this year. The missionary societies, both adult and junior, have done faithful work, and everything betokens a happy future.

REMARKS.—A vested choir was organized and trained by Mr. R. A. Davidson during the Winter and Spring, and has given much satisfaction. The house and lot on the west side of the Church has been purchased for a Rectory, but as considerable repairing will have to be done, it will be some time before it will be ready for that purpose. The Church was to have been consecrated, and a class was ready for confirmation upon the time set for the Bishop's visitation, April '00, but on account of the serious illness of the Rector at that time, it was the general wish that the visitation of the Bishop for that purpose be postponed; hence there were no confirmations this year.

REMARKS.—The congregation has completed a Church building during the year and paid for the same without outside aid, with the exception of $548.65 debt—$500 of which is promised us during the present month. This Church building was designed and constructed under the supervision of our Senior Warden, Mr. T. J. Brereton, and is one of the handsomest mission chapels in the Diocese, taking its cost into consideration. The most pressing need of this Parish at this time is a Priest to take charge of it, as the Deacon, being a perpetual Deacon, earns his living at a secular occupation. We have a grand missionary field here, and the Parish can be made self-sustaining in a very short time, if a Priest can be secured.

Holy Communion was celebrated once by the Bishop, once by Dr. Norman, once by the Rev. Mr. Luke, twice by the Rev. Mr. Cairns, once by the Rev. Mr. CURTIS, and sixteen times by the Rev. Mr. Thorn.

REMARKS.—During the past year a valuable house and lot was deeded to St. James' Church by Mr. and Mrs. Felix R. Brunot, and is now the property of the Parish. The building is of brick. It has been recently constructed with all the modern improvements. It is situated on Cliff Street, and is within easy access of the Church by way of the Penn Incline. The house was originally built by the donors, and has been the home of the present Rector and family since its construction.

REMARKS.—Accepted call to the Rectorship February 1, 1892. Moved into Parish first week in April. My time has been so fully occupied in attending to the thorough repairing and improvement of the rectory property, and the furnishing of the new Church building, that I have not been able to do much Parochial work as yet. Owing to the fact that for nearly a year the congregation was worshipping in an inconvenient hall, and to other untoward circumstances, the Parish is in a somewhat disorganized condition. I cannot at this moment render a just and accurate report. The Church is now about completed, but the financial matters are not fully adjusted yet. Some considerable indebtedness will remain. As Chaplain of the "Church Home," I hold service in the Chapel every Sunday afternoon, and morning service, with catechising of the children, on Wednesdays. Visit as occasion may require.

REMARKS.—On Christmas Day, 1891, the Senior Warden, Mr. Henry J. Lynch placed on the altar, as an offering, his claim against the Church property, being a mortgage for $5,862, dated June 5, 1873, less an Easter offering of $1,500, dated March 26, 1891, together with accrued interest amounting to $6,459.69. This gift was made on the condition that it should be used always for Church purposes, and should be invested in Church property only in the 20th ward.

REMARKS.—It was decided a year ago to build a new Church in our present location. There were a good many necessary delays. In the meantime an opportunity offered to secure a fine site in a more central location. The Vestry has decided to make the change. It is hoped a Chapel will be erected on the new grounds during this summer. The new location is at the junction of Centre Avenue, Dinwiddie and Devilliers Streets, fronting both on Centre and Wylie Avenues.

REMARKS.—These Missions have raised during the past year $3,934.42, of which $186.36 has been given to Diocesan and Extra Diocesan objects, and $2,771.10 was devoted to building purposes. On April 24th, the corner-stone of a chapel was laid at Knoxville. The cost of the building will be about $2,500. St. George's, West End, has also commenced work on a church.

Three Chapters of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew have been organized during the past year, and one Chapter of the Daughters of the King, at St. John's, Allegheny City. This Mission has made decided progress; a lot has been promised when the building fund is larger.

REMARKS.—Having taken up this work August 1, 1891, I am able to make the report of services, etc., from that time only, as the Rev. Mr. Wolcott left me no report. Everything looks very favorable to a large growth of the Church, and we hope by God's help to widen the bounds of Christ's Kingdom in this Parish. It is needless for me to speak of the good work done in this Parish by our self-sacrificing and devoted Warden and Lay Reader, Mr. H. M. Clarke. Under his management the Sunday School is flourishing, and his Bible Class is always making candidates for confirmation.

REMARKS.—A Unitarian Society has organized and purposes erecting a building near St. Matthew's. There are four denominations active in Union, and the Unitarian will be five. They all have two services on Sundays and Sunday Schools. It is very much against the growth and prosperity of St. Matthew's that the Church can be opened but part of a Sunday, for a morning or evening service, as the case may be. Union City is a thriving business town, and people who understand say that property is growing in value. The sooner the services of a clergyman can be wholly given at this point, the better it will be. For a Church having no wealth—not a dollar beyond daily earnings—no more faithful and prompt can be found.

REMARKS.—This report, so far as it concerns the work of the Parish, is made up to Easter Day, April 17, when the resignation of Rev. George Rogers took effect, and he became General Missionary of the Diocese. The Rev. Laurens M'Lure took charge of the Parish, as Rector on the 15th day of May. In the interval services were conducted by laymen of the Parish. The present Rector has officiated as follows: Services held, 7; sermons, 7; baptisms, 1. In addition to the above, the Woman's Auxiliary sent a box of clothing, etc., valued at $90, to the Rev. J. O.

Ferris, Omaha, Neb., for Christmas. Also, the Junior Auxiliary sent a box, valued at $15, to Mr. Cook's school at Pine Ridge Agency, and has contributed $5 to the "Fresh Air Fund."

REMARKS.—The Rectory and grounds have been placed in first rate order. Bible room fitted up; gas fixtures provided throughout. A handsome porch has been built and the grounds sodded and terraced in front. Also a cut stone wall and steps have taken the place of the old front fence. For these two last items the Parish is once more indebted to the generosity of the Senior Warden. The Ladies' Aid Society, besides assisting the Vestry in the general repairs, has handsomely carpeted the ground floor and stairs of the Rectory.

The Bishop's Address.

Dear Brethren of the Clergy and Laity :

Although this is the eleventh Convention in which we have met together, it is virtually the close of the tenth year of my Episcopate, inasmuch as our first Convention occurred a few months after my consecration. On the actual anniversary, St. Paul's Day, in January last, the Clergy of the Diocese united in the celebration of the event. The service was held at Trinity Church, Pittsburgh, on which occasion I delivered a charge on "The Doctrine of Christ as this Church hath received the same." Many of the Clergy and Laity joined with me in the celebration of the Holy Communion; later a banquet was given by the Clergy of Pittsburgh to those of their brethren of the Diocese who could be present, at which many kind things were said, many good wishes uttered, and a handsome testimonial presented by the Clergy of the Diocese—all of which was very gratifying to me as an expression of the affection of my people. A portion of my remarks on that occasion will be appended to this address; but as no statistics were then given of that part of the work which can be expressed by figures, I will insert them here, including the whole time up to this Convention. The comparative condition of the Diocese in 1882 and 1892 is shown by the following summary:—

	1882.	1892.
Clergy in the Diocese,	45	64
Parishes in union with the Convention,	58	62
Missions,	11	56
Communicants, about,	6,000	10,000
Sunday School Teachers,	495	780
Sunday School Pupils,	4,749	7,956
Parish Churches,	58	63
Mission Churches,	17	32
Rectories,	15	30

The annual summaries of the work in which the Bishop has been personally engaged show the following totals:—

Services participated in,	- - - - -	2,528
Sermons preached,	- - - - -	1,609
Confirmation and other addresses,	- - - - -	1,833
Whole number confirmed,	- - - - -	8,452
Holy Communion celebrated,	- - - - -	770
Baptisms,	- - - - -	267
Marriages,	- - - - -	33
Burial services,	- - - - -	54
Corner Stones laid,	- - - - -	21
Churches consecrated,	- - - - -	19
New Churches built,	- - - - -	34
Ordinations, Deacons,	- - - - -	17
Ordinations, Priests,	- - - - -	24

Any impartial observer will find in these figures a truthful indication of great progress during the last ten years. By God's blessing we have been enabled to see many tokens of improvement in every part of the Diocese. I can truly say that the condition of affairs is one hundred per cent better than it was ten years ago. The decade has been one of progress, and that most rapid, in every department of life. It is quite evident that the advance will continue, and so we enter upon our second decade with the brightest anticipations for the future.

Our policy, if policy we can call it, has simply been to break down the wall of prejudice against the Church. We have to meet outside a prejudice largely due to the ignorance of many worthy Christian people of the various denominations about us. This I have striven to overcome throughout the Diocese, nobly assisted by the Clergy, and I am persuaded that very much has been accomplished by social intercourse, by reasonable interpretation of the Church's ways and explanation of her doctrines; so that in all parts of the Diocese the Church stands in a much better light than formerly in the eyes of our brethren.

Another kind of prejudice we find, in our own communion, which arises from the survival of the sect spirit in those who nominally belong to us; and who are not as yet enabled to attain to the Catholic temper and way of looking at religious things. It is of the very essence of intelligent Churchmanship that it is not sectarian, that it is tolerant of all types of Church method and observance, and is not intolerant of all but its own. It is broad minded and broad hearted. It is not like the "Sons of Thunder" who would call down fire from heaven upon the villages of the Samaritans. It heeds the Master's words of warning: "Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of." It strives, and is willing that others should strive, to be "all things to all men, that by all means some may be saved." It learns to say with St. Paul: "Whether in pretence or in truth Christ is preached, and I therein rejoice, yea, and will rejoice." As our people get to understand more thoroughly the Church's teaching—the full rounded, well-proportioned body of doctrine presented to us in our Book of Common Prayer, modeled as we believe in accordance with the spirit of Christ Himself, they will lose this narrow, prejudiced and intolerant spirit. They will learn to say of the brethren of their own communion as readily as they say of those outside: "Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity." Then the work of the Lord and the edifying of the Church in this Diocese and the Church at large will proceed more rapidly. To be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment, or, if that cannot be, to have fervent charity among ourselves, and to bear one another's burdens—this is the secret of success. Then the work will grow and advance beyond all precedent.

THE DIVISION OF THE DIOCESE.

This brings me, naturally, to a subject which I think ought to enter into our thoughts as we look forward, and that is the absolute necessity of the division of the Diocese. I do not say, in the immediate future, but as soon as intelligent investigation and zealous Churchmanship shall stimulate Christian generosity for the furtherance of the interests of Christ's kingdom in this portion of Pennsylvania.

It is well known how the Church in this country was hindered by the lamentable blindness of those who should have had its interests at heart in the colonial days. We all know how the Church west of the Allegheny Mountains was put back scores of years by the seemingly willful blindness of the Church on the Atlantic seaboard during the first half century after the organization of the American Church. He who understands the Church's history in this Commonwealth can also see what a fatal policy was that which prevented the division of the original Diocese of Pennsylvania for so many years after it was proposed. We are to-day still obliged to contend against the influences engendered by that long delay which permitted the Christian denominations of every name to strengthen themselves here in Western Pennsylvania, absorbing the young people of our own Church, and disheartening the older people who desired to remain loyal to it. The Church seemed to give notice to the whole community that she did not intend to occupy anything but a third rate position in the public estimation. Is not this written in the letters and chronicles of old Dr. Doddridge, missionary in these parts in the early days of this century? Is it not to be found in the proceedings and addresses printed in the Journals of the Diocese of Pennsylvania? This history is full of instruction to succeeding generations of Churchmen. Would that we had the wisdom to profit by it. Let us not forget that the Right Rev. Bishop Stevens, of Pennsylvania, at the organization of this Diocese, in 1866, was honestly outspoken enough to say, that it would have been well if some such action had taken place fifty years before.

He said, in memorable words, "Had such action been consummated—had the cry of the Church, through the appeals of Dr. Doddridge and others, been responded to by a generous sympathy and liberality, we should not now (1866) be founding a new Diocese, but should have around us a hundred congregations, thousands of communicants, with the long established, well regulated and full working machinery of a noble Diocese. How much we have lost by delay. While we have debated, others have pushed forward; while we have hesitated, others have possessed the land, and while we dallied with titles and consecrations, hundreds of the Church's children famished, and went hungering and thirsting to other folds, leaving our Church emaciated, feeble, and ready to die. At a late day we seek to redress this great wrong. It is late, but not too late. All is not lost—much remains, foundations exist, and the spirit that moved in the valley of Ezekiel's vision is present, we trust, here, breathing life and vigor and motion into our long dormant Church, and quickening her into newness of being."—Sermon, Primary Con., 1866.

I have no hesitation in saying that if this Diocese should be divided immediately, and a new Bishop elected, the progress of the Church would be phenomenal. If we had the faith which our Lord commends in the Gospel, and would venture to "launch out into the deep, and let down our nets for a draught," "according to our faith so should it be done unto us." The one underlying defect in our Church work is our sore lack of faith in spiritual verities and spiritual capabilities. We depend too much upon the arm of flesh, upon salaries and endowments, as prerequisites to work for the Master. The divine order is just the reverse. "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness and all these things shall be added unto you." "Take no provision in your scrip, nor money in your purse; the laborer is worthy of his hire."

The Diocese should be divided; in the first place, because the best interests of God's Church require it. The work is increasing, and needs more constant oversight. The Bishop's annual appointment, supplemented by several visits from the Missionary is not all that is needed. Our Methodist brethren have Presiding Elders who inspect each place in their respective districts every quarter. The Presiding Elder is virtually a Bishop, "to set in order the things that are wanting," to help both pastors and people, and to stimulate the work, spiritually and financially. The Methodist brethren therein show their practical wisdom. We would do well to imitate them in many of their useful methods.

Then again, the Diocese in its present extent is too large for the efficient oversight of any one man, however able. I am blessed with good physical health, and my temperament enables me to be happy in constant activity and travel; nevertheless, I am free to confess that the signs are not wanting that I cannot continue for many more years the persistent and continuous work to which I have cheerfully given myself during the last ten years.

I know that the difficulties are great, some would say insurmountable, in the way of the division of the Diocese. We shall never overcome them unless we at least make the attempt, and much can be done by discussion, and by constant iteration of the necessity for action.

I ask that this Convention appoint a committee of considerable size, composed of Clergymen and Laymen from the northern part of the Diocese, inasmuch as the division of the Diocese most closely concerns them. I should like to give the whole subject to this committee, to be considered and reported upon at the next Convention, not with any idea of action at the next Convention, or at that of 1894, but simply to have the matter under advisement, so that in the course of a few years it may take some definite shape.

AN ARCHDEACON.

As bearing upon the work of the Diocese, and in connection with what I have already said, I would draw attention to a canon, to be proposed, making provision for the appointment of an officer who shall relieve the Bishop of very much of the details of the work in relation to the missions of the Diocese. I care not whether he be called Vicar General, (which is the Roman Catholic name, and a very expressive one) or Archdeacon, (which is the traditional Anglican name for a similar officer) or Dean, which in some respects is quite appropriate. What we need is the office itself; it will help very materially to strengthen our mission work, and assist in its administration.

I have been much struck by the similarity of our work here with that of our Western Bishops. For instance, the Bishop of Kansas in his last Convention address presents this same subject and the need of such an officer as an Archdeacon, in the following remarks, which apply, ipsissimis verbis, to ourselves.

"Each year I have visited a few new stations, but inasmuch as it has seemed necessary to visit some of our weaker points two, three and sometimes four times, I have not found days enough in the year to do all that ought to be done. And could I visit more, unless I had the time to spend several days in each place, and secure a salary for the Missionary, it would be of little avail, as our Missionary Fund is already quite exhausted. It is impossible to do much more than has been done with the forces already employed, and it is impossible to increase our missionary force without more support. The grave question, therefore, arises, how can this additional support be obtained? My only remaining hope is to secure more help from the missionary stations themselves. This, I think, could be done, if there was some one, beside the Bishop, who had the power to canvass every unoccupied station in the Diocese, and to supplement this work with a series of services and addresses replete with Church instruction. Whenever I have had time to canvass a town, I have found that I could receive more pledges for the Missionary than the Missionary could himself. It is easy to see why this may be. In the first place, it is easier to solicit for another, than it is to solicit for one's self. In view of these facts and considerations it has seemed to me advisable to request the Convention to consider the advisability of creating an Archdeaconry in the Diocese for the special work of entering unoccupied territory, and of organizing new work wherever it was possible.

"Let this officer be appointed by the Bishop and be charged with the duty of looking after the temporalities of the Diocese wherever there are no reliable vestries or trustees. We are in danger of losing much valuable property by reason of neglect.

"Our Deans, being rectors of large Parishes, have little time for the sort of work required of an Archdeacon. It would be quite agreeable to me if the powers and duties of this office should be defined in a resolution which recommends his appointment, and if, after a year of trial, the office has commended itself to the Convention, let the resolution be changed to a canon and become a permanent law of the Church"—Journal of Kansas, 1891.

It is quite evident, therefore, that the work in Kansas and in Pittsburgh is very similar, and what has been found so useful an agency in Connecticut, New York, Iowa, Ohio and several other Dioceses, we may well hope would be useful here.

In the canon which is proposed to that end, there is also included a plan for the revival of the convocational system, by giving the Conventions the right to nominate the members of the Committee on Missions. In regard to the whole matter of the nomination and election of the Committee on Missions, I am extremely desirous that it shall be entirely in the hands of the Convention itself.

The report of the Missionary Committee at this Convention will show a marked improvement in our mission work; new chapels built, new fields opened, and a degree of hopefulness and interest higher than I have ever known before.

LAYMEN'S WORK.

It is pleasant to know how much Laymen have done to bring about these results, not by their contributions only, but by their personal, active work. This is to be seen not only in the Laymen's League in the city of Pittsburgh, whereby Lay Readers and Lay Evangelists have been mainly instrumental in carrying on five missions to greater and greater success; but also in the outlying parts of the Diocese, the efficiency of Lay Readers has been manifested; and the continuance of some of our best missionary work is very largely due to the labor of those who hold Lay Readers' licenses. To mention some of those which without the Laymen's help would have been in a sad condition, I will name the Chapel of the Transfiguration, Beltzhoover; St. George's, West End; The Incarnation, Knoxville; St. John's, Wood's Run; Trinity, Sharpsburg; St. Timothy's, Chartiers; St. Matthew's, Homestead; St. Cyprian's, Pittsburgh; Holy Innocents', Leechburg; St. Mary's, Beaver Falls; Emmanuel, Emporium; St. Laurence, Osceola; Holy Trinity, Houtzdale; Holy Cross, North East, (where the faithful Lay Reader has been in continuous service since 1877, fifteen years); St. Bartholomew's, Scottdale; Trinity, Meyersdale; Christ, Tidoute. In all of these, and in several others also, the work would have come to an end or would have been sadly crippled had not the Laymen thus come to the rescue. One devoted man this year moved to a place in McKean County, a town in which there was no church; gathered together the two or three families attached to our faith and worship, and held services in his own house; afterwards leasing the Opera House. And he still continues every Sunday morning to have service, although no clergyman has ever visited him, and the Bishop has only recently heard of his commendable labors in this regard. I wish there were a hundred other Laymen like him scattered throughout the Diocese. In many places where there is discontent and fault-finding because there is no clergyman to help the work along, there might be regular services held and the work of the Church begun and carried forward if only the Laymen would take hold of it. If ever there is a church in Mount Jewett it certainly will be because this devoted Lay Reader, without any delay or false pride, but honestly, as a man who loved his Church and could not be easily frightened by the criticism of others who did not sympathize, determined at least to plant the seed. Now a seed is not to be despised because it is small. Most seeds are small, and it is to the grain of mustard seed that our Lord compares His Gospel and His Church. Let no one be ashamed or afraid to plant a seed.

In connection with this efficiency of Laymen, I must not fail to mention with high commendation the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, which has made rapid progress in the past year, many chapters having been added to its roll from the Parishes in this Diocese. The more widely spread, the better. I welcome any agency which will impress upon the hearts and minds of the men of our Parishes, both old and young, that they are stewards of the strength, the time, the influence and the money that God puts into their care. And it must be that wherever men, old and young, awake to their responsibilities and pray for the extension of Christ's kingdom, and endeavor each week to bring one more soul under the influence of Christ's Gospel,—it must be, that the success of Christ's Church shall more and more appear. One of our useful Lay Readers appends the following to his annual report:

"I think, and believe from the good done this Parish by lay services, that the Diocese in general would be much benefitted, if Lay Readers were appointed in those places where regular services cannot be held more than once a month. Some one can always be found, if not ready, who can, by a little pushing, be prevailed upon to undertake this necessary work. This I know is a vital question."

THE COLUMBIAN EXPOSITION.

Much to my surprise I find myself in a very small minority among those who have expressed their views in the matter of the opening of the Columbian Exposition on Sunday ; but, lest this should reflect upon the interests of the Church and of Church people in this community, and in order that you who have the right to understand my position may have it clearly stated, I must claim your attention to this point for a few moments. My position is perfectly clear and my proposed plan eminently practical. It seems to me little short of fanaticism to close the gates of more than one hundred acres of that beautiful territory which is to be devoted to the uses of the Exposition, simply because of the rallying cry that we will otherwise bring in the Continental Sunday ; for Chicago has the Continental Sunday already. So have St. Louis, New Orleans and San Francisco. You are virtually consigning the people to it by keeping them out of the Exposition grounds.

Moreover, locking the gates simply means that the multitudes shall be excluded, and the select few permitted to use the Exposition for their own delectation as much as they choose. I have seen some persons and have heard of many others, who, during the Centennial Exhibition in Philadelphia, being connected with those who had goods on exhibition, or with those who were officially concerned in the management, took advantage of the Sundays to inspect the exhibits at their leisure, and openly expressed their delight at being able to see everything without the pressure of the crowd. That same thing will happen again, no doubt, if the gates are closed at Chicago. Now what seems to me reasonable and feasible is this :— Let us petition the management not to make Sunday a gala day, not to lower the charge of admission on that day, and at the same time to close, if possible, whatever parts will require the attendance and labor of large numbers of persons. That is to say, make the attraction on Sunday less complete than on the other days of the week ; that will still leave the Agricultural Buildings and the Art Galleries and various other elevating and helpful portions of the Exposition open to inspection, and at the same time there will be no premium for Sunday attendance. Let us remember this ; that there will be hundreds and thousands of people in Chicago over the Sunday. They will need to be fed, and the restaurants will be open. They will need to be kept in order, and the police in large numbers will be on duty. They will have to be amused and occupied in some way. The saloons will be in full blast, the theatres and concert halls will have their performances, as they do now in Chicago, every Sunday. Where shall these people spend their day? I believe that it will be far more in accordance with the spirit of Christ and of Christianity to say to them, "Come to this beautiful enclosure, where at least the influences will be beneficent and not malevolent; look at the beautiful things that God has made, and the wonderful things that man has done. Spend your time not in close saloons and concert halls, but under the blue heaven, or in these beautiful buildings."

With this concentration of the multitudes the police force would not need to be increased but possibly diminished. Restaurants within the enclosure would be open instead of many of those scattered throughout the city. Concert halls and theatres would be much less numerously attended than otherwise. It is hard to see how labor would be increased by this arrangement.

Then, having the people thus collected within a certain limited space, you have them more in your power for the furtherance of that very Gospel in whose behalf such loud clamor has arisen that the gates of the Exposition should be closed.

Here is the chance, so often desired, to "reach the masses." Why not have stands provided, by the united effort of Christian people who desire it, for the distribution of tracts, New Testaments, Bibles and Prayer Books? Why not at six, eight or a dozen points have platforms erected for music and preaching during Sunday afternoon and evening? Would it not be possible for each denomination of Christians to do its best in this regard, and thus make use of the Sunday opening for the furtherance of the cause which they have so much at heart; thus providing a continued service of song and preaching?

One fact is perfectly evident. We cannot make people go to church, and if the gates are closed we simply, in the name of religion, say to those multitudes, "Go back into whatever vile precincts or injurious neighborhoods you may choose, patronize the saloons and the theatres if you will, but you shall not come here."

If we open the gates, we do it in the name of Him who walked through the corn fields and healed the sick on the day which was then the Sabbath, and who gave us a principle of widest application when he said: "The Son of Man is Lord also of the Sabbath Day."

I believe we shall be honoring the Master more if, after the morning hour of divine service on the Lord's day (say one o'clock), we do all we can to elevate the Lord's brethren, instead of deliberately consigning them to influences which are certainly doubtful, and probably demoralizing. I have little patience with the short-sightedness which favors turning the key in the lock and virtually telling the people to go to destruction. You will see, then, why I desire not to be misrepresented as advocating Sunday opening. I am rather an advocate of using the Columbian Exposition on the Lord's day, if so it can be arranged, for the furtherance of truth and righteousness.

I see that the Bishop of Rochester, Dr. Randall Davidson, has taken similar position before the Upper House of the Convocation of Canterbury, with reference to the opening of public libraries, museums and art galleries on Sunday. The closing words of his speech I may well take for my own.

He says: "One is likely to be misunderstood and misrepresented even by good men, if one admits that there are two sides to such a question. I earnestly trust, however, that I have not said a word which will lead any one to think less sacredly of the divine gift of the day of rest and worship, and of the solemn duty of guarding it."

Nevertheless, I maintain that our guardianship should be an intelligent one, and that in the choice of two evils we should take the lesser one. The question, with all its difficulties, bears a very different aspect in a Western city like Chicago, from that which it would present in New York or Philadelphia.

MEMORIALS OF THE DEPARTED.

We sadly miss from our Assembly to-day one clergyman who has been identified with the interests of the Church for almost forty years. Falling asleep like a little child on the evening of May 12th, the Rev. Richard S. Smith awoke in Paradise. To no one of my acquaintance who has been suddenly called away could the words concerning Enoch be more truthfully applied: "Enoch walked with God, and he was not, for God took him." He followed in the footsteps of his father, whose ministry was passed largely in Western Pennsylvania. Our brother, from the time he received Holy Orders, in 1856, exercised his whole ministry within the region which now forms this Diocese. As assistant minister at Trinity Church, Pittsburgh, as Rector of St. John's Pittsburgh, and Principal of Locust Grove Seminary, and as Rector of St. Peter's, Uniontown, for thirty years, he became connected with the domestic and religious lives of multitudes, and was well beloved by all who ever knew him. His pleasant face and courtly bearing, his impressive reading of the service, his well written sermons, his careful and decorous manner in the chancel, his faithful performance of all parochial duties, his punctual fulfillment of all the requirements of Diocesan and general work, his missionary zeal—these things and many more besides, made him a marked personage in our Diocesan history. We shall never cease to miss him as a friend and as a clergyman, and as a member of our Convention. We shall never cease to thank God for the fragrance of his character and the beauty of his life. And we ought especially to be grateful for the lesson taught us by his sudden death ; for from death itself was taken all the sting, and its gloominess entirely dispelled, because of the purity, uprightness and Christian graces of the life which had preceded it. “Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints.” “Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his.”

A sermon commemorative of the life and work of our departed brother will be delivered sometime in the Autumn, at a commemorative service, of which due notice will be given. I shall hope that at that time more of the Clergy and Laity than could conveniently attend his burial, will show their appreciation of his character, and their sympathy for his bereaved parishioners, by their presence at St. Peter's Church, Uniontown.

Of those whose names appear on the list of delegates to the Convention last year, Mr. Ephraim Buffington, of St. Paul's, Kittanning, has been called away. His illness was long and painful, but the more the outward man perished, the more the inward man was renewed day by day. As the end approached Mr. Buffington's faith grew brighter and stronger, manifesting itself as never before. I had the pleasure and privilege of ministering to him on his death bed, and joined my prayers with those of his wife and children in commending him to God for time and for eternity. His long and useful life and his beautiful Christian death leave a heritage of precious memories to those who mourn.

Another name familiar to all acquainted with the history of the Church in Erie is that of Mr. Wm. C. Kelso, who also was a delegate at the last Convention. He passed away peacefully during Eastertide, having served the Church faithfully, with characteristic modesty and fidelity in many ways, and for more than forty years as Secretary of the Vestry of St. Paul's Church, Erie. He was a frequent delegate to the Convention, and all who knew him valued him for his consistent life and example.

Another departure which should not be unnoticed was that of Mr. William Scott, Warden of St. Peter's Church, Blairsville, from 1845 until his death, last October, except ten years, when he resided at Indiana and filled the same position in Christ Church there. His family and their devotion to the Church were lovingly mentioned by Bishop Kerfoot in his Convention address in 1867, which devotion has been conspicuously marked in his children ever since. Although more than eighty-four years of age, Mr. Scott retained his faculties in a remarkable degree, and took a deep interest in all public matters, and in those of the Church also, until the day of his death. He was of a lovable nature, kind, generous, hospitable; and the love and respect of his many friends were attested by the crowded church and the many who followed to his resting place in the Blairsville Cemetery.

Of course there are many others whom we hold in loving memory, who have been called away during the last year. I may not name them all, but simply pray that God will have them in His holy keeping, and comfort those who are bereft.

We must not forget, however, to mention those in high position whom the American Church is called upon to mourn. Every year there are notable names; some of them connected at some time with our Diocese. The Scripture bids us honor those who have stood high in the Church's estimation, and have spoken unto us the word of God, "whose faith follow, considering the issue of their lives." We have to mourn this year among the Bishops of the Church the Right Rev. William J. Boone, D.D., Missionary Bishop of Shanghai, who spent his whole life in the missionary field, and whose death was hastened by his faithful endurance of persecution in the disturbances which arose in China last Spring.

The Diocese of Louisiana has been called to lose the strong leadership of the Right Rev. John N. Gallagher, S. T. D., a valuable member of the House of Bishops; whose long illness, however, had prepared the way for his departure, and had secured the election of his able successor, the Right Rev. Dr. Sessums.

The Right Rev. Gregory T. Bedell, D.D., the venerable and saintly Bishop, who for so many years presided over the Diocese of Ohio, needs no eulogy from any of his younger brethren. His life and character and his distinguished abilities were known and read of all men. I happened to be in New York at the time of his death, and was glad that by personal presence at his funeral, both for myself and representing the Clergy and people of this Diocese, I could testify to the respect and esteem in which he was held by all who ever knew him. The funeral service had no element of gloom about it. Its spirit was indicated by the hymns that were sung, and among them those triumphant verses of Merrick to the familiar tune of "Meribah":—

"With joy shall I behold the day,
That calls my willing soul away,
To dwell among the blessed."

No disciple could sing these words more truthfully or with more sincere faith than could Bishop Bedell.

Among the distinguished Priests whose deaths have occurred since our last meeting, the more prominent names are as follows: The Rev. Dr. Charles Breck, the Rev. Dr. John Henry Hopkins, the Rev. Dr. Henry W. Spaulding, at one time Rector of St. Peter's Church in this city; the Rev. Dr. R. T. S. Lowell, and the Rev. Dr. Samuel Benedict of the Diocese of Southern Ohio. For their good examples we thank God. May the mantle of their consecration and usefulness descend upon us who remain.

THE KERFOOT MEMORIAL LIBRARY.

The death of the Rev. Mr. Smith brings to our renewed consideration the subject of the Bishop Kerfoot Memorial; because by the gift of his heirs, Mr. Smith's theological library has been donated to the Diocese, to form at some future time an alcove as a memorial of the giver. We have already received a considerable contribution of books in memory of Rev. Dr. Killikelly. Where we shall find room for the accommodation of so many books is still the problem. The committee to whom the matter of a memorial was referred several years ago has received contributions amounting to about six hundred dollars, which are now deposited in the Dollar Savings Bank. It has been a cause of great disappointment that the responses to the appeals which have been sent out for the erection of some suitable memorial for the first Bishop of the Diocese have brought in so meager a return. I am quite sure that if some of our business men would form a syndicate for the erection of a building for the Diocesan offices, with other offices for rent, a considerable income might be received from it, and those who should advance the money would be repaid before many years. It is quite evident that our present quarters are too cramped, both for our possessions and for the many organizations and committees which use the Church rooms for their meeting place.

I would be very glad if this Convention would instruct the Committee on the Bishop Kerfoot Memorial, by giving some expression of its opinion and wish in regard to this matter. It would also be a help if the Convention would instruct the committee what disposition should be made of the money already collected. By reason of the death of Mr. Robert Bruce, who was Treasurer of the fund, there is no one now authorized to withdraw the money from the savings bank. Would it not be well for the Convention to authorize its transfer either to the custody of the Trustees of the Diocese or to the Finance Committee?

CLERGYMEN'S RETIRING FUND SOCIETY.

Another matter which receives emphasis from the death of the Rev. Mr. Smith is a proposition which has been made by a corporation known as The Clergymen's Retiring Fund Society. This society has already a fund approaching $80,000, the interest of which is distributed in annuities to clergymen who are members of the society, and have reached the age of sixty years. It is not in the nature of a charity fund at all, but provides a pension, as of right, to every such clergyman, whether infirm or well, when he has reached the prescribed age. It is an attempt, and is rapidly becoming a successful attempt, to make provision for the older Clergy. The increase in the fund last year was more than $10,000. Now the proposition is made by the General Secretary of the society that the Christmas offerings in the various Dioceses, instead of being invested for future uncertain use, should be contributed to the treasury of The Clergymen's Retiring Fund Society to increase its capital, advancing it as rapidly as possible toward the half million dollars which it seeks to obtain. And that some method should be devised by which all the Clergy of the Diocese so contributing should, as of right, receive the benefit of an annuity when they reach the prescribed age. Our dear brother of Uniontown had, at the time of his death, resigned his Parish, and had been elected Rector Emeritus. This step was not taken by reason of any debility or manifest infirmity, such as would cause him to become an object of charity under the provisions of our Christmas fund, but simply because of increasing age, which made him feel that the work could no longer prosper as it should under his leadership. What an immense relief it would be to such faithful workers if they had the right at a certain age to receive an income from a fund invested for that very purpose by the Diocese to which they belong. I have not the time, nor will I tax your patience, to go into the details of the subject, but it certainly can do no harm to have a committee appointed to which I could transfer the correspondence and documents in my possession concerning the matter, and which, by consultation with The Retiring Fund Society, could formulate some method of procedure and make report to the Convention next year. The idea seems to be that, while retaining our Christmas Fund, as an investment constantly increasing by the offerings made every Christmas (from which fund we might at any time make special offerings to meet special needs), we might annually give the interest arising from that fund toward the increase of the capital of The Retiring Fund Society, under some arrangement whereby the older Clergy of this Diocese might reap the benefit. This, it is thought, would increase the interest of the Laity in the sustentation of the aged Clergy, and also command an increased interest on the part of the Clergy, and that the benefit of it in every aspect would be very great. I commend the matter to your thoughtful consideration.

PRAYER BOOK SOCIETIES.

It is only right that, in view of the great generosity of the various Prayer Book Societies of the Church during the past year, I should make public acknowledgment of the same, and ask for them from every congregation in the Diocese an offering. As the General Secretary of the Board of Missions, the Rev. Dr. Langford, has convincingly shown, by an address at the Missionary Council, the Prayer Book is the best missionary we can possibly have. He advised that it be distributed widely throughout the land, and put as a tract into the hands of all that we can reach. We have always gone on that principle in our Diocese, and to that end we have asked for many donations of prayer books and hymnals from Philadelphia and New York, as well as from our own Diocesan Society. In no case have we been refused, and it would give me great pleasure to know that the Parishes of the Diocese, and especially the richer ones, had sent liberal offerings to Mr. James Pott, of the New York Bible and Prayer Book Society, Astor Place, New York; to Mr. James Biddle, the Secretary of the Bishop White Prayer Book Society, of Philadelphia; and to Miss Kerfoot, Aiken Avenue, Pittsburgh, who is the Treasurer of the Prayer Book Society in our own Diocese. All these deserve our hearty thanks, manifested in deeds as well as words.

ANNUAL REPORT.

It is time now that I come to the report of my Episcopal acts during the year. It has been a year of much activity and of constant labor, ushered in, however, by a delightful visit in Europe during August and September. In the Diocese I have visited one hundred and three Parishes and missions, twenty-six of them twice, two of them thrice, and one four times, making one hundred and thirty-two visitations in all. On one hundred occasions in public and eight in private I have confirmed nine hundred and eighty-seven persons. I have taken part in two hundred and thirty-one services since the last Convention, preaching one hundred and fifty times; making addresses, confirmation and other, one hundred and seventy-four. I have baptized twenty-two infants and six adults; total twenty-eight. I have celebrated Holy Communion sixty-six times in public and seven times in private. I have officiated at marriages four times and at funeral services five times. I have catechised or addressed Sunday Schools ten times, have consecrated three churches, and have opened with service of benediction three other churches. Four corner stones have been laid. I gave the usual lectures at the Bishop Bowman Institute, seven in all. I have attended meetings of committees, vestries, societies, etc., fifty-five times. Have also assisted in the consecration of two Bishops.

Ten clergymen have been dismissed from the Diocese and twelve have been received. One Priest and three Deacons have been ordained. One Priest has died. There are now connected with the Diocese. sixty-seven clergymen, three of whom are not canonically resident. There are also seven Lay Evangelists and fifty-two Lay Readers commissioned, fifty-nine in all. We have eight candidates for Holy Orders, and nine postulants not yet admitted as candidates. One Priest and one Deacon are to be ordained during the present month.

Seven churches have been built or finished during the last year, namely: Transfiguration, Beltzhoover; the Ascension, Bradford; Good Shepherd, Oak Ridge; St. Bartholomew's, Scottdale; St. Lawrence's, Osceola; Trinity, Braddock; St. John's, Pittsburgh. Three others are being erected, namely: Good Shepherd, Hazelwood; St. Luke's, Smethport; the Incarnation, Knoxville. Four others have lots and are about to build, namely: St. George's, West End; St. John's, Woods Run; St. Paul's, Pittsburgh; Trinity, New Castle. At Calvary Church, Pittsburgh, and Epiphany, Bellevue, the walls are rising for handsome and useful Parish buildings.

New rectories have been acquired at St. Paul's, Erie, (by the gift of a handsome house and lot, valued at $8,000); at North East, by purchase, and at Emporium by the erection of a house as a memorial of a former Warden of the Parish, Mr. C. B. Howard. At Franklin, also, a movement for the immediate erection of a rectory has begun.

The destruction of All Saints' Church, Braddock, by fire, in August last, relieved us of much anxiety with regard to the burden of debt of which I spoke in my last address. The property did not belong to the Church or to the congregation, and so we have taken an entirely new start. The Parish is hereafter to be known as Trinity Church, Braddock, and the congregation is worshipping in a small chapel, which is very nearly paid for, erected on an excellent lot of ground, for which we hope to be able to pay within the five years' limit granted for that purpose. Now that the aspect of things has so materially changed in Braddock, I wish we might have the sympathy and assistance of our brethren in this city.

We hold our meeting this year in the blessed Whitsuntide. It only remains for me to pray that God, who, as at this time, did teach the hearts of His faithful people by sending to them the light of His Holy Spirit, and who alone maketh men to be of one mind in a house, may grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgment in all things, and to be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment, through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

CHANGES AMONG THE CLERGY.

RECEIVED FROM OTHER DIOCESES—12.

- June 19, 1891, the Rev. William B. Thorn, from New Jersey.
- June 19, 1891, the Rev. F. J. J. Smith, LL. D., from Canada.
- October 30, 1891, the Rev. Thomas A. Stevenson, from Central New York.
- November 16, 1891, the Rev. Alfred W. Arundel, from Colorado.
- December 9, 1891, the Rev. James E. Curzon, from Tennessee.
- December 18, 1891, the Rev. Fred W. Raikes, from Ohio.

A PORTION OF THE ADDRESS DELIVERED ON THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY—JANUARY 25, 1892.

Beloved Brethren :—

By your loving invitation I have been called to a public and special commemoration of that solemnity ten years ago, whereby I was set apart for the Office and work of a Bishop in this Diocese and in the Church of God. I would fain have spent the day in that privacy which befits humble retrospection of hopes unrealized, duties imperfectly done, aims unattained, opportunities too often neglected, mistakes made, and sins of thought, word and deed committed. But your kindness has bidden me rather to remember the things which are not thus humiliating—the loyalty of my Clergy, the general harmony of action in the Diocese, the ready help which has come from many quarters, the many tokens of prosperity, the manifest progress made despite all hindrances—and to take comfort in the consciousness of ties of love and friendship ever growing stronger, knitting our hearts more and more to each other and to God. One thing I can truly say as I look back through the duties and toils and discouragements of the past ten years—that no day has been one-half as gloomy as was that memorable day when the long procession entered those doors for the consecration service. It was a day to be long remembered for the mingling of fog and smoke and sleet and rain. Heavy clouds obscured the sky and a curtain of mist hung over our heads in the Church itself. It was one of the worst of what we call “Pittsburgh days”—really the worst I ever saw. And I remember saying to myself, that if my heart did not fail me as thus I “entered into the cloud,” the good Lord would doubtless sustain me in any gloominess and darkness which the day might prefigure. But thus far that day has not been typical or portentous. Absorbing labors, constant journeying, the kindness of multitudes of the Clergy and Laity, the growing prosperity of our work, have all combined to bring sunshine through, and notwithstanding the clouds; and to-day I look back only with thankfulness and good cheer, and praise Him who has brought me thus far rejoicing in the abundance of His mercies, and not overwhelmed by the magnitude or difficulties of the task which He then put into my hands to do.

I would not forget, ere we pass on to other matters, the names and faces of many taking part in that service, who are with us here no more. Especially the honored Bishop of Pennsylvania,* who presided on that occasion and uttered the words which, with the laying on of his hands, conveyed to me the high commission. Others of the consecrators still live, but all are scattered, while two remain, only in venerable age and many infirmities, ready, like Simeon, to utter their dying song whenever the Lord shall call. Of the Clergy present some of the most noted have passed away, and very many belonging to the Diocese have removed to other fields of work, one of them, as we are proud to say, to be a Bishop himself.

The years of service which opened then have been quickly passed, and as I review the way I am lost in wonder at that grace which has preserved me in health and safety through thousands of miles of travel, and perils manifold, and duties well nigh continuous from the beginning of each year until its close. I cannot fail to make cordial recognition of innumerable kindnesses from Clergy and Laity—and a hospitality which enables me to count my homes by scores, if not by hundreds, in every quarter of the Diocese.

* Bishop Stevens.

May the Head of the Church remember for good all those who have so constantly ministered to my comfort and have lightened the burden; and made the way sweet with their never wearying attentions.

I cannot express in words, nor yet in deeds, my very deep appreciation of the love and regard which prompted so general an observance of this anniversary. I am not unmindful of the time and trouble, the thoughtful planning and busy execution, the expense and correspondence which have centered in this commemoration. These might well have made life a burden for those dear brethren who have proposed and carried out the plan of making the day a Red Letter Day in our Diocesan History. With a full heart I thank them for all that they have done. And to all my brethren very many thanks who by letter, or by word of mouth, or by personal presence here this morning have manifested their sympathy with me in the joys of the occasion.

How can I ever hope to express my grateful appreciation of the visit of my Rt. Rev. Brother,† who has made time, in the midst of his constant labors, to take a journey of seven hundred miles to give us his congratulations and double our pleasures thereby. If we had a Province he would be our Metropolitan. I can assure him that as for myself, he would in such case have no more willing or affectionate Suffragan than I should try to be.

And I am filled with joy at the large gathering of the Laity; and thankful to be assured, as I am by many tokens spoken and unspoken, that the Bishop, with all his manifest human infirmities, nevertheless has a place in their hearts.

In all this we unite to-day to bear witness before the world to that which our American name proclaims, viz.: that the Diocese is the unit, and the Bishop the expression and center of unity, and that we value the Episcopate not because of the individual occupant of the office, but for the office itself. It is historic and venerable. Like the giant of the forest its roots are imbedded deep, its trunk is solid and immovable, its branches spread unto the world's end. The passing winds only serve to prove that it cannot be shaken.

We honor the office, and by it distinguish ourselves from all that is called Protestant. We recognize in it our chief practical glory to-day; we claim through it direct visible continuity with all the Christian generations of the past; aye, direct and visible connection with Him who ordained His Apostles and sent them forth with His commission, the Bishop and Shepherd of our souls.

By it, too, we claim the victories of the future, since we have the † Bishop Whitaker.

Lord's own most sure word of promise that with the Apostles shall abide His unfailing presence even unto the end of the world.

Another occasion will be more appropriate for a formal comparison of those things whereby the progress of affairs may be approximately gauged.

APPENDIX TO THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS.

OFFICIAL ACTS.

June 10. Sessions of the Convention. In the evening, meeting in behalf of Diocesan Missions.

June 11. St. Barnabas' Day.—Celebration of the Holy Communion at St. Paul's, Kittanning. Business sessions of the Convention, which adjourned at three. In the evening, a meeting in behalf of the Woman's Auxiliary.

June 14. Third Sunday after Trinity.—At St. Thomas' Church, Verona. Sunday School service and catechising. At a later service, baptism, sermon and Holy Communion, and confirmed nine candidates. In the evening, at Christ Church, Allegheny, confirmed nine candidates.

June 16. Commencement of the Bishop Bowman Institute at Trinity Church. In the evening, officiated at a marriage in St. Stephen's Church, Sewickley.

June 18. Commencement at Trinity Hall, Washington.

June 18. Returned to Pittsburgh and had many conferences concerning Church matters.

June 19. Many letters. Received the Rev. William B. Thorn from the Diocese of New Jersey.

June 20. Meeting of the Church Extension Society.

June 21. Fourth Sunday after Trinity.—At St. Paul's Church, Monongahela City. Preached and confirmed seven, and celebrated Holy Communion. In the afternoon went with the Rev. Dr. Norman to Charleroi, where we held service in a hall. We find over a hundred persons in this new town who owe allegiance to the Church.

June 22. Much office work. In the evening assisted at a wedding in St. Thomas' Parish, Verona.

June 24. St. John Baptist.—In the morning at All Saints' Church, Braddock, celebrated Holy Communion, and then, in company with the Rev. Mr. Bragdon and Rev. Dr. Irvine, visited Homestead to inspect and consider the condition of Church affairs.

June 25. Church Home Festival.—In the evening officiated at a marriage at Grace Church, Pittsburgh. Later attended the commencement exercises of the Western University.

June 27. A meeting of the Trustees of the Diocese.

June 28. Fifth Sunday after Trinity.—At St. Peter's Church, Pittsburgh, admitted to the Diaconate, Mr. Thomas James Garland, presented by the Rev. William R. Mackay. Mr. Garland is to take duty as assistant minister in St. Peter's Parish. In the evening assisted at the service at the Church of the Ascension.

June 29. St. Peter's Day.—In the presence of many of the Clergy and a large congregation of the Laity, I consecrated the Church of the Epiphany, Bellevue. The request to consecrate was read by the Warden, Mr. W. W. McCandless, and the sentence of consecration by the Priest in charge, Rev. Mr. Dyess. It was a glad some occasion, which all who were present thoroughly enjoyed. The Rev. Mr. Grange preached an admirable sermon. In the evening I made a short address at the graduation of some nurses from the Allegheny General Hospital.

July 1. Preparations for summer absence.

July 2. Journey to Erie, where I am to have charge of St. Paul's Parish during the month.

July 5. Sixth Sunday after Trinity.—At St. John's Church, Erie, baptized two infants and made an address. Later, read services and preached in St. Paul's Church, and celebrated Holy Communion. In the afternoon officiated at Even-song in the same Church. In the evening, at Trinity Chapel, received a child into the Church. Two mothers were "churched," and I afterwards preached.

July 7. Officiated at a burial service in Erie, at the house and cemetery.

July 9. Conferences with several clergymen.

July 12. Seventh Sunday after Trinity.—In St. Paul's Church, Erie, read morning and evening service, preached and celebrated Holy Communion.

July 13. Journeyed to Bradford, met the Vestry and inspected the new church, which is rapidly approaching completion. Baptized an infant. The Parish is being most acceptably served by a Lay Reader during the absence of the Priest in charge. At 5 P. M. went on to Smethport.

July 14. In the morning, in company with the Rector, I consecrated some burial lots in the cemetery, for Church people of St. Luke's Parish, Smethport. In the afternoon laid the corner stone of the handsome new church, the gift of the Senior Warden of the Parish. The service was participated in by the supliced choir, a large assemblage of the people, and the Rev. Mr. McCandless, and others. Addresses were made by the Bishop and the Rev. Mr. Hemenway.

July 15. At Christ Church, Tidioute, in the evening. I preached and confirmed three persons, presented by the Rev. Mr. Woolcott.

July 16. Returned to Erie.

July 17. Much correspondence.

July 19. Eighth Sunday after Trinity.—Service, sermon and Holy Communion at St. Paul's Church, Erie. In the afternoon at Four Mile Creek, held service in the camp where the choir boys and others were having their vacation.

July 20. Administered Holy Communion to a sick woman. Left Erie for New York to take the steamer.

July 22. Sailed from New York on the steamship Westernland.

July 26. Read service and made an address on the steamer in the morning, and also had a short service in the evening.

August 2. Arrived at Antwerp.

August 9. Attended service at the Church of the Holy Trinity, Paris. Arrived at the church too late to take part in the service. The Rector, my friend and classmate, is away from home; but another friend and classmate, the Rev. S. C. Hill, is in charge. We have a beautiful stone church and Parish house, also a mortuary chapel which is of the utmost convenience and benefit to those who are called upon to suffer bereavement during their sojourn in Paris.

The American Church has occasion to be well pleased, if not proud, at the witness which our Church bears in this city. Our light is not hidden under a bushel, but made duly conspicuous, as it ought to be.

August 16. Twelfth Sunday after Trinity.—Attended service at St. Paul's Cath-dral, London and Westminster Abbey, where Archdeacon Farrar preached before the International Hygienic Congress.

August 23. Thirteenth Sunday after Trinity.—In St. Anne's Parish Church, Alderney, Channel Islands, I celebrated Holy Communion and also preached at morning and evening service.

August 24. St. Bartholomew.—Attended divine service in the same church.

August 29. Service at Exeter Cathedral.

August 30. Fourteenth Sunday after Trinity.—Holy Communion and two other services in Salisbury Cathedral. In the evening attended service in good George Herbert's old Parish, at Bemerton.

August 31. Another service in Salisbury Cathedral. Then on to Winchester.

September 6. Fifteenth Sunday after Trinity.—Early Communion at St. Martin's London. Later, attended service at All Saints' and St. Andrew's. In the afternoon went to the service at the Foundlings' Hospital, where over five hundred children led the singing.

September 9. To Oxford. Even-song at the Cowley Parish Church.

September 10. Early Communion and Mattins. Visited the various colleges. Even-song.

September 11. Early Communion and Mattins. Then to Rugby, Leamington and Warwick.

September 12. Stratford and Tewkesbury.

September 13. Gloucester. Services in the Cathedral.

September 14. Bristol.

September 15. Chepstow and Hereford.

September 16. Worcester and Kidderminster.

September 17. Shrewsbury and Chester.

September 20. Services in Chester Cathedral.

September 21. Chester.

September 22. Liverpool.

September 23. Sailed in "City of Berlin."

September 27. Eighteenth Sunday after Trinity.—Read service and made an address in the saloon of the steamer.

October 3. Arrived safely in New York with a grateful heart.

October 4. Reached home in the early morning, made an address and celebrated Holy Communion at Ascension Church, Pittsburgh. During the week met many people and attended to much correspondence.

October 6. In the evening at St. Paul's Church, Pittsburgh, held the service for St. Barnabas' Guild for Nurses, and made an address.

October 8. Gave letter dimissory to Rev. Samuel Maxwell to the Diocese of Long Island.

October 10. Officiated as Chaplain at the opening of the National Prison Congress, at Carnegie Hall.

October 11. Twentieth Sunday after Trinity.—In the morning read service, preached and celebrated Holy Communion at Trinity Church, Freeport. In the afternoon read service and preached, and confirmed one person in the same church. And then on to Tarentum, where I read service and preached in St. Barnabas' Church, and confirmed five persons. The Priest in charge, the Rev. Mr. Radger, was ill and unable to accompany me on these services.

October 12. Meeting of the Laymen's Missionary League.

October 13. Laid the corner stone of St. Bartholomew's Church, Scottdale, and afterwards baptized an infant in Scottdale.

October 18. St. Luke's Day.—At Latrobe in the hall used by St. Luke's Mission, read service and preached and celebrated Holy Communion, blessing and using for the first time Communion vessels which have lately been presented to this mission. In the afternoon read service and preached. Then to Greensburg to inspect the new Church. Drove to Jeannette, read service and preached in the hall used by St. Stephen's Mission. Arrived home after midnight.

October 19. Made an address in the evening at Trinity Chapel before the Laymen's Missionary League and others, concerning various methods of Christian work in England.

October 24. Laid the corner stone of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Hazelwood, Pittsburgh.

October 25. Twenty-second Sunday after Trinity.—In the morning at St. Peter's, Blairsville, service and Holy Communion. In the evening, at Christ's Church, Indiana, service and sermon.

October 23. St. Simon and St. Jude.—Consecration of Rev. Dr. I. L. Nicholson as Bishop of Milwaukee, in St. Mark's Church, Philadelphia.

October 30. Accepted Rev. Thomas A. Stevenson from the Diocese of Central New York.

November 1. All Saints.—Preached and celebrated Holy Communion at Church of the Ascension, Shady Side. Also confirmed four persons. In afternoon read service and preached at Trinity Mission, Sharpsburg. In the evening at Emmanuel Church, Allegheny, preached and confirmed five.

November 2. With the Rev. Messrs. Bragdon and Mesny, visited Braddock and held a conference with the members of our mission there and made some arrangements with them with regard to the future. Then on to Blairsville, where I held the burial service of Mr. William Scott, Senior Warden of St. Peter's Parish, who had died after a long and faithful service as a member of the Church, aged eighty-three.

November 3. Annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary all day at Trinity Chapel, at which I presided, and the Rt. Rev. Dr. Brewer made an address morning and afternoon. In the evening the monthly meeting of St. Barnabas' Guild in Christ Church, Allegheny. Gave letter dimissory to the Rev. Dr. Irvine to the Diocese of Easton.

November 7. Journeyed to Houtzdale. In the evening, in the Church of the Holy Trinity, I preached, after service read by the Rev. Mr. Richards and Mr. Asa Spencer, Lay Reader.

November 8. Twenty-fourth Sunday after Trinity.—In the same Church Morning Prayer and address to the children. Later, confirmed five, preached and celebrated Holy Communion. In the evening, service was held in Osceola, in Odd Fellows' Hall, where I preached to a large congregation.

November 9. In St. Laurence's Chapel, Osceola, I preached and confirmed eleven candidates, presented by the Rev. Mr. Richards; and celebrated Holy Communion. Also baptized an infant. The value and efficiency of Lay Readers' work is plainly seen in the Parishes of Clearfield County, as also elsewhere in the Diocese. The evils which attend long vacancies are reduced to their minimum in every Parish where there is a Lay Reader, or more than one, to maintain the services. The church at Osceola is sure of success, because of the enthusiasm and zeal of not only our faithful Deacon, there resident, but also our most efficient Lay Reader, Mr. Brereton. Going on from Osceola, service was held in the evening in St. Andrew's, Clearfield, now under the charge of the Rev. Mr. Thorn, who presented seven candidates for confirmation after the sermon.

November 10. After various calls in Clearfield, drove over, seventeen miles, to Penfield to take the train for Driftwood. Here I held service and preached in the Union Chapel, and met the few remaining members of our mission. Many have moved away, and although we have a lot for a church, it seems inexpedient at present to attempt a building, and so that project has been deferred. At night, in Emmanuel Church, Emporium, after service by the Rev. F. E. Badger, who has been holding a short mission there, I preached and confirmed eight persons. In this Parish, during a lengthy interim, the services have been regularly maintained and the life of the Parish fostered by three laymen who have assisted one another in lay reading and various kinds of Parish work. The Rev. F. W. Raikes has been called to the Rectorship of the Parish and will probably assume charge before long.

November 11. After an early celebration of the Holy Communion, I went on to Ridgway. There, in the evening, Grace Church was full of a congregation zealous and harmonious and all well pleased with the improvements in the church building, which are very marked, tasteful and useful. Two transepts have been built and an organ ordered and paid for to fill one of them, while the other is to be the robing room for a vested choir already in training. The Rector and his wife are ably seconded in their efforts for the improvement of the Parish, by generous parishioners. I preached and confirmed five.

November 12. Journeyed to Corry, where a goodly congregation assembled in Emmanuel Church at four o'clock in the afternoon. I baptized the infant son of the Rector, confirmed five persons and made an address to the congregation. Notwithstanding many discouragements and recent financial embarrassment, the Rev. Mr. Schepeler has great cause for congratulation on the unity and prosperity of his Parish. In the evening, at St. Matthew's Church, Union City, after service by the Rev. Mr. Cooper, I preached.

November 13. A most delightful day, enjoying the hospitality of the Rev. Dr. Purdon and his wife, at the Rectory in Titusville, and meeting some of the good people of the Parish.

November 14. Reached home in safety, and attended to letters and various matters of importance.

November 15. Twenty-fifth Sunday after Trinity.—Officiated at Braddock, morning and evening, preached twice, celebrating Holy Communion, and talking with the people with regard to Church matters there.

November 16. Received the Rev. A. W. Arundel from the Diocese of Colorado.

November 17. In company with the Rev. Mr. Bragdon visited Johnstown in the interest of the Church there November 18. To Oak Ridge where I held service and preached in the Chapel of the Good Shepherd.

November 19. Consecrated the Church of the Good Shepherd, Oak Ridge. The only other Clergy present were the Rev. Messrs. Bragdon and Barber, but there were representatives of the Laity from Kittanning, Lawsonham and Brookville. It was a great disappointment that some from Du Bois missed their train. The Church of the Good Shepherd is, without doubt, the neatest building, for the money expended, to be found anywhere in the Diocese. Its actual cost was $1,272, and it is most attractive and tasteful, and serviceable in every way. There is absolutely nothing lacking for the convenience of the clergyman and the congregation. We are very largely indebted for this beautiful chapel to Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Baker, who have carried forward the movement to a successful issue, and also to the long continued and faithful services of the Rev. Mr. Barber, whose heart is made happy by this consummation of many hopes. I confirmed one person at Oak Ridge.

November 20. Various calls in Allegheny and Pittsburgh upon persons in affliction.

November 21. Assisted at a burial service in Allegheny and attended to many matters in Pittsburgh.

November 22. Sunday next before Advent.—In the morning, preached and celebrated Holy Communion in Trinity Chapel, Braddock. Also made an address to the children. After service held a meeting of the members of the congregation at which the mission was organized under the name of Trinity Church, and an Executive Committee nominated and appointed who shall have charge of the financial matters of the congregation in the future. We have a plain chapel now at Braddock upon which there necessarily rests a debt which I hope is not too large to be paid off within a reasonable time. The Parish at Braddock is composed of loyal Church people who have borne much and are willing to bear more if ultimately they may have a church; and in their need I cordially commend them to the interest and sympathy and generous contributions of all Christian people. In the afternoon I preached and confirmed thirteen candidates presented by the Rev. A. D. Brown, chaplain of the Laymen's Missionary League, in the U. P. Church at West End, in which St. George's mission holds its services. I also confirmed two aged persons in private, making fifteen in all for St. George's. If any one doubts the wisdom and expediency of the mission of the Laymen's League, let him visit St. George's. It is most encouraging to see a congregation of one hundred and twenty-five people assembled for the hearty congregational worship which characterizes this mission. The responses are loudly given, the singing is full and strong; and all the people are at work as with one heart and soul. A lot has been purchased and paid for, and a building fund begun, and we hope that before another year has passed, we may have a church of our own. There are already about forty communicants at St. George's. Going in the evening to another of our missions the outlook was almost as encouraging. A large congregation had assembled in a hall which is used by St. John's Mission, Woods Run, and after service by the Rev. Mr. Brown, I preached and he presented five candidates for confirmation. The people here also are enthusiastic and the singing most excellent. We can only be grateful that God is granting His blessing to our undertaking in behalf of extending the Church in Pittsburgh.

November 26. Thanksgiving Day.—Preached in the Church of the Ascension, Shady Side.

November 28. Meeting of the Trustees of the Diocese.

November 29. First Sunday in Advent.—Held a confirmation for the Deaf and Dumb Mission in the chapel of Trinity Church. The Rev. Mr. Mann interpreted the service in the sign language, and preached the sermon. I celebrated the Holy Communion and confirmed six candidates. In the afternoon, at St. Timothy's Mission, Chartiers, I addressed the Sunday School and afterwards preached, and confirmed two candidates presented by the Rev. Mr. Brown, Chaplain of the Missionary League. In the evening, at St. Stephen's, Wilkinsburg, I preached the first of a series of Advent sermons on "The Kingdom of G. d."

November 30. St. Andrew's Day.—Conference with some of the Clergy at the Church Rooms. Meeting of the Church Extension Society. In the evening made a short address and presided at the Annual Meeting of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, in Trinity Church, Pittsburgh. The Rev. Dr. White preached the sermon.

December 2. Meeting of the Guild of St. Barnabas for Nurses, in St. Peter's Church, at which the Rev. Mr. Mackay made an address to nurses there present. In the evening opened with an office of benediction the new Christ Church at Greensburg, when the Rev. Mr. Bylesby preached. After the sermon I confirmed four persons, presented by the Rev. Mr. Mesny.

December 3. Met a committee from St. John's Parish. Left home for Titusville.

December 4. Journeyed from Titusville to Bradford, and in the evening opened with a service of benediction, the new Church of the Ascension erected in that Parish. One cannot too strongly commend the efficiency and good taste manifested in the furnishment and adornment of the churches at Greensburg and Bradford, which reflect so much credit upon the Rev. Messrs. Mesny and Lamson, respectively.

December 5. In the morning the new font in the Church of the Ascension, Bradford, was used for the first time when I baptized three adults and seven infants, and made a short address. In the evening preached and confirmed six persons, presented by the Rev. Mr. Lamson.

December 6. Second Sunday in Advent.—At morning service in the Church of the Ascension, Bradford, I preached and celebrated Holy Communion. In the afternoon, addressed the children of the Sunday School. Then, taking a train which had been provided by the kindness of the Rector and some of the parishioners of St. Luke's Parish, Smethport, I rode to Smethport, and in the evening at St. Luke's Church preached and confirmed fifteen, presented by the Rev. Mr. McCandless.

December 7. Inspected the new church at Smethport which is now under cover and is going to be very solid and handsome. It is a gift to the Parish from one of its Wardens, and will probably cost, when finished, from $25,000 to $30,000. Would that others in the Diocese whom the Lord hath blessed would do likewise. In the evening at St. Joseph's Church, Port Allegany, I preached, and after the service addressed the congregation with regard to the arrangement for future services. The Parish will be under the care of the Reverend Rector of Emmanuel Church, Emporium.

December 8. Before leaving Port Allegany I baptized one adult and one infant, and then, in company with the Rev. Mr. Bragdon and the Rev. Mr. McCandless, went to Olean on my way home.

December 9. Reached Pittsburgh in the morning and attended to much correspondence. Confirmed one person in Trinity Chapel. Received the Rev. J. E. Curzon from the Diocese of Tennessee. Gave letters dimissory in behalf of Rev. A. A. Bresee to the Diocese of Central Pennsylvania, and in behalf of the Rev. F. C. Cowper, to the Diocese of Massachusetts.

December 11. Meeting of the Church Extension Society.

December 12. Burial service at Shady Side. In the evening, at Trinity Church, New Castle, enjoyed a reception given in the Sunday School room.

December 13. Third Sunday in Advent.—In same church, took part in Morning Prayer; then visited the various classes of the Sunday School which is in a most prosperous condition. At a later service preached and celebrated Holy Communion. In the afternoon, enjoyed what is always a pleasure and possible only in this Parish—hearing the catechism sung, as also some of the Christmas carols. The Rector's musical taste and ability have had a very marked influence not only upon his own people, but upon his whole community. In the evening, I preached and confirmed eleven candidates.

December 14. In company with the Rev. Mr. Herron I visited Mercer to look into Church matters there, and in the afternoon left Mr. Herron at Grove City to make arrangements for a service which is to be held there in January. I came on to Pittsburgh.

December 15. Meeting of the Clerical Club at the Church of the Ascension and at my house, seventeen of the Clergy being present.

December 16. Presided all day at the examination of the Rev. Thomas J. Garland for the priesthood.

December 18. Called on the Rev. Dr. Crumpton to congratulate him on the completion of his ninety-third year.

December 19. Many letters, conferences with persons from various Parishes.

December 20. Fourth Sunday in Advent.—In the afternoon, at the Mission of the Incarnation, Knoxville I addressed the Sunday School and also the congregation, and confirmed fourteen candidates, presented by the Rev. Mr. Brown, Chaplain of the Laymen's League. I found the mission in a most encouraging condition and everyone hopeful that by the aid of the Church Extension Society, and by the generosity of the people and their friends, a chapel may soon be erected on the lots which are already bought and paid for. In the evening, I preached in St. Mark's Church, South Side, and confirmed twenty-two, presented by the Rev. Mr. Tarrant.

December 24. Attended the Christmas Eve service at the Church of the Ascension, Shady Side, and made a short address.

December 25. Christmas Day.—At St. George's Mission, West End, I read service, preached and celebrated the Holy Communion.

December 27. St. John, the Evangelist.—At St. Luke's Church, Pittsburgh, preached and confirmed eighteen, presented by the Rev. Mr. Duroe. In the evening, at St. Stephen's, Wilkesburg, preached and confirmed eight, presented by the Rev. Mr. Bates.

January 1. Circumcision Day.—At Church of the Ascension, celebrated Holy Communion.

January 2. At Johnstown, conference with members of the Vestry in the evening.

January 3. Second Sunday after Christmas.—In St. Mark's Church, Johnstown, preached, confirmed nineteen candidates, and celebrated Holy Communion. In the afternoon addressed the children of the Sunday Schools of St. Mark's and All Saints', and catechised them. In the evening, at Latrobe, preached in the hall occupied by St. Luke's mission, and confirmed two persons presented by the Rev. Mr. Mesny.

January 4. Spent the day at Indiana making arrangements for the coming of a clergyman.

January 5. Returned to Pittsburgh. Much correspondence. Gave consent for the election of an Assistant Bishop in the Diocese of Springfield. In the evening attended a meeting of St. Barnabas' Guild for Nurses, at Allegheny General Hospital.

January 6. Epiphany.—Celebrated Holy Communion. Went to Butler in the afternoon, where, in the evening, in St. Peter's Church, I preached and confirmed one person. A new altar was presented for its holy uses at this service. Rev. F. E. Badger has charge of the Parish temporarily, until May 1.

January 7. In company with Rev. Messrs. Bragdon, Herron and Mesny, visited Grove City, a flourishing educational town near Mercer. We held service in the evening in the chapel of Grove City College, in which institution there are gathered over 350 students, young men and maidens, very few of whom have ever known anything concerning the Church. It is one of the best places for missionary work in this Diocese, by reason of the fact that we could here direct and instruct so many young people who would carry the influence of the Church with them to their widely scattered homes throughout the Diocese and beyond. We were very kindly received by the president and faculty, and a large congregation assembled for the services. I made a short preparatory address, explaining our use of book and vestments. Afterwards, service was read by my reverend brethren, and I preached a sermon. The next morning, January 8, I attended college prayers and made an address to the students. At noon went on to Mercer, where I preached and confirmed two in Grace Church.

January 9. Returned to Pittsburgh.

January 10. First Sunday after Epiphany.—At St. John's Church Chapel read services and preached. Also addressed congregation with regard to their future prospects. In the evening preached at Trinity Chapel, Braddock.

January 11. Many conferences at Church Rooms, and meeting of Laymen's League in the evening.

January 12 to 14. Much office work.

January 17. Second Sunday after Epiphany.—In Philadelphia. Assisted in service at St. Stephen's Church. In the afternoon visited the Sunday School at Church of Holy Apostles; a memorable occasion, for the building is most admirably adapted for its purposes. The school numbers 1,300, and there are a great many young men and middle aged men, as well as young women in its Bible classes, and all is under the most efficient supervision of Mr. George C. Thomas. I was glad to meet there some old friends, and especially the Rev. Mr. Getz, formerly of this Diocese. By invitation of Mr. Thomas I made a short address at their opening service. At 4 p. m. I preached before the Chapter of the St. Andrew's Brotherhood, connected with Christ Church Chapel. In the evening, at the Church of the Holy Apostles, I preached before the Chapter of the Brotherhood belonging to that Church.

January 18. Various visits and errands in Philadelphia. Returned to Pittsburgh at night.

January 19. Many letters. Received notice that at my request the Rt. Rev., the Bishop of Nevada and Utah, had, on January 3d, admitted to the Diaconate, Mr. George Leslie, a candidate for orders from this Diocese. Gave my canonical consent to the consecration of the Rev. Cleland K. Nelson, D.D., as Bishop of the Diocese of Georgia.

January 20. Gave letter dimissory in behalf of Rev. George Leslie, Deacon, to the Jurisdiction of Nevada and Utah, by request of Bishop of the same.

January 23. Gave letter dimissory in behalf of the Rev. J. M. Benedict to the Diocese of Alabama. Meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Diocese. In the evening preached and confirmed six persons in the Church of the Epiphany, Bellevue.

January 24. Third Sunday after Epiphany.—Sermon and Holy Communion at Church of Epiphany, at Bellevue. In the evening baptized an infant, preached and confirmed nine candidates in St. Matthew's Mission, Homestead. These candidates had been prepared and were presented by Mr. Samuel Erskine, Lay Reader. If we only had some money at Homestead to put up an attractive chapel in a more accessible locality than the present one, the work there would go on most prosperously.

January 25. Conversion of St. Paul.—Celebrated Holy Communion at Church of the Ascension, Shady Side. In the afternoon, at Calvary Church, confirmed four persons, one of them presented by the Rev. Mr. Wightman, from St. Paul's. In the evening, a meeting of the Committee on Canons.

January 26. Celebration of the tenth anniversary of my consecration, celebration of the Holy Communion, and a charge to the Clergy. In the afternoon, a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions.

January 28. Baptism of an infant in St. James' Church, Chicago.

January 31. Fourth Sunday after Epiphany.—Preached and confirmed twenty at St. Andrew's Church, Pittsburgh. In the evening preached and confirmed ten at Christ Church, Allegheny.

February 2. Purification.—In the morning preached and celebrated Holy Communion at Church Home. In the afternoon after Even-song, catechised the children. In the evening, monthly meeting of St. Barnab's' Guild for Nurses at Church of Ascension, when addresses were made by Rev. Mr. Grange and myself; a social meeting afterwards at my house.

February 3. To Punxsutawney, stopping for a few hours at Du Bois. In the evening, preached in the chapel at Horatio and had conference with the people.

February 4. In the morning preached and celebrated Holy Communion in hall at Punxsutawney. In the evening preached and confirmed seven in the Union Chapel at Adrian. All these missions, and also the Parish at Brookville are now under the efficient care of the Rev. George C. Whyte.

February 5. Drive of sixteen miles to Stanley to visit a Church family. Then on to Brookville, where, in the evening, in Church of the Holy Trinity, I preached and confirmed four presented by the Rev. Mr. Whyte.

February 7. Fifth Sunday after Epiphany.—At St. Paul's Church, Pittsburgh, preached and confirmed four and celebrated Holy Communion. In the afternoon, at Trinity Mission, Sharpsburg, preached and confirmed four, presented by Rev. Mr. Brown, Chaplain of the Laymen's League. In the evening, at St. James' Church, Pittsburgh, preached and confirmed fifteen.

February 8. Much office work. In the evening, meeting of Laymen's Missionary League.

February 9. Gave letter dimissory to Rev. W. N. Webbe to the Diocese of Western New York.

February 10. Much correspondence.

February 11. Assisted at the organization of Pittsburgh Branch of American Institute of Civics.

February 12. Meeting of the Clergy at Church Rooms with regard to services in Lent.

February 14. Septuagesima.—At Calvary Church, Pittsburgh, preached and confirmed sixty-five candidates. Afterwards baptized an adult, and confirmed her in private, making sixty-eight for Calvary Parish during this year. In the evening, at St. Stephen's, McKeesport, I preached and confirmed twelve.

February 15-18. Much correspondence.

February 19. Quiet Day for the Clergy, conducted by Rev. R. A. Holland, S. T. D.

February 20. Quiet Day for Women, in which the Bishop, Rev. Dr. Holland, and the Rev. Messrs. Hodges and Arundel took part.

February 21. Sexagesima.—At Church of Ascension, Shady Side, preached and confirmed seven candidates, and celebrated Holy Communion. In the afternoon at St. Cyprian's Mission baptized one child and confirmed one person presented by Mr. Bratt, Lay Reader in charge. In the evening at Calvary Church, the annual sermon to Laymen's Missionary League was preached by Rev. Dr. Holland. I formally admitted two Lay Readers and renewed the licenses of Lay Readers and Evangelists of the League for the current year.

February 22. On my way to Atlanta, charged, by appointment of Presiding Bishop, to be one of the Presenters at the consecration of the Rev. Dr. Nelson as Bishop of Georgia.

February 23. Reached Atlanta at three in the afternoon.

February 24. St. Matthias' Day.—Beautiful day for consecration services, which began at 10 o'clock, in St. Luke's Cathedral. The Rt. Rev. the Assistant Bishop of Central Pennsylvania preached the sermon. The Consecrator was the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of Tennessee, assisted by the Bishops of South Carolina and North Carolina. The Presenters were the Bishops of Pittsburgh and Delaware. Others present were the Bishop of East Carolina and the Assistant Bishop of Alabama. It was a pleasure and a privilege to take any part in bestowing upon the Diocese of Georgia so good a Bishop; and many and fervent were the prayers of multitudes of friends as he entered upon the arduous duties of his high office. A reception was given in the evening at the house of the Governor of Georgia, which was largely attended.

February 25-26. Journey homeward, reaching Pittsburgh on the morning of February 27th.

February 28. Quinquagesima.—At Church of Atonement, Mansfield, preached and confirmed three, presented by Rev. Mr. Angell. In the evening, at Church of the Nativity, Crafton, preached and confirmed five.

February 29. In Trinity Church, New Haven. Confirmed seven, presented by Rev. Mr. Taylor as his last official act in the Rectorship of the Parish. In the evening, in company with him and the Rev. Messrs. Smith, Bragdon and Barnard, I opened, with a service of benediction, the new St. Bartholomew's Church in Scottdale. The Rev. Mr. Smith preached the sermon. I confirmed seven persons presented by the Rev. Mr. Bragdon.

March 1. Meeting of St. Barnabas' Guild for Nurses at Emmanuel Church, Allegheny.

March 2. Ash Wednesday.—Sermon work.

March 3. Received Rev. Wm. Johnson, from Diocese of Ontario. Mr. Johnson has taken charge of Freeport and Tarentum in this Diocese.

March 4. Noon service and address at Trinity Chapel. In the afternoon confirmed one person, a sick man, for St. Mark's Parish, South Side.

March 5. With Rev. Mr. Bragdon went to Latrobe to look at Church property offered for sale to the people of St. Luke's Mission.

March 6. Quadragesima.—At St. Peter's Church, Pittsburgh, preached and confirmed thirty-two persons, and celebrated Holy Communion. In the evening preached and confirmed three at St. Stephen's Church, Sewickley.

March 7. Visited the Rector's school at Sewickley, and conducted the noon service at Trinity Chapel, Pittsburgh.

March 8. Attended the noon service at Trinity Chapel. Various conferences, etc. Left home for Philadelphia.

March 9. Ember Day.—In St. Mary's Church, Wayne, made an address after Evening Prayer.

March 10. Conducted services for the Quiet Day for Women of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, at Holy Trinity Church, Philadelphia. The services began with a celebration of the Holy Communion, at which there were four hundred communicants; which service was followed by the five addresses of the day, intermingled with prayers and hymns, closing at 4:45 P. M.

March 11. Attended Morning Prayer at St. Mary's Church, Wayne; also the noon service at St. Stephen's Church, Philadelphia. Spent the night at Chestnut Hill.

March 12. Journeyed to New York.

March 13. Second Sunday in Lent.—Celebrated Holy Communion at the Pro Cathedral in New York City, and afterwards assisted at the service at All Angels' Church, New York. In the evening took part in the service at the Church of the Heavenly Rest, and enjoyed the privilege and pleasure of listening to the Rt. Rev. the Lord Bishop of Derry, who delivered the first of the course of lectures before the students of Columbia College, upon the subject, "Primary Convictions."

March 14. Visited St. Mary's School, New York, and several of the churches. In the afternoon attended, officially, the funeral of the late Bishop of Ohio, the Rt. Rev. Gregory T. Bedell, D. D., at the Church of the Ascension.

March 15. Attended Morning Prayer at Chapel General Theological Seminary, and met some of the young men who are students, including the one candidate for orders from this Diocese, who is now in the Seminary. At noon celebrated Holy Communion at the Church of the Holy Communion, by the kind invitation of the Rev. Henry Mottet. In the afternoon visited St. Bartholomew's Parish House, which has been built by the munificence principally of Mr. Cornelius Vanderbilt. Well worth a visit of any one, clergyman or layman, who is in New York. The building is on Forty-second Street, near Third Avenue, and all work within it is under the immediate supervision of the Rev. G. A. Carstensen, formerly of this Diocese. Would that some one in this part of the world would visit it and have his spirit stirred to do something of the same nature for the elevation and Christianization of some portion of this great State. From the roof, with its arrangements for a summer garden, down through the various stories on which are successively a magnificent gymnasium, well-stored reading rooms for men and women, guild rooms for children, workshops and studies, where are taught stenography, type-writing, carpentering, telegraphy, sewing, kindergarten for little ones, a chapel for religious services, a mission hall for mission services, also a large assembly room for holding entertainments, and a restaurant at cheap rates for workmen. The building is in every respect most marvelously and ingeniously arranged, and is evidently doing a great deal of good work. In the evening I attended a reception given to the Bishop of Derry by the Rector of Trinity Church, when the Clergy of New York called to pay their respects.

March 16. Returned home.

March 17. Lecture on Christian Evidences, at Bishop Bowman Institute.

March 18. Many letters. Second lecture at the Bowman.

March 19. Office work. In the evening to Washington. Met the Vestry informally for a few minutes, and also the new Rector who is shortly to take charge, the Rev. Charles O'Meara, of Martin's Ferry, Ohio.

March 20. Third Sunday in Lent.—At Trinity Church, Washington, Litany and Holy Communion and an address to the congregation. In the afternoon drove to Canonsburg, where I read service and preached in a hall and then returned to Washington. In the evening at Trinity Church, Washington, again read service and preached.

March 21-25. Lectures at Bishop Bowman Institute.

March 26. In the evening, at the Church of the Holy Innocents, Leechburg, preached and confirmed five, presented by the Rev. Mr. Bragdon.

March 27. Mid-Lent Sunday.—In the same church baptized an infant, preached and celebrated Holy Communion. In the afternoon drove to Schenley, and thence by train to Ford City, where we held services in a hall and I confirmed three children, presented by the Rev. Mr. LaRoche. Thence drove to Kittanning, where, after service and sermon in St. Paul's Church, the same clergyman presented fourteen for confirmation. After service I confirmed a dying man in private.

March 28. At Oak Ridge, in the Church of the Good Shepherd, I preached and advanced to the Priesthood our faithful and well-beloved Deacon, the Rev. Joseph Barber. He was presented by the Rev. Mr. Bragdon, and all the Priests present united in the laying on of hands, namely, the Rev. Dr. Whyte, and the Rev. Messrs. Bragdon, Barnard, Rogers, Brooks and Hemenway. In the evening, at Fairmount, in a hall used by our mission, the service was read by the Rev. Messrs. Rogers and Barnard, who also made addresses, and I confirmed four, presented by the Rev. Mr. Barber, conferred with the people and started a building fund for a new church.

March 29. In the Lutheran church at Reynoldsville I preached, and afterwards conferred with the congregation. Here we have an excellent lot for a church.

March 30. In the evening, at the Church of Our Saviour, Du Bois, I preached and confirmed thirteen, presented by the Rev. Mr. Hemenway. Afterwards I baptized an adult and an infant. Also held a congregational meeting and talked over the plans of work for the future.

March 31. Journey to Johnsonburg, Elk County; a brisk new town, scarcely three years old. Here, in a hall, after service by the Rev. Dr. Ryan, I preached to a large congregation, and afterwards held a conference with our people, who number thirty or more. The Rev. Dr. Ryan will hold occasional services; a lot is promised us, and already eight candidates for confirmation have given in their names.

April 1. Calls in Johnsonburg in company with Rev. Dr. Ryan. He returned to Warren and I came on to Brockwayville, where I was met by the Rev. Dr. Whyte, of Brookville, and we had service in the evening in the hall where the few loyal Church people have held Sunday School for the year past, not having enjoyed the services of a clergyman in all that time. We had a good congregation and hearty singing, and the Bishop preached. Arrangements have been made for services in the near future by Rev. Dr. Whyte and Rev. Mr. Barber.

April 2. Journeyed to Pittsburgh, stopping off at DuBois for about two hours to talk over Church matters.

April 3. Fifth Sunday in Lent.—At Trinity Church, Pittsburgh, preached and confirmed twenty-one candidates, presented by the Rev. Mr. Arundel, two of them, however, being deaf mutes, presented by the Rev. A. W. Mann; celebrated Holy Communion. In the evening, at Grace Church, preached and confirmed nine persons, presented by the Rev. Mr. Coster.

April 4. Made a sick call at West Penn Hospital, also one in Allegheny. Attended noon service at Trinity Chapel. Many letters.

April 5. Much correspondence. Evening Prayer at Church of the Ascension. In the evening, meeting of the St. Barnabas' Guild at Christ Church, Allegheny.

April 6 and 7. Letters and conferences. Meeting American Institute of Civics on the 7th.

April 8. Journeyed to Myersdale. Called on our people there and gave the Holy Communion to an aged, blind Church of England woman. In the evening, in Trinity Church, read service, preached and confirmed one person, and afterwards made a call upon a sick child.

April 9. In the same church baptized an infant and celebrated Holy Communion. Then journeyed to Uniontown.

April 10. Palm Sunday.—In St. Peter's Church, Uniontown, preached and confirmed fifteen candidates, presented by Rev. Mr. Smith, and celebrated Holy Communion. In afternoon drove to Brownsville, and in the evening, at Christ Church, baptized an infant, preached and confirmed thirteen persons, presented by the Rev. Mr. Ensforth.

April 11. Monday in Holy Week.—Confirmed two persons in private and called on other Church people. Returned to Pittsburgh. Much correspondence. With sad heart gave letter dimissory to the Rev. Charles A. Bragdon to the Diocese of Western New York.

April 12. Tuesday in Holy Week.—In the evening at Chapel of Transfiguration, Beltzhoover, after service by the Rev. Mr. Arundel, the Bishop preached and confirmed sixteen persons, prepared and presented by the Lay Readers, who have had this mission in charge.

Th e chapel and the success attending it, witness to the value of Laymen's work, and redound to the credit of the Trinity Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, whose labor has been signally blessed. May their good example be infectious at many other points.

April 13. Wednesday in Holy Week.—Much office work. In the evening, at Emmanuel Church, Allegheny, I preached and confirmed twenty-three persons, presented by the Rev. Mr. Byllesby.

April 14. Maundy—Thursday. In the afternoon confirmed four persons at St. Stephen's Church, McKeesport, presented by the Rev. Mr. Foster.

In the evening, at St. Mark's Church, South Side, preached and confirmed twenty-three, presented by the Rev. Mr. Tarrant. Also, addressed the congregation concerning their prospects, which are much more encouraging than formerly. Also, conferred with the Vestry.

April 15. Good Friday.—At the Church of the Ascension, Pittsburgh, read service and preached. Afterwards conducted the Passion Service from 12:00 to 3:00. In the evening preached and confirmed two persons, presented by the Rev. Mr. Bates, at St. Stephen's Church, Wilkinsburg.

April 16. Easter Even.—Journeyed to Erie, and in the evening, after the benediction of memorial gifts, I confirmed twenty-six persons, presented by Rev. Mr. Huske.

April 17. Easter Day.—Preached and confirmed twelve at St. John's Church, Erie. In the afternoon attended the Sunday School Festival at Cross and Crown Church, Erie, and made an address. Later, addressed the Sunday Schools of St. Paul's and St. John's at St. Paul's Church. In the evening preached and confirmed twenty-six at the Cross and Crown.

April 18. Monday in Easter Week.—Celebrated Holy Communion at St. Paul's, Erie. Later, visited the Rector of the Holy Cross Church, North East, who has been and is quite ill, and administered the Holy Communion to him. In the evening attended the choir boys' feast at St. Paul's, Erie.

April 19. Tuesday in Easter Week.—Celebration of Holy Communion in St. Paul's. Long and very delightful conversation with the Rector of Meadville, who has finally decided not to remove at this time from the Diocese. Many visits in Erie.

April 20. To Miles' Grove, where I read service and preached in Grace Church in the evening.

April 21. Pastoral visits. Then to Conneautville. Read service and preached at Trinity Church, and gave the people their Easter Communion. In the evening, at St. Matthew's Church, Union City, preached and confirmed seven persons presented by the Rev. Mr. Cooper. Also, baptized an infant and confirmed the mother, in private.

April 22. To Oil City, where I took part in the service at evening, the occasion being a meeting of the Diocesan Assembly of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew. It was an interesting occasion, and the good people of Christ Church made it very pleasant, socially, for all who attended.

April 23. Preached at St. Peter's, Waterford. In the evening preached and confirmed six persons at Emmanuel Church, Corry.

April 24. Low Sunday.—Preached and celebrated Holy Communion at the same church. In the evening preached in St. James' Church, Titusville, and confirmed nine.

April 25. St. Mark's Day.—Drove to Townville, held service, preached and celebrated Holy Communion in Calvary Church. Made many pastoral visits. In the afternoon, accompanied by Rev. Mr. Schepeler, who is in charge of the Parish, we had service. I preached and confirmed four, and drove back to Titusville by midnight.

April 26. Journeyed to Tidioute, where I preached in the evening, in Christ Church, and confirmed eight persons, presented by the Rev. Mr. Curzon.

April 27. Took the train for Johnsonburg, accompanied by Rev. Dr. Ryan and Rev. Mr. Curzon; we held service in a hall at the unseasonable hour of 1:45 P. M., yet had a congregation of considerable size, and I confirmed seven persons, presented by Rev. Dr. Ryan, who also addressed the people. In the evening, at Trinity Church, Warren, I preached, addressed the congregation, and confirmed thirty candidates. After service, at the Rector's request, I addressed the parochial Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, and the Daughters of the King.

April 28. Made several visits in the Parish, and attended to correspondence. Confirmed two sick men. In the afternoon went with Dr. Ryan to Kinzua, where I preached and confirmed nine, in St. Luke's Church.

April 29. Celebrated Holy Communion in the same church. Then to Warren, where I confirmed two additional candidates at Trinity Church, making fifty in all presented this week by Rev. Dr. Ryan. Wrote letters. In the afternoon to Youngsville, where I preached in the evening at St. Saviour's Church, and met the members of the Executive Committee.

April 30. To Meadville.

May 1. St. Philip and St. James.—At Christ Church, Meadville, preached and celebrated Holy Communion. In the evening preached and confirmed twenty candidates.

May 2. Many letters and calls in the Parish. Confirmed an additional candidate. In the afternoon went to Franklin, where a session of the Northern Convocation was to be held. In the evening Rev. Mr. Stevenson preached the sermon, and I confirmed eight persons, presented by the Rev. Mr. Yewens.

May 3. Early celebration at St. John's Church. Session of the Convocation in the morning. In the afternoon to Greenville, where I preached in the evening, at St. Clement's Church, and confirmed eight persons, presented by the Rev. Mr. Keech.

May 4. Went to Sharon. Made some visits in the Parish in the afternoon. In the evening preached and confirmed five persons, presented by the Rev. Mr. Williams.

May 5. More calls in Sharon, then to Mercer on the way to New Castle. In the latter place preached in the evening, at Trinity Church, and confirmed a class of ten.

May 6. Returned home.

May 8. Third Sunday after Easter.—In the Church of the Good Shepherd at Hazelwood at morning service I confirmed sixteen persons and celebrated Holy Communion. Inspected the new church, now approaching completion. In the afternoon supplemental confirmation at St. Cyprian's Mission at Trinity Chapel. Rev. Mr. Wilmer preached, I confirmed four persons, prepared and presented by Mr. William R. Bratt, Lay Reader, who has been most faithful in his care of St. Cyprian's Mission for several years. In the evening I made an appeal in behalf of the Church Home at their anniversary meeting in St. Peter's Church.

May 9. Letters and conferences. Calls in Allegheny. Meeting Trustees Western University. In the evening monthly meeting of Laymen's League.

May 10. Much office work. Meeting American Institute of Civics. In the evening the St. Barnabas' Guild for Nurses at the Church of the Ascension.

May 13. Heard to day of the very sudden death of the Rev. Richard S. Smith necessitating a change in my Sunday appointments.

May 14. Journeyed to Uniontown. Met Vestry in the evening.

May 15. Fourth Sunday after Easter.—Met the Sunday School of St. Peter's Church, and had a service with them, addressing them. Later, in the church said the Litany and celebrated Holy Communion with the stricken congregation. Also read Evening Prayer at 5 o'clock, made various calls at Rectory and in the Parish.

May 16. Preparations for the funeral. Burial service took place at 2 o'clock. There were present the Rev. Messrs. Taylor, Norman, Hodges, Ensworth and Fidler.

May 17. To Red Bank, where, however, I found service had been postponed, and I returned to Kittanning, where I made some Parish calls and attended to some correspondence.

May 18. Rev. Mr. LaRoche drove me sixteen miles to St. Michael's Church'

Wayne, where we had a good attendance of the farming people and a delightful and hearty service. I preached and confirmed two persons, presented by the Rev. Mr. Dimmick, and celebrating Holy Communion, also addressed the congregation concerning the erection of a new chapel, upon which I found they had set their hearts and for which already a subscription of $1,600 had been raised. It was a pleasant surprise to me, the people having shown their willingness to give very largely in proportion to their means, ought to have encouragement from the people in our well established Parishes. I have promised them at least $200 already and hope that others will do likewise. After service we had our accustomed luncheon on the grass in front of the church, and I had opportunity to meet the people. Afterwards made two calls at houses not very far from the church, and then drove back to Kittanning. In the evening, at St. Paul's Church, Kittanning, I confirmed four candidates.

May 19. In the evening, at the Church of our Father, at Foxburg, we had a delightful service. The church was full, the music and responses hearty, and everything seemed promising and prosperous under the guidance of the new incumbent, the Rev. Mr. Stevenson. I first addressed the congregation concerning cause for postponement of visitation, then preached and confirmed a class of eighteen. The larger portion of which was composed of men, a notable fact which led me not only to address the candidates themselves but also the congregation.

May 20. Returned to Pittsburgh. Much correspondence. Gave letter dimissory to the Rev. F. Woolcott to the Diocese of London. In the evening attended the meeting of the Local Assembly of the Brotherhood of St. Peter's Church.

May 21. In the evening, at St. Luke's Church, Georgetown, preached and confirmed five, presented by the Rev. Mr. Taylor.

May 22. Rogation Sunday.--After an early communion at the same church, drove to St. Paul's Church, Fairview (Ohioville), where I was met by the Rev. Mr. Beagen, who, with the Rev. Mr. Taylor, assisted in the service. The Bishop preached and celebrated Holy Communion. In the afternoon drove with Mr. Beagen to Beaver Falls, where I preached in the evening at St. Mary's Church and confirmed sixteen.

May 23-24. Much office work and visits in Pittsburgh. Conference with a Methodist minister, desirous of coming into the Church.

May 25. Busy with preparations for Convention. Meeting of Trustees of the Diocese.

May 26. Ascension Day--Festival service at the Church of the Ascension. The Rev. Dr. McConnell preached and I celebrated Holy Communion. In the afternoon, at Trinity, I held a supplemental confirmation at which time four candidates were presented from Trinity Church, Pittsburgh, one from Church of the Good Shepherd, Hazelwood, and one from St. Stephen's Church, Wilkinsburg. In the evening, at St. Barnabas' Church, Tarentum, I preached and confirmed three.

May 27. Journeyed to Oil City. Made some pastoral visits in the afternoon, and in the evening at Christ Church preached and confirmed twenty-seven candidates. It is always a pleasure to see the prosperity and harmony that characterizes this Parish under the efficient Rectorship of the Rev. Mr. Brooks.

May 28. Returned to Pittsburgh, presided at a meeting of the Trustees of the Diocese in the afternoon, and then on to Rochester.

May 29. Sunday after Ascension Day.--At Trinity Church, Rochester, addressed the Sunday School, preached, confirmed four candidates and celebrated Holy Communion. In the evening drove to New Brighton, preached in Christ Church, and afterwards conferred with the Vestry.

May 30. Much office work.

May 31. Preparations this day and all the week for the meeting of Convention. In the evening, at St. Mark's Church, in Johnstown, I confirmed fourteen candidates and made an address to the congregation and also conferred with the Vestry, and returned to Pittsburgh at midnight.

June 1. Musical service at Calvary Church, Pittsburgh.

June 5. Whitsunday.--At St. Paul's Church, Monongahela, I preached and celebrated Holy Communion. Confirmed eleven candidates. In the afternoon, at Charleroi, held service and preached in a hall. Confirmed eleven persons, presented by Rev. Dr. Norman, who has charge of this mission. It makes my heart heavy to see what glorious opportunities we are losing at such places as Charleroi, Wilmerding, Jeannette, etc. No one comes to our help with a generous offer to do anything for the establishment and maintenance of the Church in these rapidly growing places.

June 6. Monday in Whitsun Week.—Meeting of Trustees of Western University. In the evening officiated at a marriage in Allegheny. Received the Rev. J. F. Milbank from Louisiana.

June 7. Tuesday in Whitsun Week.—Commencement of the Bishop Bowman Institute at Trinity Church, on which occasion the address was made by the Rev. Henry Mottet, Rector of the Church of the Holy Communion, New York. Eleven young ladies graduated from the Institution. In the afternoon presided at a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions. In the evening, a meeting in behalf of the Woman's Auxiliary in Trinity Church. Also, monthly meeting of St. Barnabas' Guild for Nurses. Later, reception at the Bishop Bowman Institute.

June 8. Opening services of Annual Convention. Celebrated the Holy Communion.

PASTORAL LETTER.

TO THE CLERGY, SUPERINTENDENTS, TEACHERS, PARENTS AND CHILDREN OF THE DIOCESE :

Dear Brethren and Helpers :

The time has again come round for the mite boxes, and they will be distributed immediately. Last year they brought to our Missionary Treasury at Easter time over $2,600, and provided salaries for our two general missionaries, who have been hard at work all the year. I am sure that the children can do as well, and even better, this year. The work is increasing; multitudes of people are moving into the Diocese; new towns are becoming prominent; our population numbers about two millions of people; our opportunities of doing good are many and the need urgent.

I wish that a map of the Diocese could be hung in every Sunday School room. Such a map, mounted and ready for hanging on the wall, will be furnished to every Rector or Superintendent. The children, seeing it, will learn more about the extent and needs of the missionary work in that portion of the field which is committed to our care.

Let us all diligently work and give and pray in this behalf from now until Easter, and may our offerings this year be larger than ever before. We can most profitably make use of all that is given.

Praying God's blessing upon your self-denials and gifts and labors, I am

Faithfully, Your Bishop and Servant in the Lord,

CORTLANDT WHITEHEAD.

N. B.—All Mite Boxes should be distributed certainly by Quinquagesima Sunday, referred to and asked about constantly during the weeks intervening, and opened on Easter Day. Please send the amounts promptly thereafter to the Treasurer, Mr. H. L. Foster, Oil City, Pa. We need at least $2,700 this year.

BISHOP'S HOUSE, EPIPHANY TIDE, 1892.

Rules of Order.

For conducting the business of the Convention of the Diocese of Pittsburgh, which shall not be suspended, altered or rescinded without one day's previous notice, unless by an affirmative vote of two-thirds :

A. — ORDER OF BUSINESS.

First Day—Morning.

I. At the opening of the Convention the Holy Communion shall be celebrated, which, being ended, the Convention shall be called to order by the Bishop, or in case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or of the absence of the Bishop, or his inability to act, by the President or Senior Presbyter present of the Standing Committee.

II. The Secretary of the last Convention, or, in his absence, some other person appointed by the Bishop, or the officer presiding, shall then call the names of the clergymen according to the list prepared under the provisions of Canon 1. He shall, also, having previously made a list thereof, call the names of all the Lay Deputies claiming to represent Parishes entitled to representation at the last Convention, who shall have furnished him with certificates, in due form, of their election to this Convention. And the list of names thus made by him shall be prima facie evidence of a right to a seat in the Convention.

The Convention shall then, if necessary, proceed to elect a President, pro tempore, from the Presbyters present

III. The Convention having been thus organized, the first business thereafter shall be the election of a Secretary. The Secretary may appoint an Assistant Secretary.

IV. The President shall then appoint the following regular committees.

1 On the Claims of Clergymen to seats in the Convention ; to consist of three Clergymen.

2. On the Claims of Lay Deputies to seats in the Convention ; to consist of three Laymen.

3. On the Admission of Parishes into Union with the Convention ; to consist of one Clergyman and two Laymen.

4. On the State of the Church ; to consist of three Clergymen and two Laymen.

5. On Unfinished Business ; to consist of one Clergyman and two Laymen.

The Committee on the State of the Church shall continue from one Convention to the next.

V. The Bishop's Address. But if not then delivered, it shall be in order at any time thereafter.

VI. Reports of the Standing Committee and of the Finance Committee of the Diocese, to be presented and laid on the Secretary's table without debate.

VII. Motions, Notices and Resolutions, not giving rise to debate, shall then be in order.

VIII. Miscellaneous business.

First Day of the Session—Afternoon.

I. Nominations of the various officers to be chosen by ballot.

II. At 3:30 P. M. Convention to sit as a Board of Missions to review and act on the Report of the Executive Committee.

III. Unfinished business.

IV. Miscellaneous business.

Second and Each Succeeding Day.

I. Divine Service as may be ordered or set forth by the Bishop.

II. The reading, correcting and approving the Minutes of the preceding day.

III. Calling the names of absent members, and entering in the Journal the names of those who appear.

IV. The Convention may then take up and dispose of miscellaneous business till 10 o'clock.

V. At 10 o'clock, elections.

VI. Reports from Regular and Special Committees in order.

VII. Miscellaneous business.

B.—GENERAL RULES.

I. The Convention shall meet at 9 o'clock A. M., take a recess from 1 to 3 P. M., and adjourn for the day at 6 o'clock P. M. ; Provided, That the House shall not at any time be considered as adjourned without a vote to that effect.

II. All Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church and of Churches in full communion with the same, candidates for Holy Orders, and the Vestry of the church in which the Convention is held, shall be admitted to the sittings of the Convention, and on reporting themselves to the Secretary, their names shall be entered on the Journal.

III. Of elections by ballot :

a. Tickets shall be printed with all the names proposed, and the election shall take place the following day ; the voting to be by erasing the names of those for whom the members do not wish to vote ; but the Supplemental Deputies to the General Convention shall not be nominated or voted for until the election of the Deputies shall have been completed. Provided, however, that should no more names be put in nomination for any office than are to be voted for, the Convention may proceed at once to the election for such office.

b. When there shall be a failure to elect on the first trial, the balloting shall, upon the second trial be confined to the three candidates who received the largest number of votes ; and upon failure to elect upon the second trial, the balloting shall, upon the third trial, be confined to the two candidates who received the largest number of votes upon the second trial.

c. On counting the ballot, such person or persons shall be held to have obtained the concurrent vote of both Orders, and therefore declared elected by the Convention, who shall be found to have been elected by the vote of each Order considered apart from that of the other.

IV. The Committee on the State of the Church shall prepare and present to the next annual Convention, before its final adjournment, a condensed report and tabular statement of the state of the Church within the Diocese, to be published with the Journal. And for this purpose the Bishop's Annual Address and all Parochial Reports shall be referred to this committee. Provided, nevertheless, that such reference shall not prevent the referring of any part of the Bishop's Address to a special committee.

V. Before the final adjournment of any session of the Convention the minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read, corrected and approved, after which the Convention shall close with such religious services as the President may direct.

C.—RULES OF ORDER.

I. No motion shall be put or debated until it is seconded, and when seconded, it shall be stated by the President before it is voted on ; and every motion, when required, shall be reduced to writing.

II. If the question in debate contains several distinct propositions, any member may have the same divided.

III. When a question is under consideration, no motion shall be received, unless to lay upon the table, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone to a certain time, to commit or to amend ; and motions for any of these purposes shall have precedence in the order herein named. If a motion to lay on the table an amendment be carried, the matter before the Convention shall be proceeded with as if no such an amendment had been offered.

The motions to lay upon the table and to adjourn shall be decided without debate. The motion to adjourn shall always be in order.

IV. On a question being put by the President it shall be determined by the sound of voices for or against it ; but any member may require the count of the votes, and tellers for that purpose shall be appointed by the Chair ; or any three votes may, previous to a decision by count, require the ayes and nays to be taken, which shall be done by calling the names of the clerical members and then of the lay members ; and all votes by ayes and nays shall be entered on the minutes.

V. A question once decided shall not be reconsidered during the same session without an affirmative vote of two-thirds, nor without a motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on the prior decision ; nor shall any question be reconsidered more than once.

VI. All questions of order shall be decided by the presiding officer, subject to an appeal to the House.

D.—RULES OF ORDER AT THE ELECTION OF A BISHOP OF THIS DIOCESE.

The election of a Bishop for this Diocese shall be made in Convention in the following manner :

1. First of all, the President of the Convention shall, in the hearing of the Convention, read Article XI of the Constitution, and also these Rules of Order, that all may prepare themselves for the duty about to be performed. Then he shall read the form of testimonials which are to be signed in behalf of the Bishop-elect, and shall then announce that nominations will then be next in order.

2. During the making and discussing of nominations the Convention shall go into Committee of the Whole, and shall sit with closed doors. When the Committee has risen the Chairman shall report its action to the Convention, after which any member may make a personal nomination, but without comment or discussion. When all things are ready, all present shall be called to prayer, the Veni Creator shall be said, and other supplications added by the President of the Convention, followed by silent prayer and the Lord's Prayer.

3. Then the tellers having taken their places, the names of the Clergy shall be called, all other voices being suppressed. The tellers shall count the ballots aloud in open Convention, silence being maintained by the assembly while this is done. The ballots being counted, the tellers shall report, and the President shall declare the result.

4. After a nomination shall thus have been duly made by a constitutional majority vote of the Clergy, the vote of the Lay order shall be taken in like manner as above provided, in approval or non-approval of such nomination.

5. When an election shall be complete, prayers and praises may be offered. But if there be no nomination by the Clergy, or a vote of non-approval by the Laity, new ballotings must be made with all solemnity as before, until by God's Holy Spirit a Bishop be duly chosen and declared elected.

6. No word of comment as to any nomination, or in praise or censure of any Clergyman shall be in order except in Committee of the Whole upon call of any three members of the Convention, save only when the balloting is in progress.

7. These Rules of Order shall not be set aside except by a vote of two-thirds in both Orders.
